HERE'S REAL COMFORT

There's real comfort in the Comfort Chairs. Try them yourself—that's all we ask. Let us send you a chair for trial—no obligation to buy. If for any reason the chair fails to please you we will take it back—no charges—no questions asked. You cannot know how comfortable the Comfort Chairs are until you actually sit in them. Try them. In a few minutes you will feel as refreshed as after a full night's sleep. You sit in the Comfort Chair as in any other chair, and if you wish to recline stretch yourself out as far as you like. The chair moves as you do without effort on your part. Guaranteed suitable for heavy or light occupant. The framework is steel. The seat and back are made of canvas. Just as which one we shall send you—the Comfort SWING Chair or the Comfort MORRIS Chair. (The Comfort Morris Chair does not swing).

No Trolley Yet.

UNFOUNDED RUMOR PUBLISHED BY PORTLAND PAPER RECENTLY.

Story That Harpswell Roads were Soon to be Dug Up and Steel Rails Laid.

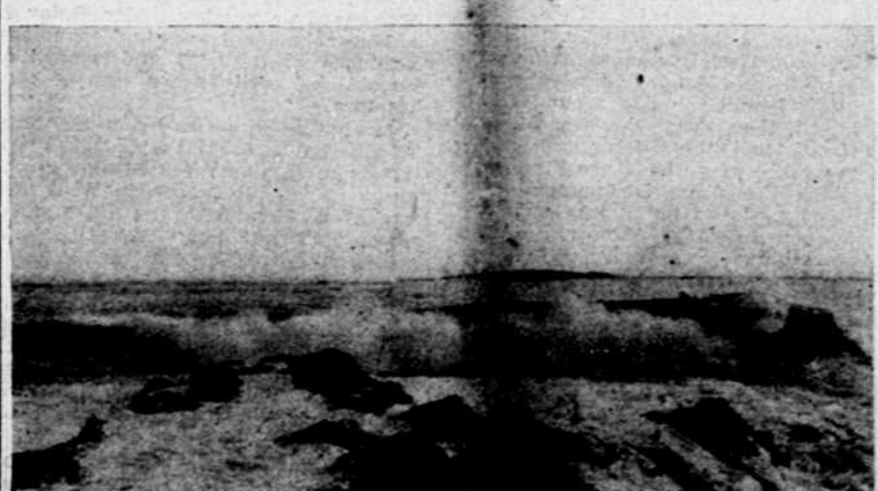

It looked rosy for prospective trolley riders when they read in a Sunday paper recently that they should soon be enabled to hie them on a Sunday over the glistening rails in big cars to far away Harpswell's shores where clam bakes can be had at cost of digging the bivalves and building a fire and lobsters are simply infesting the seaweed draped shores. This dream has vanished and Portland will for some time yet have to depend on the sturdy steamers to get to Casco Bay's shores, while lobsters and clams, little grassy nooks and piney bowers are still safe from immediate destruction.

Built In Alleghanies.

FORMER SUMMER RESIDENT OF CASCO BAY LOCATES IN MOUNTAINS.

Mr. M. J. Mullen Builds $10,000 Bungalow. Tried to Buy Land at Chebeague Last Year.

Mr. M. J. Mullen of Pittsburgh, Pa., a well known shoe manufacturer who has spent several seasons at Chebeague Island, has just accepted from the contractors a large and expensive bungalow at a mountain resort near Pittsburgh in the Alleghany Mountains. Mr. Mullen is a friend of Mr. J. W. Hoben of Springfield, who has a cottage on Chebeague, and last year he made an effort to buy a lot on the south shore, near Mr. H. C. Hamilton's estate "Pelham." The owners of the property, who are said to reside in Portland either failed to receive Mr. Mullen's letters, or did not care to sell. In either case he

It has long been known that a certain body incorporate has been granted a franchise for a road to South Harpswell and that the survey has been at least partially made. This talk of building the road at present ing about it and in prospect it is apparently as dead as it has been for years.

Mr. T. H. Riley, Jr., the Breeze correspondent at Brunswick, says that there is a little talk, but no evident movement is on foot, to do any work on the road as yet. Harpswell residents have heard nothing whatever about it.

No one wishes to discourage the trolley road. I might be made a money maker for the company and not a bad thing for South Harpswell, and as a feeder for circuit trip travel possibly would help the steamboats, while they would surely feed the trolley very materially.

INTERESTING EVENTS AT THIS WELL KNOWN CHEBEAGUE ISLAND HOSTELRY.

Dances, Motor Boat Excursions and Card Parties Take Up The Time Of The Guests.

The past week has been a busy one for the guests at this house. Many fishing and motor boat parties to different interesting places have been organized, and everyone reports a rattling good time of care free life. Fourteen guests of the house recently chartered Captain Bennett's sloop, "Florence Simmons," for the day and took the trip up the picturesque New Meadows river to the Inn, where dinner was enjoyed. This delightful excursion met with such favor that a party of twenty-five are planning to take the same trip the latter part of the week. Not to be outdone by the devotees of motor boating several enthusiastic fishermen went out beyond Eagle Island on Monday for a few hours of angling. Mr. E. A. Norman was high man with a catch of a 23 pound cod.

Mr. A. S. Demarest of Hackensack, N. J., and daughter, Miss Edith Demarest, who remain throughout the season. Mr. Demarest is manager of the New York office of the Edwin Butterworth Co., carpet manufacturers of Manchester, England.

The ladies of the house have been active in several social affairs. Mrs. Thomas Greenwood of Passaic, N. J., and Miss Lida Draper of Boston gave a progressive whist party Saturday evening in Hill Crest Hall. The six tables were prettily arranged, and a very enjoyable evening was spent at cards. Miss Helen Taft won the first prize, and Mr. Frank H. Ward, Miss Lida Draper and Miss M. Louise Green the other prizes respectively. Mrs. A. P. Bicknell was the lucky one entitled received no reply and after several letters gave up the effort to get a price for the lot. By this unfortunate occurrence Chebeague lost at least for the present, a wealthy summer resident who would have been a valuable accession to the social life of the island.

Peaks Island House.

THIS POPULAR UPPER BAY RESORT NOW VERY ACTIVE.

Many Reunions Held and Prominent Guests Arrived Last Week.

The Peaks Island House is now a very busy center of summer life and some activity is going on here all the time. Among the reunion parties which enjoyed an outing at the house was that of the class of 1900 from Hebron Academy. The party were heartily greeted by Manager Ralph E. Rowe, who is a graduate of the institution himself, and who was formerly on the faculty there. This was the second reunion of the class and the party included twenty-one persons. A meeting was held in the Union House parlors during the morning for the election of officers and other business. This was followed by the class banquet, the tables being prettily decorated with lavender and white sweet peas.

On Wednesday the Daughters of Pocomtous of Portland, numbering about seventeen ladies had their annual outing at the house. The party remained on the island for the day and a very pleasant time was enjoyed.

The whist party of Wednesday evening was a very enjoyable affair for all the participants. Nine tables were played, the prize winners being Mrs. T. Hill of Mansfield, N. Y.; Mrs. Coggins of Dorchester, and Mrs. John Campbell.

Among the prominent guests who have arrived at the hotel during the past week are General Horatio C. King and wife of Brooklyn, N. Y. General King is a veteran of the Civil War, having fought under General McClellan. The bust of his father, who was at one time postmaster general of the United States, may be seen in the Congressional Library at Washington. General King was born in Portland, and was recently entertained there as a guest of the city. He is a relative of General Charles King, the celebrated writer of Indian stories.

Another party to arrive recently was that of Dr. A. Joley and son, Cyril M. Joley and Antonette Grandin and Grazella Grandin of Waterville, Me. Dr. Joley is a well known veterinary surgeon, his practice extending throughout the state.

Professor and Mrs. James M. Hill of Philadelphia arrived on Monday to enjoy a few weeks' vacation at the hotel. Professor Hill is at the head of the Central High school in the ### Bowling Prizes.

A LIVELY CONTEST AT THE CHEBEAGUE ALLEYS.

Weekly Prizes For Gentlemen And Ladies Arousing Much Interest And Rivalry.

The prizes offered by Manager A. C. Robbins of the bowling alleys for the highest candlepin scores, have attracted much interest to such a point that standing room in the alleys on the nights of the final roll-offs is at a premium. During the week the higher scores are posted and at a regular time, Wednesday morning for the ladies and Thursday evening for the gentlemen, the ten in each class holding the highest scores roll off for the honors. There is much pleasant rivalry among the different aspirants and more than one box of candy or cigars have changed hands on the results. Miss Helen Taft of Allston, Mass., stood first among the ladies this last week winning a splendid leather case, while Miss Leslie Brewer of Portland was second; Miss Taft rested on her laurels with a score of 147 and Miss Brewer made 138, each rolling two strings. In the gentlemen's class, each rolling three strings, Mr. Winfield Hamilton of Chebeague was first with 269 winning a briar pipe and Merton Soule was second with 251. The prizes for this week are a beautiful Indian basket for the ladies, and a pair of military brushes in a leather case for the gentlemen.

Ocean View Hotel.

