APPEALS TO LAW COURT

Bennett Sentenced To Five To Ten Years For Offense Against Girl

Asserting in his final statement to the court that he was not guilty, Otto Bennett, 37, of Hope heard Justice Randolph Weatherbee sentence him to serve five to 10 years in prison for statutory rape of an 11-year-old neighbor girl. Sentence was imposed, Monday afternoon, in Knox County Superior Court and an appeal to the Law Court was entered immediately.

Mrs. Bennett, mother of five, sobbed quietly on her husband's mother's shoulder, in the almost empty courtroom. Still in the court was a large wooden hen's nest on which the State charged that Bennett violated the young girl.

Bennett's attorney A. Alan Grossman spoke to the court at some length on his client's background. He pointed out despite the jury's verdict, Bennett still was accepted in his community. He said the Bennetts have been married 13 years and, but for a brief period four years ago, have lived together happily. Grossman pointed out that a difficulty four years ago was ironed out between them.

"I appeal to you sir. I am sure any leniency in this case would not be wasted," Grossman said.

The attorney also pointed out that the community rallied around the Bennetts in 1959 when they were burned out.

Bennett answered the judge's questions clearly and when asked for a final statement, Bennett said, "I am not guilty."

MLA Opens First Buying Cooperative At Cape Porpoise Near Kennebunk

The first co-operative of the Maine Lobstermen's Association has started operations at Cape Porpoise near Kennebunkport, according to Leslie Dyer, MLA president. The building and assets of the Cape Lobster Company were bought and the former manager of that company, Harold Wakefield, is serving in the same capacity in the co-op.

Dyer said that lobsters are being bought and shipped out of state, mostly to Boston, while another shipping point is Bridgeport, Conn. The co-op has three lobster cars with a capacity of 10,000 pounds and Dyer said he expects the new business to handle about a half million pounds of lobsters during the first year. There are some 55 members of the MLA in the immediate area of the co-op and they are giving the new business good support.

The MLA president said that other co-ops are planned along the coast as soon as capital becomes available. He said that Rockland would continue to be MLA headquarters.

Youth Killed By Gun Blast In Friend's Home

SOUTH JEFFERSON — William M. Hatch, 18, was killed instantly, Friday, when a shot gun discharged accidentally striking him in the chest.

Authorities said a friend, James Geroux, 17, picked up a shot gun he thought he had unloaded and it went off. The younger boy's mother, Mrs. Joseph Geroux had told the boy to unload his gun before leaving the house.

Two other Geroux boys witnessed the accident. Hatch was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Hatch and attended school in Jefferson.

This is scheduled to start at 6:30 and will march to the school where refreshments will be served and gifts distributed. A highlight of the meeting will be the awarding of prizes for the best costumes. Lions in charge of the party are Maynard Ingraham, Jr., Robert Duke, and Franklin Clough.

In other Thursday business the club named Carl Ladd, Otto Umbreit, Tom Peers, and Archie Stevens as the committee in charge of the charity fund and it was announced that a rifle will be the prize.

Dragon And Knox Woolen To Be Honored For Industrial Achievement By State Chamber At Annual Session In Rockland

Two important Maine manufacturing firms will be cited for industrial achievement by the Maine State Chamber of Commerce when the organization holds its 71st annual meeting at Rockland Thursday Industrial Achievement Awards for 1960 will go to Dragon Cement Company, Division of American-Marietta Company of Thomaston and to Knox Woolen Company of Camden.

Knox Woolen Company, manufacturer of papermaking felts and other textile materials, was commended by the State Chamber for its long record of steady employment in a field that has been beset by many difficulties in recent years. Dragon Cement Company is the only cement manufacturer in New England and produces some 2,000,000 barrels of cement per year, for distribution throughout the New England states.

Both companies were selected for the coveted Industrial Achievement awards on the basis of their overall contribution to the Maine economy and their high standards of operation and production. Both are recognized as a major segment of the economy in the areas in which they are located.

Presentation of the awards will be made to the firms at Rockland at the State Chamber's annual dinner, before business executives from all parts of the state. Principal speaker at the dinner will be United States Senator Margaret Chase Smith.

The meeting is open to all interested persons. Reservations are being accepted at the Thorndike Hotel. Early reservations will be appreciated, the State Chamber said.

Local Knights To Assist On Game Supper

WHITEFIELD — For a sixth consecutive year Chester H. Chase will serve as chairman of the game supper to be sponsored by Governor Kavanaugh Council Knights of Columbus.

The supper will be served Thursday in St. Denis Parish Hall, North Whitefield, with three settings at 5:30, 7:30 and 8:45. Reservations are now being taken.

To comply with state regulations, moose and venison have been eliminated from the menu but a new treat is in store with the addition of Norwegian reindeer, Australian kangaroo roasts, and squirrel pies. Other game to be served as in the past, includes buffalo, bear, coon, porcupine, beaver, rabbit, woodchuck, chicken, goose, duck, roast pork, rattlesnake, and whale steak.

