

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FINE OFFICES TO LET

in the First National Bank Building.

APPLY AT THE BANK.

DYE HOUSE NOTICE, NO. 3.

NOW IS THE TIME TO HAVE YOUR

FADED OR SOILED

GARMENTS

Renovated for Winter. Take them to

Foster's Forest City Dye House

NO. 13 PREBLET.

Tailors' Pressmen Employed.

W. D. LEE & CO.,

Absolutely Pure.

GENERAL INSURANCE AGENCY.

Established in 1843.

NO. 31 EXCHANGE STREET.

All kinds of property insured at lowest rates.

First-class companies, American and Foreign.

CAUCUSES.

WESTBROOK.

The Republicans of Westbrook are requested to meet at the school house, on Thursday, March 1st, at 7:30 p. m., to nominate candidates for State Officers, and to choose Town Committee. By order Town Committee.

Westbrook, Feb. 25, 1888.

AUCTION SALES.

F. O. BAILEY & CO.

Auctioneers and Commission Merchants.

Salesroom 18 Exchange Street.

F. O. BAILEY. C. W. ALLEN.

OF Manchester, Eng.

United States Patent, Jan. 1, 1888, as rendered to the Insurance Department of the State of New York.

Assets.

United States bonds (market value), $1,478,447.50

United States bonds (face value), $1,478,447.50

Premiums in course of collection, $109,418.48

Total, $1,587,865.98

Liabilities.

Outstanding losses, $71,211.28

Unpaid premiums, $75,028.24

Other liabilities, $10,000.00

Total, $156,249.52

Net surplus, $1,431,616.46

Expenses, $1,232,322.92

E. LITCHFIELD, Manager.

JAMES R. B. & CO., Sub-Agent.

Chief Office in United States, 40 & 42 PINE ST., NEW YORK.

THOS. H. RILEY,

AGENT,

BRUNSWICK, ME.

ASK FOR

LIEBIG COMPANY'S

EXTRACT OF MEAT

and insist upon no other being substituted for it.

N. B. Genuine only. Beware of cheap imitations.

For Liebig's signature in BLUE INK across label.

Sold by Storekeepers, Grocers and Druggists.

JAMES R. B. & CO., HONOLULU.

TASWY CHEMISTS, London, England.

EPPE'S COCOA.

BEWARE OF

By a thorough knowledge of the natural law which governs life, Eppe's Cocoa is a valuable food and a perfect substitute for meat. It is a perfect food for the weak and dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

It is a perfect food for the weak and

dying, and a perfect substitute for meat.

MISCELLANEOUS.

BARKER AND BAKER

Talk to the Jury about Stain and

Crownwell.

The Case as Viewed by the Counsel

on Each Side.

Probability That This Will be the Last Day of the Trial.

BANGOR, March 1.—The evidence on both sides, in the Stain and Crownwell trial, is now all in and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court house today to hear what the lawyers have to say to the jury in regard to the stories of the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

BARKER AND BAKER

Talk to the Jury about Stain and

Crownwell.

The Case as Viewed by the Counsel

on Each Side.

Probability That This Will be the

Last Day of the Trial.

BANGOR, March 1.—The evidence on both sides, in the Stain and Crownwell trial, is now all in and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

The interest in the case is still intense, and

everybody has been crowding to the court

house today to hear what the lawyers have

to say to the jury in regard to the stories of

the various witnesses, which have so often

conflicted.

People going to and from the court room

talk now and then on the other side of

the street, and the arguments have begun.

PORTLAND, MAINE, FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 2, 1888.

DEMOCRATIC TRAFFIC REVISION.

The Proposed Bill Increasing the Free List About $22,250,000.

Wool, Lumber and Salt Among the Additions.

An Estimated Reduction of Revenue of About $55,000,000.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Chairman of the Ways and Means committee today submitted to the full committee the tariff bill upon which the Democratic members have been at work for several months. The bill was immediately made public. The bill in full is as follows:

Be it enacted, etc., that the first day of July, 1888, the following articles mentioned in this section, when imported, shall be exempt from duty: Timber, hewn and squared, and timber used for spars and in building manufactured specially enumerated or provided for; sawed boards, planks, deals and shingles, of any size, thickness or width; wheels, spurs, shafts, blocks, wagon blocks and all like blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

sawn or sawed into blocks of sticks, rough-

THE PRESS

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 2.

We do not read an enemy's letters and communications. The name and address of the writer is in all cases published, and the publication is a guarantee of good faith. We cannot undertake to return or preserve communications that are not used.