POPULAR HOTEL ON BAILEY ISLAND CONTINUES TO GROW IN FAVOR.

Large August Booking Of Guests Surpasses By Far That Of Last Season.

Mr. I. S. Cain, Mr. Ernest A. Cain, Mr. Herbert E. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Cain of Summit, N. J., and Mr. J. W. Alden of Newark, N. J., arrived Sunday for a week's outing here. This is the fourth season they have returned to the Ocean View.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Colton and daughter, Miss Alice B. Colton of Conway, N. H., were here for the day last Saturday.

Commander George H. Stevens of city of Philadelphia.

A pleasant surprise took place last Wednesday when Mr. "Nat" Whittier celebrated his birthday. Mr. Whittier numbers a large number of friends among the guests here, and he received a number of gifts in remembrance of the occasion.

Another birthday to be noticed at the house last week was that of little Richard Stebbins of Portland. The occasion was celebrated by an informal party, and the little fellow received a prettily decorated cake and several gifts in honor of his birthday.

The friends of Mrs. H. C. Sawyer were pleased to see her sufficiently recovered in health to leave her apartments and take dinner in the hotel dining room on Monday. Mrs. Sawyer is from Portland and has been here some time.

Mr. William A. Rowe of Eddington, Me., is now the guest of his father, Proprietor Ralph E. Rowe, at the hotel.

Mrs. E. C. Briggs of Auburn, who has already spent several seasons at the house, arrived on Thursday with her daughter, Margaret for the season. They were joined on Sunday by Mr. E. C. Briggs, who came down for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Andrews of Brooklyn, who are also old patrons of the Peaks Island House, came here Saturday to enjoy a short outing. Mr. Andrews is connected with the William Knowlton and Sons Co.

On Wednesday a large number of guests enjoyed a cruise to Orr's Island in the "Alpine." Many points of interest were visited including the Pearl's house.

Robinhood Inn.

SECLUDED BAILEY ISLAND RESORT RECEIVES MANY NEW GUESTS.

Midsummer influx of tourists this week gives the inn its full quota of patrons.

Mr. C. Cresson Wistar and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Vaux Wistar of Philadelphia, are sojourning here for July. This is their first visit to Bailey's, and they are delighted with the island as a refuge from the heat of midsummer. On August 3rd, Mr. Wistar and his daughter will depart for the White Mountains, where they will spend the rest of the season.

Mrs. Charles Heath of New York is one of Proprietor Miss Julia Massey's old friends, and she has returned to Bailey this summer after three years' absence. She is much impressed by the development of the island which has progressed so remarkably for the last three years.

Dr. L. M. Robinson, who is sojourning here, conducted a party of ladies to Freeport on Thursday last in Captain Doughty's sloop. In the party were Mrs. E. C. Griffith of Jenkintown, Pa., Miss Mayer, Miss Lillian G. Erhard of Philadelphia and Miss Julia Massey.

CASCO BAY HOUSE.

MANY ARRIVALS DURING THE PAST WEEK LIVENS THINGS UP.

Guests Largely From Canada; Dances At Cushing's Hall Popular.

The past week saw a decided influx of guests to this house, and at the present rate of arrival it will not be long before the house will be filled. Many of the guests come from Canada. The dances given at Cushing's Hall are enjoyed greatly by the guests, and add a social element to the outdoor life most of the time. Among late arrivals noted are: Mrs. D. S. Robertson and family of Westmont, Canada; Mr. L. P. Robertson of Montreal; Mrs. Alexander Robertson and family of Montreal; Miss J. H. Edwards and Miss B. Beatty of Berlin, N. H.

THE HAMILTON.

Cunningham and little daughter Elizabeth of Sharon Hill, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tallman of Brooklyn comprised a party from The Hamilton who sailed over to Freeport on Saturday morning last in Captain A. J. Hamilton's sloop yacht "Idlewild." They visited the "Castle" and then took the trolley to Brunswick, where Dr. Edwards conducted the party around the Bowdoin College buildings and the art and natural history museums. The party then continued on to the New Meadows Inn where they did justice to the shore dinner for which the Inn is famous. They returned home late in the afternoon. The expedition was organized by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tallman.

The second of the Saturday evening Hamilton dances met with the favor unusually accorded to these functions. After the guests had been introduced to the patronesses, the dancing was started about nine o'clock, and continued until ten-thirty. Walter Rogers furnished excellent music. The following ladies of the house acted as patronesses, Mrs. Chas. H. Leeds of Stamford, Conn., Mrs. W. M. Swan of Springfield, Mass., Mrs. J. M. Tallman of Brooklyn N. Y., and Mrs. W. L. Sadler of Springfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Leeds of Stamford Conn. are season guests here and will stay till the last of August. Mr. Leeds is an enthusiastic Yale alumnus having been graduated with the class of 1854. He is a class mate and friend of Rev. Dr. Fenn, the well known divine, who is pastor of the High Street Congregational Church in Portland.

A most enjoyable musicale was given in the living room Sunday evening by Miss Edith W. Schnurr and Miss Mabel A. Schnurr, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Tallman. Miss Mabel Schnurr is a violinist of rare talent, and plays with much feeling and sympathy. During the evening she rendered the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria," Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," Gabriel Marie's "Dance Rustique," and "Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star," and the "Pilgrim's Chorus" from Tannhauser. Miss Edith Schnurr played the accompaniments and also sang "One sweetly solemn thought," by Ambrose with violin obligato. Mrs. J. M. Tallman sang "For all Eternity," with creditable smoothness.

The bridge party given by Mrs. W. M. Swan and Mrs. W. L. Sadler of Springfield, Tuesday evening, was a very pleasant affair. First prizes were won by Mr. E. H. Paine and Mrs. J. W. Hoben, while the booby prizes went to Miss Gammell and Mr. C. E. Dodge. The prizes were appropriate. Refreshments of confectionery and punch were served.

Mlle. Masson of Portland, manicurist and chiropodist, will be at the house Friday, July 22. Guests so wishing may have work done.

Mrs. Wilfred H. Cunningham of Sharon Hill, Pa., entertained a party at bridge on Friday evening last in the spacious living rooms of the Hamilton. Four tables were in play, and the following participated: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Leeds of Stamford, Conn., Mr. C. E. Dodge of Clinton, Me., Mr. C. H. Lunt of Beverly, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sadler of Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Ullman of Baltimore, Md., Miss L. L. Tall of Baltimore Md., Miss C. F. Gammell of Medford Mass., Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tallman of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mr. J. S. Crowley of Beverly, Mass., Mr. Thornton Chase, Jr. of Chicago, Mr. S. B. Putnam of Beverly, Mass., and Proprietor E. H. Paine. Mrs. W. H. Cunningham presented four prizes: first Mrs. W. L. Sadler, a pink cretonne laundry bag; second Mr. W. L. Sadler, a Mexican silver napkin ring; third Mr. C. H. Leeds, a silver key ring; fourth, Miss C. F. Gammell, a lace jabot. A delicious fruit punch was served after the party. The table cards were drawn in pen and ink by Miss Mabel Schnurr of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Leeds of Stamford, Conn., entertained at bridge Monday evening, and besides the guests at the house, Mrs. Percy L. Shaw of New York and Miss Margaret Newell of Springfield were present. Four tables were in play. The prizes for the ladies were won by Mrs. J. O. Sawtell and Mrs. J. M. Tallman, the former receiving a pin cushion and lace handkerchief and the latter an Indian sweet-grass basket. The prizes for men were won by Mr. W. L. Sadler and Mr. S. B. Putnam, a stamp book and a whistle.

PEAKS ISLAND HOUSE.

the "Phil Kearny" Post, No. 8, G. A. R. of New York, who is at the Ocean View for an extended stay, has with him Colonel Thomas M. Vallean, senior vice commander and Mr. James G. Wisner, quartermaster of the post, who will remain for two weeks. Mr. Vallean and Mr. Wisner were ardent devotees of the piscatorial art until they went fishing Monday after cod and haddock. Col. Vallean has such an aversion to the odor of burnt gasoline that when he got to leeward of the exhaust, he thought for a while it was all up with him. Mr. James G. Wisner sometimes familiarly known by the appellation of "Sunny Jim," says all he lost overboard was his appetite, which had accident occurred when he hauled in a huge conger eel.

to the booby prize. The semi-weekly hotel dances are if anything more popular than ever, and large crowds are turning out to them. A number of young people are at this house, and they thoroughly enjoy the delightful informality of these affairs.

On Saturday fifty-nine of the Yarmouth firemen, who were on an excursion here, sat down to dinner and were well taken care of. In the afternoon they had the pleasure of seeing their ball team score a decisive win over the island team. All went home loud in the praise of the Hill Crest.

The following guests include a few of the many arrivals: Mr. and Mrs. James Meade of Stoughton, Mass., who will be here for two weeks. Mrs. Meade is the superintendent of the Plymouth Rubber Co. at Stoughton. Mrs. J. F. Brines of Albany, N. Y., is here for a considerable stay. The late Mr. Brines was a well known sculptor of this country. He designed the art decorations in the State Capitol at Albany.

The Miley Co., famous for hosiery gloves and waists, will sell for a few days, lace and silk hosiery at greatly reduced prices.

