there been a jollier, more congenial set of visitors, and the result is a continued good time for all those registered here. The prospects indicate that the hotel will be well filled up to and possibly after Labor Day.

The auction held in the hotel parlors, last week, for the benefit of the little island church proved a great success, about $50.00 being netted. Dr. G. M. Illman, of Philadelphia, acted as auctioneer and filled the role to perauctioneer and filled the role to perfection and in fact the guests all did their share towards making a success of the affair.

One of the most enjoyable and spectacular entertainments held here for a long time was the mask ball, last Friday evening. Some of the costumes day evening. Some of the costumes were most ingenious and displayed much inventive talent. The Ladies' Prize for the best costume was won by Mrs. E. W. Rockafellow of New York, as a Turkish lady, while Mrs. Charles Bardell won second honors. Mr. Albert Dunham took the prize among the men, being dressed in a among the men, being dressed in a colonial costume and was hard pressed

Bailey Island

The Seaside.

Ever since the opening of this popular house in the early part of June, it has been doing an unusually good business. The latter part of July and the first part of August showed many additions to the numbers of the guests here and several more parties are booked to arrive during the next week or so. A glance at the register here will show a startling number of names that are signed year after year for several seasons, the best proof possible of the feelings of the guests toward the establishment.

Mrs. Harold E. Cram arrived here recently and joined Mr. Cram for and other the rest of the summer. Much to one of the the delight of her many friends here, Mrs. Cram is recovering rapidly from they are called on to carry out each the serious illness which she recently suffered.

The Johnson.

This always popular boarding house has been doing an unusually good business this year in spite of the discouraging weather which has been so prevalent this summer. In part of the season the accommodations of the house have been taxed to their utmost capacity and from all indications they will remain so until well into September. The courteous treatment which is accorded the visitor here and the warm-hearted hospitality offered him have always met with their due reward at this hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cobb of Augusta and Mr. A. M. Irish of Bath arrived here recently for a stay of sever-al weeks. They are well acquainted with the island, having been here in former years.

Messrs. James F. Mitchell, Murray Mitchell and Warren L. Pond, all of Milton, Mass., are among the recent arrivals here.

While on a motor boat trip in their "Frances Merry" one day last week, a party of summer residents from Harpswell were forced to put in here by the shutting in of a heavy fog and stayed at the Johnson overnight. Those who had this experience were: Mrs. J. W. Webb, Miss Abigail Webb, Miss Florence Bell, Miss Constance Bell, Mr. Charles M. Webb and Mr. J. Loraine Bell, all of Cleveland, Ohio.

Robinhood Inn.

The guests at this delightful summer hotel are not finding the time hanging heavy on their hands, for whether the days be clear or foggy they are always busy following some kind of amusement. Card parties are especially in favor and almost any time in the day one may find a bridge game going on between some of the devotees. Fishing and boating trips are as always very popular and a more pleasant way to spend the day would be hard to imagine.

Among the arrivals of the past week were Mrs. M. E. Goff of Winchester, Mass., and Mrs. S. F. Goff of the same place. These ladies have spent several seasons here and are firm friends of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dumont of Cranford, N. J., arrived here on Saturday of last week. They hope to make an extended visit, as they have been much delighted with their experiences at Bailey Island so far

Mr. and Miss Sheehan and Miss Helen G. Sheehan of Brookline, Mass., arrived here recently and are registered for a visit of some time. Other arrivals of the past week include: Mrs. Daniel Kelley and Miss Bertha R. Kelley of Winchester, Mass.; Charles W. Heyer of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchins and Miss Mary Alice Hutchins of Litchfield, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dawson and Miss Edna Dawson of Passaic, N. J.

The Woodbine.

On Monday night of last week a very delightful dance was given at this popular hotel, which was well attended by the guests and cottagers. The evening passed very enjoyably, the music being furnished by Miss Jessie Cox, Miss Katharine Dobson, and Miss Stewart. This dance, as well as the one held earlier in the season, was the occasion for much enjoyment and those who attended all reported that they had never enjoyed themselves better than as guests of Mrs. Sinnett during that

Social parties of an informal nature are being held here almost ev-ery evening. Dancing and singing are very popular as well as games of various kinds, and not only the guests at the hotel, but residents from outside as well, help to make things merry by joining in the festivities. Dr. A. C. Getchell of Worcester, Mass., arrived here recently and joined Mrs. Getchell, who has been a guest since the middle of July. They both expect to stay for some time to come.

