Cliff Island

SOCIAL LIFE BECOMING ACTIVE. MANY NEWCOMERS HERE.

Opening of Library Among Events of Last Week.

This popular and pleasant island does not seem to be affected by the "late season" talk which is heard in some other parts of Casco Bay. The season at Cliff is really very good and hotels and cottages alike are rapidly filling.

Mr. Richard M. Newlin and family of Haverford, Pa., are summering at the Murphy Cottage at the end of Woodland Road. They will spend the entire season on the island.

Mr. S. P. Darlington, 2nd., of Georgetown, S. C., grandson of Mr. S. P. Darlington, is at the "Peace Cottage" on the western end of the island for the season. Miss Hitchman, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., who has been a guest at the Darlington's, has recently left. Mr. Creagh M. Heydecker, captain of the motor launch, "Osprey," is also at the cottage for the summer.

The boat service here on week days is excellent, there being four trips each way. On Sundays, however, the service is not as good, there being only two trips up and two down. This makes it inconvenient for some people who are spending week ends here to get back to Portland in time to connect with trains to points away. It is hoped that some remedy may be suggested and tried out. Mr. Goding's spirit of accommodation is well known and he will undoubtedly make any change possible which does not injure the service to other points when the matter comes to his attention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gilchrist and family of Philadelphia, Pa., are at their cottage, "The Ferns," for the summer. Mr. Gilchrist is a well-known artist and is doing quite a bit of painting here. No place could furnish more beautiful marine views than Casco Bay and Mr. Gilchrist's choice of this island for a summer home is to be commended.

The Eastern Star of Westbrook was entertained last Wednesday by Mrs. Maasbyll at her cottage, "Ocean Spray." The party, numbering in all about forty, arrived at the cottage about 11 a. m. The cottage was decorated with ferns and wild flowers, and presented a pretty sight. After the party had enjoyed a social hour or two, a delicious shore dinner was served, which was greatly enjoyed. After dinner, all went over to Mrs. Iva Johnson's cottage, where they were entertained with music, a solo by Mrs. Phinney being one pleasing feature. One member of the party, Miss Lois Dyer, remained until Friday at the Maasbyll's, but the others returned to Portland on the afternoon boat having had a very enjoyable time. Mr. Maasbyll, who is superintendent of the Westbrook Mill, came down last week to spend Sunday at the cottage.

The Sunday church services have not yet begun and it is extremely doubtful if they can be arranged. It has in past seasons been customary to have different Portland pastors come down for a short afternoon service, but this year the minister must leave Portland at 10 a. m. and is unable to return until late afternoon. Under these conditions, it is difficult to secure the services of anyone as most pastors have their own services at 10.30 a. m., which they cannot neglect.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Rodimon of Northampton, Mass., and Mrs. W. S. Rodimon and children, Jack and Warner, also of Northampton, are at the "Quannapowitt" Cottage for the month of July.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Steeves, Miss M. Steeves, and Miss Molly Steeves, of Boston, and Miss Dorothy Gooding of Cleveland, O., are sojourning at Grand View Cottage on Cliff Island Avenue. They, in company with the Gibsons, took a motor boat trip to Goose Island last Sunday, enjoying a picnic dinner upon arriving there.

Miss Blanche Leflemme of Portland arrived Monday to be the guest of Miss Dorothy Cobb at Cozy Cottage. She is planning to spend a week on the island.

Prof. and Mrs. F. H. Lincoln of Worcester, Mass., and Mrs. D. F. Howatt of Providence, R. I., are summering at the Kimball Cottage for July. Prof. Lincoln is a teacher in the Worcester Classical High School.

Miss Elizabeth Griffiths of Brooklyn, N. Y., is at her cottage, "The Ledges," on the island. She will remain quite late this season, as she does not plan to return to New York until October 1. Her guest, Miss Catherine Farnsworth of Portland, will stay on the island until the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nagel from New York are at Mrs. S. A. Davis' cottage for the season.

A most pleasing amateur entertainment was given last Tuesday evening at the Daisy Cottage. The first part of the program consisted of tableaux in which many of the boys and girls on the island took part. The stage for

Outlook For Season

PROSPECT FOR BEST SEASON IN YEARS.

Boats Are Crowded with Stream of People.

After the only moderately successful season of 1912, the indications all point to Casco Bay being back in its stride again this year as one of the foremost summer resorts in the country. For so early in the season it is doubtful if the cottages were ever so well filled and the end of this week will undoubtedly see a great influx of visitors to the hotels, as is evidenced by the fact that without exception they are all booked to their capacity during the heavy season. The crews on the Casco Bay line boats say that never before have they had to handle the passengers and freight that they have been called upon to carry during the past week. Everywhere one sees new cottages going up and many of the hotels have almost doubled their capacity for accommodating guests. For several years the fame of Casco Bay as a summer resort has been on the increase and this summer seems due to add many new friends to it among the holiday-seeking city dwellers of America.

South Harpswell

SEASON PROGRESSIVE SATISFACTORILY AT THIS RESORT.

Portland Yacht Club Fleet Anchored Here Last Saturday.

South Harpswell is enjoying a very prosperous season. Almost every cottage is now open, and the place is alive with activity of every description. Automobile parties, many of whom come from Massachusetts points, make the trip to the end of Harpswell Neck from Brunswick, often remaining a while to enjoy the beauties of the surrounding islands. From the end of the neck, there are many interesting sights to be seen, Peary's home, Eagle Island being the one most frequently noted. There are good places to get a shore dinner while at South Harpswell and the motor trip often becomes an all day one, so pleased are the motorists with this picturesque little town and its environs.

Miss Margaret Smith has returned to "Kitowit" on Bustin's Island, where she is staying this year, after a short visit to Harpswell.

Mr. J. D. Hayden was here last Sunday at the Burr cottage. He came down from Boston to spend the weekend.

Miss Marion Bunbury of London, England, is the guest of Dr. H. V. Neal of the Harpswell Laboratory at his camp. Miss Bunbury is a social worker and has made considerable study of sociology. She will return to England the 19th, after a very pleasant stay here.

The usual Laboratory Tea was held at the Laboratory last Friday. These teas are weekly events, and are of much pleasure to the residents.

Pott's Harbor was the rendezvous of the Portland Yacht Club fleet on the third day of their annual cruise. The third day's trip started from Oakes Ledge, down the New Meadows River and then to Harpswell. The speedy black sloop "Conomo," with Capt. George C. Orr in command, won the day's race by a margin of six minutes over Commodore Reuben K. Dyer's "Cluque." The "Daphne" was third. The U. S. Revenue Cutter Woodbury acted as convoy to the fleet on the first of the trip, but on Saturday, the Androscoogin dropped anchor at South Harpswell to act in that capacity for Sunday's trip, which was up the bay to Peaks Island. Saturday night Com. Dyer gave a reception on the flagship "Cluque," which was attended by all the skippers.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Lisbon, Me., have arrived at the Peterson cottage for the summer.

Senator F. A. Morey of Lewiston was a welcome guest at his little bungalow, Hurricane Hut, last Sunday.

An accident which might well have been more serious than it was occurred here last week. Dr. Fred Lambert

Peaks Island House

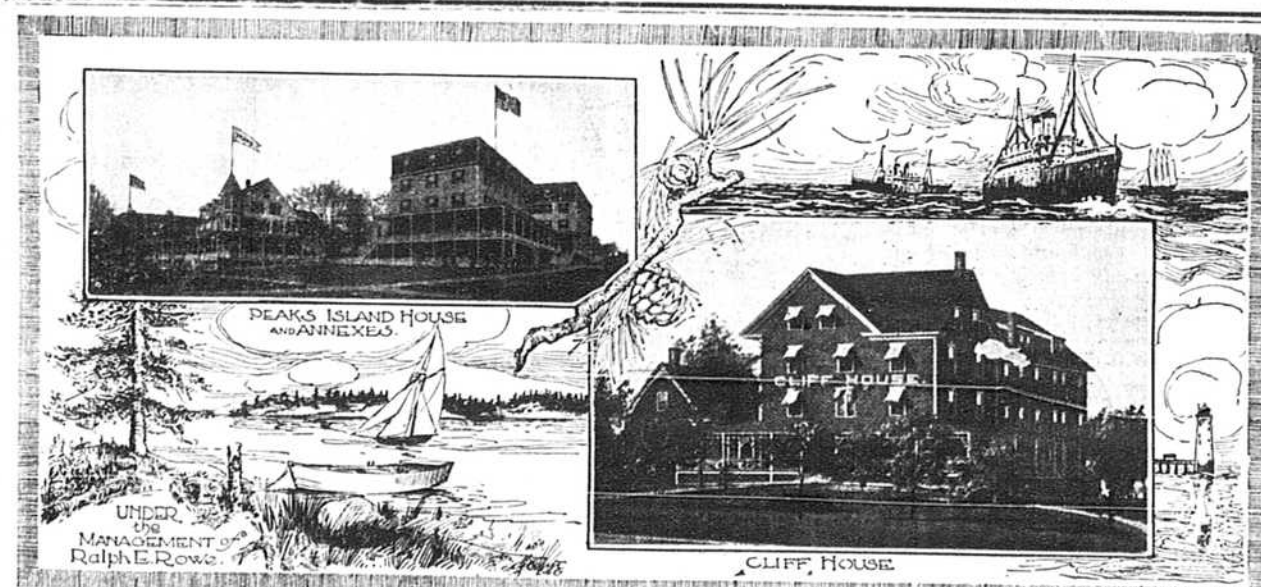

BEST SEASON FOR YEARS IS THE REPORT HERE.