Because the local council is a small group, council members from Brunswick, Augusta, Gardiner and Rockland will assist with making up the serving line and will also assist patrons to select the meat they want.

Reservations can be made with the chairman in North Whitefield.

Central Maine Managers To Meet Friday

City Manager Charles Haynes said Monday that town and city managers in Central Maine will meet Friday afternoon in the Rockland City Hall at 4 o'clock. Acting as hosts will be Thomaston Town Manager Archer Scribner, Rockport Town Manager Archie Stevens, and Haynes.

Haynes said the group might tour the Community Building and inspect the new voting machines to be put into operation next month in the presidential elections.

HOLDEN LEAVES POST WITH CENTRAL MAINE POWER TO JOIN RAYTHEON AT LEWISTON

A pair of former Rockland men have been involved in a management change at the Rumbold district office of the Central Maine Power Company. For one it was a promotion and for the other a move to a new position in a different company. Ibra Ripley has replaced David Y. Holden, as assistant district manager at Rumbold.

Ripley went to Rumbold from Gardiner and was safety director of the large utility for four years prior to becoming local manager at Gardiner.

For Holden, the move is a big one. He left Central Maine Power to become associated with Raytheon at its new Lewiston plant. In addition, he has enrolled at Bates College where he intends to seek a degree while working for Raytheon. His schedule will call for night duties at the new Raytheon plant, which will open Jan. 1, and classes days at the college.

A former lighting engineer and assistant manager in the Rockland District of Central Maine Power, Holden also was active in the community. He is a past president of the Rockland Junior Chamber of Commerce and took an active part in many fund campaigns and other civic projects.

The Holdens plan to move from Rumbold to the Lewiston-Auburn area soon.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Holden reside at 122 Main Street, Thomaston.

Ringleader In 1956 Mass Prison Break Attempt Is Seeking Writ Of Error

John D. Duncan, convicted ringleader of a group of convicts who tried to break out of the Maine State Prison, July 29, 1956, has subpoenaed several of those convicted with him to testify on a writ of error coram nobis in Knox County Superior Court before Justice Abraham Rudman of Bangor. Hearing began Monday morning. He is serving an eight to 16 year term for attempted escape.

Duncan, who had been sent from the prison to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., and then to Alcatraz because he was hard to manage, claims the State's key witness in the trial in October, 1956, William E.

Goldthwaite lied to obtain better treatment from the State.

The petitioner also claims County Attorney Curtis Payson was a party to Goldthwaite's alleged perjury by promising him leniency.

Each witness was brought to the court from the prison alone with two officers, Monday, drawing out the hearing.

Testifying Monday were Harold Gray of Scarborough, Mass., James Hardy of Gloucester, Mass., and Augustus Heald of Hallowell.

One prison guard has been assigned to guard Duncan while others bring over the witnesses. Prison guards also are on duty at the county jail while Duncan is being kept there.

Goldthwaite came back to the prison last week on a sentence from Cumberland County. Warden Allan Robbins said a close watch is being kept on Goldthwaite for his own protection.

Duncan is presenting his own case.

Cider "Bomb" Ruins Contents Of Refrigerator

The Arthur Lynns on Lake Avenue in Rockland thought for a while, Sunday, that they had been victims of a "mad bomber" when an explosion shook the kitchen. The Lynns turned out to be "mad", angry mad that is, when they found a gallon of cider had burst in the refrigerator, breaking all the dishes and spoiling all the food.

The cider had been placed in the refrigerator some time ago to work into vinegar. Apparently no one had thought to loosen the cover while the cider worked. The Lynns ate out Sunday.

LET US RECOGNIZE THEM TOO

Well deserved honors will be coming the way of two Knox County industrial establishments Thursday evening at the annual meeting of the Maine State Chamber of Commerce. At the meeting, which will be held at the Thorndike Hotel, Dragon Cement Company of Thomaston and Knox Woolen Company of Camden will receive the Industrial Achievement Award in recognition for their contributions to the economy of Maine. The dinner meeting is open to the public. Reservations may be made with the hotel. Attendance at the meeting by the business people of the area would be a fine gesture of appreciation to the men of the two firms who have done so much for the industrial economy of the coast.

BE CERTAIN YOU ARE REGISTERED TO VOTE

We are coming up fast to what appears to be a mighty tight election, both on the state and national levels. The Nixon and Kennedy contest for the nation's top office will probably go down to election day with the pollsters announcing changes in public reaction to the efforts of the two candidates up to the moment the polls open across the land.