The Woodbine has been enjoying a very good season this year. The house has a host of steady friends who come here year after year to pass their vacations, and no better indication of the high grade of the establishment could be given.

The Driftwood.

Always one of the most popular summer hotels in the bay, the Driftwood has been fulfilling its reputation during this summer continually month to a considerable extent.

Last week saw many new names added to the register, all of whom are here for considerable stays.

Miss M. S. Robinson, Miss Jessie
A. Robinson, Miss Nancy B. Robinson, Miss Augusta L. Robinson and Miss Mary E. Totman, all of Philadelphia, Pa., arrived here last week. The Misses Robinson have been coming

were among those to register here last week, who have been visitors here for several seasons. They hope to make an extended sojourn here in

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Banks of Ardmore, Pa., who have been coming to this house for several seasons are again registered here, arriving the first part of this week.

Professor A. O. Lee, of Ann Arbor, Mich., is a recent arrival here. Dr. Lee holds the chair of modern languages at the University of Michigan.

High Grade Plumbing.

A good plumber is always one of the hardest things in the world to find even in a large city. Bailey Islanders are, then, very fortunate in having at their disposal such firstclass workmen as M. Ward and Son. This firm has given great satisfaction to many of the residents of this islands by their work, one of the best evidences of this being the number of pieces of work

The recital to be given by Mme. Suza Doane, pianist, of Boston, Mass., who is summering on the island here, and Mrs. Gertrude Walker-Crowley, soprano, of Boston and Chebeague, at Library Hall, Thursday evening, Aug. 27, is being anticipated with a great deal of pleasure. Mme. Doane has never been heard here, but she has had important engagements with the Boston Symphony Orchestra and several other orchestras. She is one of the foremost pianists in Boston and studied a number of years in this country and in Eu-rope and received a free scholarship at Leipsic. Mrs. Walker-Crowley is most pleasantly remembered as singing so delightfully at the Folk Dancing entertainment given by the Misses Adams at Cottage Hall, last summer. On this occasion she will sing an inter-esting program which is well suited to her abilities. She has been heard in oratorio and concert engagements in many cities and has had the best of instruction in all branches of her art, her first teacher being Mme. Long of Boston, with whom she studied in the class with Geraldine Farrar and Elvira Leveroni. The tickets are meeting with a ready sale, and can be purchased of the patronesses and at the hall on the evening of the performance.

Mr. Chester C. Miller of Brockton Mass., who has been visiting the Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Atwood at "Redgables" cottage during the past two weeks, returned this week, after a delightful visit. Mr. Miller, who is the soloist at the Universalist church in Prockton, and who have church in Brockton, and who has a fine baritone voice, has delighted many of the summer residents with his singing both informally and at such affairs as the concert for the benefit of the Jacob Riis Sea Breeze Hospital, held recently, Miss Webber of West Medford Mass., arrived at the island on Friday of last week and is spending some time as the guest of Miss Susan Jordan at "Bonnyview" cottage. Miss A. L. Gleason, also of West Medford arrived on Monday of this week for an extended visit.

Mr. Fred Mahler of Raleigh, N. C. who has been spending some time with Mrs. Mahler at "Morningside," Mrs. A. C. Colton's cottage on Sum-mer Hill, has returned home after a most enjoyable outing here. Mrs. Colton, Mrs. Mahler and Miss Elizabeth Mahler went last week on a delightful motor boat party as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dodge. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Potter of

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Potter of Lewiston returned the last part of last week to their summer home on Summer Hill after having been away from the island for a week. Miss Alice Smith, who has been visiting spending the summer at "Overlook" cottage on Summer Hill.

