A PUBLICATION
OF
THE MAINE PUBLICITY BUREAU, INC.
97 Winthrop Street, Hallowell, Maine 04347
(207) 289-2423
Dear Friends of Maine:

The State of Maine offers ideal opportunities for vacation, relaxation, and recreation, thanks in part to its wide variety of splendid accommodations carefully designed to fulfill every individual desire.

To assist with these many special needs, the Maine Publicity Bureau publishes a number of detailed publications in which the prospective Maine visitor can find information about hotels, bed & breakfast, inns, sporting camps, restaurants, gift shops, as well as the countless other businesses catering to travelers.

You're presently reading from the "Maine Guide to Camp & Cottage Rentals." This booklet is devoted, in its entirety, to listings of accommodations of this type.

We would like to be able to tell you that we personally have inspected every property listed herein prior to publishing this booklet. Unfortunately, however, this is not practical.

We have expended much time, effort and money with the ultimate goal of providing an ad service for the lowest possible cost. In reciprocation, we expect advertizers to conduct transactions fairly, honestly and in the same manner as they would expect others to deal with them.

Thus far, they have earned a reputation of being extremely honest and helpful. Let's keep this reputation.

We will not knowingly publish an ad of which we have information that the individual or firm is not reputable and fair. If you answer an ad and encounter dishonest treatment, please let us know. If there are several legitimate complaints, we will refuse future advertising.

It is our sincere hope that you can find the perfect spot for your Maine vacation within the pages of this book and that you will enjoy every moment of your stay in the Pine Tree State.

Sincerely,

George J. Stobie
Executive Director
Maine in a nutshell — that's how a Maine visitor once described York County. For here in this "southern gateway to Maine" the state's traveling guest finds every form of natural advantage for vacationing, from world famous beaches of sparkling white sand to lakes and hills and shore where people have settled for more than 300 years. Also included in this region are portions of Cumberland County as far north as Freeport and the state's most populous city, Portland.

ACADIA

Maine's Acadia Region spreads from eastern Penobscot Bay, across a scenic wonderland of islands, harbors and headlands, to Gouldsboro Bay. It reaches north to Bangor, then fans out across rolling hills and fertile farmland to the southern portions of the northern wilderness and beyond. The beauty of the Acadia region comes clearly into focus on Mount Desert Island, particularly within Acadia National Park, although beauty is certainly more the rule than the exception throughout the entire region.

SUNRISE COUNTY

This region meets Maine's — and the nation's — easternmost border and includes what has aptly been called "Sunrise County USA." Washington County's irregular coastline is characterized by rocky beaches and rugged headlands of stark and timeless beauty. Vast blueberry fields cover the county, producing 90 percent of the nation's low bush blueberry crop. Look for the roadside stands in mid-summer during the blueberry harvest!

KATAHDIN / MOOSEHEAD

Most of this region is privately owned pulp and paper company land, although much of it is accessible to the public. Relatively few highways disturb the unspoiled beauty of north and north-central Maine. Outdoor recreation is a major pastime here where lakes, mountains, and rivers rule supreme. Moosehead is the largest lake in the state, some 40 miles long, and Katahdin, in 200,000 acre Baxter State Park the highest mountain, and northern terminus for the Appalachian Trail.