Dances and Recitals Add to Daily Pleasures.

The Peaks Island House this week reports a rushing business, this year's bookings both for sojourners and transients being far in excess of last year's and on an equal with if not better than the best season for years past. The weekly recitals will be inaugurated at this hotel tonight and will surely form a notable feature of the island's entertainments. Mr. Ernest J. Hill, tenor, and Mrs. Hill (Miss Martha Hawes) contralto, will have charge of this evening's concert and the fact that such noted Portland singers are to participate will surely arouse great interest. The semi-weekly dances will be held on Tuesdays and Fridays during the season, Mr. William H. Chase of Waltham being floor director.

The concert given last Sunday by the Peaks Island House trio, Miss Annie Haigh, violinist, Miss Mary Hanson, pianist, and Miss Phyllis Craig, cellist, was of a high order of merit and was greatly enjoyed. The program included several well-known and much appreciated selections, among which were Gounod's Ballet, No. 1 and 2, Faust; Navin's Nareissus; Waltz, Op. 66 by Tschakowsky; and an exquisitely rendered violin solo "Oriental." No praise can be too high for the excellence of this concert, and it is good news that Manager Rowe assures his patrons that future recitals will fully equal this one.

The hotel still holds its popularity with the many tourists who while visiting Portland come here to partake of one of Manager Rowe's unexcelled shore dinners. The Peaks Island House has ever since it opened, catered to transients with as much care and solicitude as to its regular patrons. Nothing is ever left undone to give each patron a hearty welcome and a feeling of satisfaction. Manager Rowe's success consists in his desire to have everything right all the time and the rapidly increasing patronage of the house shows that his efforts are appreciated.

THE PEAKS ISLAND HOUSE AND CLIFF HOUSE

Hill Crest

POPULAR CHEBEAGUE HOTEL HAS EIGHTY GUESTS.

Dancing Parties Are In Vogue Now.

The hotel at the present time is entertaining over 80 guests and within a few days every available room in the hotel and annex will be taken. Hill Crest fame is so well known to the summer tourists that each year the late inquirer finds it impossible to get accommodations here. The table at the hotel is the first consideration of Mr. Hamilton and few if any hotels on the coast of Maine are more abundantly supplied in this respect. Commencing Wednesday evening the series of weekly dancing parties are to be given at the dance hall and at these functions all guests of the hotel and invited friends are invited. The music will be of the usual high order and some delightful parties are anticipated. A whist party was given Friday evening last at the dance hall and seven tables enjoyed this favorite pastime. Mrs. A. B. Mosley of West Somerville was awarded the ladies' prize, a book, she having thirty-four points to her credit. Mr. A. B. Mosley had twenty-nine points and he was declared the winner of the gentlemen's honors and a book was his gift. The ladies' consolation prize was awarded to Miss Carolina Farnham of Philadelphia and Mr. Stanley Robinson of Allston, Mass., captured the consolation prize for the gentlemen of the party. Miss Martha C. Fraleigh the hotel entertainer had the party in charge. Plans are being made for a masquerade ball Saturday evening, July 26. This party will be one of the events of the season and all the guests at the hotel are looking forward to the occasion with much pleasure. Suitable prizes will be awarded and an orchestra will

Bailey Island

The Driftwood.

The Driftwood's bookings for early July are very good with prospects excellent for a capacity number by the last of the month or the first of August. Mrs. A. McK. Gulliver, who has charge of all the details herself has had much experience in the boarding-house business, this being her eighteenth season. Experience is a valuable teacher, and Mrs. Gulliver is one of the few who are wise enough to profit by it. The mere fact that she has had the training is not nearly as valuable as the fact that she has turned her lessons to good account, and every feature of her comfortable house leads one to form the conclusion that there are few women as capable, or as insistent in wanting to please their patrons as Mrs. Gulliver is. In proof of this, the fact that many of the guests return year after year may be cited. The house itself is clean and commodious, inviting one to "come again."

The Woodbine.

The Woodbine, with Mrs. Sinnett as proprietor, is rapidly filling with the usual number of satisfied guests. This establishment is a very picturesque one, consisting of a rambling old farmhouse of typical island construction, which is covered for the most part with trailing vines. Nearby are the cottages connected with the hotel. These are all roomy and pleasant and are always kept in the finest of shape through the efforts of the very able proprietor. Mrs. Sinnett says that her bookings are running very nearly as heavy as at this time in 1912, and that she expects that when real heavy travel arrives, the house will be booked to its limit.

The Johnson.

The Johnson, with its fine new addition is enjoying a season, fully the equal of the early 1912 July season. Mr. H. F. Johnson, in speaking of the prospects for late July and August, said that, with his newly-added building, he believed that he could accommodate all who came there for vacation. The guests themselves, speak highly of the innovations which are to be found in the annex. The little rooms come in for much commendation and the immense stone fireplace in the front room gives promise of many a good time around an open fire when cool weather comes on. Mrs. Johnson is a famous cook and the fact that she has more table boarders than she can accommodate, proves this better by far than words can.

The Seaside.

This comfortable summer boarding house situated near Mackerel Cove, is enjoying a fine patronage. Mrs. Cram's register shows that this season will soon be at its height, and that means that Mrs. Cram will have her hands full to attend to a large number of guests. She is fully capable of doing this, however, as has been demonstrated in previous years. Mrs. Cram's guests are well satisfied that her attention to detail and her personal supervision will bring about the desired results in every case. The Seaside is usually the hotel to take the initiative in socials, parties, etc., and this year is proving no exception, several affairs being planned to take place in the near future.

Robinhood Inn.

At Miss Massey's charming summer resort, the usual activities in a social way have not yet begun. On the other hand, the guests are enjoying themselves in every way, by taking long walks through the woods, by going on motor boat trips, or, best of all for those who are tired out, just resting and sitting hour after hour on the broad verandas of the house and looking at the ocean. One can really rest and yet get plenty of enjoyment out of a quiet siesta on the inn's piazzas. The ocean itself, with its ceaseless motion, forms an object of unending interest, while the marine picture is often added to, by the sight of a passing vessel, near to, or far off, and the evenings are very beautiful with the sunset colors, reflecting in the clear waters. The hotel is rapidly filling and the July bookings are satisfactory to all concerned. August is the banner month, and the inn will surely be filled then if not before.

Ocean View Hotel.

This popular hotel under the management of Mr. George A. Richardson, has already many guests registered and daily new arrivals are booked to register. Since assuming the ownership of this hotel, Mr. Richardson has made many improvements, all of which will add to the comfort and enjoyment of the tourists. The Ocean View Hotel is finely situated, being in the center of the island and handy to both steamboat wharves and all stores. Sojourners here are handy to the bathing beaches and this means much to those that daily take a dip in the ocean. Mr. Richardson is giving his personal supervision to the management of the hotel and it is his purpose to conduct a first class hotel in every particular.

Mr. Charles Soden and family who have been guests at The Johnson for four summers past, are this year summering at Tree-tops, the beautiful Armstrong villa on Summer Hill. Last Sunday evening the Misses Soden, according to their custom while guests at The Johnson entertained their friends by treating them to some fine music. These young ladies form a string trio of unusual merit, each being artists in their own line. Previous to their departure on an extensive tour through Canada and the far West, the Berlin Trio, comprising Miss Caroline Weeks, violin, Miss Mildred Elchler, cellist, and Miss Mary Coughlin, pianist, were for the week end guests of Miss Soden on Summer Hill.

That it occasionally pays to persevere a timetable when one is going to travel is probably the opinion now of a party of people who have been staying at one of Bailey Island's popular resorts. The party referred to intended to take the boat to New York from Portland last Thursday. They went to Portland only to find that on account of the withdrawal of the "Old Colony" from service, there was no Thursday night boat. They returned to Baileys and spent the night. The next day they left early on the 5.20 a. m. boat for Portland again, intending this time to take the day boat for Boston. They had been misinformed about the schedule on this line and found that there was no day boat either. At last accounts it is believed that they finally went by train to their destination.

Whatever the cause may be, the season at this island is exceptionally late in coming to its height. It is true that nearly all the cottages are filled, but Miss Munroe's death as well as other local causes have kept back the real social activity of the island. But really those who want a summer vacation must welcome the restful quiet, and view with relief this unwelcome condition. Happily, summer communities are by no means dependent on social life, but upon the invigorating climate which constitutes their attraction. Bailey Island, nevertheless, combines both these qualities, and probably in another week or two, there will be no cause to complain over lack of things to do, or functions to attend.

Mr. R. Huntington Woodman spent last week very pleasantly on his annual cruise on the "Winjoy." The party took an extended trip to the eastward, along the coast.