Here in Maine, we are voting for a governor for the first time in conjunction with a national election. While the major show of the national candidates may have overshadowed the campaigns of the Maine gubernatorial aspirants, we have a very real contest going on within our borders. Both Governor Reed and Congressman Coffin are going to the voters with their campaigns. Both are making friends and followers in their personal appearances in communities across the state and just plain old handshaking on the streets and in shops and industrial plants as well as television and radio appearances.

Whichever one you favor, please remember that you can do nothing for him come election day, November 8, unless you are registered to vote. It only takes a moment to check with the town clerk, the city clerk or the board of registration to be sure your registration is correct. A change of address, a change of residence to another community, or in the case of women, marriage since registration for a past election can require a correction of the voting lists. Why not be sure now, not sorry on November 8?

The Public Says . . .

October 24, 1960

To the Editor:

Just been listening to Governor Reed and Congressman Coffin in their so-called debate. It was interesting.

First, about the Governor's Council, one says it should be retained, the other says it should be abolished.

My thought to that question is as follows: Either have the Council elected by the people or abolish it. I would prefer to try it by election first then if it is not workable, abolish it. I do have very specific reasons for saying it. I personally had an experience years back and have never forgotten what was done.

"Industries"

Of course Maine needs industries. During our depression I had the opportunity to help get our first sardine factory in Rockland. That was the A. C. Ramsdell, now Holmes, factory. Second was the North Lubec, later the Green Island Packing Company, then the Homeport Fish Factory in Rockport. Then following these was the clothing factory Van Baalen and Heilbrun I was one of the agitators for new payrolls in Rockland. Let me say here that Tom Chisholm was a big factor in helping getting this one here.

The last one is known as the Bonnar-Vawter, Inc., located on New County Road. Bob Hudson's work in getting this here should be appreciated.

As I see it, it is everyone's job to bring new payrolls to Rockland and also all of Knox County. There are others that we can get, but it's your job and mine to help all we can.

Education

Of course education is important. We have built two new school houses here in Rockland. However, remember this, it's not what goes into a school building, but instead what comes out of it. Both Governor Reed and Congressman Coffin were interesting.

Sincerely,

Freeman S. Young.

To the Editor:

Will you please publish the following thoughts on the United Nations' Children's Relief "Trick or Treat" program? Ever since a letter from a friend of mine appeared in the Courier protesting discontinuance of the old-time type of Halloween celebration, I have been contemplating an answer, the sentiment of which are apparently shared by many people, for the UNICEF collection last year produced the staggering amount of $1,500,000.

There is FUN in this community for the children on Halloween! They are encouraged to masquerade and a prize is given for the best costume. The children receive refreshments—ample, good and wholesome, instead of a surfeit of sweets. The adults who try to give the children sweets besides the money seem to be defeating the purpose the children have set for themselves—for to the instructed child a lollipop represents five glasses of milk, which would seem a selfish thing for the child to accept.

Games are played indoors under supervision and this year the fun is being planned by the youth groups of the churches who are also doing the decorating suitable to Halloween.

There is safety on the streets for all children as they are accompanied by adults, which was formerly not so, in many cases.

I have doubts expressed that all children may not be turning in the money collected. Do we have so little confidence in the spirit of this endeavor that inspires a child to participate in this great project?

Above everything else can there be any doubt that there is at the end of the evening a glow in the heart of each child who joins the UNICEF. "Trick or Treat" because he or she has had a chance to participate in a glorious, selfless movement?

Thank you for your generous support of Thomaston's program in the past.

Sincerely yours,

Hilda M. George,
18 Gleason Street,
Thomaston, Maine.

POND CLEANING DAY IN OWLS HEAD—Underwater scythes work is a little bit difficult, but Owls Head firemen spent Sunday morning doing just that. They waded out into the fire pond at the village as far as hip boots would let them go to cut reeds that had grown during the summer. Then, they took to skiffs with one man working the scythes from the stern and another rowing while a third held down the bow to keep the balance. The fence surrounding the 10 foot deep sump section close to the highway was repaired and the remaining pond area swept free of growth before the day was over. Two crews are pictured working, one on the reeds and the other on the fence.

Legal Weapons For Hunting Are Explained

Legal weapons for deer hunting in Maine are bow and arrow, shotgun, rifle, pistol, and revolver. No fully automatic firearm may be used. No auto-loading firearm (semi-automatic) — shotgun, rifle, pistol, or revolver — may be used for deer hunting if the firearm will hold more than five cartridges or shells in the magazine, plus one in the chamber. There are no restrictions, as to the number of cartridges, on pistols having a barrel length of less than eight inches, nor are there any restrictions, on the number of cartridges, on any firearms using the .22 caliber rim-fire cartridge.

No shotgun larger than 10 gauge may be used to hunt in Maine. There are, however, no restrictions on caliber size for rifles, pistols, or revolvers. All of these laws apply to all hunting in Maine except waterfowl and woodcock. Waterfowl and woodcock may be hunted only with shotguns and bow and arrow.