Mrs. E. V. Moffat, of West Boothbay Harbor, Me., is visiting the Rev. and Mrs. Adolf Roeder, who are slaving at the "Hill Crest," arranged for a loboration of the summer at "Overlook" cottage on Summer Hill. her vacation at New Sharon.

Mrs. Margaret Malloy and Miss Agnes Malloy, of Lewiston, Me., ar-rived here the first part of last week for an extended sojourn. They are staying at "Bay View" cottage during their visit to the island.

Mrs. Herman Stover, of Portland, Me., was a recent visitor to the island, being the guest while here of her parents, Captain and Mrs. Henry Sinnett, at their home near Mackere Cove Landing. Her many friends at Bailey's accorded her a very hearty welcome and were sorry that her stay could not have been longer.

Mr. Edward Tracy, of Lewiston Me., arrived at the island last week for the rest of the season, joining his mother, Mrs. M. E. Tracy, who has been here since early in the summer at her cottage.

The line of goods carried by R. S. Davis Co., Portland, is the very best in the way of furnishings for home or cottage. Adv Mr. Xanthus Smith, of Weldon, Pa. the well-known artist who is as usual spending the summer at his home at the North End, has been doing a great deal of artistic work this summer and has completed some unusually fine paintings of scenes of the rocks and shores here. Mr. Smith is expecting his sons, Messrs. George and Xanthus, Jr., to join him here in September.

A large crowd was present at Li brary Hall on Thursday night of last week to witness the amateur minstrel show given by some of the lo-cal talent. The performance was an unusually clever one and the audience was in a continual fit of laughter at the jokes and funny sayings of the two end-men, Messrs. William Tracy ani Edward Adelman. Mr. Edward Pidgin, the interlocutor, ran the performance very cleverly and the other members of the cast, Messrs. Perley Sinnett, Fred Johnson, Harvey Doughful and prosperous season in every respect this year. Mrs. Kern and Miss Elsie Wywho have been staying with gant, Mrs. Clara Louise Burnham, are expected to return to the island shortly after spending the last two weeks in a walking trip through the Penob-scot Bay and Mt. Desert region.

Mrs. R. H. Woodman left the island on Tuesday of this week for Peter-boro, N. H., to attend the Macdowell Festival held there. This festival is held on a beautiful natural stage which has been cut into the side of a mountain. The back-ground of the stage is formed by a grove of pine trees through which a vista has been cut so that a beautiful landscape may be seen through it. Mrs. Woodman will go from Peterboro to Sunapee where she will visit Mrs. Frank beth. The outing was a fine success mons, who will be remembered by many Bailey Islanders.

The summer colony here has been looking forward with much anticipation during the past week to the fancy dress ball to be given at Library Hall tonight. The great success of the one given last year and the artistic costumes worn will be well remembered by most of the summer colony

Two very interesting ball games ere played here last Saturday. The first, between the Maccabee team and the Seavey Co. of Portland was a 7-inning affair, the score resulting as Seavey Co. 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-1 Batteries for Long-McKenney and Darling: For Seavey Co .- Davis and McBrady.

In the second game between the summer residents of Long and Bailey Islands there were several fielding features which made the game very interesting and exciting. The final score, a shut-out, does not nearly the respective merits of the teams as Bailey showed up far better han it would seem by the score:

Batteries for Long-Connors and Darker: For Bailey's-F. Johnson and H. Doughty. The arrival of some real Maine summer weather has stimulated the interest of the residents of the island a great deal and many parties have been out on sailing and fishing trips during the past week. The ho-tels are doing a rushing business and the cottagers' guests are enjoying themselves in the nice weather of the past week.

The reunion of the 1-10-29 Regiments was favored with as fine weather as could be desired and the members enjoyed a fine day, exchanging stories with old comrades, and renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Fred Hartshorne has been a guest at the Shawmut Cottage for the past week. Among the pleasant social affairs of the past week was the trip of a party of east end residents to Portland to hear the famous Kotzschmar Memorial organ in the City Hall, played by Mr. Will C. MacFarlane, the city's famous organist. These concerts are sources of great delight to all who have the pleasure of hearing them, and this one was no exception, the program on that particular afternoon being all that could be desired, and including selections from many different composers. The last concert of the season comes on Labor Day and it behooves all wish to hear the organ, and who have and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cariton Hicks not yet done so, to make their plans to attend soon. Let There Be Light.