Mr. J. G. Stetson's attractive store, near Mackerel Cove Landing is fast becoming a center for visitors. Mr. Stetson's stock of goods, ice cream, candy, and picnic accessories is much enjoyed and is always the most obtainable. Mr. Stetson enjoys a growing business which he well deserves.

Dr. Andrew B. Mitchell from Washington, D. C., is at the island, visiting his cousin, Mrs. D. S. Baker at "The Breakers," on the ocean's shore.

Mr. Frank Satterthwait, Mr. Alfred Satterthwait, and Miss Ruth Satterthwait, were among last week's arrivals. They arrived on July 9, and will remain about five weeks here to enjoy the Maine scenery and climate.

Bailey Island is becoming more of a boating colony than formerly. Beside the steamer excursions that are frequently indulged in, motor boat trips to nearby points, Ors, Sebasteogean and Eagle Islands, Harpswell, and even to New Meadows are taken. Another form of boating that is unexcelled for interest is deep-sea fishing. Many are deterred from taking this kind of a trip, however, because the best fishing is to be had early in the morning and a four o'clock start is not the pleasantest thing to contemplate. Still, these summer mornings are ideal, and some people who are not early risers would do well to take an early trip some day just for the novelty of it. The real interest in fishing comes about eight or nine o'clock when the cod are biting fast, about ten miles off shore. When a good load is obtained the party usually returns, elated with their spoils and tired out with their strenuous work.

Miss Nellie F. Tolman from Worcester, Mass., is summering at her father's cottage, "The Overlook," this season. She has at present as a guest Miss Cornelia Davis of Worcester, who is just completing a two-weeks' stay. Miss Tolman also expects Mr. and Mrs. Olney Baker to come from Worcester about July 21st, to stay the remainder of this month.

Miss Mary Axtell of Morristown, N. J., is spending a short time as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Armstrong. The Armstrongs are expecting Miss Harriet van Wagner, also of Morristown, to arrive soon for a short sojourn. Mr. Axtell has just returned to his business after a few days at the island, but will be back again August 1st, for the balance of the season.

Mrs. E. J. Hogan, who has been a welcome guest for the past three weeks at Mr. Lucius Shattuck's cottage, left last week for Cliffhaven, N. Y., which is situated on Lake Champlain, near Plattsburg. Mrs. C. W. Shattuck of Fitchburg, and Mrs. E. A. Barteaux of West Medford, mothers of Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck, respectively, are due to arrive on the twenty-first of this month for an extended visit.

Mr. H. Wallace Smith, who resides on the ocean side of Baileys has been compelled to take a trip to New York, but will return as soon as possible, probably within a week.

The Poland cottage on the shore near York's Landing, is occupied by a party of people from away. Those composing the party are: Mrs. Lucy Russell of East Sumner, Me.; Mrs. Sarah Gammon of Minot Corner, Me.; Miss Clara Ellis of Cambridge, Mass.; Miss Maud Robinson of Auburn, Me.; and Mr. Eugene Poff of Haverhill, Mass. The party last week made a trip to Orr's Island to visit the Misses Lavina Osgood and Nellie Ladd. They are also planning to take the steamer trip to Gurnet some nice day soon. Nine other people were guests at the cottage on the Fourth, making fourteen for a jolly holiday party. They enjoyed a picnic dinner on the holiday.

A fine new cottage has just been completed on this island. It was opened several weeks ago by the Misses Reba Dunning of Franklin, Mass., Elizabeth M. Dunning of Watertown, Mass., Mr. Harold W. Ellis of Franklin, and Mr. Clarence M. Ellis of Yale College, New Haven, Conn., who came down to furnish and settle the affairs for the summer. They entertained Miss Gladys M. Whitehill and Miss Mildred Sullivan, both of Watertown, Mass., for two weeks and then the cottage was further enlivened by the advent of a party of girls from the Watertown, Mass., High School. The following are the most recent arrivals: the Misses Catherine Yerxa, Claire MacDonald, Verna MacDonald, Eleanor Jones, Dorothy Jones, Mary Robinson, Elizabeth Barker, Theodosia Skinner and Margaret Ripley, all of Watertown. The house-party will remain another week at Baileys, and, although they have planned no special trips, are anticipating a fine time with boating and other sports to enjoy life while on their vacation.

Miss Clara E. Bangs of Sabattus, Me., has recently been the guest of S. M. Jordan at the beautiful Bonnyview Gift Shop on Summer Hill. Miss Maud M. Pugsley of Newark, N. J., and Mrs. D. L. Phillips of Little Rock, Ark., are soon to arrive for three weeks at Bonnyview, also.

Popular boarding house on this part of the island with fine accommodations for sixty guests. The chambers are large, nicely furnished and have ocean view. Fine table supplied with the best obtainable. Bathing, Boating and Fishing near the house. Open until October 1. Rates and circulars on application.

OCEAN VIEW HOTEL

Bailey Island, Me. George A. Richardson, Prop.
This fine summer hotel is now open under new management and many improvements have been recently made. Large chambers with windows facing the ocean. Tolerant, bath, etc., better shop and pool room. Excellent table and in fact everything first class.
Open until Sept. 9. Rates on application.

Me., has recently been the guest of S. M. Jordan at the beautiful Bonnyview Gift Shop on Summer Hill. Miss Maud M. Pugsley of Newark, N. J., and Mrs. D. L. Phillips of Little Rock, Ark., are soon to arrive for three weeks at Bonnyview, also.

Miss Dorothea Godfrey of Wayne, Me., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Stetson.

The guests at the Seaside cottage are planning a dancing party at Librery Hall on the evening of June 23. An orchestra of three pieces from Portland will furnish music and many of the cottage colony are to attend. The party gives promise of being a brilliant affair.

The schooner Edmund F. Black, Capt. Frank Doughty, was at Boston, Thursday of last week with one hundred and nine swordfish, which were disposed of at eight cents a pound. The weight was over 19,000 lbs. and the crew netted $85.00 a man. On the first trip of the season the crew got seventy-one fish and realized $67 each. The schooner sailed from Portland, Saturday morning on its third trip. The Albert Willard, Capt. Humphrey S. Sinnett, recently sold their cargo of sixty-six fish at eight cents a pound and each member of the crew realized $55.00.

SOUTH HARPSWELL.

while walking on the shore, fell and injured his knee quite painfully. Everyone rejoices to think that the accident was no worse.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Wheeler and Mr. Shirley W. Wheeler of Hyde Park, Mass., arrived Sunday last at Mrs. Minnie Haskell's for a short sojourn of two weeks.

Miss Myra E. Noble, who has been quite ill, is reported as improving. All her friends will wish her a speedy recovery.

Among the recent arrivals at the Harpswell Laboratory are: Prof. C. B. Wilson of the State Normal School of Massachusetts, E. P. Phelps and Frank Blanchard of Tufts college, Massachusetts. Prof. B. W. Cushman of the Boston Society of Natural History is conducting dredging operations in the bay with the able assistance of Capt. Abijah Stover of South Harpswell.

The Surprise Shop operated by "Jack" Cox is the object of many favorable comments from the summer colony at South Harpswell. In appearance the shop resembles a Japanese Bazaar and from the number of lines carried it could almost be called a small department store. Mr. Cox has displayed much ingenuity in combining a drug, cigar, souvenir and jewelry store, an ice cream parlor and an old curiosity shop in a building only twenty feet square. The store will be well patronized by people who want quaint and curious souvenirs to send home to friends, and also by those who have a "sweet tooth" or the unquenchable thirst of summer for cooling drinks. All the adjuncts of a summer store are to be found at Mr. Cox's bazaar.

The new bids for the bridge that is to be built between Baileys and Orr's Islands will be opened at the Town House, Harpswell Saturday, June 19, at 2 p. m. Some changes are called for in the new specifications and it is understood oak pilings will in some places be used instead of granite work. This change is made necessary in order to complete the contract within the amount specified.

Mrs. Mary A. York and Harry P. York of Somerville are among the guests at the Merriconeag. Mr. York is a Boston and Maine engineer and is also an enthusiastic fisherman.

Among those who spent last Friday in Portland, going down upon the morning boat from here were: Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Wallace and son Earle, Mrs. Thurston and Mrs. Brown.

Miss Theresa Spencer spent Sunday here at the Spencer cottage.

Mrs. Martha Williams is making extensive repairs on her cottage and putting it in the best of shape for the summer.

Miss Mildred Cate of Salem, Mass., is visiting Miss Gardner at Mrs. Humphrey's cottage.

Mrs. Allan Hancock and her two daughters, Dorothy and Janet, of Everett, Mass., arrived last week to be guests of Mrs. Jackson at the Jackson bungalow for July. Mr. Jackson returned to his business in Boston on the 13th, after a pleasant two weeks here. Mr. Jackson is in the life insurance business. Mrs. C. K. Jackson has returned to her home in Roxbury, Mass., after a very pleasant month here at her son's cottage. She will return later in the season for another sojourn.

John J. Achorn and family of Newton, Mass., are spending the summer at the Oak cottage.

The first dance of the season was held on Saturday, July 5, and was well attended. The dance on July 12 was tendered to the visiting yachtsmen of the Portland Yacht club which was in the harbor.