Bailey Island

Mr. H. P. Stevens of Newton Highlands expects his daughter, Miss Ruth H. Stevens to arrive this week to remain for the rest of the summer. She has been visiting during July with friends at Princeton, Mass., near the foot of Mount Wachusett.

Mr. R. H. Woodman has been making extensive improvements to his cottage, the work being done by Charles Thomas.

The usual Saturday evening dance at Cottage Hall was largely attended by the young people. The Barn Dance seemed to be the favorite.

Mr. D. P. Sinnett has finished a 25-foot Casco Bay Hampton boat for Fred Furbush of Chebeague, which was put into the water Tuesday. She looks like a very able boat, being seven and a half feet beam, and capable of holding thirty people. The deck is of oak and pine laid in strips and handsomely finished. Mr. Furbush had the craft built for his own use while down here in the summer. His winter residence is in Greenfield, Mass.

Miss Alice and Miss Edith Kingsbury with their friends, Miss Alice Ryder of Stamford, Conn., and Miss Harriet Marcy of Boston, started Tuesday on a two weeks' walking trip. We did not learn their destination, but as they have had considerable experience in camping and roughing it in California, it is probable that they will arrive there. Miss Avis Jones, who has been the guest of the Kingsburys for the past two weeks, has returned to her home in Colorado Springs.

Mr. William M. Pennell of Brunswick visited his wife and daughter, Miss Sarah Pennell at the Johnson House over Sunday. Mr. Pennell was formerly sheriff of Cumberland County.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sleeper, Mrs. Ralph Swing, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hodge, Miss Bernice Lyman, Miss Caroline Webster, Miss Doris Sleeper and Mr. Carl Lyman went for an all-day trip Monday in the Sleepers' launch out around Ragged Island, then up the New Meadows river to the Inn, where they partook of the shore dinner for which the place is famous. The hilarity of the party was not at all dampened by the shower, although everything else was.

R. S. Davis Co., Portland, are always pleased to show you over their store.—Adv.

Mr. Robert B. Stone and Mr. Francis N. Balch are visiting Miss Alice and Miss Harriet Balch at the Johnson House. They cruised down from Boston in the yacht "Spry."

Mrs. C. Y. Newman of Lewiston will be unable to come down to the "Rosemont" cottage on Summer Hill this season on account of illness. We understand that Mrs. Newman is at present slowly convalescing.

Mr. A. L. Spooner of New York, Miss Mary and Miss Blanche Robbins, Miss Lucy Poland of Worcester, Mass., Miss Mabel E. Dickinson and Miss Elizabeth M., and Anna Calhoun of Worcester and Boston respectively, are the guests at Mrs. F. E. Beebe's cottage "Bonnyview."

Mr. George W. Morris of East Orange, N. J., and sister, Miss Frances Morris of Brooklyn, are expected here Sunday for a week's visit with Mrs. Morris at Miss Josephine Thorpe's cottage on Malden Lane. Mrs. Morris is delighted with Bailey's and is very desirous of locating a summer home here. Miss Thorpe will occupy her cottage about the first of August with a party of friends.

Mrs. Reuben Colton, who is the guest of Mrs. R. C. Drinker, played at Mrs. Mary F. Peck's cottage, the Barnacle, Tuesday evening for her friends and pupils of Mrs. Peck.

Mrs. Ella R. Williams of Worcester, Mass., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Aldrich at the Stokes cottage for the past two weeks.

Mr. Charles E. Ronaldson of Philadelphia is visiting his cousin, Mrs. Mary O. Barker at the "Breakers" on Rock Point. Mr. Ronaldson was of the class of '68 of the University of Pennsylvania and '69 at Lehigh University. He is a mechanical engineer of note, but at present acts only in consultation.

Mrs. Josephine French of New York has been visiting Mrs. C. B. Boynton for the past week while on her way to Bethel, Vermont, where she has a model farm.

Misses Elsie and Myrtle York, Mr. Horace Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Albro Cushing, Mrs. Harmon York and two children, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. York, and Mrs. S. S. Doughty and daughters went up to Cliff Island last Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cushing who served the party a fine fish dinner.

At the Christian Science business meeting held last Wednesday evening it was decided to hold the meetings for the remainder of the season in the Union church. Mr. H. P. Stevens and Mrs. Charles W. Sleeper will be the readers.

Dr. J. L. Seward of Orange, N. J. and Mr. and Mrs. John DeHart and two sons, Seward and Kimber arrived Tuesday and are comfortably settled in their cottage on Malden

Mrs. Anson Gilman of Lewiston and Mrs. C. S. Newell also of Lewiston, Me., arrived at their bungalow, "Sea Cliff" on Thursday and will stay till late in the fall. Mrs. Gilman and Mrs. Newell were the pioneer cottagers at Bailey's, having built a cottage here in 1885.

Miss Margaret M. King and Miss Hattie F. Trufant of Boston are at the Woodbine for their fourth season. Both Miss King and Miss Trufant are talented musically and can sing and play exceptionally well. They are friends of Mr. C. W. Early, Mr. Robert Early, Mr. and Mrs. Tietig and daughter Edna Tietig and Mrs. Hunt all of New York, who left last Friday after a pleasant visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burnham gave an informal tea on Sunday afternoon for Miss Gertrude Bird of Newton, who is with them for the summer. Many of the young people were present and a delightful social hour was spent.

Last Friday evening some clever charades and impersonations were given at the C. T. Root cottage in which much talent and originality were shown. Those taking part were, Miss Esther Root, Miss Josephine Kern, Miss Caroline Cushman, Miss Ruth Gardiner and Miss Dorothy D. Power. The young people are planning a more serious undertaking in the way of a play which may be given in the Hall later in the season.

Mr. William Hunneman of Brookline, Mass., who is spending the summer on Chebeague was the guest of Mr. William Power at dinner on Thursday of last week.

Mr. John L. Wright, the city editor of the Christian Science Monitor in Boston was down over Sunday as the guest of Mr. H. P. Stevens. Mrs. Wright, who has been visiting Mr. Stevens for the past two weeks, returned home with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Bright, Miss Eleanor Bright and Miss Clara A. Modrow of Cleveland, Ohio are guests at the W. E. Johnson cottage the Outlook.

Mr. William A. Soley of Chelsea, Mass., was the guest of Mr. H. P. Stevens over Sunday. Mr. Soley is a Massachusetts Institute Technology graduate, class of '93 and is head of an old and well known firm of contractors.

Mrs. Theodore Hardwick and Mrs. Edwin Davis of Quincy, Mass., are guests of Mrs. R. C. Drinker for a short stay. Mrs. Morgan Wills and daughter, Harriet Wills of Morristown, Pa., will be Mrs. Drinker's guests in August.

Rev. A. D. Salvary of Springfield returned to his parish in Springfield after a pleasant two weeks' visit here as the guest of Mrs. A. F. H. Streuli. His sister, Miss Margaret Salvary of Philadelphia, will arrive about August 1 to be the guest of Miss Matilda Wells.

Mrs. Charles C. Abbe and daughter, Miss Mary Abbe of Essex Falls, N. Y., and friend, Miss Caryl G. Baker of New York City, will be at the Seaside for two weeks. They are on their way to Camden, Me., to spend the rest of the season. They are friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Aldrich, and have been here for several summers.

Professor and Mrs. R. W. Blake of South Bethlehem, Pa., are now comfortably installed in Mrs. John D. Blaxome's cottage, and will stay here with their three children until school opens in the fall. Professor Blake is head of the Latin Scientific department of Lehigh University.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Day journeyed to Kennebunk, Saturday, for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Allan B. Fay. They returned to their cottage in the "Pasture" on Wednesday.

Christian Science services are held in the Union church, Bailey Island every Sunday at eleven and every Wednesday evening at seven-thirty. All are cordially invited. No collection.

On Tuesday night of last week, Mr. George Root, Mr. "Billy" Power and Mr. "Bluff" Gardiner went for a night's cruise in the Root's launch Tewitist to Upper Goose Island, where they landed to cook their dinner on the shore. They spent the night in the launch and returned on Wednesday at noon.

Cottage Hall was filled by an appreciative audience last Thursday evening to listen to Mr. J. W. Babbitt, the reader and humorist. Mr. Babbitt gave selections from "Hamlet" and several humorous sketches and readings.

Miss Harriett Luckey of Patterson, N. J. was the hostess to a "500" party on Thursday evening last. Those present were: Mr. George Root, Mr. Royal Root, Miss Esther Root, Miss Dorothy Dwight Power, "Bully" Power, Mr. Herman Kern, Miss Josephine Kern, Miss Ruth Gardiner, Mr. Xanthus Smith, Mr. George Smith, Miss Harriett Luckey, Miss Molly Parker, Miss Daisy Burbridge, Miss Mary Isabella Starr, and Miss Bird. The prizes were carried off by Mr. Royal Root and Miss Dorothy Power. The evening at "500" was a very enjoyable one, and after the cards, refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hodge of Bangor, Maine, and Mr. Donald Webster of Portland arrived here Friday. Mr. Webster is to spend the week

*Moon in first quarter.

