Peaks Island House.

HOUSE ENTERS UPON LAST WEEK WITH MANY GUESTS.

Delightful Season at this Hotel Nearly Over.

The Peaks Island House Trio, whose concerts and recitals this summer have been one of the most pleasant features of the season, gave another one of their delightful Sunday evening concerts last week, which was received by the audience of guests with great applause. The two numbers which seemed to be most to the taste of those in the audience were the "Pizzicati" from Delibes' "Ballet Sylvia" and the selection from Balfe's ever popular "Bohemian Girl." The violin solo by Miss Aimee Lafricain, who gave the "Cavatina" by Roff in a highly artistic manner, was also well received. The program that was offered comprised:

Overture, La Dance Blanche
Nocturne, Op. 9, No. 2.
Pizzicati, Ballet Sylvia.
Cavatina, (Violin Solo)
Selection, Bohemian Girl.
As usual the devotees of bridge assembled in the hotel parlors last week, but Thursday night, instead of Wednesday, saw them congregating. These bridge parties have proved of great popularity this year and have served to bring together those among the guests who have similar tastes in cards.

There are hotel dances and hotel dances far and wide throughout the country, but if there are any more jolly gatherings of those who love the terpsichorean art than those at the Peaks Island House, they are as yet to be found. Every Tuesday and Friday night throughout the summer these merry, care-free affairs have been held in the hotel parlors and their popularity has increased. If possible, every time, balloon dances and other affairs out of the ordinary serving to vary the program. Last week proved no exception, and the dancers swayed in the dreamy Boston or off in some corner, practised the graceful Spanish till a late hour in the night. They realized that it was near the end of the season and resolved to take advantage of every minute of enjoyment; and it was with reluctance that they finally ceased and went to their slumbers.

Next week will mark the closing of what has easily been one of the most successful years in the history of the house. Manager Rowe, by his careful management, bounteous hospitality and constant seeking after the enjoyment of every guest, has made hosts of friends throughout the country, who would hardly think of letting a summer pass without spending part of it at Peaks Island. The great success of this house shows conclusively what a large modern hotel can achieve with the right man at the head of things in Casco Bay.

Change of Timetable.
The fall schedule on the boats goes into effect next Tuesday, Sept. 5. Several boats will be taken off and running time will be modified to suit the less crowded conditions.

THE STATIONERY OF A GENTLEMAN

For years Old Hampshire Bond has been regarded by progressive business men as the finest stationery for their firm letter heads and envelopes, not to mention other purposes where the best was desirable. It was natural, then, that when this fine paper was first put up for social correspondence under the title, "The Stationery of a Gentleman" that men of good taste everywhere welcomed it as a perfect solution of the stationery problem for men. The same paper is now put up in attractive packages for ladies and the popular correspondence cards are also put up in three sizes suitable for all requirements. We have this paper in various forms and shall be glad to show it to you.

The Annual Meeting of the Improvement Association on Bailey Island.

LARGE GATHERING PRESENT AND MUCH INTEREST AROUSED.

Sec-Treas. Charles Riborg Mann Presents Report of Great Importance.

The Bailey Island Improvement Association held an important meeting on Thursday evening to consider the question of taxation, expenditures and town organization. The following reports were presented:

Your committee appointed to consider the question of the relation of taxes to expenditures on Bailey Island begs to submit the following report:

Your committee, accompanied by Messrs. C. M. Clary and John F. Guiliver, visited the town office on Tuesday, Aug. 22, and secured from the records there a complete list of the taxpayers on Bailey Island, together with the amounts of their assessment and taxes. The list is appended: This list shows the following facts:

Total valuation of Bailey Island, April 1, 1911
Real estate, resident $48,175.00
Real estate, non-resident 96,265.00
Total, $144,440.00
Tax rate, $17.80 per $1000.00
Total assessed taxes:
Resident (real and personal taxes) $1,116.07
Non-resident (real only) 1,803.72
Total, $2,919.79
Total valuation of the Town of Harpswell, April 1, 1911:
Real Estate: $439,640.00
Non-resident 397,130.00
Personal Estate: $836,770.00
Resident $77,629.00
Non-resident 2,370.00
Total, 79,999.00

Total, $916,769.00
Total taxes assessed for the year 1910
Western Division $7,815.95
(F. L. Pinkham, collector) $7,815.95
Eastern Division 10,421.52
(Frank Stevens, collector) 10,421.52
Total, $18,237.47

While some inaccuracy is introduced by comparing the taxes assessed for 1911 with the total valuations for 1911, these are not important for the relative valuations which are here made.

It will be noted:

First: That the total assessed valuation of Bailey Island ($144,440) is nearly one-sixth (1-6) the total assessed value of real estate in the town ($836,770).

Second: That the total assessed against Bailey Island ($2,919.79) is also about one-sixth the total tax assessed for the whole town ($18,237).

If we accept this fraction (1-6) as a fair expression of the relative value of Bailey Island when compared to the whole town, then one-sixth of the general expenses of the town should be charged against Bailey Island. The general expenses of the town for 1910 were the following:

Support of poor $1007.34
Paid State (State tax minus mill tax refunded for schools) 1192.02
Contingent (town office expenses) 2201.83
Town bonds 43.00
Brown-tail moths 521.65
State road 450.00
Sheep killed by dogs 100.50
Total, $5516.34

From these figures it appears that last year the town spent on Bailey Island as much as it received from the island. This was, however, an exceptional year, owing to the special appropriation of $800 for the new road. We must also not forget that nearly half of this appropriation was not spent, although the road should be extended farther and finished more completely. A fairer estimate of the relation of taxes and expenditures is found in the accounts of other years. For the year 1909 the account runs as follows:

Total tax collected from Bailey Island (estimated) $2700.00
General expenses of the town:
Support of poor $1106.88
Paid State 903.57
Contingent expense 1889.19
Premium on bonds 43.00

Brown-tail moths 336.23
State road 468.00

Sec-Treas. Charles Riborg Mann Presents Report of Great Importance.
Bailey Island's share $4745.85
School $677.00
Roads 55.67
Abatements and discounts 111.93

Total $844.60 $844.60
Total received from the town $1635.57

Excess of taxes over receipts $1064.43
Similar estimates for the years 1907 and 1904, in which a very liberal charge for general expenses is made against Bailey Island, shows the excess of taxes over receipts for the island to have been $738.88 and $831.83 respectively.

In view of these facts your committee is convinced that about one-third of the taxes collected on the island are each year expended for improvements in other parts of the town. The new road here is the only improvement made here for the past ten years, and the expense of this was fully covered by the taxes for that year.

Your committee wished to point out one other fact in connection with this report. The total tax assessed in the town in 1910 was $18,237.47. This was divided as follows:
Western Division (Harpswell Neck and Haskell) $7,815.95
Eastern Division (Bailey, Orr, and Great Ids.) 10,421.52

As far as can be ascertained from careful measurements on the Coast Survey Chart of Casco Bay, the relative sizes of these divisions are:
Harpswell Neck and Haskell's Id. 6900 acres
Great Island 4000 acres
Orr's Island 1200 acres
Bailey Island 400 acres
Bailey, Orr, and Great Islands 5600 acres

Since the total tax on the western division was $7815.95, the tax per acre there was $7815.95 per 6000 or $1.30 per acre.

Similarly in the eastern division, the total tax was $10,421.52 and the total number of acres about 5600. Hence the tax per acre was $10,421.52 per 5600 or $1.86.

Since the total tax on Bailey Island was about $2900.00, the tax on Orr's and Great Islands was $10,421 per 2900, or $7521.00. Hence the tax per acre on Orr's and Great Islands was nearly 7521 per 5200, or $1.44.

The tax on Bailey Island was $2900 per 400, or $7.25 per acre. It is of course evident that the valuation of thickly settled Bailey Island should be greater per acre than that on the other parts of the town. When we consider, however, the non-resident property on Harpswell and Orr's Islands, we cannot help raising the question whether there is as much difference in value as the figures indicate. We are the more inclined to question whether the assessments are made on the same basis in all parts of the town when we compare the tax per acre of Harpswell with that of Orr's and Great Islands together, — $1.30 with $1.44; while that of Bailey's alone is $7.25 per acre.

A study of the appended list of assessed valuations on Bailey Island raises the further question whether the method of assessment is perfectly just. The valuations are evidently assessed mainly on buildings and not on land. Cottage lots that are vacant, but which could be sold at any time for $500 are assessed at $100; while lots of similar value with a $1500 house on them are assessed at about $1200. If vacant land were assessed more nearly at its market value, as the buildings are, would it not be possible to lower the tax rate to the benefit of the entire town?

These questions raise the further question whether the valuation of Bailey Island as one-sixth the total value of the town is not an excessive valuation. The number of voters on Bailey Island is about one-ninth the total number in the town; and the total number of taxpayers here is one-ninth the total number in the town. The value of the resident and that of the non-resident real estate are nearly equal in the town as a whole; while on Bailey Island the non-resident real estate is valued at double the amount of the resident real estate. There is, therefore, a much larger amount of taxation without representation on Bailey Island than elsewhere in the town; and a much higher average tax per taxpayer here than elsewhere. Is the average value of the holdings greater per taxpayer on Bailey Island than it is in other parts of the town?

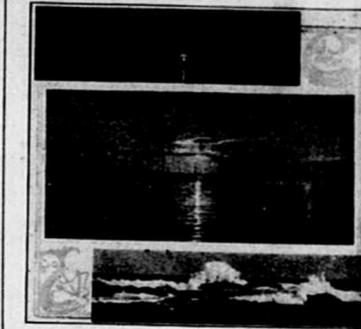

Notwithstanding the above facts, your committee believes that it would not be advisable at this time to try to form a separate town of Bailey Island. We believe that the town of

Easy For Bailey's.

