

MR. GEORGE WESCOTT BEYERS, PORTLAND.

A MOST enlightened man is this,
 No matter what your pass
 If only planning water works
 Or merely wanting gas;
 And when his work is finished,
 By him pronounced complete,
 You'll find no tiny geysers
 Up-gushing in your street.
 His pleasure is his naptha launch
 Whene'er the weather's fine
 And should you mention fishing,
 You find him right in line.
