Report of Chief of Police

---

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

I herewith submit to you my report for the year ending December 5, 1927.

It is with regret that I report an overdraft in the Police Department for the past year which was due to my unfortunate illness and the necessity of extra men for duty at the Airdrome during the stay of the several Trans-Atlantic fliers who were here during the year.

In view of these events which will no doubt continue each year and the increasing demand for more patrolling, I recommend the appropriation of $8,000 to this department for the ensuing year.

Arrests as follows:

Vagrancy	66
Assault and battery	7
Larceny	17
Breaking and entering	5
Intoxication	37
Illegal transportation	1
Disturbing peace	1
Attempt robbery	1
Search and seizure	1
Passing counterfeit money	3
Fraud	1
Fugitive from justice	1
Operating without a license	4
Reckless driving	3
Speeding	5
Drunken driving	1
Juvenile delinquency	1
Total	155

Respectfully submitted,

FRED'K H. GOOGINS,

Chief of Police.

Auditor's Report

---

Old Orchard, Maine, January 24, 1928.

To the Legal Voters of the Town of Old Orchard:

This is to certify that I have examined the accounts of the Selectmen, Assessors, Overseers of the Poor, Treasurer, Collector of Taxes, and the Treasurer of the Public Library for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1927, and am pleased to state that I find them correct, and vouched for properly.

(MRS.) NORAH PERKINS,

Auditor.

Board of Health Report

---

By alert inspection of streets and back yards, that they may be free from all nuisances, by guarding carefully the handling of all food consumed by the people, by enforcing quarantine with those taken with contagious disease, so as to check the spread of any troublesome epidemic, and by giving close attention to all plumbing done throughout the town, to see that it is done according to the requirements of the State law, the Board seeks to maintain the best possible sanitary conditions all over the town.

Throughout the year the Board has done its best to respond to all complaints from householders and others in regard to unsanitary conditions and nuisances, and have given vigilant inspection, setting them right so far as possible.

Garbage has been well taken care of by the men contracting for it, except that there were many complaints from the Ocean Park section during the first half of the season. It is gratifying to note that the metal container for garbage, required by law, has come into very general use by householders.

The Board has been vigilant in the inspection of food in groceries, fruit stands and eating places, requiring the screening of all rooms where food is served. Grocers and fruit sellers have been required to keep all goods, displayed outside their stores, 18 inches up from the sidewalk, out of the way of stray cats and dogs,

Through its Health Officer the Board has issued health certificates to 750 (seven hundred and fifty) persons handling the food of the Town. Upwards of 50 persons brought health certificates from other towns, so that we had approximately 800 food handlers in town during the summer.

The Health Officer reports the following contagious disease cases during the year:

Measles, 5 cases.

German Measles, 9 cases.

Whooping Cough, 2 cases.

Chicken Pox, 7 cases.

Tuberculosis, 1 case.

Syphilis, 1 case.

In connection with the above the Health Officer has made 54 calls on school children sent home and reported by the teachers as possible cases of contagious disease.

PLUMBING

This is the first year that the Board of Health has given attention to the matter of plumbing. When the new plumbing laws came into force last spring it was difficult to know just how to apply them. However, after due consideration by the Town Officials, it seemed best to adopt the new State Code as a whole. This new Code, with two sections meeting further requirements of the State laws, make up what constitutes the Plumbing Ordinances of the Town of Old Orchard.

These Ordinances were published in due form, and approved by Supreme Judicial Court Justice Dunn. They were also placed on file with the Town Clerk of Old Orchard.

Under these ordinances, the Board has issued 48 plumbing permits, and made 58 plumbing inspections. For this clerical work and the inspections no appropriation was made at our last Annual Meeting. This matter, as well as the licensing of plumbers, ought to receive attention at our next annual meeting, March 5th, 1928.

Respectfully submitted,

H. F. MULLEN,
ALBERT ARMSTRONG,

Board of Health.

School Report

---

To the Board of Education and the Citizens of Old Orchard:

Any modern plan of education aims to prepare the pupil to fit into an increasingly complex social situation. To teach the child to think as well as to memorize; to form correct habits and attitudes toward society, citizenship and work; at all times to consider your child as an individual and to preserve and strengthen the aptitudes and abilities with which heredity has endowed him; these and other educational endeavors have been reflected in these reports and our classrooms.