MERE POINT TAKEN INTO CAMP WITHOUT TROUBLE.

Shea Pounded To All Corners of Field.

For the second time in a week Bailey Island took a tumble out of the aggregation from Mere Point, winning hands down by the score of 10-3. Shea, who was in the points for the losing team, had little stuff and his assortment of curves was pounded hard. Moran on the other hand was found for only seven hits and fanned nine batters. Bailey's won the game in the third by sending five runs across, but just to make it sure added as many more before the game was ended. By winning the last two games from Mere Point, Bailey's has a firm hold on the bay championship. The score:

Ocean View House.

MOTOR TOURING PARTIES ARE MAKING FREQUENT STOPS HERE.

A Record Fishing Catch by Two Guests.

Fishing has been very popular this summer among the Ocean View guests and many devotees of the sport have registered here. Not among the least of these are Mr. Ogle and Mr. Calkins. They have been out a great deal since their sojourn here and last Thursday they had an especially successful trip. The gentlemen anchored near the spar buoy off the Point and in a very short time returned with as fine a catch as has been seen for some time.

The Misses Atwood of Chicago, who are friends of Doctor and Mrs. H. V. Neal, are registered at the House. They are on a tour through Maine and the White Mountains, but have fallen so much in love with Harpswell that they have engaged rooms for next season at the Ocean View so as to be sure and have accommodations on their return when they intend to bring their family to enjoy this paradise. Mr. W. A. Sargent of Brookline returned to his home Monday after a nine weeks' vacation spent at the Ocean View. This was Mr. Sargent's first season here, but the resort has proved most agreeable with him and he is very much pleased with its attractiveness.

Mr. C. B. Koller, a retired real estate merchant of Philadelphia and formerly of the New York Board of Aldermen, is staying at the House for a few weeks and enjoying the bracing air from the broad verandas of the Hotel.

Manager Lightfoot announces that because of the demand for accommodations during the next month and the number of bookings for the same, the House will remain open clear into October.

A QUALITY STORE.

There is justification in the claim of some stores that they offer special attraction to shoppers. This is undoubtedly true of Owen, Moore & Co., whose announcements to Casco Bay people are carefully watched.

Bailey Island

The Driftwood.

The Right Rev. C. Kinlock Nelson, Bishop of Georgia, and Mrs. Nelson have been guests at this pretty house for the last week, and have become great admirers during their stay of the wonderful natural beauty of the Bailey Island shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Harris, of Atlanta, Ga., have recently registered here for a stay of some little time. During the first part of the month, Mr. and Mrs. Harris were visitors at Cliff Island but felt that they could not leave for the South before seeing Bailey's.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Fletcher, all of Philadelphia, who have been guests at this house for the past few weeks left recently after what has proved a most refreshing vacation for each one of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Roper, with their son, Master Marcellus Roper, Jr., after having been registered here since the first of the month, have returned to their home in Worcester, Mass.

The Johnson.

Miss Editha Soden, of Newtonville, Mass., has joined her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Soden, here and will probably remain for the balance of the summer season. Mrs. Soden's mother, Mrs. Persis A. Page, of Portland, is also a guest at the house.

Among the arrivals of the past week have been Mrs. Charles A. Kilton, Mrs. Julian Bigelow, and Miss Lucy H. Bigelow, all of Worcester, Mass., who have registered here for a stay of some little time.

Miss Julie Kleimann, who has been a guest here since the early part of the season, left this week for her home in Pittsburg, Pa., leaving the island with great regret.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana W. Hall of Chicago, Ill., returned a short time ago to their home city, after spending a most delightful few weeks at the island.

The Seaside.

Mrs. M. Schnurr and Miss Eunice Schnurr, of Tompkinsville, N. Y., arrived here last week and have every hope of enjoying a most delightful vacation.

Miss Winnie V. Verity, of Montreal, is a recent arrival at this popular house, where she will probably make an extended sojourn.

Miss F. R. Bonn and Miss A. F. Ditty, both of Baltimore, Md., who have been guests at this house for some little time, left recently after having experienced a most delightful outing here in every respect.

Mr. De Witt Dumville has returned to his home in Ridgewood, N. J., after having been a guest here for the past two weeks.

Robinhood Inn.

Among the more recent arrivals at the house has been Miss Dorothy Massey, of Philadelphia, who will be a guest here for some time, visiting her aunt, Miss Julia Massey.

Last Thursday night a large party from among the guests here after taking a delightful sail in Captain Elijah Doughty's boat, enjoyed another of the merry clam-bake's which have been such a feature of the summer here. These affairs are always most enjoyable for everyone and there is sure to be a good time for all when one of these bakes is in progress.

Miss Massey is expecting her nephew, Mr. Hensley B. Massey, of Syracuse, N. Y., to arrive shortly for some time together with his wife, and to spend part of his honeymoon at Bailey's.

Among the arrivals of the past week have been Dr. O. P. Penning, of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. A. E. Penning of Havre de Grace, Md., who will probably make a sojourn of some time here.

The past week has been filled with good times for the guests here and every day motor-boat rides through the different parts of the bay, picnic parties on the rocks, and many other forms of amusement have served to make the hours pass all too quickly.

The guests at the house have taken a great interest in the building of the new public library and last week they subscribed thirty-five dollars which has been forwarded to the committee in charge of the building. Other donations have also been made from friends at the house and Miss Massey is likewise greatly interested in anything that is for the betterment of Bailey's or its people.

The Leading Grocer.

The residents of Bailey Island are indeed fortunate in having what is one of the finest and most up-to-date grocery and general stores in the bay. The establishment kept by L. M. York is always stocked with the best supplies on the market and the courteous treatment accorded by those in charge is always greatly appreciated by customers.

The Woodbine.

On Tuesday night of last week, Mrs. Sinnett gave the guests at the house a most delightful dance. The dining-room was cleared of the tables and proved to be a splendid ballroom. Music for the dancing was furnished by Miss Bessie Dancy, of Boston, and Mr. Willard Goldsmith, of Philadelphia, and the whole evening passed all too quickly for those who danced to their music.

Mrs. A. B. McGown, Miss H. McGown, and Miss M. A. McGown, all of Jersey City, N. J., who have been spending several weeks here, left recently and returned to their home city.

Among those who registered here during the past week were Mrs. J. F. Dancy, Miss Bessie Dancy, and Miss Elizabeth Sullivan, all of Boston, who will be guests here probably for some little time.

The Outlook.

Among the latest arrivals at this popular house have been the Misses Sarah E. Roberts and Irene M. Leasher, both of Philadelphia, who will probably make quite an extended stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Valentine, who have been guests here for some weeks, left for their home in New York last week. Their visit here has proved most delightful for them both and they hope to be able to return next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Neufeld, of New York, registered here for their vacation a short time ago and hope to be able to remain for some time.

Miss Lillian Rollinson, of Rahway, N. J., who has been a guest here for the past two weeks, left a few days ago after having enjoyed a most delightful stay.

The contract for building the new public library here, of which a detailed description was recently given, has been finally awarded to Mr. Charles Thomas and the work has already been begun. The bazaar which was held last week in Cottage Hall for the benefit of the Library Fund proved to be a most unusual success, practically every one at the island attending it. Over $230 was taken in, showing in itself what a great interest was taken in the affair.

Mrs. John de Hart, and her two sons, Messrs. Seward and Kimball de Hart, of Maplewood, N. J., arrived at Bailey's last Friday and will be the guests for two weeks of Dr. J. S. Seward at his summer home here.

The baseball season here came to a glorious finish last week, when by twice defeating Mere Point by decisive scores, the local team won the championship of the bay. Out of the thirteen games that have been played the Bailey Islanders have nine victories to their credit, giving them a percentage of .698. Great interest has been shown by the residents of the island in the games and their support all along has been most enthusiastic. In the next to the last game of the season, Mere Point was defeated by the score of 5-0. The game was featured by McCartney's pitching, who had Mere Point at his mercy all the way. The score:

Batteries: McCartney and Ford; Leonard and Chapman.

Mrs. F. D. Smith and Miss Grace Smith, of Longmeadow, Mass., who have been guests for some time of Mrs. Harrison Allen, left last Monday for their home.

The Misses Anna and Helen Davis, of Wayne, Pa., are visiting their sister, Mrs. W. T. Brown, here and will probably remain for several weeks. Mr. Brown, who has been here for most of the season left on Monday last week for Philadelphia.

Mrs. A. B. Fay, of Washington, who has been spending the summer at Kennebunk, was a visitor to the island last week, being the guest while here of her sister, Mrs. Herbert Day at her summer home, "Gray Rocks."

Recent guests at the Spray cottage have been Dr. and Mrs. Charles J. Gould and Miss Lillian Gleason of North Attleboro, Mass., Mrs. and Miss Bond, of Worcester, and Miss Marian Webber, of Boston, Mass.

Professor and Mrs. F. B. Aldrich, of Worcester, Mass., with their little daughter, Miss Madeleine Aldrich, are guests of Mrs. H. N. Stokes at her cottage here. Professor Aldrich is Master of Mathematics at Worcester Academy. Mrs. Stokes is also entertaining Mrs. Oscar Morse of Amherst, Mass., and Mr. George Chesm, of Springfield.

Mr. Sidney Gray, of Boston, is expected to arrive shortly to visit his brother, Mr. E. C. Gray, at his summer cottage, "The Ledges," for a time.

"Rosemont," the pretty summer home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Potter, has been closed up for the rest of the summer, owing to the continued serious illness of Mrs. Potter's mother, Mrs. C. Y. Newman. However, it is possible that later in September Mr. and Mrs. Potter may be back for a few days.