The old gentleman who slipped off the dock while attempting to board a steamer the other day may thank his lucky stars that he received no greater injuries than a wetting. There are lots of spikes and projecting timbers which make a fall between a steamer and the wharf rather dangerous to heads as well as hazardous to the preservation of a dry skin.

Is it not a pleasure to step on board the Machigonne and speed down the bay on a sunny afternoon. The luxurious boat, with its comforts and its two commodious decks, with plenty of promenade space, seems a great relief from the cramped room in such steamers as were formerly thought the model thing for this service. When to the Machigonne's comforts are added an orchestra which is on board every afternoon, a smooth sea and a balmy breeze, there's nothing further to be desired than to sail on in quiet and rest, inhaling peace from every breath of ocean and absorbing it from every vista of green woods that is passed.

Great Chebeague may now be separated from Cumberland, but until she does make further threats to do so little will be done by the people of the mainland to improve the roads on the island. The meagre appropriation allowed Selectman Robbins now is scarcely enough to keep the main traveled road in good shape. The road to Eastern Landing is a much traveled way and a good deal of taxable property has been built on it. Still the town makes no move to accept it or take care of it. There are many other things needed which would be considered necessities at any up-to-date resort, such as boardwalks and street lighting. All these are due to Chebeague because of the large tax its summer residents pay to the town of Cumberland. Why not ask for them, demand them, and see if the town voters will return a portion of the island revenue back towards its own improvement instead of appropriating the greater part for use on the mainland. The assessor's books show the figures plainly. Chebeague is gaining in valuation and the main land is losing every year. Would it not be well to do justice to the island when these things are asked for Cumberland?

Of late, it seems to be very popular among certain educators and ministers to pour forth tirades of abuse against the work of the American colleges, and the product of these institutions, the American college man. While just criticism should at all times be accepted in the spirit it is given it is time to bask at some of the statements of these learned gentlemen clothed in the learning of dusty books. The American college graduates are as a whole, a manly, confident and healthy crowd of fellows, fit men to be excellent citizens of this country, and progenitors of a future race of true Americans.

Clock Made of Bicycles.

A clever Frenchman named Alphonse Duhamel has constructed a timepiece 12 feet high composed entirely of bicycles or their component parts. The framework is a huge bicycle wheel, round which are arranged 12 ordinary sized wheels, all fitted with pneumatic tires. A rim within the large wheel bears the figures for the hours, the figures themselves being constructed of crank rods. The hands are made of steel tubing which is used for the framework of bicycles. The minute strokes on the dial are small nickel-plated pieces. The top of the clock is an arrangement of 12 handle-bars.

The clock strikes the hours and the quarters, bicycle bells, of course, making the chimes. The pendulum is made of various parts of a bicycle frame. It is said that the clock besides being a curiosity, is an excellent timepiece.—Tit-Bits.

Peaks Island

Among the recent guests who have been entertained by Mr. F. A. Neal at the "Burgstoe" on Torrington Point are Mr. W. A. Coats of Montreal and Mr. Thorne, a prominent banker of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanley have taken the Ford cottage at Torrington Point for the season.

Mrs. L. J. Small, who with her family has been the guest of her brother, returns to her home in Braintree, Mass., today after a most delightful stay of three weeks at Peaks Island.

Mr. Richard Hinds is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Small, in Unity during the present week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearly of Portland are now staying at the "Nightingale" cottage as the guests of Mrs. Charles Hill.

Mrs. D. E. Ewell of Portland was entertained by Mrs. Hill at the "Nightingale" on Monday.

Mrs. H. J. Brackett and daughter, Miss Maude Brackett, of Pittsfield, Me., are guests of Mrs. A. P. Dunham at "Ryeview". The Bracketts, who are visiting the island for the first time, arrived on Saturday and anticipate a very enjoyable stay.

Mr. John Dunn and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Benoit at Edgewater on Sunday. Mr. Dunn is manager of the Benoit-Dunn Co., clothiers, at Biddeford.

Mrs. Clarence Graves, manager of the Boston office of the Nelson-Morris Co., wholesale provision dealers, spent Sunday with his family in their cottage, the "Nordeck".

Miss Vera Stephenson, who spent last winter abroad, is the guest for the summer of her sister, Mrs. Alfred O. Elden, at the Wheel House.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, who occupied one of the Butman bungalows at Torrington Point last season, have taken a house for the summer at Long Island, N. Y. Their many friends on Peaks regret that these delightful people will not be on the island this year.

Miss Janette Marshall of Portland is again spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. D. J. McDonald, at Torrington Point.

Mr. Hiram Green of New York city, who will be so pleasantly remembered by the summer visitors of last season, is again expected for his vacation on the island. He will be a guest at the Wheel House during the month of August.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Sparks of Kingston, Canada, who were numbered among the visitors who came to Peaks last year, are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Williams at Frontenac place.

Among those who arrived at the "Valette" recently were Miss Anna F. Willey and Miss Edith A. Farnham, teachers in the Clark grammar school at Swampscott, Mass. The ladies took the day boat from Boston on Monday and had a most enjoyable trip, broken by occasional showers. This is their first visit to Casco Bay and they greatly enjoyed the Monday evening theatre party at the "Gem," the excursion to the historic points of the city and around the bay.

It is rare that a party of people remain more than one season in Casco Bay without trying their fortune in a deep sea fishing trip. Three people went out on Monday, however, who were quite without experience in this line, although they have all been here several seasons. They are Miss Lela Long and Miss Thacher of Williamsport, Pa., and Mr. Avery Schemmerhorn of New York, and all had much to say concerning their day's trip.

A very pleasant party of the summer guests gathered for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Bishop last Sunday. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thomas of Treffethen's, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nickerson, Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Duncan.

Mrs. Foss and son of Auburn are at present guests at the Bishop cottage.

Mr. Warren Cook of "Grand View," Torrington Point, leaves Peaks Island this week after a month's stay here to rehearse with his regular winter dramatic company. Mr. Cook was formerly connected with the Keith's Stock company of Portland and is playing with the "Gem" stock people this week.

Mrs. Carrie Phillips and son Gordon, who have been the guests of Mrs. Almon Foster of Torrington Point, during the past two weeks, returned to their home in Malden on Wednesday after a very pleasant vacation here.

Miss Gusta Paine of Berlin, N. H., arrived on Sunday to be the guest of Mrs. F. M. Clement at the "Granite State" cottage for a short stay. Miss Paine is a relative of Proprietor Paine of the "Hamilton" and spent her vacation at that hotel on Great Chebeague last summer. Mrs. Chas. Beach of Lancaster, N. H., and Marie Farnham of Canada also arrived at the "Granite State" recently.

Mr. W. H. Kimball and son, Mr. George Kimball, left for their home in Stratford the first of the week after a pleasant vacation at the family cottage on Torrington Point.

Among the guests to arrive recently at the 8th Maine regiment quarters are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myer of Norwood, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Blossom of Turner, and Mrs. Daniel McFarland of Newton Highlands.

Among other guests who have come to the "Granite State" cottage, Mrs. F. M. Clements of Torrington Point home, are: Mrs. Marion Flanders of Lindenville, Vt., and Mr. Kenneth Day of Kansas City with his mother, Mrs. Edward Day of Danvers, Mass.

Of the 3238 fires which occurred in London in 1908, electricity is said to have been the cause of 101, and 365 were attributable to gas.

There are nearly 5,000,000 subscribers' telephone in operation in the United States, or one for every 18 persons in the country.

The forest fire losses of 1908 directly and indirectly will amount to about $40,000,000.

Bustins Island

Among the late arrivals on the island are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Youngs, who are enjoying their honeymoon, and are the guests of their aunt, Mrs. S. O. Groesbeck and her niece, Miss Anna Merwin of New York City, who are spending the season at the "Casco Queen."

Mr. Youngs is one of Albany's leading young business men, and the newly weds will no doubt receive a hearty welcome home by their many friends.

Mr. E. M. Hogan is spending two weeks at the "Ramapo cottage" as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hogan.

Mr. Leroy Nicholls and family have arrived at the island for the season.

Mrs. S. O. Groesbeck and Miss Anna Merwin spent a week at the Poland Spring House. Miss Merwin while there landed a three-pound black bass.

Mr. Wyre of Boston is one of the late arrivals at the "Casco Queen."

Miss Harriet Taylor of Westfield, Mass., is enjoying the invigorating breezes of Bustins.

Mr. Gowan and party have the record so far this season, a 17 1/2-pound cod.

Mr. Melcher of Springfield, Mass., is erecting a new cottage on the western part of the island.

Rev. Mr. Crocker and family of Vermont will occupy the Dr. Bibber cottage for the balance of July.

Mr. A. J. Woodrough of Jamaica Plain will occupy the "Bungalow" for two weeks in August.

Mrs. Swift and daughter of Brunswick are stopping with Mrs. Beaumont for the season.

Mrs. Zoelich and child of Jamaica Plain is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Campbell.

A party of young ladies are stopping at the Liberty cottage.

Mr. William Miller and a party of relatives and friends are occupying his new rustic cottage on the bluff on the eastern part of the island.