Shotguns used in waterfowl and woodcock hunting must be no larger than 10 gauge, and must not hold more than two shells in the magazine plus one in the chamber. If the shotgun will hold more than two shells, it must be plugged so that the magazine will hold no more than two shells of the smallest size — 2 1/2".

Hunters should be careful to carry their handguns in a holster outside their clothing, or otherwise so that the guns are easily seen. The concealed weapons law applies especially to handguns, and is extremely strict, for obvious reasons.

Mrs. Seavey was born at St. George, Aug. 6, 1886, the daughter of Edwin C. D. and Katherine Henderson Hooper. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alma S. Seal of Port Clyde and Mrs. Dora E. Harford of Bayside, L. I. N. Y.; a brother, Fred E. Hooper of Martinsville, and three grandchildren.

New Graham Film To Be Shown Tuesday

Evangelist Billy Graham's newest feature length dramatic film, "Shadow of the Boomerang", will have its Rockland showing Tuesday at 7:30 at the First Baptist Church, corner of Main and Summer Streets.

Starring vivacious Georgia Lee and television's Buffalo Bill, Jr., Dick Jones, "Shadow of the Boomerang" is an outdoor action picture with all of the excitement and breath taking scope of the land, "Down Under". Setting for the screen drama is Australia's "Outback", the continent's vast interior region where some of the world's largest cattle stations are located.

The two young Americans head an All-Australian supporting cast, playing brother and sister roles in a turbulent story of homestead life. Their arrival in Australia to manage newly acquired family holdings, plunges the couple into strange surroundings and situations with which they find it difficult to cope. The brother is immature and impetuous, slow to accept Australian ways. His sister is much more democratic, readily accepted by her new friends with whom she joins in an attempt to instill understanding and tolerance in her brother.

Filmed against the backdrop of the Billy Graham Australian Crusades, "Shadow of the Boomerang" seeks to underline the Godly reaction to human crises and conflicts. Spokesman for the Christian position is Billy Graham, seen in dramatic Crusade footage photographed at the site of the Evangelist's record breaking crowds in Melbourne and Sydney. An authentic land-line relay meeting which shared the big city Crusades with the stockmen of the Outback, is used as an effective dramatic device in the story climax.

Many arguments won't hold water, but still pan gold.

Tigers Come On Strongly To Dump Farmington 18-0 In Best Defensive Effort

FARMINGTON — The Rockland High Tigers came through with one of its better efforts of the season at Farmington, Saturday, and defeated the Greyhounds of that high school 18-0. It was the second win in seven starts for the Tigers who clicked on both offense and defense to hold an opponent scoreless for the first time this season.

Francis Terrio was the big ground gainer for the Tigers as he repeatedly circled the home team's Hanks for good gains. However, he did not figure in the scoring, although having a hand in setting up all three touchdowns. The first came in the opening quarter when the Tigers took over on the Farmington 45 and went in, with Billy Jackson scoring on a line smash from six yards out.

Rockland went 60 yards to score the second time during the second quarter. Bobby Walker tossed a short pass over the center of the line to Billy Barbour to register at the end of the sustained march. The last touchdown came near the end of the game as Walker again made connections with the glue fingered

Barbour. Rockland failed on all three of their conversion tries.

The Farmington running threat, Tommy Barrows, was stopped by the hard charging Tigers, led by big Jim Shaffer, Bernie Jackson, Clark Earl and Barbour. The win was extremely welcome to Coach Bob Morrill who was returning to his home town where he starred at Farmington High.

The Tigers took Monday off but return to hard sessions Tuesday for their final game of the year against Lawrence at Fairfield on Saturday.

Former Local Man

plays, Inc., of Norwich, specializing in industrial exhibition design.

Hutchinson graduated from Rockland High School in 1947 and served for two years in the United States Army. He worked for several years in a local clothing store, studying art and painting in his spare time.

His work is described by critics as having a sense of vitality and freshness while capturing the essential characteristics of each scene.

In addition to his industrial work, Hutchinson is teaching water color painting in night school in nearby Mystic, Conn.

Ever wonder why the sugar spoon is shaped like a shell? Perhaps a shell was the first spoon, once upon a time.

Nutmeg is made from the inner kernel of a tropical fruit, while mace is made from the outer shell of the same fruit.

We are spending twice as much money now for missiles, as we did for our Air Force and Navy, combined, 15 years ago.

Fewer Jobs For Older Women In The Years Ahead

ORONO — Fewer homemakers may go back to work outside the home after their children are in school in the mid-1960's.

That's the word today from Mrs. Pauline E. Lash, Extension Service home management specialist, University of Maine. Her prediction is based on nationwide studies by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The studies show that in the past 20 years more and more women 35 and over have gone back to work. In fact, the proportion of working women aged 45 to 54 has doubled. In the same time, the percentage of working women aged 35 to 44, and also 55 to 64, has increased.