Recent guests at "Morningside," Mrs. A. C. Colton's pretty cottage, are the Misses Lyford, of Lewiston, Me.; Miss Helena Holmes and Miss Annie I. Moriarty, also of Lewiston; Miss Edna Wadsworth, of Chicago. They will all remain till after Labor Day. Mrs. Warren Simpson and Miss Helen Simpson left Friday for their home in South Weymouth.

Miss Ada Wentworth, of Lewiston, Me., is expected to arrive this week at "Bonnyview," Miss Susan Jordan's cottage. Mrs. M. H. Darling and Miss Christine H. Darling of Worcester, and Mrs. Susan Greely and Miss Mary Cochrane, of Allston, Mass., who have been guests there for some time left last week.

Mrs. E. P. Ford has left the island for some time and is visiting friends during her absence at Ogunquit, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Willis, Mr. A. B. Raymond, and Miss Margaret Howe, all of South Weymouth, Mass., were guests of Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Atwood last week at Redgables cottage. Miss Alta Shaw entertained some of her friends at Redgables, those in the party being the Misses Katherine and Lena Paul, who came over from the Auburn Colony in South Harpswell, Miss Elizabeth Colegrobe, Miss Vera Vreeland, Miss Ailsa MacColl, Miss Rona Parker, and Miss Alice Conklin.

The Rev. Carl H. Elmore, of Briarcliffe Manor, N. Y., is a guest of Mrs. Alexander MacColl at her cottage on Summer Hill. Mr. MacColl who has been travelling through Great Britain, is expected to arrive this week, after having been delayed for some time in Liverpool by the riots there.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cook of Brooklyn, N. Y., have been visiting

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Armstrong at their cottage here. Mr. Cook is the general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association at Brooklyn.

Miss Ethel Shute entertained several of her friends among the summer colony here at a lobster supper last Thursday night. In order to carry out the appropriate color scheme, the table was decorated in red and red lanterns were hung all around the room. Those in the party were: Miss Polly Smith, Miss Harriet Luckey, Miss Molly Parker, Mr. George Smith, Mr. Benjamin Luckey, Mr. Ernest Nachod, and Mr. Xanthus Smith.

Miss El Imura, of Tokyo, Japan, together with Miss Marie Antoinette Estabrook is now conducting the Craftsmen's tea-room at Thunder Hole. Miss Imura has come to this country to learn the methods in use here for instructing deaf-mutes to speak and on her return will conduct a school of her own.

Mrs. Steven Day with her daughter, Miss Helen Day, of Orange, N. J., together with Mrs. Elizabeth Smith and her little daughter Helen, will occupy the "Barnacle" cottage in Malden Lane through the month of September.

The kindergarten which has been conducted this summer by the Misses Mary and Sarah Adams, had its final session on Friday with sixteen children present. The next day a big party was held for the children and their parents and friends and games and dances on the lawn around the house were enjoyed, while refreshments were served in the kindergarten tent. Miss El Imura, of Tokyo, told the children several Japanese stories and several of the summer visitors who are interested in kindergarten work assisted in like ways.

Miss Muriel Snively, who has been at the island since the early part of the summer, left the island last week and will visit friends in Philadelphia for some time.

Mrs. E. J. Wells, who has been occupying her cottage in the Pastures since the first part of June, left on Saturday last week for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Erastus J. Starr, of Spencer, Mass., who have been away from the island for two weeks on a cruise down the coast in their motor-boat, returned recently after having journeyed up as far as Bar Harbor and the islands around Penobscot Bay. Miss Ellen Stoddard, of Spencer, Mass., is visiting Miss Ellen Starr for a time.

Mr. Perry MacNeill, who has been away from the island for two weeks in New York, returned last Saturday and hopes to remain for some time.

Mrs. Frank Adelotte, of Bloomington, Ind., has been a visitor during the past week of Miss May Monroe at her summer cottage here.

Miss Winifred Root of New York, joined her family here last week, having just returned from a trip through Italy and the countries lying in the southern parts of Europe.

Miss Dorothy Power, who has been a visitor to the island for the last few weeks left Friday for her home in Boston, Mass. She will certainly be greatly missed by all her many friends among the younger summer people here.

Mr. Robert Hathaway, who has been a guest for the last two weeks at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Root, left Friday of last week, after having enjoyed to the utmost a visit which proved all too short in its duration.

Mr. Frank Hill Rogers, of Albany, N. Y., who has been visiting Mrs. Clara Louise Burnham for some time at her summer home, "The Mooring," returned last week to his home city.

Mr. Rogers, who last summer made the perilous trip across the wilderness of Iceland, contemplates making another trip next summer in the regions around the Arctic Sea.

Mr. Samuel Knight of Topsham, Me., was a recent guest of his niece, Mrs. James G. Stetson. Miss Ida Stetson of South Poland was here recently, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Stetson.

Mrs. Henrietta Woodbury of South Portland who has been visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. L. M. York, for some time, returned home Friday last.

Mr. Joseph M. Stetson, the popular clerk at James G. Stetson's ice cream parlors, was compelled to return to his home at Wayne, Me., last week on account of illness.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Harpwell will do the fair thing by all its parts, and that all that is needed is to make known just what is needed here. Because it is more thickly settled than other parts of the town in the summer time, this island needs special sanitary protection not required in less densely populated districts. It also needs a more efficient grammar school. The town should be able to meet these needs, since it is now practically out of debt, and the treasurer's balance on June 1 each year is gradually increasing.

Your committee therefore recommends that the Board of Directors of the Association be instructed to prepare a memorial addressed to the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Harpswell, setting forth the facts contained in this report and asking the selectmen for such improvements on the island as the association may direct, and as are consistent with the duties of a municipality to its constituent members.

The Committee on Town Organization reported that the Statutes of the State made no provision for the organization of a borough within a town. If the island wished to form an independent township, a petition to that effect would have to be sent to the State Legislature. The committee expected to interview several of the State legislators and find out what the smallest possible township is, and what the prospects of success if the island should wish to petition for separation.

The two reports were received and discussed at length. Many points both for and against separate organization were made. The meeting finally adopted unanimously the recommendation of the committee on taxation, and instructed the Board of Directors to prepare a memorial to be sent to the Selectmen of the Town, asking them to increase the town appropriations for Bailey Island under two warrants: namely, (1) To school, and (2) The facilities for better sanitary conditions during the summer season when the island is so crowded. The details of these requests were left to the Board of Directors for formulation.

C. R. Mann, Secretary.

ARRIVING GUESTS CONTINUE TO KEEP THE HOUSE FULL.

Water Trips Are Most Frequent Means of Amusement.

In spite of the advance of the season guests continue to arrive in numbers and many pleasant affairs are continually under way. Every afternoon sailing parties leave the House for a few hours' trip on the deep and return more than enthusiastic over the beauties unfolded before their eyes as their craft skims along past the islands. Going to New Meadows River by water still proves as popular as ever with the hotel guests and many parties continue to spend a most enjoyable day in taking this trip, which gives a change from the ocean views to the almost as beautiful river scenery.

Exciting Game.

CHEBEAGUE LOSES FAST CONTEST TO YARMOUTH.

Wild Pitch in Eighth Inning Proves Fatal.

Last Saturday in one of the fastest games of the season, Chebeague lost to Yarmouth, 4 to 2. Chebeague scored two runs in the fifth, while Yarmouth sent across one in the seventh and a wild pitch by Spalding sent in three more. Outside of the excellent twirling done by both pitchers, the features of the game was the all around good work of Manley. The score:

BRIDGE PARTIES HAVE BEEN FREQUENT LATELY.

A Dance and Several Bridge Parties Last Week.

During the last week cards have been popular with the guests and two bridge parties have been held. The first one was Saturday evening and there were five tables of enthusiasts. The prizes were won by Miss Julia Smith and Miss Frances Longrope. On Thursday evening the other was held and this time the awards went to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hoke of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Last week the guests of the House enjoyed a very nice dance in the hotel parlors. Several of the company and the Victor furnished the music for the dancing and a very good time was had.

Lunch parties are frequent happenings now at the House. Every day nearly parties go out for a trip to the neighboring islands or toward Portland in Captain Hamilton's launch "Esther," which furnishes a great deal of pleasure to the guests.

A SONNET.

(Over Casco's northern waters such repose
Now lingers, 'midst a thousand isles which lie,
As if becalmed, beneath the cloudless sky
Of ruddy Autumn, ere the wintry snows
Once more return. Fortunate he who chose
To accept the rugged hospitality
Of these untrammeled shores; tranquility
His lot, than which the troubled world bestows
No dearer gift. Oh, could the favorite towns Disgorge their heartless multitudes, their thronging
Of scolding lives, bound by the man-made
Of Poverty and Want! Fair "Pearl of Orr,"
Blessings on thy benign and bounteous shore.
R. B. COOK, M.A.

Capt. L. B. Lange and Mrs. Lange returned from their cruise to Christmas Cove last week. The following guests were on board: Miss Jessie Waters, Miss Lavinia Norcross and Dr. Chas. Pinner and wife. The party had a delightful trip. At Christmas Cove dancing, bowling and fishing was the attraction and all had a jolly time here.

Capt. and Mrs. L. C. Lange with guests, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brown, Miss Jessie M. Waters and Miss Lavinia Norcross enjoyed a delightful cruise to Squirrel Island, Southport and New Meadows River last week. The first leg of the trip brought the party to Squirrel Island where dinner, tennis and bowling were enjoyed. Miss Waters and Mr. Brown winning in the latter and Mrs. Campbell taking the tennis honors. Southport was next sighted and a call was paid on Mrs. Lange's sister, Mrs. Charles Hallett. Dinner and dancing were enjoyed during the evening. On Friday Mrs. Hallett and Mrs. Lange caught a 10-pound haddock and it required the aid of Dr. Penner to haul him aboard. Misses Waters and Norcross have sunburn to remember the day by, having been insistent on sitting forward of the cabin. They are wearing "Touch me not" notices at present. Harvey Brown still wears plasters on his back, but time may so arrange matters that clams may be caught on a hook. He says that is the only way he knows to hunt them hereafter. Hauling close to the run home after passing a few hours at New Meadows, a good chop was encountered off Sequin and there were some who were fit to be hung out to dry, as they would not come aft. Sleep was in order on the last leg of the cruise and Undercliff cottage was a favored harbor at night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Roble of Newton, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goebel, and Thomas Goebel, Jr., of Berlin, N. H., Miss Dorothy McNeill of Newton, Mass., Miss Florence Billings of Newton, Upper Falls are pleasantly located at the Pink cottage.