FOR MAYOR, Charles J. Chapman

A REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

will be held in

NOROMBEA HALL, Bangor,

Thursday, April 26, 1888, at 11 o'clock

a. m.

For the purpose of selecting two candidates for

Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and for delegates to the National Convention, to be held at Chicago, Illinois, on Tuesday, June

10th, 1888, and transacting any other business that may properly come before it.

The basis of representation will be as follows:

Each city, town and plantation will be entitled to one delegate, and for each seventy-five votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1884, an additional delegate, and for a fraction of forty votes in excess of seventy-five votes, an ad-dional delegate.

The State Committee will be in session in the reception room of the Hall at nine o'clock on the morning of the Convention, for the purpose of receiving the credentials of delegates.

All delegates of Maine, without regard to past political differences, who are in sympathy with the sentiments expressed in the call of the Republican National Committee for the Republican

National Convention, are cordially invited to unite with the Republicans of the State in selecting delegates to this Convention.

Per order Republican State Committee.

JOSEPH H. MANLEY, Chairman.

WILLIS H. WING, Secretary.

AUGUSTA, MAINE, February 11, 1888.

Gen. Dow is a remarkably well preserved and energetic man. But it is much to be doubted if a gentleman of his great age will prove equal to the strain that would be put upon him by the wearing and perplexing work that falls to the lot of a Mayor of Portland. If he should not then our municipal interests must inevitably suffer from lack of the constant attention that they require.

The Republican party certainly cannot be expected to assist in placing Gen. Neal Dow in a position where he can carry on his work of "smashing" it to better advantage, simply because he believes in some of the principles which it believes in. For a number of years now the Republican party has had no more bitter and more active enemy than Gen. Dow. In his speeches and his writings he has denounced it unsparingly. In the last Maine campaign he was identified with the Third Party movement which did its best to defeat Gov. Dowell, though

Gov. Dowell had been a lifelong, sincere temperance man.

Some of the over zealous friends of prohibition who are so ready to appear that the present municipal contest is between

Prohibition and free rum will find after election that they have done their cause grievous harm. As matters stand this issue does not exist. The great bulk of the temperance people of the city are supporting Mayor

Chapman and not Gen. Dow. This is well enough understood here in spite of the misrepresentations of the Third Party leaders, but abroad these misrepresentations will be taken for facts and when Mayor Chapman is elected there will go up a shout from the house and free rum advocates all over the country that Portland has repudiated Prohibition. The indirect friends of Prohibition will wake up at this when election is over and in the course of a few weeks we shall see that at work seeking to repair the injury their partisan zeal has done to the cause they have so much at heart.

"Organization, Arbitration, Moderation,"

was the motto that Chief Arthur gave to the Democratic Engineers at the convention in

New York city, in October, 1886, when labor troubles and labor organizations were demanding a large share of public attention.

At that same meeting President Chan-ney, of the New York Central, paid to the

THE PRESS

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 2.

We do not read an enemy's letters and communications. The name and address of the writer is in all cases published, and the publication is a guarantee of good faith. We cannot undertake to return or preserve communications that are not used.

FOR MAYOR, Charles J. Chapman

A REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

will be held in

NOROMBEA HALL, Bangor,

Thursday, April 26, 1888, at 11 o'clock

a. m.

For the purpose of selecting two candidates for

Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and for delegates to the National Convention, to be held at Chicago, Illinois, on Tuesday, June

10th, 1888, and transacting any other business

that may properly come before it.

The basis of representation will be as follows:

Each city, town and plantation will be entitled to

one delegate, and for each seventy-five votes cast

for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1884,

an additional delegate, and for a fraction of

forty votes in excess of seventy-five votes, an ad-

dional delegate.

The State Committee will be in session in the

reception room of the Hall at nine o'clock on the morning of the Convention, for the purpose of receiving the credentials of delegates.

All delegates of Maine, without regard to past

political differences, who are in sympathy with the

sentiments expressed in the call of the Republican National Committee for the Republican

National Convention, are cordially invited to unite with the Republicans of the State in selecting delegates to this Convention.

Per order Republican State Committee.

JOSEPH H. MANLEY, Chairman.

WILLIS H. WING, Secretary.

AUGUSTA, MAINE, February 11, 1888.

Gen. Dow is a remarkably well preserved and energetic man. But it is much to be

doubted if a gentleman of his great age will

prove equal to the strain that would be put

upon him by the wearing and perplexing

work that falls to the lot of a Mayor of Portland. If he should not then our municipal interests must inevitably suffer from

lack of the constant attention that they require.