In the administration of this program, it has been like wise our aim always to study the existing plan scientifically and from time to time to suggest changes,—sometimes an addition and sometimes the dropping of some feature which has not proved its usefulness. Education is dynamic. The aims remain much the same but the materials and methods differ as the social situation changes.

Finally, always remembering that the schools depend on public taxation, it has been our aim to make the best possible use of all facilities and of the particular abilities of the members of the teaching staff.

Enrollment and Attendance

It is gratifying to note that efforts along the lines indicated above have resulted in increasing the holding power of the schools, so that more pupils are now going out into adult citizenship with a greater general education. This may be seen from a comparison of the school enrollment in 1927 and 1917:

	1917	1927	Gain
Grades 1-6	93	148	59 p. c.
Grades 7-12	59	104	78 p. c.

The gain in grades 1-6 represents the growth in the school population; the gain in the upper grades represents the greater holding power of the schools. Perhaps this is the more significant because it was just ten years ago that we began to shape our organization along the lines of the junior-senior high school plan.

While considering this enrollment it may be worth while to give a word to the question of attendance and tardiness of the pupils.

Regularity of attendance and punctuality are obviously necessary if a pupil is to gain the greatest benefit from school attendance.

This does not mean that a pupil or his parents should make an idol of perfect attendance to be attained regardless of the physical condition of the child. The parent should carefully consider the health of the child and if he is not in suitable physical condition to attend as for instance in very inclement weather, consideration of his health should come first. On the other hand, nothing other than physical condition or a real emergency should be permitted to break into regularity of attendance.

There is rarely a good cause for tardiness. Pupils should be expected to take all the precautions that any reasonably careful person would take to be on time. They should take into account each day the possible causes of delay and aim to overcome them. Except in very few situations is the so-called "excuse" for tardiness other than an "alibi," reflecting that the pupil,—or sometimes his parents,—have been careless. All parents are urged during the coming months to co-operate with the school authorities in obtaining a better record for punctuality on the part of the pupils.

Academic Adjustment

One special effort now going on is intensification of the work in language in both the elementary and the high schools. An experimental special course in English to correct the deficiencies of various pupils in the high school is being tried. If it proves valuable, it will probably lead to further intensification along similar lines in other subjects.

Health

In connection with home economics, a new course has been organized in home nursing. In conducting this course the teacher has had the enthusiastic cooperation of Miss Edna Avery and Miss I. C. Johansen of the York County Public Health Service.

The home economics department has also provided a hot dish during noon recess for pupils' lunches.

The usual health examinations have been conducted by Dr. Pepper and Dr. Brown in cooperation with Miss Johansen.

Throughout the year, Mr. Armstrong, as a member of both the Board of Health and the Board of Education, has greatly assisted and encouraged the development of our health program.

Our accomplishments and aims along health lines will be more fully discussed in the appended reports of Principal Jewett, Dr. Brown and Miss Johansen.

Athletics

It is gratifying that a committee has been appointed to consider the possibility of erecting a building which will provide suitable quarters for indoor athletics for the pupils. It is earnestly hoped that a favorable report will be presented and favorably acted upon at the Annual Meeting. May we again affirm our belief that such a building would probably be self-supporting in the summer, thus providing facilities without cost during the school year?

Community Service

Believing that community service training is of great importance, we are happy to note that all grades of the Old Orchard schools belong to the Junior Red Cross and that many of our boys belong to the local Scout Troop. The fact that W. Warren Harmon and Clyde R. L. Snow, former members of the Board of Education, and Principal Frank H. Jewett are associated with the scout organization, has greatly stimulated scout work among the boys in our upper grades.

Thrift Encouragement

Since February 4, 1924, our schools have had a School Bank conducted by pupils of the high school in co-operation with Miss Donaldson of the Saco & Biddeford Savings Institution. During this time the pupils of the Old Orchard schools have made a total deposit of $2,731.09.

Staff

It will be remembered that the schools opened in September, 1926, with six new teachers in a total staff of eleven. It is gratifying to note that these new teachers have consistently shown the efficiency, cooperative attitude, and professional spirit which mark our teachers. Last September we were fortunate in having only two changes. We were sorry to lose the departing teachers but the experienced teachers who were obtained to take their places are proving of the type we are glad to place in charge of our children.

It is also fitting to specially commend Mr. Bernard, the janitor, for his efficiency in keeping the school buildings in good condition and for his cooperative attitude in his contacts with the entire staff.