William Sullivan, James Garvin, John Power and Mrs. Frank Power of Cambridge, are guests at the Archambeau camp.

Dr. J. T. Simpson of Boston arrived Saturday to join his wife who is a guest at the Olive cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nettleton of Worcester, Mass., are guests of Mrs. A. F. Leggett. Mrs. William Carney, who was a guest here last year, returned to her home in Mexico City, Mexico.

Misses May, Jane, Suzanne and Josephine Middleton of North Easton, Mass., have arrived to spend the month in the Davis cottage.

Recent guests at Fordeite were Mrs. L. C. Davis and her daughter, Miss Mabel Davis of Peaks Island, Miss Florence Rausch of Wildwood, Falmouth Foreside. Miss Beth Chipman, who was a guest for several weeks, is now visiting relatives at Hampton Beach, N. H.

W. P. Libby is entertaining his mother, Mrs. Horatio S. Libby, of Melrose, Mass. His father, Horatio S. Libby, was about to visit here about three weeks ago and was prostrated from the heat from which he never recovered. He was well known among the West End summer residents, and will be greatly missed. His congenial and pleasant nature made it a great pleasure to meet him.

Master David W. Cree of Bronx, N. Y., is a guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wray of the Bronx cottage, West End.

J. C. Duane of Brookline, Mass., is spending a week with his family at the Seola.

G. W. Forbush is spending his vacation with his family, who have been at the Rock cottage for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Brown, daughters, Pauline and Bernice of Winchester, Mass., are guests here at Rock cottage, the Forbush summer home.

Paul E. Atkinson of the Roxmont has as a guest A. W. Dillaway of Boston.

P. S. Eaton of Somerville, Mass., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Bates and family of Idylhurst.

Miss Gertrude R. Galbraith of Boston is spending three weeks as a guest of Mrs. M. E. Wight, George Finn of Dorchester, Mass., is also a guest. Miss H. A. Coleman of Dorchester, Mass., returned to her home, Monday, after a pleasant visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer B. Ragan and daughter, Miss Alice P. Ragan, left Saturday for their home in New York, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. A. Lillian App, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver G. Davis of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Williams and son, Alexander, of Flatbush, N. Y., arrived Saturday to spend several weeks here at Verona Villa.

Miss Katherine Turner of Neal street was a recent guest of Miss Mary O'Connor here on the hill-top.

Littlejohn's I.

Mrs. Percy Morton and Miss Eleanor Morton from Newton, returned home Friday after spending a very delightful two weeks as the guests of Mrs. Prescott at her summer home, "Limerlost." Dr. Prescott arrived last Saturday and spent the week end with his family. He was accompanied by Miss Helen Prescott who had been the guest for the previous week of her friends, Miss Irene Wood, at Pride's Crossing, Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Coburn of Winchester left on Thursday for their home after spending two weeks with Mrs. Colomb at her cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Coburn had originally planned to stay but one week on Littlejohn's but were so taken with the beauties and rest-giving qualities of this retreat that they were easily induced to prolong their sojourn.

Mr. Joseph and Stanley Rogers have arrived at the Alpine cottage to stay until after Labor day. They have as their guest Mr. William Smith of Boston, who will enjoy with them the multitude of pleasures Littlejohn's offers to the summer resident. Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers the same city are the guests of Mrs. came Wednesday to spend a few weeks' vacation here.

Miss Jane Smith of Troy, New York, and Miss Givenyth and Elsie Jones of John Clempson at the Kingston cottage until the first of the month.

Mrs. A. L. Horten came last Wednesday to visit her son, Mr. Ernest Horten and wife at the Idlewild cottage for a few days. On Monday Mrs. Horten returned to Peaks Island where she has been recreating for the past five weeks. Mrs. Ernest Horten's father and sister, Mr. Stanley and Miss Stanley from Sedgewick, Maine, are greatly enjoying a week-end visit at the cottage. Mr. Everett Arnold of Boston is also being entertained at the cottage over Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. H. H. Phillips of Malden, Massachusetts, joined his family at the "Log Cabin" to stay until after Labor day. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill of Franklin Park returned home last Saturday after a two weeks' visit at the cottage, which was much enjoyed. Alderman W. T. Hill of Malden arrived Thursday for a few days' vacation at this cozy little cottage and Mr. and Mrs. John Safford of New York are also being entertained for a short stay.

Mr. Charles L. Shroeder returned to his business in Boston after spending a vacation of three weeks at the Glover cottage. During his stay here Mr. Shroeder has been a popular member of the summer colony, who are much pleased to learn that he intends to return in September for a short time.

A very interesting exhibition of water colors was held during this past week in the parlors of the Rockmere by Mrs. John Clempson, who is a summer resident of Littlejohn's. The scenes depicted by the paintings were from different islands in the bay as well as merely local ones and were very beautiful indeed, those especially being admired that were of the shore front and surf. Mrs. Clempson is very well known in her branch of painting, being director of the Troy School of Painting and Fine Arts. She studied abroad for many years under the masters in Paris and Berlin and has had many successful exhibits in the large cities of our own country. Her treatment of a bit of scenery to be described on the canvas is always very sympathetic and consequently the resulting picture is most realistic, and for this reason Mrs. Clempson's exhibit was much enjoyed by all those fortunate enough to view the same.

Mrs. E. E. Horten and family are occupying the "Idlewild" cottage for the rest of the month. Mr. Horten joined them last week after cruising down from Sorrento, Me. in his twenty-two foot power boat "Vito" with his friends, Mr. Shroeder and Mr. Hennessy of Boston. The gentlemen arrived on Littlejohn's Thursday evening and report a very pleasant cruise through beautiful waters.

Miss Helen Morton and Mr. Theodore Morton returned to their home in Newton after spending their vacation at Littlejohn's. Miss Morton has been down since June 16th at Camp Melrose but Mr. Morton was only here two weeks. Both are very jolly company and their many friends are hoping for their return next season.

Mr. Joseph Rogers arrived last Monday for a three weeks' vacation with his family at the Alpine cottage. Mr. Stanley Rogers came on Saturday to enjoy Littlejohn's until after Labor Day.

Mrs. E. M. Colomb is entertaining for two weeks at her cottage. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Coburn of Winchester, Mass. The visitors are very much pleased with beautiful Casco Bay and Littlejohn's Island in particular.

The Royal Oak.

The actual tree into which Charles vanishes was hacked to pieces within a few years by relic hunters, and the present royal oak at Boseobe is merely a descendant. A salver made from the original royal oak is still possessed by Oxford university, and countless chairs, tables, altars, picture frames and snuff boxes claim to be made out of the same sacred material. Charles II. intended to commemorate his escape at Boseobel by establishing a new order of "Knights of the Royal Oak," but thought best "not to keep awake animosities." The name of the "Royal Oak" has been preserved in the navy since 1664. The first ship to bear this historic name met with an ignominious fate, being burned by the Dutch when they came up the Medway in 1667. Oak Apple day, now little observed except by school boys, was formerly a great anniversary and for long after the Restoration a Royal Oak invariably figured in all civic pageants.—Westminster Gazette.

Bargain Sale in Moving Pictures.

A suburban draper has hit on a novel idea, says the London Chronicle. The scenes at his great bargain sale are to be reproduced at a local picture theater. "Go and see it—see if you can recognize yourself in the crowd." To all his patrons the enterprising shopkeeper issues tickets which admit to the show at reduced prices. Will it answer? Of course. For he appeals to two human instincts—the desire for a bargain and the desire to see oneself, as it were, in a looking glass—cheap. Why else does anyone turn and glance at the reflections in a free looking glass? The shopkeeper appeals to the common meanness and vanity of his fellow mortals.

Criticism of Absent Cowardly.

Don't criticize the absent. Make it a point when any man is under discussion to say something nice about him or to keep still. There's always something mean and cowardly in a criticism made upon an absent person. You fall at once in the estimation of right-minded people who hear you. They may think you small, and possibly may set you down as a cad.

South Harpswell

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strout of Jay Bridge, Maine, are occupying their beautiful new cottage on Hurricane Ridge for a few weeks' vacation and are greatly enjoying the outing.

Mrs. Carrie Downing and daughter, Miss Edna King of Auburn arrived last week to make their annual visit to South Harpswell. The ladies have been here for many years and are very fond of this resort.

Mr. Crimmins and Mr. Carey of Medway, Massachusetts are staying at the Strout House for their first visit to Harpswell. They are much pleased with their choice of a resort for their vacation and have planned to lengthen their stay to enjoy the year at its best during the Indian summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Abram Kerr of Cornell University, who have been enjoying their summer outing by camping on the shore near Mrs. Haskell's, left Friday after a six weeks' stay at Harpswell. Before returning to his duties in Ithaca, Doctor and Mrs. Kerr intend to make a trip to Mount Desert and Northern Maine, then return to Boston and New York for a short time.

A merry party of ladies from Lewiston are occupying the Spencer Cottage until after Labor Day having arrived last Sunday. Those in the party are the Misses Kavanaugh, Mrs. C. W. Tracy and daughters, Misses Katherine and Helen, Miss Margaret Doyle and Miss Louise Ricker and all are enjoying a fine outing with swimming, sailing and dancing and all that goes to make a good vacation.