Mrs. Horace Porter gave a delightful party at the hall in honor of the third birthday of her daughter, Miss Mary Pickard Porter. There was a large attendance and a very enjoyable time was spent.

A real old-time family party was a feature of the Auburn Colony's life last week. Mr. W. K. Dana of Westbrook, Me., was host and his children and grandchildren to the number of 27 made a week's stay with him and Mrs. Dana, last week. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dana and children, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Swan and family of Providence, R. I., Miss Louisa Dana and Miss Ethel Dana of Westbrook, Dr. and Mrs. Horace C. Porter and family of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarrington Abbott and family of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dana and family of Westbrook, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Dana. The entire party had a group picture taken and this will undoubtedly be a treasured souvenir of the week together.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Curtis of New York, arrived Tuesday of last week at the Merriconeag, having motored from New York via Milford, Pa., also stopping a day or two in the White Mountains.

Casco Bay House

LONG ISLAND HOTEL HAVING SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

Many Tourists Have Registered the Past Week.

This hotel is entertaining an unusually large number of guests and the indications point to a most successful season. Saturday the Methodist Church of South Portland held their annual picnic here and a delightful outing was enjoyed. Rev. Felix Powell, former pastor of the church here, is now in charge of that church and he was here with the party Saturday and during the day he met many of his former parishioners and friends. Wednesday the United Hardware Association, numbering about three hundred, held an outing at the Pavilion and a most enjoyable day was spent. At noon a delicious clam bake and shore dinner was served at the Pavilion. The party left the island late in the afternoon, all greatly pleased with the day's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mulcahy, Boston, Mass., (nee Laura Brownson) were here on their honeymoon last week. They are spending part of their trip on the Maine coast and in August they will be at the hotel for an extended outing. Mr. Mulcahy is of the firm of Mulcahy Bros., Lace Importers, Temple Place, Boston, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Mulcahy are both well known to many of the guests at the hotel, they having been sojourners here for several seasons.

Mrs. A. R. Vallance and two daughters, Misses Ruth and Grace Vallance, of Montreal, have registered at the hotel last week. They are here for the entire summer and this is their first outing at the island. Mr. Vallance is of the firm of W. C. White Boiler Works, 705 Grand Trunk St., Montreal.

Mrs. Charles H. Petsch and daughters, Charlotte H., Irene D., Josephine, Florence L., and Mrs. Palmer Cushing, are among the recent arrivals. The family is to remain until the close of the season. Mrs. Cushing's husband is a member of the firm Miller & Roe, bankers, Wall St., New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex T. Robertson and family of Montreal registered this week for their annual vacation with us. The family have been coming to the hotel for many years and they are gladly welcomed back by their many friends at the house.

Long Island

Capt. William Floyd has started the season with his motor boat Lucy A. He has already taken many parties from the hotels and cottages on sailing and fishing parties.

J. A. Shackford and daughter, Mrs. Nelson Ramsdell and son, Cedric, of Malden, Mass., arrived last week for the summer. Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ramsdell came for the rest of the summer at their cottage on the Knubble, South beach.

Mrs. Benjamin Papkee of Medford arrived last week for the rest of the summer. Mrs. Papkee has spent many seasons on the island and is stopping at V. C. Mountford's Casco Rest. Mr. Papkee is expected next month for the rest of the summer.

Clarence Whitney of the University of Maine is spending a few weeks with his aunt, Mrs. Clarence Cook, West End. Mr. Whitney arrived last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kelley of Dorchester arrived Monday for the remainder of the season in one of Seward's cottages, West End. Mr. Kelley is in the Assessing Department in the City Hall at Dorchester and so will only be able to be with his family week-ends.

Mrs. Betsy Viles of Skowhegan, Me. died Monday of last week at her cottage at West End. Mrs. Viles had been ill for a long time and came to the island expecting to regain her health and strength, but Monday she died suddenly of heart disease. The burial took place from her home in Skowhegan.

Mary Murphy of Portland is the guest of Miss Mabel McGlaughlin at her home on Island avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell of Portland, moved to their cottage last week. They have been entertaining Mrs. Thomas Foley and Mrs. Henry Moisan of Portland.

Joseph Farrell, Kenneth Harvey and Nathan Thurnlin of Medford arrived for a two weeks' stay at V. C. Mountford's on Garfield street. Mr. Farrell and Mr. Harvey are two good ball players, having played on the island team for two years. With these two star players and Mahoney and Morgan of Portland High school there is no need of the team's being given a back seat by any of the amateur teams of the city or islands.

Miss Muriel Kennedy and Miss Dorothy Duckett of Montreal are guests of Miss Mildred Robinson of Everett Cottage.

Mr. George Parsons of Portland spent the week-end on the island, the guest of friends.

Miss Destell, East End has been entertaining her son Henry, of Melrose. Mary Bennett of Portland is the guest of Miss Marion McDonough.

At the Old Homestead, Mrs. Cook has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hannaford of Gorham, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hannaford of Deering, and Mrs. A. C. Hannaford of Winthrop. It was a family reunion and a joyous and happy time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. J. B. Webber is spending the summer with his family at his camp East End.

Stanley Dole, Bowdoin '13, spent the week end on the island visiting old friends and renewing acquaintances. Four years ago after graduating from Portland High school Mr. Dole played on the island baseball team and it is noticed he was awarded his letter by the athletic council at college.

Miss Nan Flaherty of Portland, is spending the week with Miss Adelaide Mahoney at Doughty's.

Steve St. John and Burleigh Waterman of the Deering district spent the week-end as the guests of Waldo Cleveland at Doughty's Landing. Mr. St. John and Mr. Waterman are good baseball players, having been awarded their letters from Deering High school.

Dr. Arthur MacVane and wife spent Sunday on the island as the guests of Dr. MacVane's brother, Dr. William MacVane at his new summer home, the Maitlan at West End.

Miss Margaret Flaherty of Portland spent the week end on the island as guest of the McGlaughlins.

What might have been a serious accident was avoided by the nine swimming of Mr. Charles Crawford, who swam a long distance and rescued Mr. A. W. Hartley, who was seized with a cramp while swimming about seventy-five feet from shore.

Mr. Charles Floyd, who has served for the spring months as quarter-master on the island steamer Forest Queen, has resigned and is now spending the summer months on the island.

It is with extreme regret that we report the sudden death of William McDonough, son of Police Captain McDonough, which occurred Monday afternoon, July 14. Mr. McDonough had been ill for a while, previously, but even on the day of his death it was thought that he was on the road to recovery. However, at noon Monday he was seized with a convulsion and died immediately. His death was due to double pneumonia, that most treacherous of diseases. Mr. McDonough had hosts of friends both on the island and in Portland, and his death will come as a terrible shock to them after such encouraging reports had been given out concerning his condition.

Leon Libby of Cambridge spent Sunday on the island as the guest of Loring McKenney.

While leaning against the railing on the Ferry wharf Edward O'Donnell pushed the railing too hard and both he and the railing went overboard. As it was low tide the fall was about fifteen feet, but being a good swimmer he soon swam around to the steps and was none the worse for his experience.

Thomas James of Oxford street is spending the season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George James at their cottage on Beach avenue.

Waldo Perry of Engine one of the Portland Fire Department is on his vacation and is enjoying it at his new bungalow at the East End. "Day off" is the name of Mr. Perry's camp. Appropriately named after the "day in eight" allowed the firemen.

Napoleon B. Chase of the island returned Saturday after a brief business trip in Boston.

Philip Tukey of Dartmouth College, holder of the 220 high hurdles record at Portland High school spent Sunday with Thomas Casey, clerk at the Casco Bay house, who is a student at Boston University.

Alice Harrington of Westbrook, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrington at the West End.

Mr. Henry Blachford of Montreal, P. Q., arrived Wednesday morning for a few weeks' stay at his cottage, The Allston, West End. Mr. Blachford's family is already here.

Friday the agents of the Prudential Life Insurance company with their wives and invited guests enjoyed their annual picnic at Cushing's. Baseball was played and races run before dinner and after dinner was served, dancing was enjoyed until time for the boat to leave.

Mr. Claude Berry is occupying his cottage at West End and has great times with Messrs. Crawford, Hartley and Fitzmorris, who have a cottage next to Mr. Berry's.

Misses Dorothy and Esther Perrin of South Portland were guests of Miss Etta Floyd Sunday.

Miss Helen Easton entertained over Sunday the Misses Helen Parker and Olga Ferguson of Portland.

Frank Connor of Portland, spent the week-end as the guest of William Mahoney on the island.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan of Portland spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John McCann at Comfort Cottage.

Mr. Gilman Martin and family spent the week-end at their camp on Beach avenue. Sunday they entertained the Chase family of Woodfords, Miss Ida Chase of Boston, the Konkrite family of Woodfords, Mrs. Haskell and son of Massachusetts and Mrs. Brown and daughter Leone from Stroudwater.

James Leone and wife of Portland, spent Sunday on the island as the guests of our new barber, Dominic Russo.