Mrs. Lush explained that in the years just ahead it's likely that women will face increasing competition for jobs from young men. As children born during the baby boom of World War II and the postwar years reach adulthood, there'll be a large increase in the number of young people seeking jobs. These young people just entering the job market will be competing with mature women re-entering the same market.

In her work of counseling farm and other homemakers in family economics and management, Mrs. Lush offered some suggestions. First, if you're thinking about returning to work in a few years, begin now by deciding what kind of work you want to do and start to prepare for it. Perhaps you will be able to count on skills or experience you already have when returning to a job. However, most women will need re-training or at least some brushing up, said Mrs. Lush. Professional women and those with business experience probably will find it easier to get jobs again. This may be especially important for women who are counting on taking jobs in the years ahead to finance their children's education.

community desire to demonstrate their faith in, and support of, the United Nations and to contribute to a better understanding of its aims, problems and achievements.

NOW THEREFORE, we on behalf of our community do hereby urge all our citizens to observe Oct. 24, 1960, as United Nations Day, and to continue to support the United Nations in a constructive manner.
Dated this 14th day of October, 1960.

Cross Disclaims Use Of Name In Phone Survey

Someone using the name of Ray Cross, Rockland restaurant operator, called Mrs. Raymond Gross, 52 Summer Street, Monday afternoon, and persistently asked her how she was going to vote in the national election. The caller got no satisfaction, but Ray Cross, the real one is a bit upset that someone is using his name.

Cross, a city councilor, told The Courier-Gazette, Monday, he made no such phone call and doesn't like the whole business. He asks that anyone else who might have received a call in his name to contract him.

Army Vessel To Visit MMA
CASTINE — A revolutionary type landing craft, the U. S. Army beach discharge lighter "Lt. Col. John U. D. Page", is scheduled to arrive at the Maine Maritime Academy Monday, for a three days, informal visit.

The 338 foot "Page" is on a cruise of New England waters from her base at Fort Eustis, Virginia, and carries a crew of 30. Three of her officers are graduates of the Maine Maritime Academy: CWO Robert Heffer and CWO Phillip L. Chaples, mates, all of the class of 1953; and Acting Sergeant Peter B. Kropotkin, junior mate and quartermaster, class of 1958.

These men and others of the "Pages" crew are members of the 159th Transportation Battalion (Boat). The Page, which was launched in 1957 and is operated by the United States Army Transportation Corps, is a new type development cargo lighter. She is a prototype of a new class of vessels designed to ferry cargo from ship to shore where no port facilities are available. This unique vessel is large enough to proceed overseas under its own power yet it can land cargo on shallow beaches which normally would be accessible to only small landing craft.

By the use of the new, vertical axis propellers and a novel hydraulic pusher ram at the vessel's forefoot, the ship can be maneuvered alongside cargo ships or can be retracted from the beach with the handiness of a much smaller craft.

While the Page is on her informal visit to the Academy, tours and demonstrations are being planned for the midshipmen and the staff of the state's maritime school. In addition, Academy officials are planning a program for the personnel of the Page. U. S. Army personnel in the Northeastern Maine area have been invited to visit the Page on Tuesday morning.

Money From GOP Supper Not To Go To Scouts

ST. GEORGE—Arthur Frieder, District Boy Scout Commissioner, has requested a retraction of a statement appearing under the Grange news from Ocean View Grange of Martinsville stating that proceeds from a supper in November to be given by the St. George Republican Committee at the Grange Hall would be given to the Boy Scouts of St. George and the Grange furnace fund. Frieder says that the Scouts are non-sectarian and non-political and may not be connected in any way with any political organization.

The St. George Republican committee regrets this embarrassment to the Scouts of the area as no thought of politics was involved in its decision to present a money gift to the boys. Proceeds from the supper will be given to some other worthy cause.

Wheelers Honored On 50th Anniversary With Party

TENANTS HARBOR — Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wheeler of Tenants Harbor, expecting to observe their golden wedding anniversary quietly at home, were surprised at a large reception and program presented at the IOOF Hall at the Harbor, Friday night. More than 160 friends and relatives filled the hall to overflowing. The Wheelers were brought to the hall by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gregerson and were escorted into the upper hall by Emerson Link, noble grand of St. George Lodge of Odd Fellows, and Mrs. Link, noble grand of Puritan Rebekah Lodge of Tenants Harbor. They were seated beneath an arch of flowers and given crowns of gold by Mrs. Phyllis Falla and Mrs. Arlene Kulju.

Mrs. Jessie Harris was mistress of ceremonies for a program called "Turn Back The Clock" on which clothing styles and songs of the various decades of the Wheelers' life together were shown. Mrs. Marianne Skoglund was at the piano and models were Mrs. Meta Holley, Mrs. Marion Dowling Watts, Mrs. Eleanor Priestly, Mrs. Eleanor Tyler and Mrs. Helen Thomas.