In our columns last week we mentioned the necessity of good roads and deplored their scarcity in Casco This week we should like to take up a very essential requisite of good roads and one that is even scarcer in this vicinity. That is good street lights. At only a very few of the islands in the bay are there street lights of any description at all. At important islands like Chebeague and Bailey's it is almost like taking one's life in one's hands to venture on a walk, as the only source of illumination comes from the moon. Unquestionably there is nothing more beautiful than the moonlight and we are very fond of little strolls in its silvery radiance ourselves. But when Mr. Moon goes on his vacation it is decidedly uncomfortable stumbling along the country roads such as are only too prevalent in our bay. Full of unexpected ruts and stones, with roots growing across and the uneven places springing up at all sorts of times when least expected, a walk on an ordinary night is far from our idea of what a walk should be. Two things should be done viz.: first, to get better roads; second, to put up street lights such as are in use at Long Island, Bustins and a few others which will light the road well enough to see one's way. Both of these in our opinion are tasks that should be done immediately and which would not be particularly difficult. cult to bring to something like completion. If the residents of the islands would only organize and act with some sort of team-work we are fully persuaded that not only these but many other reforms could be accomplished.

Cliff Island

Mrs. Pettengill, the proprietor of the Beeches, has been so successful during the few years of her management of this comfortable hotel, that its reputation has extended far, and many guests have come to know and experience its whole-hearted hospital-ity. Last week the report was given that the main building was filled, and that cottages would have to be rented. Now it is said that even the cottages are filled and that the hotel, is unable to accommodate any more at this time. Several of the guests left last week, but the number of new arrivals was amply sufficient to fill al! the accomodations that could be secured by the proprietor.

Among the guests who signed the register last week are numbered, Richard Taylor and W. H. Pentz and Lohn Laughlin of Newtonville Mass. at this time. Several of the guests

John Laughlin of Newtonville, Mass., Mabel R. Carter of Fitchburg, Mary L. Hill of Dedham, Peter J. Curley of Boston, Louise F. Sterling of Portland, Mrs. Baratch and Henry Baratch of Washington, D. C., and many others.

The various social affairs of the island always find a representation from the Beeches and the patrons of the house are always ready to aid in all ways toward the summer amuse-

Aucocisco House.

Last week's more seasonable weather has put a great deal more life into the inhabitants of the summer hotels and cottages here in Casco Bay and the guests at the Aucocisco have felt the general change in attitude, and have assembled in many parties.

I last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Kioman will have charge next-Sunday, however, and during the remainder of the present month. It has not been decided yet when the last service will be held. and have assembled in many parties for trips in the bay, rejoicing that weather was suitable. Some of the guests hired motor-boats and sailboats and have been on fishing trips, some have taken steamer trips, some have been on the island all the time, enjoying rest and quiet in the spots for which the island is so famous. The hotel is now filled to capacity as it has been for several weeks, and the places of those who leave are quickly filled by newcomers. This condition of affairs is very satisfactory, and gives assurance that the season has not suffered at all here.

Among the arrivals of last week Among the arrivals of last week were noted Miss Edna Brown of Baltimore, Mrs. Newell R. Walker of Baltimore, Miss Katherine Fairlamb of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Alfred S. Harkness of Lancaster. All these Football heroes try to live up to the ladies are delighted with the accommodation, and pleased with Cliff island in general. Many of the guests of the Aucocis-co attended the sale and concert for the benefit of the library, and some of them gave the services of their talent in the concert.

Result of the Library Sale. When the proceeds had been countsible that a few more dollars may come in later, but this sum in itself is a credit to the energy and indusis a credit to the energy and industry of the promoters of the fair, and an example of what a loyal summer colony Cliff Island has. It seemed as if everyone on the island, summer and winter residents alike, attended and bought the dainty and useful articles which were offered for sale. The immediate use of the money realized will be the renairing. money realized will be the repairing of the newly acquired cottage which is to be used as the library for a while, until the projected building is

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Newey of Bos ton, Mass., were the guests of the Misses Laura and Nellie Bennett at the cottage of Sunset Road last week Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Newey have been spending the summer at South Harpswell, and came to Cliff by motor boat, enjoying the trip and stay very greatly.