Dr. J. Roberts of Medford, arrived Monday for a two weeks' stay at Merrill's Beach Ave. House on Beach Ave. Dr. Roberts will prove a valuable acquisition to the island baseball team as he is an infielder of no mean ability. He was in his college days captain of Tufts Dental baseball team.

Magazines of all kinds, daily and Sunday papers, are offered for sale on the counters of Day's Spa. The delicious ice cream served at their counters is the best obtainable.

Bustin's Island

Among the many interesting trips that can be taken in and about Casco Bay none can rival the one taken by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Clark on Saturday. In the first place, they desired to go to Cliff Island, where their daughter, Marian, was visiting with friends, but not knowing just how to get there early Saturday morning they took the steamer "Maquon" and sailed for Chebeague Island. After arriving there they walked the entire length of Chebeague, a distance of four miles, without meeting a soul. When on the other side Mr. Clark happened to spy a little native boy who agreed to row them from the island to the upper end of Cliff Island. This was a most thrilling ride and would have made an excellent picture could it have been photographed. Mr. Clark sat in the front of the little craft, and the chubby native sat in the middle doing his best to make the somewhat cumbersome boat move and to complete it Mrs. Clark sat in the rear and patiently awaited the time when they would near Cliff Island. After a while they arrived on the island and had to walk the entire length of it before they reached their friends' house. They had been there only a short time before they started back. On the return trip they took the steamer "Pilgrim" to Jenk's Landing at Chebeague, and from there rode by team to the Hillcrest Hotel. Then they walked to the shore and hired a man to take them back to Bustin's. This novel trip greatly pleased Mr. and Mrs. Clark, for everywhere they went they met with some new sight.

Mrs. G. S. Brown and son, Ben, of Danielson, Conn., are spending a month at Miss Marie A. Wellington's cottage, "The Homewood."

Wilson and Co., who conduct the store and restaurant during the summer months on this island, are doing very well, considering the time of the season. The restaurant, which is one of the best in the bay because of the excellent meals served there and the splendid view which is obtainable from its windows, is receiving more and more guests, and by the end of the week it is expected that its patronage will be greatly increased, as it surely deserves to be.

Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays!

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25 OR MORE WEEKLY
We Will Show You How

If you have ideas—if you can think—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted. The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100 and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

We have received many letters from the film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure.

YOU WILL EARN $100 MONTHLY FOR SPARE TIME WORK

FREE SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS AT ONCE FOR FREE COPY OF OUR ILLUSTRATED BOOK, "MOVING PICTURE PLAYWRITING"

Don't hesitate. Don't argue. Write now and learn just what this new profession may mean for you and your future.

Peaks Island

Peaks Island is a general favorite for picnics and there is hardly a day passes without a party in Greenwood Garden, at different cottages or on the back shore, for a day's outing.

Thursday, the Ladies' Auxiliary to the B. of R. T., enjoyed an all day outing in Greenwood Garden with a picnic lunch at noon, and on the same day, other smaller parties were on the island.

Mrs. John Nissen entertained the members of the "Summer Club" on Thursday at her cottage, the "Wadleigh" on Brackett avenue. Lunch was served at noon and the day was spent in a social time. Among the members present were Mrs. Herman Grant, Mrs. A. L. Eastman, Mrs. C. H. Sears, Mrs. Robert Henry, Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Charles Brooks, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Bond, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Witham, Mrs. Chipman and Mrs. Dow.

The Phi Kappa Society girls of South Portland will arrive Sunday for two weeks' vacation at the Hunnewell cottage. The party will be chaperoned by Mrs. W. E. Johnson of East High street, So. Portland. Miss Ruth Coombs, a member of the Alpha Omega Society of South Portland, will be one of the guests. The members of the society are:

Marion Nelson, Bernice Johnson, Mary Davis, Reta Lenders, Louisa Cobb, Miss Jordan and Celia Doughty. Mrs. Ralph Purinton was hostess to the members of the N. S. Club on Wednesday, which proved a very pleasant affair. A picnic dinner was a pleasant feature of the day and bathing and a social time were enjoyed. Roses formed the floral decorations and the party included Mrs. James Jason, Mrs. George Scribner, Mrs. John Meserve, Mrs. P. J. McTigue, Mrs. William Barnes and Miss Hazel Richards of Manchester and Mrs. William Dillon of Boston.

Miss Alice Brown of Winthrop is visiting at the home of Mrs. George Brown for a few weeks.

Mrs. Eliza Mansiss of Waltham, Mass., is at the island the guest of her sister, Mrs. Enoch W. Hunt and will make a series of visits with friends in Maine.

Miss Eliza A. Lanning of East Orange, N. J., is making an extended visit with Mrs. Greely at her summer home at Trefethen.

Mrs. Noyes and her daughter, Miss Minnie Noyes of the Dwight School, Boston, are at their summer home on Beacon Ridge for the season. They have with them Mr. and Mrs. O. A. B. Ranchfuss and daughters of New York. Mr. Ranchfuss is here for the month of July and the family remain for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Morris of Rumford are the guests of Mrs. Morris' mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown at her summer home at Trefethen. Master John Morris has also been making his annual summer visit with his relatives, arriving at the close of school.

Mrs. Rose Wickham and daughter of New York are spending the month of July at the Skillings house, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ricker, of Cumberland Mills are also spending the season there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Plummer and daughter, Elizabeth, of Lewiston, have taken the "Idlewild cottage" on Central avenue for the month of July. Miss Alice Harvey of Bangor has arrived to spend the month with Miss Plummer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Alexander and son and daughter of Newbury, Mass., with Mrs. William Cammeyer of New York, are pleasantly located at a cottage in Sterling Row which they occupied last season.

Mrs. Henry Bryant, her daughter, Miss Ellen and her son, Irving, have returned from their home in Flushing, L. I., where they went last Fall to make their home. With Mr. J. B. Bryant they will occupy their summer home until September, and have been pleasantly received by their many friends since their return.

Miss Ethel Whittier and Miss Frances Warrell of Swanton, Vt., are to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jones at their summer home in Sterling Row.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Raynor of Daytona, Florida, who have spent their summers at Bailey's Island are this year at Trefethen in Oak cottage where they will remain until September. The Misses Runk are also registered at Oak Cottage, coming from Montreal the past week.

Mrs. N. H. Oliver and her daughter, with their maid, of Washington, D. C., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Waite at their summer home at Evergreen, where they are being pleasantly entertained.

The Ladies Circle of the Second Parish church will hold their first annual picnic with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steel at their summer home at Trefethen on July twenty-seventh. This is an annual affair which is always looked forward to with great pleasure by the members.

Rockmere House.

The hotel has seventeen guests registered so far and before the end of next week the proprietor, Mr. Hamilton, expects to have nearly every room in the house taken. The tennis court has been all fixed up for the use of the occupants of the house. It is hoped that tennis matches with other islands may be played as soon as the season advances.

Monday a party of twenty people from the hotel went to Whaleboat Island for a clam bake in Mr. Hamilton's boat, "The Esther." After a stay of a few hours the jolly party returned home with singing of songs and telling of stories.

The first concert of the season was held at this house on Thursday evening. The entertainers were among those who are spending their summer here. Mr. and Mrs. Bly of Everett, Mass., each rendered splendid recitations, the former giving "The Soul of a Violin," and the latter "Mrs. Florida's Tea Party." Besides this there were vocal solos, instrumental solos and a fine rendering of Victor records.

Sergeant Frank N. Harrington of Allston, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Bates and sister, Flora Bates, of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. A. N. Bates at the Somerville cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hearn and family of Boston, Mass., are spending the month of July at the "Alpine Cottage."

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Muran and family of Milton, Mass., are summering in "The Kingston Cottage" for the season.

Mr. Stanley Chisholm of Melrose, Mass., is spending a few days with his parents at "The Bayview Cottage."

Mr. F. C. Underhill, Mr. Harold Fuller and Mr. Thomas Haines of South Framingham, Mass., who spent the Fourth at "The Elms," returned to their homes this week, but hope to come back in a fortnight to spend the remainder of their vacations on the island. Messrs. Underhill and Fuller are connected with the Department of Superintendents in Denison's Tag Manufactory. Mr. Haines is the town treasurer of South Framingham.

Mr. W. Booth of Montreal will spend the week end with his wife at "The Highland Cottage."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ready and family of Dorchester, Mass., are at the "Hillcrest Cottage" for the season. Mr. Charles T. Brace and wife of Richmond Hill, L. I., who spent last summer at "The Birches," are sojourning at Lake Champlain for the summer. Their son, Eldred C. Brace, is spending his vacation at Titusville, Penn.

Headquarters For Smokers.

Rinking Still a Popular Sport.

The Majestic Rink, Mr. Crandall, proprietor, is having the biggest and best week of the season so far. Every week is better than the preceding one and the Majestic always takes the lead in comfort-bringing innovations, its popularity is assured as well as a steady patronage.

A SELECT SHOPPING PLACE.