The Republican party certainly cannot be expected to assist in placing Gen. Neal Dow

in a position where he can carry on his

work of "smashing" it to better advantage, simply because he believes in some of the principles which it believes in. For a number of years now the Republican party

has had no more bitter and more active

enemy than Gen. Dow. In his speeches and

his writings he has denounced it unsparing-

ly. In the last Maine campaign he was identified with the Third Party movement which did its best to defeat Gov. Dowell, though

Gov. Dowell had been a lifelong, sincere

temperance man.

Some of the over zealous friends of prohibition who are so ready to appear that

the present municipal contest is between

Prohibition and free rum will find after

election that they have done their cause grievous

harm. As matters stand this issue does not exist. The great bulk of the temperance

people of the city are supporting Mayor

Chapman and not Gen. Dow. This is well

enough understood here in spite of the mis-

representations of the Third Party leaders,

but abroad these misrepresentations will

be taken for facts and when Mayor Chapman

is elected there will go up a shout from the house and free rum advocates all over the country that Portland has repudiated Prohibition. The indirect friends of Prohibition will wake up at this when election is

over and in the course of a few weeks we

shall see that at work seeking to repair the

injury their partisan zeal has done to the cause they have so much at heart.

"Organization, Arbitration, Moderation,"

was the motto that Chief Arthur gave to the Democratic Engineers at the convention in

New York city, in October, 1886, when labor

troubles and labor organizations were demanding a large share of public attention.

At that same meeting President Chan-

ney, of the New York Central, paid to the

THE PRESS

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 2.

We do not read an enemy's letters and communications. The name and address of the writer is in all cases published, and the publication is a guarantee of good faith. We cannot undertake to return or preserve communications that are not used.

FOR MAYOR, Charles J. Chapman

A REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

will be held in

NOROMBEA HALL, Bangor,

Thursday, April 26, 1888, at 11 o'clock

a. m.

For the purpose of selecting two candidates for

Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and for delegates to the National Convention, to be held at Chicago, Illinois, on Tuesday, June

10th, 1888, and transacting any other business

that may properly come before it.

The basis of representation will be as follows:

Each city, town and plantation will be entitled to

one delegate, and for each seventy-five votes cast

for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1884,

an additional delegate, and for a fraction of

forty votes in excess of seventy-five votes, an ad-

dional delegate.

The State Committee will be in session in the

reception room of the Hall at nine o'clock on the morning of the Convention, for the purpose of receiving the credentials of delegates.

All delegates of Maine, without regard to past

political differences, who are in sympathy with the

sentiments expressed in the call of the Republican National Committee for the Republican

National Convention, are cordially invited to unite with the Republicans of the State in selecting delegates to this Convention.

Per order Republican State Committee.

JOSEPH H. MANLEY, Chairman.

WILLIS H. WING, Secretary.

AUGUSTA, MAINE, February 11, 1888.

Gen. Dow is a remarkably well preserved and energetic man. But it is much to be

doubted if a gentleman of his great age will

prove equal to the strain that would be put

upon him by the wearing and perplexing

work that falls to the lot of a Mayor of Portland. If he should not then our municipal interests must inevitably suffer from

lack of the constant attention that they require.

The Republican party certainly cannot be expected to assist in placing Gen. Neal Dow

in a position where he can carry on his

work of "smashing" it to better advantage, simply because he believes in some of the principles which it believes in. For a number of years now the Republican party

has had no more bitter and more active

enemy than Gen. Dow. In his speeches and

his writings he has denounced it unsparing-

ly. In the last Maine campaign he was identified with the Third Party movement which did its best to defeat Gov. Dowell, though

Gov. Dowell had been a lifelong, sincere

temperance man.

Some of the over zealous friends of prohibition who are so ready to appear that

the present municipal contest is between

Prohibition and free rum will find after

election that they have done their cause grievous

harm. As matters stand this issue does not exist. The great bulk of the temperance

people of the city are supporting Mayor

Chapman and not Gen. Dow. This is well

enough understood here in spite of the mis-

representations of the Third Party leaders,

but abroad these misrepresentations will

be taken for facts and when Mayor Chapman

is elected there will go up a shout from the house and free rum advocates all over the country that Portland has repudiated Prohibition. The indirect friends of Prohibition will wake up at this when election is

over and in the course of a few weeks we

shall see that at work seeking to repair the

injury their partisan zeal has done to the cause they have so much at heart.

"Organization, Arbitration, Moderation,"

was the motto that Chief Arthur gave to the Democratic Engineers at the convention in

New