The cottage and grounds were built and laid out under the personal supervision of Mr. Miller, who is to be congratulated upon the artistic appearance of his place, which adds much to the attractiveness of Bustins.

Cousin's Island

The wharf on the Seashore Land Company's shore front is completed and will be of great benefit to property owners there as several own motor boats. The contractor for the work was Sylvester I. Hill of Great Chebeague Island, and the job is a creditable one. The Seashore Land Company are making improvements on their property each year, and the sale of lots in this most desirable tract is steady.

The "Avalon," Mr. W. F. Prime's new motor cruiser, was brought down from East Boston by the owner, and Mr. Horace Lobdell of Melrose last week. The gentleman left Boston harbor Wednesday noon and at 6 o'clock put in at Kittery, where they spent the night. The trip was resumed early the next morning and Cousin's Island reached Wednesday noon, the actual running time having been 14 hours. Mr. Lobdell returned to Boston that night, but Mr. Prime remained to spend Sunday with his family at their cottage.

The "Avalon" is a beautifully modelled 30-foot cruiser, fitted with a spacious cockpit and hunting cabin, and run by a 15-horsepower Lackawanna engine. On a short cruise around the island on Thursday the boat maintained a speed of 10 miles per hour, not a poor record for a new boat.

Mr. S. J. Bisset of Malden came down last Saturday to spend a few days with his family at their beautifully situated cottage near the wharf. Mr. Arthur Conrad of Boston was also a guest at the Bisset place over the weekend.

Mrs. Warren H. Colson and her daughter, Elizabeth, who have been visiting Mrs. George W. Blanchard of Cumberland for two weeks, returned to the Ridge House on Thursday.

Miss Marie Foote of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a recent guest at Captain Lorenzo Hamilton's.

Mr. William Bent of Boston is visiting his son, Mr. William S. Bent at the "Island Home" cottage near the postoffice. Mr. and Mrs. John Drinkwater with their sons, Malcolm and Russell of Yarmouth were guests at the Bent home on Thursday.

What at first threatened to be a disastrous fire broke out in the house owned by H. E. Packard, and occupied by Mrs. G. E. Merrill last Tuesday. Fortunately the flames were brought under control with the aid of neighbors, who rushed in in response to Mrs. Merrill's cries for aid, before much damage had been done to the house. However, the excitement of the affair proved a serious shock to Mrs. Merrill, and it was some time before she recovered from the excitement.

Mr. James H. Doyle and family of Portland and Mr. E. J. Doyle of Chicago have returned to their city homes after a delightful vacation passed at the Bowker cottage. The time was spent in fishing, sailing trips and picnics. Needless to say the party have enjoyed their outing immensely and only regret that they are unable to prolong their stay. While fishing from the rocks on Thursday Mrs. Doyle had the good fortune to secure a line of 21 fine specimens, quite a record for one who is only a novice at the art of angling.

Mrs. E. S. Dyer of Portland with her nephews, Charles and Fred Marton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Doyle on Wednesday. Miss Delia Burke of Worcester was also a guest at the Bowker cottage for a few days last week.

Mrs. J. S. Dawes arrived on Saturday from her home in Boston to spend a portion of the summer at her cottage on the Seashore Land Co. tract. The company are just having a commodious wharf and boat built on their shore front for the convenience of their patrons.

Cliff Island

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Scull and their children, Eleanor and Alfred, of Phoenixville, Pa., have been occupying one of Mr. Cobb's cottages for a considerable time. They have spent other seasons here, and will remain throughout the summer this year. Master Paul Hughes of Swarthmore, Penn., is with the Sculls.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Landstreet of St. Martins, Philadelphia, and Miss V. T. Landstreet, arrived Sunday last for the summer, coming via the Maine S. S. Co. from New York. Mr. Landstreet is engaged in the coal business in Philadelphia.

Mrs. G. P. Boynton and her daughter Mildred of Oakland, Me., are being entertained by Mrs. F. H. Short of Oakland at "Spruce" cottage. Mrs. Short's brother, Mr. A. C. Towle of Waterville, with Mrs. Towle and their baby arrived Saturday to spend the season with the Shorts.

Mrs. A. E. Wood and her grandchildren Annabelle Houghton and Melvin and Elwyn Sherman of Portland, are again installed at their camp where they have come for a number of years past.

Miss Katherine Gallagher of Lynn has been spending a week with her sister, Mrs. A. F. Huntington of Melrose at "Bide-a-wee" cottage. This is Miss Gallagher's first visit on Cliff.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Black of Malden have been at "Glenwood" cottage for several weeks. They had plans all laid recently for a trip to Bermuda, tickets even having been purchased, but matters came up at the last moment rendering the trip impossible.

The Misses Jeanette and Ruth Tiffany of Alexandria, Va., visited lately, for a few days, with Mrs. W. A. Wolf, of Yonkers, N. Y., at "Sunset Villa."

Mr. A. D. Chandler returned to Reading for a business trip of a week. Mr. E. S. Boardman of Reading arrives Friday for a short stay with the Chandlers at their new bungalow.

Mr. J. M. Hansson of Washington, D. C., was recently a guest of Mrs. K. Berle, during a short visit. Mr. Hansson is in the Library of Congress at Washington.

Mrs. O. P. Stone of Malden has been down at her cottage, "Rockhurst" for some time, spending her sixteenth season on Cliff. Mrs. Stone's son, Mr. John Stone, a lawyer of Boston, comes down occasionally for a few days. Mrs. Stone will entertain guests during August.

Guests of Cliff cottage include the Misses Anna and Theresa Kelley, New York; Miss Mary Richardson of New Rochelle; and Mrs. Joseph Whittaker Thompson and daughter, Josephine, of Montclair, Pa.

Mr. A. L. Barnes of Malden has been at "Cliffstone" cottage for about two weeks. Mr. Martin Pearson and his daughters Mabel and Evelyn; and Mrs. S. M. Smith and grand daughter Eva Pearl Barnes, are visiting for two weeks.

Church services will be held Sunday at 4 p. m. The Rev. H. F. Kroman, rector of St. Stevens Episcopal church of Portland will preach. Everyone is welcomed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clayton of Buffalo, N. Y., have taken a cottage of Mrs. Griffin for the summer. This is their first stay here. In past years they have been in Long Island. They have recently spent a few weeks at Old Orchard, coming to Cliff from there. Mr. Clayton travels for the J. P. Lippincott Publishing Company of Philadelphia.

Mrs. W. W. Mumper entertained a few friends at bridge Friday afternoon, among whom were Mrs. Thompson of Mont Clare, Pa., Mrs. Hunter of Phoenixville, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Gunvald Aus of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Mumper, who is professor of physics in the State Normal school of Trenton, N. J., has proven himself to be an excellent fisherman, bringing in some fine catches.

Buy cottage furnishings of the R. S. Davis Co., Portland.

Through the untiring efforts of T. L. Griffin, thirty new Welsbach lamps were recently installed under the direction of Mr. Brown, New England manager of the Welsbach Co. The lamps were lighted for the first time on Friday evening.

Mr. Horatio Daniels and family of Westbrook are sojourning at Camp Cliff.

Mr. J. C. Morrison and family of Omaha, Neb., are at Hillside cottage, No. 2, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Berry of Westbrook visited over Sunday last with Mrs. Dr. Mayberry at "Ranchette" cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks of Lynn, Mass., arrived Monday to spend two weeks at "Grand View" cottage. He is in the grocery business in Lynn.

The library committee of the Island Improvement society met recently at Mrs. O. P. Stone's to consider plans for an entertainment to raise money for the library. The library now has about 500 volumes and is growing rapidly. All donations of money, books or magazines may be sent to Mrs. O. P. Stone and will be thankfully received.

The Old Woman's Remarks.

"I don't know what's to become of the old man if they keep on votin' the States dry," said the old lady. "It didn't cost so much for him to go to Chattanooga, but as Tennessee will be as dry as a bone in July, that'll take him a step further, an' he jest can't afford the money. Of course, he kin blind-tiger it to Georgia, but it's no longer safe for him to do so, seein' that he kin no more kiver up his tracks, fer ever 'time he tries it up before meetin', an' he's gittin' 'too of now ter risk bein' turn out the church, fer Satan might kitch him on the outside an' sweep him off 'fore he has a chance to get back agin. But the States ar dryin' up one after another, an' I kin see him buyin' a railroad ticket as fur as Kalamazoo—an' I believe that country would be dry 'fore he hit!'—Atlanta Constitution.

Littlejohn's I.

A delightful crowd of young people have taken the larger Shepard "Log Cabin" for the season. They arrived from their homes last Friday and have already enjoyed many outings around the islands and surrounding bays. Sailing, fishing and beach parties are frequently indulged in, while several successful berrying expeditions have been made. The present members of the crowd are: Mrs. Davis, Lafayette, Ind.; Miss M. L. Pierce, Miss A. G. Pierce, Miss G. E. Davidson and Miss E. R. Baker of Milton, Mass.; Miss Ruth Hawkes of Greenfield, and Mr. J. H. Williams of Waltham, "Jack Blinn's" a fine looking, pure bred shepherd dog, and "Orange Pekoe," a bright young kitten, have been brought down to act as mascots for the party.