Many discriminative buyers have for years selected their choicest purchases from the large lines of dry goods, fancy goods, cloaks and children's wear carried by Owen, Moore & Co., of Congress street. During the intervening time since last summer this store has put on a new aspect and is even more attractively and conveniently arranged than before. The first floor offices have been raised up on a balcony, which is finished in mahogany. The space thus saved is occupied by the new department of infants' and children's wear, which is the most complete of its kind in the city. The rear of the first floor was last year turned over to ladies' suits and cloaks and this department is at present one of the busiest in the store. Complete outfits for a summer outing at the beaches may be purchased here at a saving over the prices in metropolitan cities. The summer people in Maine have favored the Owen, Moore store with a steadily increasing patronage—to the shopper's own advantage always.

A Handy Place to Go.

You must surely need some article of furniture this year to replenish your cottage goods. Whether it be a piazza chair, a table, a set of motor-boat cushions, or merely an ornament for one of your cottage rooms, there is no place where there is a larger variety to select from than at Frank P. Tibbets Company's hand-dome store on Free street, which is stocked with just what you need.

Cousin's Island

Miss Martha Rittenhouse, who has been spending a vacation of ten days at "The Brownie Cottage," returned to her home at Trenton Junction, N. J., this week, after having a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Crowley and family of West Somerville, Mass., are summering at "The Barnacle Cottage" for the months of July and August.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Swain and son, Jasper, of Faneuil, Mass., are occupying the Smith cottage for the summer. They have as their guests Mrs. Elwin Swain and son, Morton, of Melrose, Mass.

Last week in front of S. G. Bissett's cottage there was an elaborate Fourth of July celebration. There were about sixty guests assembled around the house to watch the beautiful display of fireworks. After this the guests were invited into the house where ice cream and cake were served. The broad porch and spacious rooms within "The Daybreak" afforded a fine place to dance. This sport was enjoyed by all until the wee hours of the morning when the party broke up and all went home after a most enjoyable time.

The Misses Elsie and Betty Lindsay and Mr. Harry Haywood of Yarmouth, Me., spent a few days as guests of the Doyles at the "West Cove" cottage.

Last Friday there was a very exciting baseball game played on the Harmony Hill grounds between the Athletics and the Red Sox, the nine each being composed of six young men and three young ladies. The Athletics won an easy victory from the Red Sox, obtaining a score of 19-4. The first rate playing of Chas. Babcock, the winning side's first baseman, was the chief factor which kept down the opposing team's score. Mr. Selwin Prime pitched the first half of the game until knocked out of the box by a fast fly. Miss Sarah Collins, the famous Philadelphia pitcheress, threw a splendid ball during the remainder of the game, but the Athletics' battery proved too good for her team. Another game that promises by far more excitement than the first game will take place next Saturday between the Athletics and the Red Sox.

Mrs. C. R. Cutlip, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hallett, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Severance and Miss Alice Leonard, all of Dorchester, Mass., arrived on Cousins this week from Harpswell Centre, Me., where they spent a week or so. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hallett and family are now occupying the "Maple Cottage" for a few weeks, while the rest of the party are at "The Ridge House."

Last Friday afternoon a party of Harmony Hill colonists composed of about 31 people, took a trip around Eagle Island in Captain Sawyer's motor boat, "Handy Andy." The party started early in the afternoon and after sailing about the bay for a few hours, rounded Robert Peary's famous island. During the trip the spirit of the people was enlivened both by dainty refreshments and the singing of popular melodies. At sunset the party returned to their island, after a most pleasant afternoon on the water.

The Misses Mable and Marion Doyle of Yarmouth, Me., who have been summering at the "West Cove" cottage, have gone to Chebeague Island, where they will remain for the rest of the summer.

Among the recent arrivals at "The Ridge Farmhouse" are Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Severance of Dorchester, Mass.; Mrs. C. R. Cutlip and Miss Alice Leonard of the same place; Mrs. R. E. Dennison, Miss Grace Dennison and Miss Agnes Dennison, all of Germantown, Penn.

On last Tuesday evening a very enjoyable surprise and birthday party was given by Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Smithman of Haddenfield, New Jersey, in honor of Miss Sarah Collins of Philadelphia, Penn. The affair took place at the "Red and Green" bungalow.

The early part of the evening was devoted to the playing of a progressive game of "Five Hundred." After this a dainty collation was served on a large round table. The table was decorated with a large birch bark basket filled with ferns, evergreens, wild roses and wild lilies of the valley. This rustic basket was placed in the middle of the table. Surrounding it was a circle of beautiful green moss, which was entwined in and about the basket. Inserted in this moss were tiny lighted candles which served as a most unique illumination for the table. In front of each person's place was a small birch bark basket filled with wild roses. When the dainty collation was over all went home, voting the affair a great success. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Smithman and daughter, Miss Clara Smithman of Haddenfield, N. J., and the Misses Julia Neely, Helen Booth, Sarah Collins, Helen Mair, Amelia Mair, Marie Lawton and Miss Edyth Lawton, all of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. H. C. Thompson of Philadelphia, Penn., has reopened her cottage "The Firdedge" for the summer and has as her guests Mrs. R. E. Dennison and daughters, Mrs. Crevitt and Mrs. M. T. Goodman, all of Philadelphia, Penn.

Mrs. Thornton has installed a new engine for an artesian well and expects to have it in running condition in the near future.

Mrs. W. M. Howatt has as her guests for the week end her mother, Mrs. Julia A. Clifford, and her sister, Miss Isabel Clifford, of Portland, Me.

Miss Gladys Estes of Gorham, Me., is a guest of Mrs. A. E. Neal for a few days.

Mr. Benjamin Larcom and family and Mr. Walter Smith and family, both of Beverly, Mass., are occupying their camps at Groves Point for the summer. Mr. Smith is one of the paymasters of the Boston and Maine Railroad.

Mrs. W. A. Hauck of Somerville, Mass., expects her husband to spend the week with her at "The Forusail."

Mr. J. Carlton Hinckley of Medford, Mass., returned home after a pleasant stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hinckley, at the "Forusail."

Last week Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Chandler of New Gloucester, Me., and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bowker spent a most enjoyable day at "The Gurnet." They started in the morning and rowed over to the Trimble farm. They were shown through the newly-arranged hotel and were much pleased with its neat and tidy appearance. From there they rode in Mr. Chandler's auto to "The Gurnet" and had a fine shore dinner. About night fall Mr. and Mrs. Bowker returned to their home on the island, while the Chandlers rode on to New Gloucester.

Mrs. C. E. Gurney of Portland, Me., entertained her sewing club Wednesday of this week. The afternoon was sociably spent in sewing and neighborly gossip. Throughout the afternoon refreshments were served. Among those who were present were Mrs. John H. Turner and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. George F. Gould and son, Edwin, Mrs. Ernest Hill and Mrs. Benjamin Robinson, all of Portland. They journeyed home by motor boat after a most enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Norton and children of Newton Highlands, Mass., are being entertained for a week by Mrs. Gurney.

Mrs. William Bucknam and daughter, Miss E. H. Bucknam of Somerville, Mass., are at "The Talbot Cottage" for the summer.

Mr. O. W. Doyle and family of Yarmouth, Me., and Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland of Boston, Mass., spent Thursday evening at Chebeague Island. They motored over in the good old launch, "Bonito." The trip over was without an untoward incident and all had a merry time at the dance which was held at Assembly Hall. The trip home was fairly successful but after making a stop at the Cousins' Island wharf the engine of the good ship "Bonito" simply refused to go for a few minutes. However this trouble lasted for only a short time and soon all arrived home safe and sound.

Albert Davis and family of Woodfords spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bowker at the cottage.

R. S. Davis Co., Portland, are showing some suitable cottage and piazza chairs and rockers that are real bargains. Adv.

Counting the Cost

"I often wonder," said a local merchant recently, "why our bill for toll calls isn't larger each month, when I stop long enough to consider the use we make of the telephone, both at the store and at home. There isn't a town where I do business but seems nearer to me than even next door. I can beat many competitors by selling my goods over the telephone before they can get there by train; I can get into every town in New England all in one day, tell about my stock, quote my prices, make my deals and sit right here with my eyes on the home store all the time. Most of the people I sell to like that way of doing business."

"As for the folks at home, they keep in touch with all their friends everywhere, and my daughter there at Wellesley isn't a bit lonely, for she has mother's counsel, and it's the same way with Bob in Boston."

"Do you think I would let that telephone out of my reach? No sirree! It's not only money in my pocket in my business, but we are in the center of a big world of real live people, just because we can call up anyone, anywhere."

Bustins Island

Bustins Island Village Corporation.

At a meeting held in the grove on Saturday afternoon, July 12, the charter granted by the Legislature was accepted by the property owners of Bustins Island. This action gives effect to the act and it is now in operation.

Under the terms of the act the following officers were elected:
Board of overseers: Frederic D. Fuller, Elmer S. Hosmer, Charles W. C. Newhall, Frederic W. Mar, Enola C. Brainard.

Clerk: Freeman M. Grant; treasurer: Frank C. Garfield.

The act of incorporation empowers the actual owners of real estate while on the island to exercise a large amount of control over the affairs of the island. It gives them control of sanitary and police regulations, of the expenditure of such sums as may be appropriated by the town of Freeport for the maintenance of Bustins Island and a limited right to provide for further improvements by levying special taxes.