Mr. W. L. Westcott and family of Rumford, Maine, are occupying the Bibber cottage, having arrived last week. They will remain until September first.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wooden and son Knowlton of Auburn are staying at Mrs. Noble's for a ten days' sojourn.

Mrs. S. E. Pickering on Saturday returned from a ten days' stay in New York where she has been attending the fall opening of milliners in relation to her business in Lewiston. Mrs. R. J. Teague of Lewiston has been visiting her son at the "Teague" for a week and Mr. J. F. Pickering who has been spending a month's vacation here returned to his business last week.

On Friday evening a very enjoyable dance was given in Hamilton hall by the Harpswell Baseball team. Very good music was furnished and the floor was in excellent condition and these two contributed towards one of the best dances given this year at Harpswell. This dance will be followed by another during the next week which promises to be unsurpassed in the way of the pleasure to be had.

Yacht Club Reception. The Harpswell Yacht club celebrated the opening of its new club house by a reception to about seventy members and guests on Saturday afternoon. The pillars of the broad piazzas were decorated with spruce boughs and golden-rod, and other wild flowers filled great pots standing at various points of vantage. The interior of the house was hung with flags of many kinds, and also decorated with boughs and flowers. A string band of three pieces, hidden behind a little grove of spruce trees on the piazza, enlivened the occasion with strains now classical, now gay.

By 5 o'clock the whole house and the piazza were filled with an animated throng, the white and bright colors of the women's handsome gowns contrasting well with the more sober costumes of the men. Mrs. Commodore Noyes presided at the tea table; Mrs. House at the great bowl of lemonade, while Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Etnier, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. Sherman assisted in receiving the guests.

The artistic decorations was the work of Mrs. Hastings (nee Helen Spaulding) assisted by Mrs. Thomas, while many ladies contributed the great variety of delicious cake.

The reception was enjoyed by all members and guests alike—and was the inauguration of an influence, aquatic as well as social, which should be of great benefit to the whole South Harpswell community.

Ash Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Sherman gave a dinner to fourteen guests on Friday evening at their cottage, "Sunny Ledge," on Ash Point. As the guests stood grouped at the entrance to the dining-room, rhyming lines were read by Mr. Sherman, and the guest whom the description fitted came forward to his or her place, amid the laughter of the others. There were four tables of four each. After dining, the guests adjourned to the living-room, where Mr. Thomas added to the pleasure of all by solos, vocal and instrumental. The guests present were: Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Grafton, Mr. and Mrs. Etnier, Miss Etnier, Mrs. House, Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Hastings (nee Helen Spaulding), Mrs. Thomas, Miss Field, Mr. Thomas and Mr. Hickey.

Mrs. Carey E. Etnier gave a luncheon on Wednesday at her cottage, Ash Cove Farm, in honor of her cousin, Miss Etnier of New York.

Mrs. A. E. Austin gave an old-fashioned quilting party on Thursday at her cottage on Bay Island Point. The quilt, a floral design of Biedermeier cross stitch pattern, was framed by Mrs. Ellen Toothaker. The hostess received her guests attired in complete Alsatian costume. The prize, a handsome green parasol, was awarded to Fraulien Stoever of Philadelphia, she having made the greatest number of cross stitches. Upon arrival, each guest received an apron with her name on it, and later received diminutive beanpots filled with most delicious hot baked beans. The ladies present were: Mrs. Grafton, Mrs. Etnier, Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. House, Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. Sherman, Miss Etnier, Fraulien Stoever and Mrs. Little. At five o'clock the men arrived for baked beans, doughnuts and coffee—like-wise chat.

A charming event took place at Broadview Farm on Wednesday evening, when Messrs. John Pommer, Frank Cresson, Raymond Yeates, tendered a farewell reception to the other Philadelphians sojourning at South Harpswell. After a delightful luncheon had been enjoyed, an evening of music followed, each one participating. The company departed after singing "Auld Lang Syne," in true Scotch fashion, having decided to hold a "South Harpswell Re-union" in Philadelphia the coming winter.

Miss T. Adams of Philadelphia is enjoying the hospitality of South Harpswell, which is coming to be the mecca of so many folks from that city. She is staying with Mr. Harmon Stover, where there are two other Philadelphians, who are friends of Mrs. Pendlebury. They are Mrs. Eugene McAleer and Mrs. Joseph Mann. Mrs. McAleer is the wife of the representative of the Philadelphia district in the state legislature while the husband of Mrs. Mann is a prominent dentist. Both ladies are much delighted with Casco Bay, and its innumerable attractive features and although they have travelled through nearly all parts of the United States and Canada, are loud in their praise of South Harpswell and its surroundings.

The following mentioned event did not happen in "Belgium's capital," but in the Auburn Colony's German, Saturday night, Aug. 26.

"There was a sound of revelry by night" and Auburn Colony had gathered there, her "beauty and chivalry." Bright the lamps (kerosene) shone over fair women and brave men!

"A thousand hearts" (no, but our eighty) beat happily, etc. Next to the Clam Bake Monday, Aug. 21, the German, with all sorts of intricate "doins" was the event of the season. Nearly all of the Colony were in attendance as well as quite a number of invited friends from the outside and the reputation of the Colony young folks as well as the young-old folks for getting up an enthusiastic good time was well upheld.

Cousin's Island

Last Saturday a very appetizing clam bake was held on the shore of the island by the Seashore Land Company. Because of the threatening skies only about thirty people attended but those that did brave the weather were rewarded by a very fine meal. On Labor Day it is expected another bake will be held which if the weather is favorable will surpass previous efforts in the culinary line and will be an event to be remembered by all.

Mr. A. E. Adams of Medford left Saturday after visiting Mrs. Hinckley and family at the Green cottage. Mr. James Bean, who has been a guest of Mr. Charles Hinckley, for two weeks, left on Sunday for his home in Somerville, after greatly enjoying his stay here.

Mrs. Hinckley on Thursday evening entertained a party on a sail in Captain Sawyer's boat "Handy Andy." During the evening the party sailed all around Freeport and vicinity, and passed a most enjoyable time on the water. Mr. J. F. Hinckley came Saturday to remain until Labor Day with his family and on Monday Miss Ethel Whiting came to be the guest of Mrs. Hinckley for the rest of the summer.

A great deal of fun was had by a party of summer residents who went as the guests of Mrs. F. L. Glazier to Peak's Island on Friday evening. The "Handy Andy" took the party up and they all enjoyed going around and visiting the various amusements to be found there. The guests on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Tisdale, Miss Upham, Mr. Glazier, Miss Glazier, Mr. Adams, Mr. James Bean, Mr. J. W. Hinckley, Mr. J. C. Hinckley, and the Misses Hinckley.

Miss M. W. Morris of Waukegan, Illinois, with Mrs. L. A. Lockwood and Mrs. H. A. Olmstead of Riverside, Connecticut, are occupying the Drinkwater cottage for an extended period. These three ladies with Mrs. E. O. Van Doren, Miss Isabelle Van Doren and Mr. Philip Van Doren, Miss Doris and Winifred Glover went on a picnic to West Harpswell on Friday and enjoyed the trip immensely. The Maquoit was taken on the morning trip up and after eating luncheon returned on her in the afternoon.

Mrs. John Esqate entertained at her cottage Miss Viola Richards, and Miss Midge Bellows of Brockton, Massachusetts, for a few days during last week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smart, of Centre Ossipee, New Hampshire, are guests for a week at the cottage. Mr. Smart is of the firm of Charles H. Smart & Son, a large sash and blind manufacturer, and is well acquainted in Portland, as he does a large business in that city.

Mr. Warren W. Oliver, an instructor in commercial subjects in the Newton Technical High School in Newton, Massachusetts, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garniss at the "Sun Rise" cottage for the remainder of the season.

Mr. C. F. Whitehead returned to his home in Allston after spending a week as the guest of Mrs. Day at the "Osocoy" cottage. Mrs. Whitehead will enjoy Mrs. Day's hospitality for another week before departing from Cousin's.

Miss Stella Doe of Cambridge and Miss Mary Knowlton of Dorchester have been guests during the past week of Mrs. Prime at her summer home "Avalon." Mr. Walter and Summer Wiley arrived Monday to be guests of Mrs. Prime for a short time.

Mr. Albert Conrad and Miss Helen Brodie of Malden arrived Friday to spend the rest of the summer as guests of Mrs. Bissett at the "Daybreak" cottage on Harmony Hill. Mr. Conrad and Miss Brodie made the trip from Boston to Portland in a "Buick" automobile and report a most enjoyable tour on excellent roads. Mr. Bissett arrived Saturday to stay until September with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith have been entertaining for the past week Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Calf of Boston at their cottage "Edgecliff."

Turn Evil Into Good.

Madagascar is visited every year with a plague of locusts, which does a vast amount of damage to the crops, but it is an ill wind that blows nobody good, and so these insects are highly esteemed as food by the natives. The locusts fly within two or three feet of the ground, and, on the approach of a swarm, the people rush out of their huts and strike them down with flat baskets. Then the women and children gather them up from the ground in sacks, where they are divested of wings and legs by a severe shaking up. These extremities are carefully winnowed out, the bodies dried in the sun or fried in fat, and then packed in sacks for food or sold to the markets.

Friendship.

Some one once asked Kingsley what was the secret of his strong, joyous life, and he answered: "I had a friend." If every evil man is a center of contagion, every good man is a center of healing. He provides an environment in which others can see God. Goodness creates an atmosphere for other souls to be good. It is a priestly garment that has virtue even for the finger that touches it. The earth has sweet souls and winsome lives, and Christ-like characters to be found in it. The choice of friends is, therefore, one of the most serious affairs in life, just because a man becomes molded into the likeness of who he loves in his friend.—Hugh Black.

