To the Hon. J. Washburn Jr. Governor of the State of Maine

Understanding that Dr. Warren Hunter, formerly of this town (Strong) but for some two years last past, a resident (and practicing Physician at Steuben, in this State, is now a candidate for some appointment in the Medical Department of some Regiment of our Volunteers, I cheerfully bear testimony to his industry, energy & good moral character, in this vicinity the place of his birth, and would add that to the best of my knowledge (and belief, his appointment is one
"Fit to be made" —

Very Respectfully

Strong Oct. 16, 1862 —

Philip M. Stubbs

I most cordially unite in the above recommendation by Judge Stubbs. Jonas Burnham.