Equipment

A new fence has added materially to the appearance of the school center. New desks of the modern movable type have been placed in the freshman room of the high school. A new "slide" has been added to the playground. This was purchased through the efforts of the school. Two pianos, one temporarily loaned and the other being provided through the efforts of the teachers, have been added to the equipment of the elementary school. These have been of inestimable value in the advancement of the musical program. Through the generosity of Dr. Pepper, a bed has been added to the equipment of the health room.

Finances

Again this year it has been possible to conduct the schools with a balance at the end of the year, due to unexpected opportunities for economy and increased state allowances. Perhaps it should again be noted, however, that because a business board has been able to make unexpected savings, it should not be penalized by any reduction in the carefully estimated requests for the coming year.

Recommendations

As in recent reports, the major recommendation for the year is that manual training be added to the elementary and high school programs. By manual training we do not mean an intensive trade course in mechanics. It should be rather a course giving the boy a background valuable at home or in industry; a "try-out" course in which the boy may determine whether he is fitted for mechanical pursuits; a course in which he can put into practice and see a motive for many of the things he learns in academic subjects, giving an incentive for better work in the whole school program and, above all, a course which will develop neatness, accuracy, self-reliance, and a proper regard for order and concentration.

Thus, subject to the approval of definite plans by the Board of Education, it is respectfully recommended:

1. That a cement floor be laid in the basement of the elementary school building.
2. That part of the space so provided be set off as a special room for manual training.
3. That funds be provided for the purchase of minimum equipment for these courses.
4. That arrangements be made for the employment of a whole or part time instructor to teach these courses.

In closing I wish to express my appreciation of the courteous and cooperative manner in which the members of the Board of Education and the teaching staff have considered and assisted in the various developments during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

F. H. B. HEALD,
Superintendent of Schools.

To the Superintendent of Schools:

The registration for the fall term in the last four years of our Junior-Senior High School was 56. Five years ago the registration for the same four grades was 29. By this you will see that the growth in the high school has been nearly 100 per cent in the last five years. What is true of the high school is also true to a great extent of the lower grades. Our attendance for the past year has maintained a good average. I wish to call the matter of tardiness to your attention. I believe this should be given serious consideration by the parents and that an effort should be made to keep the number of instances as low as possible.

This year we instituted a custom of posting the names of the students whose rank fell in one of three honor divisions, namely:

Highest Honor	90 to 100
High Honor	80 to 90
Honors	average rank of 80

That this served to create special interest will be clearly seen in the following results:

First Six Weeks
Group I, 90 to 100	Group II, 80 to 90	Group III, Av. of 80
	A. Conant	H. Brown
	G. Kondow	N. Fitzgibbon
	P. Miles	W. Wood
Second Six Weeks
	A. Conant	R. Cleaves
	P. Miles	M. Leger
	N. Fitzgibbon	R. Sawyer
		D. Snow
Third Six Weeks
	D. Snow	R. Cleaves
	A. Conant	V. Sutherland
	H. Kane	M. Leger
	P. Miles	L. Lombard
	N. Fitzgibbon	H. Brown
		W. Mingo
		W. Wood

Our health program which has been one of the important factors in our school life for the past seven years has been carried on this year as usual. We have had both dental and medical inspections. In addition we have had the very able assistance of Miss Johansen, the York County Nurse, in doing special work with the pupils. Under her direction each pupil has been weighed and measured and given sight and hearing tests. After the examinations are completed suggestions for needed corrections are made and a considerable amount of follow-up work carried on. The course in Home Nursing, which has been under the direction of Miss Johansen, has been a very valuable one to the girls.

During the past year the elementary school department gave a play and entertainment from which they realized about seventy dollars. This sum was used to purchase a slide for the play ground equipment. Last fall a piano was purchased for use in the elementary building. This has already been partly paid for by money raised by the school. Both the teachers and myself appreciate the splendid spirit of cooperation and helpfulness given by the parents and citizens in supporting these outside activities.

Much time this year has been devoted to solving individual problems. We have endeavored to fit our course of study to meet the greatest needs of the largest number of pupils.

The one outstanding need in our school is a course in manual training for the boys. I sincerely hope some course may be taken up soon that will meet this need if only in a small way.

In closing let me state that the loyal support and hearty cooperation which you, the Superintending School Committee, parents and citizens have accorded us as your teachers is deeply appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK H. JEWETT,

Principal.