A gift was presented by Mrs. Betty Wilson, matron of Naomi Chapter, OES. Mrs. Marilyn Korpinen and Mrs. Olivia Frantz sang "The Anniversary Waltz", accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Wilson. Greetings from the family present were given by Whitney Wheeler of Augusta. A Strauss waltz was played by Mrs. Link. Rev. Harold Haskell of the Tenants Harbor Baptist Church presented a gift from the church to Mrs. Wheeler who has been a Deaconess there for many years.

A chest of money was given to Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler by Emerson Link on behalf of their many friends in the St. George area and the organizations in which they have been and are active. The program closed with a favorite hymn of Mrs. Wheeler, sung by Mr. and Mrs. Haskell with Mrs. Wilson at the piano.

A grand march was led by Mrs. Kulju, district marshal for the Rebekah Lodges, to the dining room filled with decorated tables. The head table seating the Wheelers, their relatives and officers of the IOOF and Rebekah Lodges had two cakes, a wedding cake and a special cake, baked by Mrs. Anna May Parker, in the shape of a Bible with a verse of scripture clearly outlined on the frosting and golden roses. All of the decorations had the golden anniversary theme.

Miss Pease is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pease of Lincolnville and Mr. Mayo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Mayo, 38 Crescent Street, Rockland. The double ring candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Monteith, in front of the altar, flanked by candelabra and large baskets of gladioli and chrysanthemums. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Howard Rollins of Camden, soloist sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace wedding gown, fashioned with a square scalloped neckline, and long pointed sleeves. The skirt was styled with tiers of lace ruffles trimmed with iridescent sequins. Her silk illusion net veil fell from a seed pearl crown, and she carried a white orchid, centered by a white orchid, white stephanotis and ivy cascades.

The maid of honor, Miss Judy Pease, sister of the bride, wore a grape colored street length gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice, cummerbund, over jacket with three quarter length sleeves and a full skirt. Her headpiece was a matching pearl crown with matching face veil.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Bernard Cole, Jr., of Suncook, N. ## 'Poor Flock' Sets Rare Record For Laying Hens

WARREN—Irvin Spear, farm manager of Breezy Acre Poultry Farms holds one of a flock of 4000 Leghorn-Cross hens that have been under his supervision for the past three years. Ordinarily layers are only kept for a period of one year of lay. These birds were exceptional in that production stayed high and egg quality was good. At 90 weeks of age, they were force molted taking a period of six weeks and then they went back to laying 70%. Carl I. Erickson, owner of Breezy Acres, stated the Leghorn Cross strain was developed by Hubbard Farms in Walpole, N. H. They stopped production on these birds a couple of years back. The reason: "they wouldn't live and they wouldn't lay!"

Maine Social Security Office 25 Years Old

AUGUSTA-The social security office in Augusta is 25 years old this month.

Actually, the 25th anniversary points back to Aug. 14, 1935, when the Social Security Act became law. The Augusta District Social Security Office opened in July 1936. It has been located in the Post Office Building since 1951.

George Field, manager, said that the Augusta District Office is but one of 580 throughout the country which altogether process more than one million benefit claims each year. And today more than 13,750,000 beneficiaries receive a social security check each month.

Looking back over the first 25 years of the program, social security has paid out in excess of $50 billion in benefits since Jan. 1, 1940. Actually, the first social security deductions from payrolls began in January 1937, but it was three years after this before monthly benefits began.

Field recalled that in 1940 the maximum payment to retiring workers was $41.20 per month compared with the maximum of $119 now payable to workers retiring with a record of maximum creditable earnings over the last few years. A recent change in the law raising the taxable earnings base to $4,800 is going to raise post retirement benefits even higher over the next few years - eventually to as much as $127.

Field said that today 2337 retirement checks from social security in Knox County. Nationally, over 7 1/2 million Americans are receiving retirement checks. And in more than two million of these cases, the wife of the retired worker is also receiving an additional check.

The additional amount she receives will be one-half of the benefit payable to her husband if she is 65 when application is made. She will receive less than one-half if application is made between the ages of 62 and 65. In Knox County some 600 wives are receiving this type of benefit.

In addition to retirement, social security also provides benefits to surviving families upon the death of a worker insured under social security. Regardless of how young the worker and his widow may be, if there are minor children surviving, then both the widow and the children may receive monthly survivor benefits from social security.

Over a million and a half children under 18 today throughout the country are receiving monthly checks from the social security insurance of their deceased parent - mother or father - who had worked and was insured by this work under social security.

In Knox County there are 401 minor children and their mothers receiving these monthly survivor checks.