A second meeting will be held next Saturday morning to take action on the code of by-laws which will at that time be presented by the Board of Overseers.

Bustins Island Cottagers Association. The sixteenth annual meeting of this association was held in the grove at the close of the Village Corporation meeting.

The secretary and treasurer read their reports of the work of last year. The latter showed a balance of about $200.

It was voted that the executive committee be directed to convey to the Village Corporation the interest of the B. I. C. A. in the public float and landing.

The trustees for the association were directed to convey all real estate held for the association to the Village Corporation.

This latter includes the church grove and the school house lot.

The committee on the public buildings reported that only about $500 had been subscribed of the $1,000 necessary to begin the work on the building and only a part of this had been actually paid in.

The report of the committee was accepted and the money paid in ordered returned.

Messrs. Parker, Hosmer and Mrs. Pidge were appointed a committee to consider the feasibility of a building on the shore.

The officers who were re-elected are as follows:

President—Dr. Frederic W. Mar of New York.

Vice President—Prof. E. W. Tuttle of Somerville, Mass.

Treasurer—Mrs. Enola C. Brainard of Somerville.

Secretary—Miss Louise C. Brackett of Merrimac, Mass.

The regular Sunday services were inaugurated in the grove on Sunday by a sermon by Rev. Dr. Pidge.

Mr. Earl Fogg of New York City is spending a week at "Camp Shamrock" as the guest of Mr. George R. Lawes of Waltham, Mass.

Mr. W. P. Whitley of the Exeter Plumbing and Heating Department is installing the plumbing and drainage at Mrs. S. C. Lancaster's new cottage this week and it is hoped that by next week the cottage will be entirely completed.

Mrs. Nellie Cushing and Miss Ida Cushing of Merrimac, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell at "Camp Whittier."

Mrs. Walter N. Walling of Auburn, Mass., spent the week with Mrs. A. M. Dolliver at her cottage. This is Mrs. Walling's first summer on the island and she is greatly pleased with its picturesque views and charming walks.

At the Nichols' cottage there are five young ladies from Boston, Mass., who will spend the month of July there. Those in the party are Miss Ethel F. Swan, Miss Aleda Perkins, Miss Jessie McMullin, Miss Jane Ricker and Miss Christine Ricker.

Miss Catharine E. Brown of Westfield, Mass., who is supervisor of art in the Clairmont school, is spending a few weeks at the Ledges as the guest of Mrs. John P. Garfield.

Rev. Ralph H. White and wife of Newport, N. H., who are spending the summer at "The Garfield Cottage," went to York, Me., Sunday, where Mr. White preached a sermon at Rev. Frank Garfield's church.

Miss Alice E. Rochford of New Haven, Conn., is a guest of Mrs. William H. Rochford at the Upper Garfield cottage for a few weeks.

Mrs. William A. Campbell has as her guests for a few weeks her sister, Mrs. A. W. Zosbich, and her children, Roger and Helen. Mrs. Zosbich made her first visit on this island 16 years ago. Things were far different then than they are at the present time. One could get good rich milk for five cents a quart, fowl cost twelve cents a pound and lobsters a dollar a dozen. There were about ten cottages on the island and the good old steamship "Maquill" made two stops on the island, one at Swett's dock and the other at the present stopping place. In another 16 years there will probably be greater changes made than there have been during the past few years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Marshall of Lexington, Mass., are guests of Mrs. MacDonald at the "Twin Oaks" cottage for a few weeks.

Mr. John T. Allen of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mr. William Lamb, the owner of "The Green Lodge," are spending the greater part of July in Mr. Lamb's cottage.

During the many years that Bustins Island has existed there has only been one song written about it. This year, however, Frank M. McDowell, a well known poet, has written another which very truly expresses the sentiment of the island:

Back to Bustins'.

Tune—"Old Black Joe."

When winter's gone and summer's on the way

We hear the call from dear old Casco Bay,

"Come, weary ones, where you'll find peace and rest

On Bustins' Isle, the fairest gem upon my breast."

Chorus

We're coming, we're coming,
Hear the glad refrain,
From North and South, and East and West,
To dear old Maine.

Like homing doves we spread our wings once more,
Back to old Maine; we love her rock-bound shore.
We love her isles, but Bustins' best of all,
We'll sing her praises far and near,
To great and small.

Chorus

We're coming, we're coming,
Many a weary mile,
New friends to meet, old friends to greet,
On Bustins' Isle.

Mrs. M. Downer and daughter of Lexington, Mass., are stopping at "The Ben Nevis" for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Steele, Mr. J. A. Steele, Miss Nina Steele and Miss Marjorie Smith, all of Lexington, Mass., are occupying Mr. Hoyt's cottage at Kittiwitt for the summer.

Miss Nina Steele was seriously injured as a result of an accident with the family motor boat. It seems that Miss Steele was wearing an oil skin coat at the time of the accident as the weather looked rather dubious on that day. The engine is placed in the forward part of the boat and there is very little room left for the person starting the engine. The fly wheel of the engine was equipped with a starting pin which, when pulled out, is supposed to snap back by means of a spring. As Miss Steele started the engine and the fly wheel commenced to rotate, the starting pin, which should have snapped back, stuck and caught the oil skin which she was wearing. This brought her leg in immediate contact with the fly wheel, and cut it severely in two places. Miss Steele has been staying with friends at the Ben Nevis and will remain until she is able to be around again. The latest reports show that she is very much better and soon will entirely recover.

Mrs. M. A. Mills and daughter Elizabeth of Methuen, Mass., have been visiting Mrs. M. L. Wilkinson at the "Sunset" cottage for the past few days.

Miss Florence Smith of Portland, Me., spent a week with Miss Marguerite Grant at the "Grant" cottage.

Mrs. A. F. Brewer and Miss Mary Whiting of Haverhill, Mass., are among the guests who are staying at the Tea Room of Miss Harriet Brophy.

Mr. C. S. Parker and family of Reading, Mass., are at their cottage for the summer season. They have as guests Mrs. Parker's aunt and her cousin, Mrs. Nelson of West Somerville, Mass.

Supt. C. S. Clarke and family of Somerville, Mass., are spending the summer as usual at "The Red House."

They hope to take many trips around the bay in their launch, "Maybe."

"Bunchberry Lodge," the home of Miss Sara E. Bowers, was the scene of a very merry gathering on Friday, July 11. The party was given by Miss Bower in honor of her niece, Miss Hazel Bower, of Lawrence, Mass.

The games on the porch caused much amusement and laughter as the girls were given opportunity to display their skill in tearing from scraps of paper various things which were specified by the hostess. The first was an animal, the second, a flower, the next, a profile of one another. Each girl in turn was given a chance to guess what the production was intended for and the results were decidedly funny. Prizes were awarded for the highest and lowest results. Miss Esther Peterson was the winner of the first prize, while Miss Ruth Lavers carried off the booby trophy. Refreshments were served in the house and then the girls retired to the porch where dancing and merry-making continued. Among the guests were the Misses Barbara and Carolyn Brainard, Miss Marguerite Grant, Miss Helen Field, Miss Almina Jelly, Miss Esther Peterson, the Misses Ruth and Hazel Lavers and Miss Mildred Vorse.

Miss Elizabeth Clark of New York is a guest of Miss Bower at "Bunchberry Lodge." Also Mrs. John T. Clark and Miss Susan Lombard of No. Adams, Mass.

Miss Hazel Bower of Lawrence, Mass., who has been the guest of her aunt for the past two weeks, will leave for her summer home at Methuen, Mass., on Tuesday.

Bustins' Island played her first base ball game with the World Beaters of Freeport, Me., and was defeated by a score of 15-11. The game was an interesting one, in that it was a twelve-inning game and the victorious side failed to score any runs till after the sixth inning. Another game will be played sometime in the near future and perhaps by that time the team will be in better condition to play.

Miss Grace Ward and her niece, Miss Helen Field of Lawrence, Mass., are spending a few weeks with the Richardsons at "Camp Wychmere."

Miss Hazel Snow of Auburn, Me., will spend the week end with her mother, Mrs. C. C. Snow, at "Rocky-nook."

Miss Lillian Farnham of Washington, D. C., is spending July with the Silvers in their newly built cottage.

Mrs. Fred Davis of Somerville, Mass., is to be a guest of Mrs. C. S. Clark for a week or two at the Red House cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ensley of Somerville, Mass., are spending the summer at "The Bibb Cottage." They have only arrived here recently and as soon as they are settled they will enter with full swing into the spirit of Bustins' Isle.

Rev. John B. Pidge conducted the services in the grove for the first time this season. The service was well attended by the islanders and both Mr. Pidge's fine sermon and Miss Alice Smart's solo were enjoyed by all.

Mr. John L. Zange of New York, who has spent a few days with his family at "Camp Bluff," was suddenly called home by business and probably will not return again this season.

CHEBEAGUE, MAINE

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Soule and their daughter, Bertha, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fischer of Jamaica Plain, Mass., moved into their new cottage this week. They have named their cottage "The House in the Pines," and it is one of the coziest little cottages on the island. There is a spacious living room on the ground floor with a large fireplace built of gray cement bricks in it. Adjoining this room is the dining room and kitchen. Upstairs there are four neat little bedrooms, each one better than the other. Perhaps the most attractive feature about the cottage is finely laid floors. The boards are of striped pine and the grain of the wood runs parallel with them. The occupants are almost settled and soon expect to enjoy their new cottage.