It is regretted by all the islanders that Mr. and Mrs. George M. Fiske of Auburndale, Mass., are not to be at their cottage at all this summer. They had been rather expected to They had been rather expected to come down, but have not been able to do so. They are long-time residents of the island and always take a prominent part in the improvement of the island. Their cottage is "The Ledges"on Sunset road.

Marking Tools With Acid.

The American Machinist recommends the following etching fluid for marking tools: Mix one part of muriatic acid, one of nitric and four parts of water. The tool is coated with wax and the design is then scratched in.

Manifestation of Grace.

Going with the stream is nature, going against the stream is grace, and grace is manifest when you see a man struggling against his evil propensities.—Rev. J. Taylor Binns.

More African Unrest. From a letter in the East Afric Standard: "We have indeed reache the stage known as the last straw on the camel's back, and I, for one, as quite prepared, as one of the component parts of that camel, to add my lota to the endeavor to kick over the traces. Let us unite and, march ing shoulder to shoulder and eye to eye, set sail for that glorious and equally well-known goal—'Who pays the piper calls the tune." No man et spirit could resist so stirring an appeal.—Punch.

Cousin's Island

Mrs. H. K. West, who has been summering with Mrs. John E. Day for the past two weeks, left Thursday for her home in Brookline, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. E. Kelley Tilton of Everett, Mass., are spending two weeks at "The Barnade Cottage."

Mr. George C. Glover, wife family of Melrose, Mass., are at "The Hillcrest Cottage," for the remainder of August.

Mrs. C. A. Vidinghoff and family of Worcester, Mass., are stopping at 'The Osocozie Cottage," balance of August.

On Monday evening, "The Edge-cliff Cottage" was the merry scene of a whist and dance party. The porch was illuminated by Japanese lanterns and was very prettily decorated with all kinds of wild flowers After the guests finished their whist game, dar.cing followed, until late in the evening. Among those present were, Mrs. John C. Ketchum, Miss Marie Waite, Dr. W. B. Rich, Mrs. C. Austin, Mr. Harvey Blake, Mr. Nelson Rich, Mrs. Maude Sanderson, Mrs. S. J. Bissett, Miss Erma Bissett Mr. Kenneth Bissett, Mrs. Winfield Prime, Miss Evelyn Prime, Miss Ruby Fontaine and the Misses Edna and Mildred Jones, Mrs. Neal Hatch, Mrs. N. H. Lyke, Miss Julia Nealy, Miss Godfrey and Mrs. John E. Day. At the whist party that was given by Dr. W. B. Rich last week, the following were the lucky prize winners: Ladies' prize-Mrs. John C. Ketchum, a silver stamp case; gentlemen's prize—Mr. Jasper R. Swain, a silver blotter; Booby Prize—Miss Emma Bissett, a jack in the box. Dr. W. B. Rich and family returned to their home in Boston, Mass., after a very pleasant two weeks' so-journ at "The Braeside." The Misses Edna Pierce and Francis Jamieson of Medford Hillside, Mass., will occupy this cottage for the remainder of the

at "The Daybreak Cottage" to spend a few weeks with his family. Mrs. Joseph Scribner of Malden, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Scribner, Camp Doyle. Mr. and Mrs. Eutterworth, who are well known residents of this island, recently bought a few lots on Madeine Point. They are having the land cleared this week with the prospects of building sometime. Miss Josephine Freund of New York City, arrived Sunday to spend a few weeks at The Hackmatack Cottage, as the guest of Miss Isabelle Van Doren. Mr. and Mrs. Millard W. Baldwin of Portland, Me., spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. William M. How-ard, at The Craney Crow. On Thursday evening, a party of twenty-two people from both Cousins and Littlejohns Islands, sailed in the "Handy Andy" to Peaks Island, where they had a most enjoyable time. The Misses Emma and Myrtle Sweeney, Margaret Paul, Margaret McCarrom and Aleida Donga, returned to their homes in Boston, after a most enjoyable week spent at "The Mass., spent the week end with Mrs. E. B. Knight at "The Westlook Cot-