The survivor benefit program has another important aspect. In addition to paying benefits to minor children of the deceased insured worker, some 1,300,000 unremarried widows nationwide are receiving monthly benefits based on their husbands social security. In Knox County, some 400 monthly checks go to widows age 62 or older.

A third category of income protection under social security is the disability provision which makes it possible for a worker to start collecting social security checks as early as age 50 if he is totally disabled and unable to do any further substantial gainful work of any kind. Disabled workers under age 50, upon "freezing" social security work record are protected against a possible loss of future benefits.

abled workers between age 50 and 65 are receiving this disability benefit. In addition, 31 wives and children of these disabled workers are receiving family benefits. Throughout the country today, there are 450,000 disabled workers receiving monthly checks in this age 50 to 65 age group.

All told, since social security began paying benefits in 1940, Field said that more than 21 million men, women, and children have benefited from retirement, disability, and family survivor features of the law to the extent of over 50 billion dollars in Social Insurance payments.

The 25th anniversary of social security is of interest not only to present beneficiaries numbering nearly 14 million, but also to 67 million Americans now working for wages, or operating their own farms or businesses. Each year their income is building protection against loss of income for themselves and their families in the event of their own death, retirement, or disability.

The Lincoln Baptist Association Missionary Society, will meet Thursday at 10 a. m. at the Chestnut Street Baptist Church in Camden. The guest speaker for the day will be Mrs. Donald Thompson of Millinocket. The Ladies' Circle will meet at the Tenants Harbor Baptist Church Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

One of the lady guests at the golden wedding anniversary party given for Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wheeler of Tenants Harbor at the IOOF Hall, Oct. 21, apparently left the exciting and happy party with stars in her eyes, a piece of wedding cake in her hand and a short red coat which did not belong to her. If she would like to have her own short red coat, she may contact Mrs. Harold Haskell of Tenants Harbor who had to borrow the only coat remaining as the temperature dipped into the twenties that night. It isn't that Mrs. Haskell does not appreciate the loan of the coat, but there is a certain satisfaction in leaving a party with the same coat one wore to it, she points out.

Attending the fall meeting of the Lincoln Baptist Association from Tenants Harbor were Rev. and Mrs. Harold Haskell of the Tenants Harbor Baptist Church and Mrs. Rose Marshall.

ROCKLAND HIGH TUITION SET AT $324 BY DIRECTORS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT FIVE

OWLS HEAD — Directors of School Administrative District Five voted an increase of $16 in the high school tuition for the year. The new rate is, $342.88, the per pupil cost for the last school year. Unless a district's per pupil cost exceeds the State average, only the actual cost may be charged. There are about 20 tuition students at Rockland High.

In other action the board of directors:

Accepted the resignation of Charles Watts, South Thomaston school janitor.

Hired Mrs. Mildred Brannon as teacher of the newly established fourth grade at McLain School at a salary of $3,700 a year.

Voted to mark with stone markers the metes and bounds of property on which the new district high school will be built.

Voted to borrow $17,500 at three per cent interest on a four year note to pay costs of installing sprinkler systems in McLain and Rockland High Schools. An additional $188.52 to complete payment of this bill will be paid from a surplus account.

Authorized Superintendent Kinney to borrow $72,000 from the First National Bank of Boston to pay off a one-year note now due that was used to purchase land on which the high school will be built. The Boston bank will furnish the money to repay the note in anticipation of bonds to be issued by the district when construction of the school actually begins next year.

Authorized the notification of Wood's Bus Service, which operates district school buses, that its drivers must be prepared to report to the proper authorities any violations of the law resulting in danger to the school children, and also to sign complaints

TANI SPEAKS TO REGIONAL PLANNERS ON PROGRAM FROM SMALLER COMMUNITY AREAS

OWLS HEAD — The Knox County Regional Planning Commission held its regular monthly meeting Thursday night at the Owls Head Grange Hall.

Sulu Tani, director of division of research and planning of the Maine Department of Economic Development, addressed the gathering after the meal. Tani was introduced by Ken Wilson, the Commission's president, who pointed out the need for planners to learn the language used in planning fields. As Knox County is made up partly of small communities, Tani told of many ways that regional planning could help small communities.

He told of a group of towns with less than 1000 population which had been successful in planning together.

A chicken pie supper was served at the Owls Head Grange Hall for the members and their guests. All of the member towns were represented making an attendance of about 26.

Wilson also introduced a local farm equipment dealer, Charles Stackpole of Thomaston. Wilson promised to have more local speakers in the future. Stackpole spoke about farm problems in this area, and pointed out the trend toward specialization in agriculture. Much planning is needed if we are to compete with areas better suited to mechanized farming, he said.

A short business meeting followed. The need for closer coordination with the Knox County Industrial and Development Association was discussed and plans are being made for a joint meeting next month. Members were named to the newly formed committees, finance and projects. The need for a central permanent location for the Commission was stressed. The next meeting will be held in Rockland.