For a harbor-seal to be caught in the bay near Littlejohn's Island is indeed a rare occurrence, and the event is all the more noteworthy when the capture is made by hunters not familiar with the habits of the wary animal. Such a capture was made last week, however, by Mr. Charles Jones and Mr. Fred Eller of Bloomfield while guests at the Bay View cottage. The animal weighed about one hundred pounds and its hide will furnish a fine trophy for the fortunate hunters.

Mr. R. W. Johnson and Mr. E. H. Bowers of Sea Cliff, Long Island, N. Y., were guests of Mrs. John Ballard and Mr. and Mrs. Jones at Bay View over Sunday. Mr. John Ballard has returned to his business in Bloomfield, N. J., after a short stay with his family.

Mr. Andrew W. Chisholm of Boston is the guest of his mother at the Alpine cottage, where he will enjoy an outing for the remainder of the month.

Mr. Joseph Ready with his family of Roxbury arrived last Friday to open their summer home, the "Hill Crest" cottage, where they will remain until late in the season.

Miss Anna B. Cameron of Boston is enjoying a short visit as the guest of Mrs. I. J. Lang at the "Pine Cone" cottage.

A royal welcome was extended to two newly married couples when they arrived at Littlejohn's Island, last Sunday morning. They are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haynes of South Framingham, Mass., and are being entertained by Mrs. Edward Fuller and Mrs. F. G. Underhill at the "Elms" cottage.

The young couples plan to spend their honeymoons of two weeks on the island, and are enjoying all the delights of this beautiful spot.

Mr. Theodore Morton and Miss Helen Morton of Newton arrived on Saturday to be the guests of Mrs. George Willis of Dorchester at the "Colombe" cottage for three weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. John L. Dearing with their sons, Hal and Vinton, arrived at the "Rockmere" on Friday for a short vacation. Dr. Dearing, who has been located at Yokohama, Japan, for twenty years, is a general missionary for Japan and the Philippine Islands.

Mr. Dearing is a brother of Mrs. Gilbert H. Hamilton of the "Rockmere." Among the recent guests to arrive at the "Rockmere" are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Casey of Boston, who returned Tuesday to enjoy their second season at this pleasantly located house.

Mr. G. K. Bartholomew of Cincinnati, with his two grandsons, George B. and Albert H. Ehrmann are now at the "Rockmere" having come on Monday for an extended sojourn. Mr. Bartholomew has spent his summer vacations along the eastern coast for twenty years, but this is his first experience in Casco Bay, and he is very much pleased with the surroundings here.

Among the guests for dinner at the "Rockmere" on Sunday were Mr. F. E. Merrill and daughter, Maude of Freeport; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Myers of Montclair, N. J.; Miss K. L. Dee and Mary A. Magee of Boston and Miss N. C. Dee of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland of Boston returned to the former scene of their summer outings, recently, spending the night on Tuesday at the "Rockwell." The Sutherlands, who are former visitors, had not been back for fourteen years and were very much interested in noting the many changes which have taken place during their long absence.

Mr. Fred B. Wheeler of Allston, Mr. Harry O. Wheeler and Mr. V. V. Batson of Boston stopped at the "Rockmere" for a few hours on Wednesday. The gentlemen are enjoying an extended cruise along the Maine coast and their boat hails from Salem.

Among the recent guests to register at the Melrose House, Capt. Amos C. Cummings' pleasantly located hotel, are: Mrs. Chas. Bewick, Miss Maude Fraser and Harriet Bewick Daley of Detroit, who arrived on Thursday. The ladies spent the early summer at Atlantic City. They have been joined by Mrs. Ellen S. Allen and Miss Lyckelmoor of Philadelphia.

A Bachelor Says.

A woman has as much fun getting her fortune told as a man has making his.

The reason a girl objects to a man kissing her is she pretends she does. The way to make a woman believe all the nonsense that can be invented is to put it in a love letter.

Once in a while a man astonishes himself as much as he does the rest of us by really doing something unselfish.—Woman's Life.

Tearing a Tatter.

Having torn the treaty of Berlin to shreds, there was little occasion for Austria-Hungary to hesitate over tearing up one of the shreds, to wit, Article 29, and thus granting complete sovereignty to Montenegro. That gallant little Serb state has amply earned the complete independence which it now enjoys, and which it is to be hoped it will always maintain.—New York Tribune.

Mrs. S. Faba Smith, of York, Pa., with her son Burwell, arrived last week at the "Red Cottage" on Ash Point which she has leased from Commodore L. H. Spaulding for the summer. With her came Prof. Luther Pfahler Eisenhart and Mrs. Eisenhart, of Princeton, who will spend the greater part of the summer with Mrs. Smith, who is Mrs. Eisenhart's sister. The "Red Cottage" has a romantic interest for Professor and Mrs. Eisenhart, for there they were married last September.

Commodore L. H. Spaulding, with his guest Mr. Norman Stevenson, of Hingham, Mass., cruised last week in the Shearwater II to Boothbay and back.

Mrs. Carey E. Etner, of "Ash Cove Farm," took her mother, Mrs. Smith, and her guests Miss Faba and Miss Huber, of York, Pa., Miss Bates, of St. Louis, Miss Grant of St. Paul, and Miss Nicols, also of St. Paul, to Portland in her motor boat Sinbad, where Miss Nicols left for St. Paul, having been Mrs. Etner's guest for nearly two weeks. The return run to Ash Cove was made in a dense fog, but happily without accident.

The new landing of the Harpswell Yacht Club has been finished, and is now in use by the club. The former landing and Club House were totally destroyed when Palmer's store was burned last April.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Sherman entertained at luncheon last week Prof. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, of the Drexel Institute, Philadelphia. Prof. and Mrs. Smith are spending the summer at the Ottawa, Cushing's Island, and they ran down to South Harpswell in their motor boat, the Loki.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paul with their daughters, Misses Catherine and Lena Paul, arrived at the Paul cottage in Auburn colony last Friday for the season. It is a source of great pleasure to the summer residents to have Mr. Paul restored to health, and to have him join their midst again.

Mr. J. Albert Blake, president of the colony, arrived on Saturday to remain a few days with his family. Mr. Ernest Blake also enjoyed a short vacation at the family cottage this week.

Messrs. Howell Lord, Leslie Lord and Robert Hedges of Newark gave their friends in the colony quite a surprise by their unexpected arrival last Friday. It was a great pleasure to have the gentlemen at the colony again, and their friends find much pleasure in welcoming them to their midst.

One of the most pleasant affairs at the colony recently was the reception and tea given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. J. G. Bridge in honor of the 50th birthday of her mother, Mrs. Burrows. Many of the ladies of the neighborhood were present, and Mrs. Burrows received many handsome presents as reminders of the occasion.

Mr. J. G. Bridge joined his family last Saturday for a short stay at the colony.

Rehearsals for the presentation of the new opera written by Mr. Jack Thomas, which will be given in the Colony hall next month, are now well under way. Much progress has already been made in the preliminary work of the piece, and it is expected that a most creditable entertainment will be given from the work of this promising composer. It seems probable that two evening performances of the piece will be given about the middle of August.

The Mandeville cottage in the colony has been leased for the rest of the season to a Mrs. Dunbar and family of Brookline, Mass.

Mrs. H. G. Lord entertained a company of friends at her cottage last Friday evening. The affair took the nature of a bridge-visit party and proved a most enjoyable occasion for the participants.

The Auburn colony tennis courts have been very much improved by the addition of a wire enclosure on the sides which adds much to their appearance and convenience. Already much interest has been manifested in the game this season, and it is planned to hold a tennis tournament during August, which should prove of great interest to the members of the colony. If sufficient enthusiasm is manifested suitable prizes of silver will be awarded to the winners of the event.

Rev. H. R. Rose of Newark joined his family at their cottage in the colony on Sunday, where he plans to remain for the season.

Mr. Osceola Currier and his daughter, Miss Matilda Currier of Newark have arrived at the colony for the season.

Dr. McEwan and family of Newark, N. J., are expected soon at their place in the colony. The cottage has been recently re-painted and many interior renovations made which will add much to the comfort of its occupants. The Conant cottage nearby has also received substantial improvements.

A social hop will be given in the Colony hall every Saturday night during the season, and music is to be furnished by an orchestra from Portland. These affairs should prove most enjoyable for the young people of the colony.

Mrs. Etner entertained a party of friends on Thursday by a trip to the Gunnet in her speedy and commodious motor boat. The young ladies of the party included Misses Clara and Helen Baxter and Miss Margaret McCandless of the colony. The trip proved a most enjoyable event for all the members of the party.

Among the people who are expected soon to join the residents at the Auburn colony are Mrs. Henry Hubbard and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Hubbard of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. A. E. Pinkham has recently purchased a fine new automobile manufactured by Carter of Detroit, for the accommodation of the residents and summer visitors. Terms for hiring the vehicle will be reasonable, and trips may be arranged to Brunswick, Bath, New Meadows, Lewiston, Auburn and the other neighboring resorts. Mr. George Pinkham, who has completed a thorough training in the running and care of automobiles, and who is a most competent chauffeur, will have charge of the vehicle. Arrangements for the hire of the machine may be made with Mr. A. E. Pinkham.