CLIFF ISLAND.

tableaux was set in the large living room in Daisy Cottage and was illuminated with colored lights behind which a group of little figures made a fine setting. Music was furnished by Miss Addie Cobb at the piano and Miss Helen Cobb at the drums. Miss Janet Cobb was stage manager, and to her is due much credit for the smoothness of the performance as well as for the perfection of the arrangements. The following took part in the tableaux: Misses Helen Cobb, Ethel Bird, Ethel McLeod, Sylvester McLeod, Ellen McLeod, Dorothy Cobb, and Messrs. Philip Bird, Granville McLeod, and Kenneth McLeod. The tableaux were very pretty, a number of the subjects being as follows. Gypsies in Camp, The Indian, The Goddess of Liberty, The Fisherman, The Woodcutter, The Camera Girl, The Bathing Girl, A Scene from the West, The Clown, The Actress, The Japanese, The Flower Girl, The Chinaman, The College Girl, The Rube, and The Lady of Leisure. After the tableaux, recitations were given by some of the children, and a dance followed the entertainment. Refreshments were served, and all present enjoyed a delightful evening.

Henry B. Johnson of Main Street, Westbrook, has greatly improved his property at the island recently by supplying his cottages with running water. He had an artesian well sunk down through 65 feet of ledge until pure water was struck. Then last winter a pressure tank of 1,000 gallons was placed, and a motor to draw the water put in. This improvement greatly pleases Mr. Johnson's tenants and makes their work much easier.

Considerable interest was caused at the Daisy Cottage last Saturday when a bottle containing a strip of birch bark was picked up by Mr. Alden McLeod when he was pulling his lobster traps. The message on the birch bark read exactly as follows: "big Alexander drowned—Captain and wife and crew of Y. Farwell—Captains and Mrs. Rogers." It was dated Dec. 22, 1909. There is considerable conjecture as to whether the message is the report of a real tragedy or merely a practical joke. No one on the island happened to remember any brig Alexander, but the fact that its home port was lacking on the message widens the field of inquiry a great deal.

The Cliff Island Library was formally opened Saturday, July 5 with a tea and social afternoon. Mrs. K. B. Batchelor and Mrs. O. P. Stone officiated at this first tea which was well attended. Mrs. W. W. Gilchrist was in charge of the second tea, held on July 9. Hereafter the library will be open for delivery of books between three and six on Wednesday and Saturdays. The teas will be a feature of the Wednesday openings, members of the Executive Board of the Library Committee taking turns in serving.

The George M. Fiske cottage, "The Ledges," is receiving a coat of paint, much improving its already attractive appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Johnson of Portland are at the Sunset Cottage for the season. Last Sunday they entertained Walter H. Dresser and family of Portland. Mr. Dresser is the Portland chief of police.

Mr. J. N. Baker of Malden, Mass., is spending his vacation with his family at the island.

Miss Janet T. Hollister of Newberne, N. C., is spending a short time on the island as the guest of Mrs. C. H. Payne, at the Glenwood Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Goding of Malden, Mass., are at the Redfern cottage for the summer months. They have as guests, Miss Greta Goding, Mrs. Margaret Smith, Mrs. M. E. Holmes, Mr. Eddy M. Goding and Miss Evelyn Shortley.

Mr. L. S. Hill of Lawrence, Mass., was at the island as guest of Mr. Alonzo S. Cobb at Cosy Cottage the week of the Fourth. Mr. Cobb also entertained last week at his Portland home his friend of many years, Mr. Donald McKenzie of Edmondton, Alberta.

The Aucoisco.
The Aucoisco House is at present enjoying a very excellent patronage.

with promises of many more newcomers by the last of the month. Many of the Aucoisco's guests are people from Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. Mrs. Batchelor, the proprietor, is a Baltimore woman and the hotel was originally a Baltimore house but its fame as a finely appointed place spread to neighboring cities and now the hotel register shows a large proportion of names from other cities. Mrs. Batchelor is famous for her excellent management, and no hotel caters to a finer class of guests, many of whom are regular year-in and year-out patrons.

The Beeches.
At this comfortable, home-like hotel, there are now fifteen guests, with more expected daily. Mrs. Pettengill's entire time is devoted to this one house and this fact assures the guests at the Beeches the best in every way. Mrs. Pettengill is a famous cook and attends personally to the cuisine of the house which is rapidly becoming famous. The rooms here are all good-sized, light and airy, factors which do much toward making an ideal summer stopping place.

Granite Spring Hotel
LONG ISLAND SUPERB SUMMER HOTEL NOW OPEN.

Many Improvements Made About the Property.
Under new management the Granite Spring Hotel of this island is now open for the season and already many tourists are enjoying their outing at this popular hotel. The property, since coming into possession of its present management has received every needed attention and every little detail that will add to the enjoyment of the guests has been made. The Granite Spring Hotel is one of the leading summer houses along the Maine coast and few there are that have so many advantages for one seeking an ideal summer outing. The chambers of the hotel are large, well furnished and all having windows that give a fine view of bay. Spacious piazzas abound and the music and card rooms are always a center for those who desire quiet retreats for reading, etc. On the staff of the hotel is a trained nurse. Likewise a physical instructor who is ready at any time to instruct those desiring lessons in the art of swimming. A Dutch Lunch and Japanese tea room are some of the new features offered and daily a fine shore dinner, including lobster is to be served. The management's one aim is to have the hotel a complete success and all registering here will find everything to their satisfaction.

HILL CREST.
furnish music for the party. A large birthday party was given at "Hill Crest," Tuesday, July 8, in honor of Miss Florence Green of Dorchester, Mass., by Mrs. Mosley of West Somerville, Mass. Both these ladies are spending the summer at "Hill Crest."

Merriconeag House.
MANY NEW ARRIVALS ADDING TO GAIETY OF THE HOUSE.

Motor Boat Trips Fast Becoming Fascinating Feature of Daily Program.
The past week at the Merriconeag has been a most enjoyable and lively one. One of the most pleasing groups of guests, is a party of 18 young people from Brockton, Mass., who each year pass their vacation together. Mr. and Mrs. Kelstrom chaperoned. Each member a musician, many fine solos were enjoyed and the chorus members were of very high order. Deep-sea fishing, motoring and many twilight strolls made up a week voted the best yet.
Mrs. F. H. Dunton and Marion Dunton of Portland, are guests for the season. Mrs. Dunton's musical ability adding much to the entertainment.
Added to its many attractions the Merriconeag has this season an exceptionally fine tennis court, which was laid out and finished under the direction of Messrs. Curtis and Higgins of New York. The gentlemen are experts with the racquet. A series of tournaments is being arranged.
The barber shop and billiard room is presided over by W. H. Harass of Boston, an expert barber and courteous gentleman. Pool and barbering of any description at regular prices.

Chebeague
Summit House.

This popular summer boarding house has at the present time over fifty guests, and from present indications the season will be a most successful one in every particular. The Summit House has every accommodation for sojourners seeking a restful and commodious summer house and to each guest Mrs. Clinton M. Hamilton, the proprietor, gives every attention that will mean a happy and delightful vacation. Many of the guests during the past week have enjoyed sailing and fishing parties and each day some of the house guests are planning trips that help to make one's vacation pass altogether too quickly. The popular Summit House is getting more than its share of summer patronage.

Mr. S. G. Bowen of Boston, Mass., is erecting a fine six room bungalow on his land recently purchased from Mr. William Curt. The plans are for a six room bungalow, bath, toilet and open fireplace. Mr. Leroy H. Hill has the contract and expects to finish the same by September 1. Mr. Bowen and family are occupying one of Mr. Curt's cottages for the season.

Mr. Henry Bowen has rented his comfortable house on the North Road to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bailey and family of Wilmington, Delaware. They arrived last week and expect to remain the entire summer to enjoy the delightful scenery for which Casco Bay is famous.

Mrs. Webster, of Newton, Mass., assisted by her daughter Clara is entertaining her sister, Mrs. J. B. Brown, and Mr. Victor George of Taunton, Mass., at her new bungalow on Birch Island. They came on the 10th of July and will stay for a couple of weeks. Mr. Albert Huckins of Newton, Mass., is coming down on Saturday for the week end.

Mrs. S. F. Hamilton's house on the North Road has been the scene of a jolly house party during the past week. Miss Dorothy Wellington, the well known gymnasium teacher of Springfield, Mass., Miss L. Lane, Miss C. Brown of Boston and Miss Pierce of Oshosh, Wis., composed the party. They left the island on Monday after spending a delightful week sailing, swimming and visiting places of interest along the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Tryin P. Fay and daughter, Ernestine Fay, of Brooklyn, New York, arrived on Chebeague on July 11. They are staying at the Que cottage at the west end for the month of July. Miss Mensor, also of Brooklyn, came up with Miss Fay, and will visit her for a couple of weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Fay occupied the Que cottage last year during July and their many friends welcome them back this season.
