PROCLAMATION

State of Maine

WHEREAS, the City of Bangor was incorporated in the year 1834; and

WHEREAS, the year 1959 is the 125th anniversary of that incorporation; and

WHEREAS, the City of Bangor is planning a yearlong celebration of its 125th anniversary;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Edmund S. Muskie, Governor of the State of Maine, do hereby proclaim the year 1959 as Bangor Anniversary Year, and call upon the citizens of Maine to join the Queen City in its celebration. Noting the contributions made to our State and country by the citizens of Bangor, we point with pride to its glorious history and even more glorious future. People from throughout the United States will throng to Bangor during 1959 and all of Maine should join in welcoming and joining these visitors in taking part in the 125th anniversary celebration of the City of Bangor.

Given at the office of the Governor at Augusta, and sealed with the Great Seal of the State of Maine, this Nineteenth day of December in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the One Hundred and Eighty-third.