The Power of Music.

Euripides (B. C. 480-406) was one of the celebrated tragic Greek poets who discoursed on music in this wise: "No one has found out how to soothe with music and sweet symphony those bitter pangs by which death and sad misfortune destroy families; and yet to assuage such griefs by music were wisdom." The music of the Greeks evidently had the power to stir or calm emotions, although neither melodic nor harmonic as the terms are understood today.

Live Without Water.

In Lower California a large number of the smaller desert mammals never drink water, according to American scientists who have recently visited the peninsula. They live and thrive on dry seeds and scraps of vegetation in places where the heat and aridity are excessive without ever touching their lips to water, and it has even found impossible to teach some of them to take water in captivity.

Fairly Started a Walter.

A waiter gave himself the worst of it by $2 in making change, according to the Chicago Evening Post. The man who paid the check saw the error and handed the bill back in the way of a tip. The waiter has been bowing to the ground before him ever since and thinks he is some exiled prince living here incog.

Good Work of Wireless.

Throughout the world there is a shipwreck about every sixteen hours, and the general adoption of the wireless system of communication promises to cut this rate down very materially. It is estimated that the system has already been the means of saving marine property valued at $12,000,000, and of saving nearly six thousand lives.—Philadelphia Record.

Not Going to Let Him Escape.

"Smithers is discouraged about his love affair." "What's happened?" "He was in the act of proposing last night when the girl's mother and father came in." "What did Smithers do?" "Stopped short, of course." "What did the girl do?" "She said: 'What were you saying, Mr. Smithers?'"—Life.

The Young Ladies' Play.
The long, maid and matchmakers, the long anticipated play by the young ladies, was given in the Grove Theatre on Friday evening before an audience that filled even the standing room and left nothing to be desired in the way of enthusiasm. The cast was as follows:
Bachelor Maids—Lillian Stewart, Miss Bailey; Katherine Howard, Miss Fuller; Elizabeth Everett, Miss Gowling; Alice Marshall alias Aunt Selina Winthrop, Miss Bacon.
Bachelor Men—Guy Richards, Miss Perry; Chas. Brewster, Miss Holman; Sammie—Jeremiah Russell.
The plot is concerned with the expected arrival of rich Aunt Selina, her wish that her nephew and niece should marry—the impersonation of the aunt by a chum of the niece and the various complications that cause ripples in the course of true love. All the misunderstandings are happily explained in the end and as the final curtain falls, Cupid triumphant occupies the center of the stage.
With the exception of the slight nervousness to be expected of amateurs and some occasional hesitation with the lines, the play was all that could be desired. As was to be expected, those who played the part of girls acted with more naturalness than those who took the part of men, but all were pretty and entertaining, whatever their part. Miss Weller, as the Dr. Imhoff, played the most difficult part with good success.
The least finished actor was "Jerry," Mrs. Russell's famous cat.
B. I. C. A. Meeting.
The fall meeting was held in the grove. It was reported that the receipts for the year were about $150, including $69, the largest amount ever collected for dues. The largest item of expenditure was $120 on account of the boat.
Provision was made for caring for the boat during the winter and for prizes for the tennis tournament. The committee on insect pests was requested to try to prevent the breeding of mosquitoes next spring by the use of petroleum on the marshy places on the island.
An executive committee was appointed with authority to act for the association. This consists of the president, Dr. Mar, Vice President Mr. Tuttle, Treasurer Mr. Brainard, Secretary Miss Brackett, and Messrs. Grant, Fuller, Brainard, Hosmer and Russell. Among the matters discussed by the meeting and referred to the executive committee, were the need of a building for the use of the association, the removal of the grove, watchman on the island during the winter, plans for next season.

Mr. Twiss offered to give curtains for the stage in the grove and his offer was accepted with thanks. A vote of thanks was also given to the officers and committees for their work during the summer.
The Girls' Play.
The young girls presented their playlet, "A Love of a Bonnet," in the grove on Wednesday afternoon. Those who took part were Caroline and Barbara Brainard, Frances Hoyt, Catherine Twiss and Frances Wellington. The acting of the girls, considering their youth and inexperience was exceedingly good and showed the effects of their industry and the training they had received.
After the playlet the girls held a candy sale. The whole netted the B. I. C. A. $18.00.
Mr. Carl Nass of Washington will return home with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith on Thursday, the 31st inst. The party will spend a few days in New York before departing for their homes in Washington. Mr. Nass has contributed largely to the pleasure and enjoyment of a great many people through his splendid baritone voice and fine rendition of difficult classical piano music.
Happy, life-building vacation days are fast drawing to a close, but the memories of all the pleasant and joyous occasions participated in during our stay at Bustin's will live on forever, and among the most enjoyable of these, have been the evenings spent with the cheery, whole-hearted Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hogan at their homelike cottage, the "Romapo," where almost every evening could be found from twenty to thirty young and middle-aged persons, gathered to enjoy their wholesome hospitality and all sorts of games, interspersed with songs, stories and recitations. Thursday evening last was extremely enjoyable. Mrs. Archibald Miller of Lynn, Mass., and Mr. Carl Nass of Washington, D. C., delighted the large gathering with exquisitely rendered songs; Mrs. Dr. Schellenbach of Chelsea, Mass., contributed some fine instrumental selections, and Miss Helen Wannamaker of Suffern, N. Y., recited eloquently. Mr. Wm. A. Lackey also rendered some of the old-time songs very acceptably, while he and Mr. Miller (Senior) gave a good imitation of an old time "break-down."

The Misses McMurray, Hunziker and Folger left last week for their city homes. All departed with heavy hearts over the thought that another year will have to roll around before they can again enjoy their vacation days here.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lackey of Cambridge, Mass., departed Saturday for home, after a very enjoyable vacation. Mr. Lackey expects to build a bungalow soon, on one of the lots he has purchased from Mrs. Swett.
Dr. E. B. Schellenbach and wife of Chelsea, Mass., were here for a few weeks.
Dr. Louis Engster, and his daughter, depart Monday. They go to the mountains of Maryland from here for a few weeks' stay and thence to their Washington home. This is the first visit of the doctor and family to Bustin's, but as we predicted in this paper, upon their arrival, they have had the time of their lives here and are so much pleased that he has purchased a lot of Mrs. Swett and will build a summer home here.
Mrs. Edwin Etz of Washington left last week for East Gloucester, Mass., where she will resume her etching. While on Bustin's she sketched many beautiful scenes and her Washington friends expect to see some of them exhibited.
Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hunziker and young son, Walter, of Paterson, N. J., who have been spending the season here on the island, leave for home on the 31st inst. All have had a splendid time and Walter especially has enjoyed catching scuppers and crabs off the Eastern wharf, whistling while baiting up the hooks, like a real fisherman.
Miss Edith Schofield leaves on Monday for her Paterson (N. J.) home. She has enjoyed her first trip to Maine immensely.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wannamaker, and their two daughters, Helen and Edna, who have been visiting on the island the past few days, leave for their city home Tuesday. Their first visit to Maine has been very enjoyable and they hope to repeat it next summer.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hogan of Suffern, N. Y., expect to return home about Sept. 12th.
Mrs. David Mitchell of Malden, Mass., is spending the end of the season with Mrs. Archibald Miller.
Misses Lillian Bowles and Mildred Tucker return to their homes in Cambridge, Mass., and West Roxbury, Mass., on Monday after a most enjoyable visit at the "Guppy" cottage.
Miss Ruth Galloupe, who has been visiting at the "Alcazar" returned this week to her home in Plymouth, Mass.
Miss Edith Brown Gilman of West Roxbury, Mass., has been visiting with Miss Mae Anderson.
Miss Mary C. Anderson of West Roxbury, Mass., is visiting her brother, Charles L. Anderson, for a week.
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Houston of Dover, N. H., are visiting Mrs. S. C. Lancaster for two weeks. This is their first summer on the island and they are very much taken with its rustic beauties.
Mr. James Walker of Merrimack, Mass., is visiting Mr. Everett Russell for two weeks at "Camp Whittier."
Capt. and Mrs. Rhodes of Boston returned to their homes on Thursday after a very pleasant stay at the "Nichols' cottage."
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Nichols and daughter Alma of Medford, Mass., are spending a farewell week at their cottage, "Nautilus."
The Honorable John Ray of Boston, Mass., returned to his unique cottage on Bustin's on Friday.
Mrs. E. P. Lyman of Somerville, Mass., is stopping at the Parker cottage for the balance of the season.
Miss Cassie L. Paine of Salem, Mass., and Miss Ada Ware of Peabody, Mass., are spending a few days as guests of Miss Julia Macdonald.
Miss May Hoffmann of Schenectady, N. Y., is making her first visit to the log cabin. Miss Marjorie White of Boston, and Miss Margaret Paterson are still guests at the "Bonnie" cottage. They think Bustin's almost as "bonnie" as Scotland, their native heath. So does Mr. Malcolm Orr, who came down for the week-end.
Strawberries were served twice at the morning meal of the Millers the past week. Mr. Miller has some plants of the everbearing variety in his garden.
The third death of the season on Bustin's occurred on Saturday evening, when William Campbell, Jr., died of Bright's disease at his mother's cottage. "Billie" Campbell was known to everyone on the island for his sunny and happy disposition. All his life was a battle with disease, a battle which he waged with unflinching courage. Although a great sufferer for years, few if any of his friends or associates ever heard a word of complaint from his lips. Mr. Campbell of late years has spent but a short vacation with us, but this year his increasing illness made it necessary for him to give up his customary occupation, and his friends at Bustin's have seen more of him. His friends include all who knew him, and his sympathy for his family is universal.
Mr. Campbell was 25 years old and with the other members of the family was among the first of the summer colony to settle on the island. The funeral was held at his late home in Jamaica Plain, Mass., on Wednesday.
Wilson & Company at the Island Inn are doing, as usual, the leading business in Lower Casco Bay. Their fine dinners are the talk of excursionists, and at the present time the dining room, most prettily situated in the pine grove is catering to a larger number than ever. This kind of improvement builds up the island and is a benefit to all.
The final function of the B. I. C. A. for the season is the "German whist" at the Wycamere this (Thursday) evening. All are invited to attend.
Mr. Charles E. Hilton of Somerville, Mass., is expected Friday at the "Sunset" for the balance of August.

