Advice to Mothers.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SCOTCH WHISKY should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural action by relieving the child from pain, and the little child, awake as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Best cure for Cough and Cold. The old Boston Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam.
The most efficacious stimulant to excite the appetite are Angostura Bitters, prepared by Dr. J. G. B. Siegel & Sons. Beware of counterfeits. Ask for the genuine article.

Who is Your Best Friend?
Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the world. Don't neglect it in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell you less.

WINSLOW PACKING COMPANY.
Meeting of the Creditors Held Yesterday.
The Sum Total of the Liabilities and Assets.

The creditors' meeting of the Winslow Packing Company was held at the company's offices yesterday, at 1 p. m. There was a large attendance, completely filling one of the offices, while a number stood in the hall. A. W. Coombs, of Mattacks, Coombs & Neal, was appointed chairman, but stated that he did not think it appropriate for him to serve in that capacity, owing to his well known relations to the company. On this occasion he acted for himself and other creditors, and did not appear for Gen. Mattacks in any way.

Mr. E. M. Rand, acting as counsel for holders of English notes, moved a resolution that it was the unanimous wish of the meeting that Mr. Coombs officiate as chairman, and the motion was unanimously carried.

Gen. Mattacks objected because he was connected with the law firm of Mattacks, Coombs & Neal, although with this case Mr. Coombs, or at least nothing to do.

Mr. Rand was then unanimously elected chairman, and W. M. Bradley, representing some of the largest creditors, was elected secretary.

The secretary then read the call for the meeting.

The chairman said the statement to be made by the company was as follows: The secretary had a list of the creditors, who would please read and those present would please answer to their names. The list was read, and all present responded. A list of twenty minutes was taken.

When the meeting was taken, several more creditors announced their presence.

The treasurer, Mr. Jones, then, at the chairman's request, read the following recitation of the liabilities and assets:

Unsecured notes $101,906.68
Notes to English holders $4,684.72
Total $106,591.40

Secured notes $128,705.58
Assets $10,000.00
Materials $10,000.00
Margins, said $1,250.00
Total $139,955.58

Gen. Mattacks said the meeting was called to ask the creditors to appoint a committee to take such steps in the matter of the company's affairs as they deemed necessary.

Mr. Bradley announced thirty-seven claims represented, or $89,401 out of $106,591.

Mr. H. M. Beane moved a committee of five be appointed to consider the affairs of the company and report at a future meeting.

Mr. George K. Herriot of Boston asked if a committee of three would not be as well as one of five.

Mr. Herriot's amendment was accepted, and the motion was amended, was carried.

Farmers coming to town yesterday reported that the maple trees are yielding large quantities of sap.

Rev. Henry Blanchard will preach next Sunday morning in Congress Square Church on "The Noble Work of John Wesley."

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
The vastness of the missionary work both at home and abroad was spoken of in an eloquent manner by the Rev. C. F. McIntire.

After singing two songs Dr. McCabe introduced Mr. Granderson, a colored clergyman, who spoke briefly but in a very interesting manner.

MR. GRANDERSON'S REMARKS.
The Methodist church has a heart that throbs for all the children of Adam. When ever men are found in the grove, the Methodist church is somewhere near. We once occupied an obscure place in the church with the letters upon our bleeding hearts. But thank God to-night we occupy a blessed place in the church with the letters upon our bleeding hearts.

The church after the war found the South impoverished by the struggle, but the negro impoverished by slavery, not only found him impoverished but found him in degradation and in darkness that could be felt. For remember that slavery gave us a religion of fear and not of love.

The church has come to us with its soul saving message, and has come to us with its gospel of purity, come to us with its gospel of power, come to us with its gospel that points not only to salvation when we die, but points to the lamb of God that takes away sin now.