Mr. Hector Holmes of Cambridge, Mass., a recent graduate of the Harvard law school, is a guest of Mr. Jack Thomas at Harpswell Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fitts of Medford, Mass., arrived on Wednesday to visit at the cottage of their son, Mr. Waldo Fitts.

Misses Margaret and Georgiana Scott of Philadelphia have returned to South Harpswell for the summer, and are at the Noble cottage. Miss Georgiana Scott, who conducted an art course here last summer, has recently accepted a position as supervisor of art in Bucknell university in Pennsylvania, and will assume her new duties in September.

Mr. I. J. Whitney and Mr. Q. Hamilton of Lewiston spent Friday night at R. M. Strout's.

Miss Alice Lord, who occupied the "Solid Comfort" cottage during the first of the month, has returned to her home in Lewiston. During her stay Miss Lord entertained a number of guests.

A very pleasing line of fancy work and burnt leather articles, colored art photographs and similar goods has been placed on sale at R. M. Strout's store. Visitors are invited to inspect the stock.—Adv.

Quite an unusual feat for ladies was performed by Miss Esther White of Bath and Miss Hazel White of Topsham last Wednesday when they came down the bay all alone in the motor boat "Nina." They were on the way to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon White at "Linwood." A considerable sea was running that day, but the boat was managed without mishap and the return was safely made on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Merrow of Seattle, Wash., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon White last week. The Merrows made the trip from Lewiston by motor boat, and are now visiting relatives in Portland.

Mrs. J. W. Nile of Farmington is entertaining her nieces Misses Evelyn and Rachel Winslow of Auburn.

Mr. E. I. Farmer of Farmington, Me., was a recent guest for two days with Mr. A. L. Wolcott at the Spencer cottage.

Mr. James Huntington of Brooklyn has been a guest since last Tuesday at the Morse house. Mr. Huntington is a well known nature-photographer, and his illustrations frequently appear in "Outing" and similar magazines.

Miss Pauline Dederer of the college of the city of New York, has returned to the experiment station, and is staying at the A. C. Stover place.

Mr. Max Morse of the same institution with his mother has taken the "Daisy" cottage again, and will be at the laboratory during the summer.

Dr. Erwin Connor of Orange, Mass., arrived on Saturday to enjoy several weeks' outing at the "Bay View" cottage as the guest of his father, Mr. Chas. E. Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thorn returned to their home in Boston on Sunday after a most enjoyable stay of one week at the Morse cottage. Mr. Thorn, who holds a municipal office in Boston, is a most enthusiastic admirer of South Harpswell.

Miss Josephine Neal of Cornell university arrived last Thursday to enjoy a month's outing at the home of Mrs. Ed. F. Hamilton.

Monday, July 26, will be children's day at the Strout House. All children making a 10-cent purchase, or over, will be presented with a box of Russell's chocolates.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Thompson, their daughter, Mrs. Everett Vining and Mr. Vining of Lewiston, made a trip to Harpswell on their new Buick runabout, Sunday. A shore dinner at the Strout House was the prime object of this trip.

Sunday evening at the Summit Spring hotel at Poland, the following program was given by the orchestra under the direction of Helene Weiser, Conover of Portland:

March—"From Tanhauser" Wagner
Overture—"Bohemian Girl" Falke
"Serenade" Tittl
(a) "Thaumerel" Schumann
(b) "Dainty Dames" Blake
Cello solo, (Prize Song) Walther
Mr. Soule
"Hungarian Fantasia" Tobani

AUCOCISCO HOUSE

A VERY SUCCESSFUL SEASON
STARTED AT THIS PLEASANT
RESORT ON CLIFF ISLAND.

Mrs. K. B. Batchelor has her accommodations entirely taken; Many Southern Guests.

The Aucocisco house, under the management of Mrs. K. B. Batchelor of Baltimore for the second season, is proving itself decidedly in favor with visitors to Casco Bay. This is particularly so as regards Southern people, and the charm of Southern hospitality together with the delicacies peculiar to the Southern table have brought many guests of the sunny South.

The request for accommodations has been so great that Mrs. Batchelor has been forced to add another cottage to her quarters, which already included the hotel proper and two outside cottages, but all these rooms have been engaged, and applications are being refused.

Among the guests numbered at the house, are the Rev. Mr. Dunbar, Mrs. Dunbar and daughter, of Baltimore, Md., who arrived but recently from Asbury Park, N. J. The Rev. Dunbar is pastor of the 1st Lutheran Church in Baltimore.

Mr. Robert Burton, of Baltimore, is here for about a month. Mr. Burton is a leading lawyer of Baltimore.

Miss Anna A. Pearson, of Hackensack, N. J., who came here from Atlantic City for her visit on Cliff.

Miss Ellen Murta, of Philadelphia, a guest of last season.

Miss Simons and Miss Cowland, of Philadelphia, who are visiting for a few weeks.

Water power is used to supply the electricity for the new Italian railway from Castle Raymond to Camerino.

First Freedmen in the Army.

The first muster of freedmen into the United States Army occurred on November 7, 1862, at Gen. Saxton's headquarters in Beaufort, S. C. It was on the first anniversary of the capture of Port Royal and at the time of the organization of the Department of the South.

Capt. James had his men drawn up in line and as he read their names from the roll each man answered "Here." Then with uncovered heads and right hands raised the men took the usual oath of allegiance, which was administered by Gen. Saxton. This simple ceremony over, the newly made soldiers marched back to their camp.—Southern Workman.

Merriconeag House.

MANY FORMER PATRONS HAVE RETURNED TO ENJOY THE SEASON HERE.

Automobile Service Has Been Added to the Other Advantages of the Hotel.

The exceptional charms offered by the Merriconeag House at South Harpswell serve to attract a steadily increasing list of patronage to this beautiful resort. Here may be found a substantially built summer hotel, fitted with every convenience for the comfort of its guests, and located within a stone's throw of the ocean's edge. The service at the house is unexcelled, the rooms are fitted up in a very comfortable manner, and the table is run according to the most modern ideas. Considered from any standpoint the Merriconeag House is a most ideal place to enjoy a long rest or short vacation.

One of the strongest advantages offered by the hotel is that it is located on the mainland, so that people who wish to avoid a trip on the water to their vacation resort may reach South Harpswell without resorting to the steamers. In order to accommodate the patrons of the hotel as well as the local summer residents, Mr. A. E. Pinkham has added a fine new automobile to the Merriconeag House livery. Arrangements may be made to meet tourists at Brunswick, Bath or any of the neighboring resorts at any time. The automobile is also at the service of guests desiring to secure the machine for a run from the hotel. Mr. Pinkham may be reached by telephone or word can be left with Proprietor Pierce.

Another service recently added to the equipment of the hotel is the barber shop, which has been opened in the hotel annex by Mr. James Brown of Boston, a workman of long experience. This innovation will be appreciated by the gentlemen, who have previously found it necessary to have their work done in Portland.

Mr. J. Woodman Babbett of New York City gave a most capably dramatic recital of wit and humor in the hotel parlors last Thursday evening. He was received by an appreciative audience of the guests, who thoroughly enjoyed the pleasing entertainment.

Among the many former guests who return to the house this season is Mrs. M. Richard Burke of Jamaica Plain, N. J., who comes here again to enjoy her twelfth season at the Merriconeag.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reichenbach of New York City also arrived early in the season to remain for the summer. The Reichenbachs have been patrons of the hotel for seven years and are most enthusiastic in their praise of South Harpswell.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Littaur of Newark, N. J. have been guests at the Merriconeag since the first of the month and find much rest and enjoyment amid their pleasant surroundings.

A party of four gentlemen connected with one of the municipal departments in the city of New York arrived on Friday to enjoy their vacation at South Harpswell. They are Messrs. William S. Swain, Charles J. Chapman, Edward J. Kelly and George F. Bird.

Captain Stephen Toothaker of South Harpswell and Mr. Nelson Gildersleeve of Brooklyn, who are a guest at the hotel, are planning to make a tour of the White Mountain resorts in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jacobs and their little daughter of Lancaster, N. H. arrived at the hotel on Saturday to enjoy an outing amid the pleasant surroundings by the sea.

South Harpswell seems to be a favorite port of call for the many yachting parties which cruise along the eastern coast during the summer. One such party which found its way to the hotel last week for a short stay was composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Perkins, Carroll L. Perkins, Paul F. Perkins and V. J. McEwen of Brooklyn, Mass.

BAILEY ISLAND.

end, and Mr. and Mrs. Hodge are here for an indefinite stay with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sleeper at the Rest-abit.

Mr. F. H. Lovejoy, who is on the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Evening Times, arrived here Tuesday to spend a two weeks' vacation as the guest of Mr. Xanthus Smith.