Mrs. Sugatt and Mrs. Twiss entertained 25 ladies at a "Harlequin" on Tuesday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. H. White and Miss Hosmer and the booby prize by Mrs. Cohan. Refreshments were served, and altogether the affair was most enjoyable.
Mrs. John C. Barrows of St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Elizabeth Bailey, who are here for the rest of the summer, and Mr. M. A. Bailey spent Sunday at the "Redwing."
Mr. H. C. Parker and family after a recent trip to California have come to spend the rest of the summer at their cottage.
Miss Florence Shrimpler, after a pleasant stay at the "Bide a Wee Cottage" went away Friday to Atlantic City, N. J.
On Wednesday afternoon Bustin's Island had a baseball game with "The Worldbeaters" of Freeport. The game was close throughout, but on account of a ball lost in the hay in the fourth inning, Freeport gained a lead of four runs which the Worldbeaters managed to hold. Freeport won 12 to 8. The special features of the game was the fine pitching by MacDonald and Joseph Kelsey. Chas. Bacon caught several difficult batted balls.
George Guppy seems to be regular as a clock on his 9.00 and 5.00 o'clock trips to South Freeport. If anyone is waiting for Bustin's "George" leaves South Freeport at 9.30 in the morning, and 5.30 in the afternoon.
Miss Ida Mae duBell of Florence, New Jersey, is spending the rest of summer at the Bibo Cottage.
Rev. Frederick B. Greul preached a fine sermon in the grove on Sunday afternoon.

Peaks Island
Mr. Harold Coffin spent Sunday at the Allen cottage.
Uncle Tom's Cabin is closed for the season. Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Rockwell and Miss Hall have returned to New York after a most enjoyable summer at their camp.
The Misses Jennie and Gertrude Berry of Portland, with friends, are occupying the Briggs' cottage for a week.
Class twenty-nine of the First Baptist church was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Henry S. Bryant on Thursday. A delicious chowder was made and a picnic dinner served. In the afternoon the party enjoyed readings by Mrs. Lizzie Bools and Mrs. Henry Bryant. Those in the class who were present were: Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Hinkley, Mrs. Bools and daughter, Miss Lizzie Bools, Mrs. Josslyn, Mrs. York, Mrs. Mary Dyer, Miss Murray and Mrs. Trask.
Miss Ethel Frothingham entertained on Wednesday Miss Jessie Ridge of Chebeague, also Miss Helen Pinkham of Great Diamond.
Mrs. Pierce and family of Allston, Mass., will return Labor Day after passing the month of August at the Wayside cottage.
One of the most enjoyable events of the past week was the recital and musical at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blackman, when they entertained about fifty of their friends and neighbors. The log cabin was attractively decorated with Japanese lanterns, golden-rod, colored lights, sweet peas, astors and various other garden flowers. The program, which was tendered, was as follows: Piano duet, Mrs. Charles Cooper, Miss Bertha Childs; reading, Roy Albion Whitcomb; duet, Margaret and Velma Cooper; reading, Mr. Robert L. Whitcomb; solo, Imogen Blackman; reading, Robert Bradbury Whitcomb; solo, William Simon; reading, Mr. Robert L. Whitcomb; cornet solo, Miss Grace Swan; solo, William Simon; piano solo, Miss Bertha Childs. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the program by Mrs. Blackman, assisted by the Misses Blackman and Mrs. Walker. Among the guests were Mrs. Jerome B. Pepper, Hyde Park, Miss Emma M. Pearn, Montreal, Mr. Percy A. Flavel, Germantown, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pelton, Portland, Miss Harriett B. Keller, Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gansworth, Portland, Mr. E. F. Brown, Philadelphia, Mrs. E. N. Tapley, Portland, Mr. C. Block and Master Kenneth, Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. B. Thoman and son, Carroll, Florence Beaton, Annie C. Fiske, Boston, L. M. Cole, Bertha M. Smith, Burlington, Vt., Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Soule, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Downes, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Walker, Mrs. E. E. Clifford, Miss Cora Clifford, E. May Tolman, Laura Tolman, Clara P. Briggs, Malden, Mrs. Horace T. Perkins, Earle Bryan, Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitcomb, Mrs. J. A. Trefethen, New York City, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. T. Collins, Newton Center, Bertha Childs, Lawrence, Robert B. Whitcomb, Charlotte M. Simon, Hazel A. Tapley, Grace A. Swan, William I. Simon, Philadelphia, Roy Whitcomb, Everett Whitcomb, Margaret and Velma Cooper, Imogen and Marie Blackman, Charles L. Blackman, Mr. and Mrs. Keith D. Downes, William L. Downes and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blackman.
Mrs. William Brewer of Monjoy street has been the guest of Mrs. Albert Waite at her summer home at Evergreen.
Mrs. Pettigill has returned to her daughter, after a week's stay in Woodford.
Miss Winnie and Mr. Aubrey Cole of Nova Scotia spent Tuesday with Mrs. J. Park Rockwell.
Miss Dodge of Portland, Mrs. Robert Robertson and daughter Eppie of St. Katharines, Ontario, Mrs. Moore and daughter Gene of Wisconsin and Mrs. Capt. Bragg spent Friday with Mrs. Cook.
Mrs. Joseph Fickett of Roberts street has been a recent visitor at the Sherland the home of Col. Peterson. Those who have registered at the Oak cottage are, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, Miss Ann Williams and Miss Ann Boyd of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Swett and son Lewis and Miss Haskell of Lynn, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall and Miss Lafricain of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. John Burns of Montreal, Miss Ida M. ### Casco Bay House.

SEASON DRAWING TO A CLOSE, THE MOST SUCCESSFUL EVER.

Foresters of Portland will have Outing Here, Labor Day.

The season at this hotel is fast drawing to a close and in every respect it has been the most successful in the history of the hotel. During the latter part of July and all through August every available room in the hotel and adjoining cottages were taken and daily applicants had to be refused on account of lack of accommodations. The Casco Bay House enjoys a high reputation among the better class of tourists, and as the register will show, many families yearly make this homelike hotel their abode. The personal attention that is given to the wants of the guests has always been one of the pleasant things that each guest has to remember their vacation by. The table has the personal attention daily of Mr. Cushing and the reputation of the high standard maintained as regards quality and quantity is too well known to need further mention. Mrs. Mary Delaney of Portland, one of the finest cooks in the state, has for many years been employed at the hotel. Labor Day the Portland Foresters and invited guests will hold their outing here at the grove and at the noon hour will partake of a dinner at the Pavilion. Saturday the employees of the Portland Daily Argus will come here for a clam bake. Several other organizations are planning to come to the Pavilion later for a day's outing and a clam bake.

Granite Spring Hotel.

PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR LABOR DAY BUSINESS.

Number of Guests Will Remain Till Doors Close.

A number of the Granite Spring Hotel guests at Long Island will remain in the house until the doors close and when this ceremony occurs proprietor Ponce will bring to a finish a season of gross business one-third larger than last year. Much of this increase is due to the transient travel which is gradually finding this house most convenient and comfortable. Its proximity to the ocean and the presence of its famous medicinal spring, so potent a remedy for kidney disorders makes it sought after by more and more people each year. Those recently registering until the end of the season are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Texton, Mr. and Mrs. George Wymann and Miss Salome Siebold, all of Elizabeth, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Devoy of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Cliff Island

Auocisco House.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Dancy, Miss Eliza Dancy, and Messrs. William, Bryan, and Frank B. Dancy, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., who have been staying at the house for the month of August, left last Tuesday for their home after having spent a most delightful outing here. Among those who have registered during the past week at this delightful house are Messrs. A. Townsend and C. Percy Hutchinson, of Trenton, N. J., who arrived a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ramee and family who have been spending their vacations at the Auocisco returned Wednesday to their homes in New York City after having enjoyed to the utmost their stay at Cliff. The Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Hay, of Baltimore, Md., are among the more recent arrivals at the house and hope to make a stay of some little time.

Wannelaki Lodge.

Mr. L. W. Gulbold of Boston, Mass., spent a few days here last week, enjoying himself greatly while here. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lippincott, who have been spending some time here, returned a few days ago, after what has been a most delightful outing for land, having occupied during their stay the pretty "Sea-view" cottage. All enjoyed their outing at Cliff immensely. Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Brackett and their little son Master George Brackett are stopping for some time with Mr. Brackett's grandfather, Mr. E. F. Bailey at "Overlook" cottage. All are extremely fond of the island and think there is no place with which to compare it for a summer resort. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Knight, who have been away from the island for the past three weeks, have returned to their ideally situated summer home "Casco Cottage." They are expecting Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Millet of Lynn, Mass., to visit them during the latter part of this week for some time. Miss Florence Emerson and Miss Ethel Lily, who have been spending a week at the "Rancliffe" cottage, have left the island and returned to their homes in Providence, R. I., after what has proved to be one of the most delightful outings in their experience. Mr. F. E. Hersey and family of East Weymouth, Mass., who have been having a fine new house built for themselves here this summer arrived at the island a few days ago for a stay of some little time. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kenney, who have been visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kimball, returned a few days ago to their home in South Paris, Me., after what has proved to be a most delightful visit for them both.