Camden Boy Receives Life Scout Award

CAMDEN—Troop 200 held a Court of Honor at the Congregational Parish House, Wednesday evening, where Charles Merritt, a member of the Board of Review of the Down East District, presented the Life Award to Robert Burns in an impressive candlelight ceremony.

A Tenderfoot Investiture was also held for Ronald Moody.

Troop Committeeman Robert Young announced awards earned during the summer which were as follows: Merit Badges—Dennis McLain, citizenship in the nation, firemanship, safety and pioneering; Eddie Burns, citizenship in the nation, firemanship, safety and pioneering; Robert Burns, citizenship in the home, citizenship in the nation, cooking and personal fitness; Richard Ball, basketry; Thomas Keene, basketry; Robert Welch personal fitness; Mark Goodridge, rabbit raising.

Fiftieth anniversary achievement awards went to Robert Burns and Robert Welch.

Young also presented to Kenny Blackington his three-year service star, two-year perfect attendance pin and Senior Scout stripe; and Robert Ogier received his one-year perfect attendance pin.

Scoutmaster Orris Burns presented patches to the boys who attended the International Swimming Meet with Rockland and Canadian Scouts at the Snow Bowl in August.

The Scoutmaster read a letter from Switzerland saying the Friendship Scrapbook which the troop made had arrived in Switzerland and Troop 200 should soon be hearing from the troop that received it.

The meeting closed with taps by Bugler Drew Milliken followed by refreshments.

Top Recreational Area In This Section Of Coast

The Town of Owls Head is well on its way to establishing a fine public beach within the town. The site is known as Second Lucia Beach and offers 500 feet of town owned sandy beach, plus a parking space for an estimated 50 cars. The cost to date, according to First Selectman Francis Dyer is between six and seven thousand dollars, which has been spread over several years.

forms a crescent with the town section being midway of the crescent.

The bottom picture shows the approach to the parking lot from the beach on which much work was done this year. Thirty-three acres of land are owned by the town, plus the 500 feet of beach. A half mile of road has been constructed which connects with the Ballyhac Road near the Owls Head Boys Camp.

TECHNIQUE OF CASTING VOTE BY MACHINE IS EXPLAINED BY CITY CLERK MARGESON

Voting machines and procedure were explained to 30 people who will be voting in Rockland for the first time in this presidential election, by Municipal Clerk Gerald Margeson, Thursday evening, in the Community Building. As on the paper ballot which many municipalities still use, the registered voter can cast a straight ticket, i.e. vote for all candidates of the same party, or he can vote a split ticket, i.e. vote for candidates of different parties on the same ballot. The ballot "counts" if at least one candidate or one referendum question is voted for. The voting machine registers every new ballot being marked when the red switch is moved to the right, thus activating the machine. It is urged that each person make certain that an "X" registers next to the candidate of his choice or next to the "yes" or "no" choice for the referendum questions before he moves the red switch to the left, thereby opening the curtains and sealing his vote.

Polling places will open at 7 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. on Nov. 8 in Rockland. Only those in line inside the building at 7 p. m. will be allowed to vote after the official closing time, in accordance with State law. Voting officials urge that all possible go to the polls early.

The City Clerk's office will have a list of people from the political parties and from the non-partisan League of Women Voters who can be telephoned for transportation to the polls. It is hoped that housewives will not wait to vote until their husbands get home from work since 5 to 7 p. m. is expected to be the busiest time, in a year when record crowds are predicted to "have their voice in governing."

It is suggested that the specimen ballot be clipped out of the newspaper when it appears, carefully considered, and tucked into the wallet or handbag as one would a shopping list for groceries. If a person knows how he will vote, and if he understands how to use the voting machine, less than a minute is required to complete the ballot. If he is unfamiliar with the ballot and with the voting machine, many more minutes may be necessary, thereby slowing the line considerably.

Open sessions of the Board of Registration begin Friday and continue through Thursday, Nov. 3 from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m., 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. and 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. in the Rockland City Building which was formerly Rockland's Railroad Station.

Margeson stated those who should be sure to register at this time are those who are of age (21) and not yet registered; newly naturalized citizens; people new in the community who have been here long enough to establish residence (three months); people new in Maine who have established residence in the State (six months); those who have married and changed their names; and those people who have been away from Rockland who had not filled out registration retainers to keep their names on the registration list.

Margeson explained that registration retainers should be filled out by those who leave the city temporarily for employment, etc., but who intend to return, in order that their names be kept on the voting register. The City Assessor notifies the Board of Registration of any persons or families who have moved out of Rockland and have not indicated that the move was temporary. On April 1 of each year these names are taken off the registration list to keep it up to date.

The guests of the League of Women Voters' program for New Voters were served cider and doughnuts by Mrs. Ceeta Whitmore and Mrs. Leonise Delano.
