Articles of agreement made by and between A. D. Thompson acting Quartermaster General of the State of Maine, in behalf of said State on the one part, and Increase Blake of Farmington Falls on the other part, witnesseth, to wit, That said Blake agrees to make and deliver to said Thompson at the State House, or such other place in Augusta as may be required by the acting Quartermaster General, or his successor in office, One Hundred <sup>twenty five</sup> Drums, to be made of the following material and description to wit: the barrel or bodies of the drums to be at least fourteen inches high and deep, and sixteen inches in diameter, and made of good sound maple wood, free from shakes and split, and of a proper thickness, each body or barrel to be finished with a suitable air hole bush; The beating head of the drum to be of calf or the more head of sheep skin, both of good quality and prepared in the best proper manner, the tugs or ears to be of proper material, the cord and snares of a suitable size and substantial and proper material and quality, the drum hoops to be substantial and of proper quality and painted red; the bodies and hoops to be stained and properly varnished; each drum to have two good and substantial drumsticks, and the whole to be made and finished in a substantial, handsome, and workmanlike manner, corresponding in quality and kind to those made by Charles Town for the aforesaid State in the year 1836. The Drums to be completed and delivered to said Thompson, or to his successor in office, one half the above number on or before the fifteenth day of June next, and the remainder on or before the first day of August next. And the said Thompson for and in behalf of said State of Maine, is to pay to said Blake, the sum of Two Dollars and eighty seven cents for each of the aforesaid drums, on delivery as aforesaid, and after the same shall have been inspected by a person to be selected by the said Thompson for that purpose - In the fulfilment of the aforesaid agreement the contracting parties bind themselves to each other in the sum of two hundred dollars.

Given under our hands and seals this day of April in the year of our said one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine.