Chebeague

Amordale. Mrs. M. A. Charleson has enjoyed a most successful year this summer at her beautifully situated house. All through the season the house has been well filled and several of the guests intend to return next year. The ideal location of the place appeals immediately to a visitor and undoubtedly the cottage lots that are for sale in the vicinity will be in demand before long.

Miss Helen Oliver and Mrs. Ralph Raymond returned on Thursday to their home in New York, after having spent a vacation of six weeks at Chebeague. Mrs. C. E. Morri of Macon, Georgia, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Ash and family at their summer home "Ashcroft", returned home Friday after having spent a delightful sojourn at Chebeague. Mr. and Mrs. William J. Warren returned to the Johnson's cottage "Lynhurst" on Friday, after having spent a week as the guest of Mr.

Our new Market at Preble Street makes a specialty of packing and shipping orders to any part of Casco Bay. Mail and telephone orders have our prompt attention and patrons are assured of the "Shaw" quality, which has been maintained for years.

Everything in the line of groceries, meats, bakery products, fresh garden produce, imported delicacies, cooked meats and delicatessen.

Warren's parents in Gorham, Me. Dr. Johnson is spending a two weeks' vacation with his family at the cottage, having arrived Wednesday.

A hayride party is a great deal of fun as a number of young people discovered on Thursday evening. A drive around the island in Mr. W. J. ton Soule's hay rack was enjoyed after which everyone went down to Mrs. Percy Shaw's hospitable cottage, "The Alders," where delicious hot chocolate and sandwiches were served. Those who went on the ride were: Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Cooke, Miss Esther Cooke, Miss Harriet Sweeney, Miss Mary Newell, Miss Theresa Tamborell and Miss Rosamond Spalding.

Miss Edith Hixon, Mr. Max Holmes, Mr. Walter Rogers, Misses Ernestine and Marie Robbins, Miss Ann Bridges and Messrs. Chesley and Daniel Harris.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Percy Shaw gave a small supper party in honor of her sister, Miss Edith Hixon of Springfield, who left for her home Saturday morning, after having spent five weeks here at Chebeague. The table was tastefully decorated with ferns and wild flowers, while a massive bunch of sweet peas adorned the centre of the board. Among the guests included were: Miss Esther Cooke, Miss Harriet Sweeney, Miss Mary Newell, Miss Theresa Tamborell and Miss Rosamond Spalding.

Mr. Frederic Sweeney of Newton Centre, left on Friday for his home after having spent five weeks at Chebeague, two as the guest of his aunt, Mrs. W. C. Newell at the "Justamere" cottage, and three with his friend, Mr. Allan Cooke at the "Barnacle."

On the beach in front of Ashcroft on Wednesday evening a fine clam bake was given, the host being Mr. Thomas Connors, who is visiting Mrs. Ash. There were thirty-five enthusiastic guests present and all were delighted with an excellent bake, which was cooked by Captain Eustace. After every one had eaten well of the good things spread on the rocks, singing was indulged in until a late hour when the party broke up after having enjoyed a fine time.

Mrs. A. D. Dickinson of Springfield, is the guest of Mrs. Louis Hyde at "Menanoke," for an extended stay. Mr. Philip Hawkins spent a few days here last week with his family, leaving for his home in Springfield Sunday night.

The birthday of Master Robert Hall last Tuesday was the occasion of a jolly picnic on Deer Point. The children were loaded into a big hay rack and were driven down to the West End where, after all the food was properly laid out, a most appetizing lunch was eaten. Afterwards games were played and stories told until late in the afternoon when the drive home was commenced and Master Hall congratulated on his sixth birthday and given well wishes for many more to follow.

Miss Theresa Tamborell entertained on Thursday afternoon a number of the young ladies of the summer colony at "Tarrymore." The gathering was a most jolly one and every one was just brimming with fun. After delicious refreshments had been served, the Victor was started and by the music of this, an impromptu dance was held on the broad veranda of the cottage.

Mr. Philip McMahon was the guest over the week end of the Tamborells and Mr. Charles Hoffman of New York spent Thursday and Friday at the "Tarrymore" cottage.

Again this week Mr. Munsey and Miss Poole won the gentlemen's and ladies' cup offered by Manager Robbins for the best three-strut totals made on the Chebeague alleys during the week. Mr. Munsey's score was 121, 101, 99, 100, 103; total 524; and Miss Poole had to her credit 96, 92, 81, 78, 86; total, 433. The same competition will be run this coming week.

On Monday a bowling match between Hillcrest and Bellevue was rolled off, Hill Crest being the challengers. After a long struggle Bellevue won with a total score of 2094 points against the Hillcrest team's 1889. Messrs. Shelton, Taft, Taber, Sweet and O'Connor represented Hillcrest, while the Bellevue colors were defended by Messrs. P. Hall, Weber, Robbins, Caldwell and Munsey.

The final Sunday Vesper service was held last week in the Hillcrest Hall and proved a most fitting one to end the season, with a good sized audience present, who greatly enjoyed the singing of Mr. Steven Adams of Boston, who favored the congregation with several fine solos. The Reverend Joseph Jackson, who conducted the service spoke a few words of appreciation for the support these services had received from the residents and visitors of the island and thanked them all for their interest.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ball and family of Winchester closed their summer cottage on Friday and returned to their home after having spent a most enjoyable summer on Chebeague. Miss Dorothy Ball intends to enter Abbot Academy in Andover, Mass., this coming fall, while Mr. John Ball, Jr., returns to complete his course in the Winchester High School.

Miss Elizabeth Ash gave a tea to a number of her friends on Sunday afternoon at "Ashcroft". About twenty-five people from both the east and west end of the island were present and a very pleasant afternoon was passed. Those present included: Miss Anna Christensen and her guests, Miss Irene Webster and Miss Marie McCloud, Mr. Fred Toy, Mr. Jack and Miss Katharine Adams, Mr. Thomas Connors, Mr. Fred Ballard, Miss Helen Demerest, Miss Clara Webster, Miss Marjorie Holmes, the Misses Ernestine and Marie Robbins and their guest, Miss Ann Bridges. Mr. Robert Spalding, Miss Louise Ordway and Mr. Morgan Ash.

Mr. Charles D. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Jackson, Miss Cornelia Jackson, and Miss Elizabeth Tinbrook Jackson, all of Portland, were visitors at the island last week, being the guests while here of Dean F. L. Vernon at his summer home, "Coveside."

Mr. Ralph D. Cutler of Hartford, Conn., has been spending a week visiting Mr. Fred Ballard at his summer home, "Khatmandu." Another guest at "Khatmandu" is Mr. Joseph A. Inslee of Bolivia, South America. Mr. Inslee, who is manager of the Bolivia mines of the Andes Tin Company, is also spending a week at Chebeague.

Miss Helen Clark of Baltimore, Md., who has been spending the summer at North Haven, Me., is visiting Miss Teresa Howell for a time.

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. L. M. Passano of Winchester, Mass., gave a very charming tea at her home, "Lone Ash," in honor of Miss Margaret French. Mrs. Passano was assisted by Miss Janet Howell, Miss Cornelia Campbell, Miss Jessie Ridge, Miss Edith Willard and Miss Genevieve Robinson, and a most delightful afternoon was spent.

Miss Margaret French, of Winchester, Mass., who has been spending the summer at the West End, left the island last week, together with Miss Genevieve Robinson, also of Winchester, and Miss Edith Willard, of Lexington, Mass., who have been visiting her. All three will spend some time in Miss Willard's camp in the Rangeley Lakes.

Mr. Carlos Dorticco, of Chicago, Ill., has arrived at the island for his annual vacation and is staying at the summer home of his mother, Mrs. Antoine Dorticco. Mr. Dorticco, who is connected with the General Electric Company's office in Chicago, will be accorded a hearty welcome by his many friends at the island.

Professor L. M. Passano, of Winchester, Mass., arrived at the island this Wednesday and joined his family at their summer home, "Lone Ash." Professor Passano is associate professor of mathematics at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Last Sunday evening, Mrs. W. B. French gave a very enjoyable wench rarebit supper to the West End colony in place of the customary Sunday afternoon tea. Afterward Dean F. L. Vernon gave some very admirable readings of some of Drummond's French-Canadian poems.

A very happy party enjoyed the hospitality at Bates Hut on Friday, when Mr. and Mrs. Wesley W. Bates of Portland entertained at their summer estate several Portland and Massachusetts friends. A feature perhaps next in importance to the delicious dinner was the clay pigeon shooting with which Mr. Bates consent to entertain the men in the company during the afternoon. Anything large enough to be seen in the air was brought down with right and left barrels, two empty shells in the air proving easy enough, though some of the others in the party expressed a desire that somebody should cast up a barn door for them to shoot at. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Horne of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Larrabee of Wilton, Me., and Chebeague, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. every day leaving the Casco Bay and Harpswell line wharf at 10 a. m., Peaks Island at 10.30 a. m., So. Harpswell at 11.30 a. m., and Bailey and Orr's on signal. The trip is being heartily patronized this year. Capt. Howard takes you through the intricate narrow passages of the upper reaches of Merriconeag Sound and every minute some fresh pastoral or wooded shore comes in to view. Connections are made to all islands on the return trip and a full two hours is had for dinner.

South Harpswell. On Monday, August 21, at Lookout Point the Auburn Colony Association's annual clam bake was attended by nearly everyone of the colony. There were eighty-seven to sit down to the good things of the bake and the singers sang the following composition, which was prepared by one of the members:

How dear to my heart Are the scenes around Harpswell When fond recollections Present them to view. The bays and the landing, The inlets and islands, And all the loved spots Which were "more than a few." "Chatterbox" so gaily And near by was Bailey, With Haskell's and Whaleboat All plainly in sight. With meals always ready And appetites steady, With friendships remaining So pleasant and bright, Sung to the tune of "The Old Oaken Bucket."