Many played base ball, croquet, and even went in swim-ming. At about half past five the picnic broke up and a vote was taken as to whether or not this picnic was a success, and with the exception of one lone male member of the party, whose strong point was not clams, all decided it was the best picnic they had ever attended. In all probabilities, one of a similar nature will take

Little Diamond I.

What the name of the new casino should be has been the prevailing question among the Little Diamond Islanders the past two weeks or so. Finally, after a vote of the patrons was taken it was decided that the name suggested by Scott Wilson, Maine's attorney-general, and an enthusiast of Little Diamond, Cogawe-go, be adopted. Cogawesco was an Indian of the time of Christopher Levett, 1623, and was intimately connected with Portland, and the nearby islands, of which Little Diamond is one. The name seems very appropriate therefore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Sawyer have recently been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ward at their attractive cottage on the south shore. A large number of people from this island have been attending the Sunday services at Elwell Hall on Great Diamond, which have been addressed by prominent visiting minsters.

Last Saturday night there was another party at Cogawesco Hall when dancing was indulged in by almost all in attendance. Cards furnished the diversion for those not wishing to dance and the evening was very pleasantly spent by all. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Winship have left the cottage which they have been occupying here for several weeks and gone to Cheebague for the remainder of the summer season. Their many friends here regret to see them go, although wishing them a continued good time at their new sumer residence. Last Thursday Cabaret Supper at Cogawesco Hall was fuly as enjoya-ble as it was expected to be. The various features of the evening all went off in grand style and the readings provided by Mr. Roy, A. Whitcomb of Portland were a feature of the evening, while the other entertainers did much to make the success of the affair complete.

LATEST NEWS FROM POPULAR HARPSWELL HOTEL.

The Past Week a Jolly One for Guests. This charming and up-to-date hostelry is enjoying a very good business this year. The guests here are a most congenial set, many of them having met each other in former years and being old friends and ac quaintafices. The time during the past week has passed only too rapidy for most of them, for in good or bad weather there is always some form of amusement for them to pass the hours swiftly with. Tennis, croquet, fishing and boating trips, etc. have all proved popular among the devotees of out-of-door sports, while on rainy or foggy days the spacious ball-room and the fine orchestra have been a great attraction to both old and young among the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Alexander, of Boston, arrived here last week for what they hope to be an extended visit. They have been here in former years and are firm admirers of the place. Miss Agnes C. Fleming and Miss Gertrude J. Fleming, of Brooklyn, N.

Y., were recent arrivals. They have been much delighted with their experiences so far and find Harpswell a fine place for the vacation days. Other arrivals of the past week include Mr. A. R. McNuity and Miss McNuity of New York City, and Miss Tuchton, of Wilmington, Del.

This popular summer hotel has large number of guests at the present time and the greater part of them are planning to remain until Labor Day, and a few will remain until the 24th of September. During the past work as a second of the past work as a summer of the past o the past week several sailing parties have been enjoyed by the guests here and the party of last Wednes-day was a fine success. This event was participated in by about twenty of the guests. The start was made from the Hamilton Landing early in the forenoon going direct to Mosher's Wilmington, Del Island where a delicious lobster din-ner was served. The afternoon was

N. J., returned home last week, after weeks here, going spending a few home with her brother, who spent a few days at the island recently. Mrs. Emma Estabrook Whitney, of the Philippine Islands, is spending some time as the guest of her niece, Mrs. O. S. Tonks, at the Tonks cottage.