On Wednesday of last week, Mr. Xanthus and Mr. George Smith organized a picnic to Small Point Beach in their trim launch, "Polly R." In the party were: Miss Harriett Luckey, Miss Molly Parker, Mrs. Xanthus Smith and Miss Sue Parker. They spent the day at Small Point and went in bathing in the surf which ran very high that day. They returned in the latter part of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Holmes of Glenwood Springs, Colorado with their daughters, Miss Carrie and Miss Maylinne Holmes are at Mrs. M. E. Tracy's cottage for the remainder of the season. With them for a two weeks' visit are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. O'Connell of Ayer, Mass. Mr. Holmes is now editor of the "Daily Avalanche Echo" at Glenwood Springs. Mr. Holmes was a Portland boy and gained the start in his newspaper experience on the Press and the Argus. He has made his home in Colorado for thirty years, and although Glenwood Springs is a famous resort he comes to Bailey this season for the rest and quiet seclusion it affords.

Mr. Ralph Sprague, the popular Purser on the "Aucoisco" spent Saturday night and Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sleeper at their cottage "Restabit."

Mrs. William M. Pennell of Brunswick, Me. and her daughter Miss Sarah Pennell are at the Johnson House for their fifth season. They arrived last week and intend to stay for the rest of the summer.

COMPLETE HOME FURNISHERS.

One of the best and most handily situated house furnishing establishments in Portland is the store of T. F. Foss & Sons, located at Monument Square in the very business heart of the city.

The large new sign "T. F. Foss & Sons, Complete Home Furnishers," which has been attracting much notice, will surely serve as a beacon for the stranger who is looking for a thoroughly reliable place at which to trade.

THE BAR.

The Saloon is sometimes called a bar; that's true—

A bar to heaven, a door to hell; Whoever named it, named it well. A bar to manliness and wealth. A door to want and broken health. A bar to honor, pride and fame. A door to pain, and grief and shame. A bar to hope, a bar to prayer. A door to darkness and despair. A bar to honored, useful life. A door to bawling, senseless strife. A bar to all that's true and brave. A door to every drunkard's grave. A bar to joys that home imparts. A door to tears and aching hearts. A bar to heaven, a door to hell. Whoever named it, named it well.

—By a St. Louis, Mo. business man, who summers at Harpswell.

Base Ball Defeat.

On Saturday last the Chebeague Island team was badly defeated on the home grounds by the Yarmouth aggregation. Willard pitching for Chebeague was not effective, and Yarmouth rapped out hits about when they were needed. The island boys were unable to touch Thurston for consecutive hits and were cut off when on bases, Hill being the only one to have his eye on the ball. Due in great part to lack of practice, the work of the Chebeague outfield was rather crude, while Yarmouth fielded well. Hill played a star game at first for Chebeague while Starr caught well and "Midge" Cotting was in the game at all times. For Yarmouth Thurston twirled excellent ball, and was ably supported, a feature play being a stop of Manley. Umpire Quimby was decidedly off in his decisions, and handed out several raw ones, particularly to Chebeague. The score is appended below:

Chebeague Wins.

The Chebeague team defeated Orr's Island yesterday on the latter's grounds by the decisive score of 12 to 2. Batteries: Chebeague, Chase and Starr; Orr's Island, Coombs and Stevens. Chase pitched a fast game and the team batted in fine form.

Mrs. Ida S. Van Nuy, Miss Alice D. Van Nuy and Miss Margaret L. Van Nuy of North Hampton, Mass., are guests of J. W. Seabury for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O'Grady and son Frederick, Jr., arrived Saturday to spend the remainder of the season at the Hamilton Villa. Mr. O'Grady returned to his business in Montreal on Monday. The family were intending to come down the middle of June, but were delayed on account of an accident in which the son, Frederick, Jr., sustained a broken leg and other injuries.

Mrs. Margaret P. Donlan and her daughter, Miss Jennie E. Dolan of Dorchester, Mass., are to spend several weeks at the Island View House. This is Mrs. Donlan's first summer here, but Miss Jennie Donlan has been here for four seasons.

Mr. George W. Larrabee of Wilton, Me., has been enjoying life at his cottage for two weeks. He entertained William F. Sprague of Wilton, Me., during a week's stay.

Mr. H. O. Emery of Roxbury, Mass., visited of late with Mr. H. G. Sadler at "Pleasant View" cottage. Mr. Emery has been stopping at Well's Beach and this was his first visit here.

Mrs. T. W. Henderson of Everett, Mass., her son Ralph and daughter, Isabel, Ray and Pauline, are occupying "Shady Nook" cottage for the season. Miss Mabel Herrick of Everett is visiting with the Hendersons for two weeks.

Several friends of Miss Anna Christensen tendered her a surprise party on the occasion of her birthday, Tuesday. The young ladies in the party included Miss Margaret Newell, Miss Esther Cooke, Miss Elizabeth Ash, Miss Hart-Lester Harris, and the Misses Ernestine and Marie Robbins.

Mr. L. J. Chandler of Springfield, Mass., is down at the "Pelham" cottage for a few days. Mrs. Alexander Alexander of Springfield, Mass., arrives Sunday for a visit of a month.

Mrs. H. J. Diest, who has been visiting for five weeks with her sister, Mrs. Ash, has returned to her home in Columbus, Georgia.

Mrs. Rufus D. Adams and daughter Elizabeth of Salem, Mass., are season guests at the Hamilton Villa. This is their second summer here and this season they intend to stay until September. Mr. R. D. Adams is connected with the firm of Brown-Durrell, the large wholesale dry goods house in Boston.

Services were held at Hill Crest Hall on Sunday afternoon at three, and about seventy-five people were present. The Rev. Mr. Jackson conducted the service, and the Rev. John Hutchison of Arlington, N. J. also made a few remarks. This afternoon service will be continued every Sunday.

Miss Alice H. Gilbert her sister, Mrs. Gideon Wells, and Mr. Gilbert Wells of Springfield, Mass., are sojourning at the Hamilton Villa for their eighth season.

Mrs. Henry Upton and children, Miss Edith and Master Ivan Upton, with their friend Master Cyril Slater of Montreal arrived last Saturday to sojourn at the Summit House for a month or more. This is their first season in Casco Bay. Mr. Upton is in business in Montreal, being connected with the George H. Knott Co. and the Dominion Printing Co.

Postmaster and Mrs. Louis C. Hyde of Springfield, Mass., will have the very deep sympathy of their many friends among the island and summer residents of Chebeague in the death of their daughter Dorothy, which occurred at midnight Thursday at the family's summer residence Menanoke, after a severe illness of three weeks. She was 21 years of age last February and has always been in delicate health. She was of a particularly lovable disposition, endearing herself to all who had the privilege of becoming closely acquainted with her. The remains were removed to Springfield on Saturday and the funeral took place from the family home, 84 Temple street, on Monday afternoon. There are two other children, Mrs. Phillip D. Hawkins of Springfield and Henry C. Hyde of Saginaw, Mich.

Mr. Hyde and his family have now spent four seasons at Chebeague, and they number many close friends among the residents and cottagers. They occupied the S. E. Laurie cottage the first season; and as Dorothy became more and more attached to Chebeague decided to build "Menanoke," where they have lived since.

Mrs. William A. Harris entertained her sister, Mrs. Edward S. Brewer of Longmeadow, Mass. last Thursday and Friday at "Noddle Head." Mrs. Brewer was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Howard S. Lang of Salem, and the ladies enjoyed the two days' outing at Chebeague while on their return from a sojourn at Poland Springs. On Thursday several of the Harris family with their guests went to Orr's Island for a shore dinner and that evening a beach supper was enjoyed near the house.

Mr. William Harris of Springfield, Mass., joined his family at "Noddle Head," last Saturday for the summer. Mr. Harris has a large circle of friends among the residents and visitors and they are all glad to welcome him to their midst again.

Dr. Fortin of Waltham, who has been stopping at the Rose cottage, has been visiting a week in the White Mountains, but returns to prolong his vacation here.

Miss Lena Phipps of Lynn has been entertained at Mr. H. H. Crossman's cottage for the past week. Mr. Edmund Pond of Milton, who has also been visiting here, has returned home after an enjoyable stay.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Putney of Waverly, Mass., and their daughter Mildred, Mrs. Frank Boynton and daughter Mabel of East Princeton, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Berry of Watertown, Mass., are stopping with Mr. G. S. Hicks, who is occupying the Berry cottage. Mr. Berry is an inventor and manufacturer of fire house and police supplies.

A sister of Mrs. E. R. Fortin, Mrs. Emerson of Braintree, Mass., is spending her second season at the Codding cottage. Mr. Bernard S. Codding comes down nearly every Sunday during the summer. Mr. G. O. Gustafson and Dr. Bertram Lenfest and two sons of Brooklyn, N. Y., stopped here for a few days recently, coming up in their yawl, "Oneonta" from Boston. They sailed for Rockland on Saturday, on their way down the coast to Bar Harbor.

Be Sure To Get A
Souvenir Plate.

Every visitor to the city should secure one of our artistic souvenir plates as a reminder of pleasant days spent by the shores of Casco Bay. The three best ones are the Longfellow Plate at fifty cents, the "Pearl or Orr's Island" at thirty-five cents, and the new Portland souvenir plate at twenty-five cents. We believe this last named will prove one of the most popular plates we have ever handled.

Fragrant Fir Pillows at 50 cents each.
