REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

We would suggest to our friends of the Jackson party, the propriety of baving this "able State paper," of Mr. Secretary Eaton's stereotyped unmediately-and that a few copies bo sent forthwith to Rome, and deposited in the archives of the Vatican Library; as a true specimen of American Cabinet Literature, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine. It will be of essential service to the antiquary of after years, in determining the state ference of various subjects, the Senete of literature among us at the present day. We shall give our readers a few paragraphs from this celebrated document next week. The manner in which the Jacksonites-

(more properly exclusionists) -of the Senare have managed in forming the various Committees for the Season is admirable, indeed. So liberal and conciliatory that it must, necessarily, have a very salutary influence in strengthening the strong bands of affection already existing. To be serious. PROSPECTUS

UNITARIAN ADVOCATE

RELIGIOUS MISCELLANY. (NEW SERIES.) CONDUCTED BY AN ASSOCIATION OF BEN-

TLEMEN.

HIS work is intended for the defence and wider dissenination of the religious views which commend themselves to the Unitarian, as the most scriptural and rational. But in pursuing these objects, we hope never to forget that the great principles of Christi-Coulter, Davis of Mass., Lamar, Coke, anity are the peculiar property of no denomination of Christians, but are held in common by them ail. While we strive to dispel those prejudices which give to error its most efficient support, we shall laboryet more earnestly to correct those misapprehensions which have reached the heart with their influence, and caused a feeling of abhorrence to mingle with the love of supposed truth in the minds of our opponents.

The Unitarian Advocate and Religious portant topics of morals and religion. Essys and Dissertations relating io Scriptural in-terpretation, and adapted to throw light on the sacred volume, and assist the serious inquirer in his pursuit of truth, will be especially welcome. A temperate exposure of prevailing erroneous opinions, and an open though charitable and candid defence of what is esteemed important truth in opposition to these opinions, will be frequently attempted ! in this work.

Writers will receive 50 cents a page for all matter contributed and accepted.

CONDITIONS.

I. The Unitarian Advocate and Religious Miscellany will be published on the first day of every month, commencing with January, 1830, each number to contain 48 pages, duo-decimo, handsomely printed on superfine paper, with new type—the whole making two volumes a year, of 288 pages each.