Mr. Fred Ballard, who is now at Chebeague for his annual summer vacation, and Mr. Theodore Gilchrist who is visiting him, spent last week cruising down east in Mr. Ballard's yacht, "Kiri." In spite of the foggy weather, which has seriously interfered with yachting for the last two weeks, they got as far as Rockland. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Palmer, of Westbrook, Me., arrived here a short time ago for an extended visit. They will occupy the Hawkes cottage at the East End during their stay. Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Hawkes, of Portland, Me., returned last week to their home in that city, after passing two months at their camp at the East End. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miller, of Newark, N. J., are spending a week at Chebeague as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Harrison at their cottage, Camp Comfort.

Mr. Theodore Hobbie, of Ralston, N. J., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. B. H. Stenhouse at "Holiday House" on Ar-tists' Point. Mr. Hobbie is a master at Kent School in Connecticut. Mr. Nelson Oliver, of New York City, arrived at the island recently and will spend some time here. He is visiting at the Komlosy cottage near Artists' Point during his stay at Chebeague. Mrs. Alva Robinson, of St. Law rence Street, Portland, is visiting Mrs. J. S. Degagne at the home of Mrs. Degagne's mother, Mrs. W. F. Bennett, near Central Landing. Master Carleton Goldswaithe

Master Carleton Goldswalthe was the host last week at a delightful birthday party in honor of his sev-enth birthday, at which he entertain-ed several of his young friends. Mrs. M. M. Bishop and her daughter, Miss Louise Bishop, of Portland, Me., were visitors at the island for a few days last week, much to the pleasure of Mrs. Bishop's many friends here. Mr. Robert Burnside and Mr. John

Grager, of Rumford Falls, Me., who have been spending several weeks near Central Landing, left a few days ago for their homes, after a very enjoyable vacation.

Some of the younger members of the summer colony were entertained on Tuesday night by Mr. Philip Dorticos and Mr. Reginald Ridge at a five hundred dred party. Between games the guests danced on the broad veranda and were served with punch and ice cream. They enjoyed the entertainment so much that the galety continued until the late hour of midnight. Mr. Dorticos, who has been here for two weeks on his annual vacation, returned Sunday to Fast Orange New John Sunday to Fast returned Sunday to East Orange, New , few weeks here at the island, having spending some time at Northeast Harbor visiting friends. Mr. Allen Hun-ter, Junior, and Mr. I. Somers Smith are also visiting at the Ellison cot-tage, and Mr. Victorio Francisco Valdes and Philip Marvelle, both of Philadelphia, who have been studying at the University of Pennsylvania Summer School are expected this week for the rest of the summer.

Miss Priscilla Alden Coe is the guest of Miss Alice Stewart at the Stewart cottage for some time. Miss Coe and Miss Stewart were classmates at Dana Hall School last winter.

Mrs. Ray M. Taylor and young son,

Richard Hall Taylor, have arrived at Folkstone Lodge as the guests of Mrs. being 7 to 3. E. Ross, who started Bicknell Hall, Mrs. Taylor's mother, to pitch for the West End, was wild where they will remain for an ex-tended visit. Mr. Taylor will join them favor of Train. Mrs. E. S. Shaffer of Springfield. Mass, is the guest of Mrs. L. J. Chandler at "Pelham", and will make a visit there for about two weeks. "Pelham" was the scene last week of a merry informal gathering in honor of the birthday of Miss May Grout and also as a sort of farewell to her, as she left the next day for her home in Springfield. The room was charmingly decorated with sweet shape. The score: Grout and also as a sort of farewell to her, as she left the next day for peas from the "Pelham" gardens, while the big birthday cake was the cause of much admiration by those present. In the evening an informal vaudeville performance was gotten up, one of the features of which was a sword dance in costume by a real Scotch lassie, while singing and dancing helped to speed Miss Grout's farewell hours here only too quickly. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill T. White and Mr. J. T. Bostock of Newton, Mass., old friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamilton, are expected to arrive here shortly.

West End Victorious.

In an exciting and well played contest last Saturday the West End game was a pitcher's battle between Train and R. Peacock, with the local twirler having all the best of the argument. Chebeague managed to gument. bunch their hits in two innings, in each of which they scored four runs, while Freeport would not have scored except for errors. The game was featured by Train's wonderful pitching, eighteen of the visitors dying by the strike-out route. Train also was among the leaders with the bat, driving out two clean hits.