REPORT OF THE NURSING WORK

To the Superintendent of Schools:

The annual inspection for the school this year was made January 4, 1928. Dr. Pepper made inspection of the throats at that time, the nurse accompanying him. Dr. Brown gave the dental inspection. The following report includes their clinical findings as well as the other inspection, such as testing eyes and ears and weighing and measuring done by the nurse:

The number inspected this year was 205. There were 39 who had abnormal throat conditions, 4 had defective hearing, 68 needed immediate dental care, 24 had defective vision. There were 16 corrections of abnormal throat conditions, 12 of the teeth and 5 of the eyes. Four children were found to have suspicious lung conditions. Twenty-eight were more than 10 per cent under and 9 were more than 20 per cent over the average weight for height and age. Red tags were given to all pupils who were either more than 10 per cent underweight or more than 20 per cent overweight. Green tags were given to those who were between 7 and 10 per cent under and 15 and 20 per cent over, and white tags to those who were nearly or exactly the average weight.

Health talks have been given in every room, also posture drills to promote better sitting, standing and walking positions.

To encourage the pupils to be 100 per cent physically, a contest is promoted by the Maine Public Health Association in which a "Six-point" Button is given to the children who are 100 per cent throughout the year. Already we are glad to report 22 who, if they continue in the same condition, will in May, Child Health Month, secure this button. We hope that others will join them as they get corrections made thus becoming 100 per cent. The enthusiasm for health seems to be great among the children and we hope many more will be "Six-point" children.

In cooperation with the teacher in the Department of Home Economics, classes in Home Nursing with demonstration have been given to a small group of girls in the High School. Although the class started with only six, one of whom moved away, there is scarcely a week but there are as many as 10 to 14 present for at least a part of the time, or as long as their other classes will permit. The girls seem to be very much interested. A health room has been fitted up in the new building and the classes are held there except when it becomes necessary to use heat. These classes have been held, one each week covering two periods, since October, when demonstrations began, and will close in February. The five pupils, who are officially enrolled, are eligible to a certificate from the National American Red Cross by whom the course is directed and with the County Nurse as Red Cross Instructor. Altogether the nurse has spent four whole days at the school besides the class instruction and miscellaneous visits to schools and several other places, as well as many home visits.

A Health Talk was given in cooperation with the State Department of Health by Dr. G. H. Coombs, Director of Communicable Disease Division. This talk was given to the boys and girls of the Junior High and High schools in segregated groups.

A Health Talk was given to the Women's Club by the Nurse, about 20 being present.

The school program for this year in the Maine Public Health Association is to promote as many "Six-point" children as possible. A "Six-point" child is one who measures up to the minimum standards as indicated by physical inspection of the following points:

1. Vision—Child should be able to read a line marked 20 at a distance of 20 feet or have glasses fitted properly.
2. Child should hear whispered voice at a distance of 20 feet.
3. Child should have teeth that are reasonably clean and no unfilled cavities in them.
4. Child has no symptoms of trouble with throat or nasal obstruction and is not a mouth breather.
5. Child does not weigh more than 10 per cent under the average or more than 20 per cent over the average for height and age.
6. Child has excellent posture in sitting, walking and standing.

We ask your cooperation in helping your town to have as many "Six-point" children as possible. A healthy child is the town's greatest asset.

Respectfully submitted,

I. C. JOHANSEN, R. N.,

Staff Nurse, Maine Public Health Asso., for York County.

DENTAL EXAMINER'S REPORT TO SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

I herewith tender my report as Dental Inspector for the Old Orchard Schools for year 1927-1928.

The inspection this year convinced me that the parents of Old Orchard, who realize the importance of the healthy, clean mouth, in the preservation of good health, its necessity for perfect physical development and mental attainment are giving the mouths of their children thoughtful consideration and care.

Of the two hundred and seven children examined by me thirty-two had their teeth without a cavity, twelve of them had one cavity each, twenty-one had two cavities each and fourteen had three each.

Thus seventy-nine of the two hundred and seven were in very excellent condition and with very small amount of attention may be considered perfect dentally.

If I could but complete my report thus, but one hundred and twenty-two of these children had from four to fourteen cavities each and six had from fourteen to seventeen cavities while many of these children had one or more alveolar abscesses.

Every alveolar abscess discharges pus directly into the bloodstream or into the mouth and thus poisons the bloodstream by the digestive tract.

May I ask is it right to spend your public money for the mental development of your children and to neglect the physical well-being of these same children?

Respectfully submitted,

CECIL P. BROWN.
