I am opposed to slavery in the abstract, and on principle, sustained and made habit-ual by long settled convictions. While I feel indelible in the belief that it ought not to be interfered with where it exists under the shield of State sovereignty, I AM IN-TERESTEDLY OPPOSED TO ITS EXTENSION TO THIS CON-TINENT BEYOND ITS PRESENT LIMITS.

JOHN C. FREMONT, 1856.

"I repeat that I never can and never will vote, and no earthly power will ever make me vote, to spread slavery over territory where it does not exist."

HENRY CLAY, 1850.

Under no circumstances will I consent to the further extension of the area of slavery in the United States, or to the further increase of representation in the House of Representatives.

DANIEL WEBSTER, 1848.

"WHENEVER THERE IS A SUB-STANTIVE GOOD TO BE DONE, WHEN-EVER THERE IS A FOOT OF LAND TO BE PREVENTED FROM BECOMING SLAVE TERRITORY, I AM READY TO ASSERT THE PRINCIPLE OF THE EX-CLUSION OF SLAVERY."

DANIEL WEBSTER, 1850.

Comprehending the magnitude of the trust which they have declared themselves willing to place in my hands, and deeply sensible to the honor which their unwavering confidencein this threatening position of the public affairs implies, I feel that I cannot better respond than by a sincere declaration that, in the event of my election to the presidency, I should enter upon the execution of its duties with a single-hearted determination to promote the good of the WHOLE COUNTRY, and the preservation of the Union, and to the Government, IRRESPECTIVE OF PARTY ISSUES, AND REGARDLESS OF SEC-TIONAL STRIFES.

JOHN C. FREMONT.

FREE LABOR—THE NATURAL

CAPITAL WHICH CREATES THE

REAL WEALTH OF THIS GREAT COUN-TRY, AND CREATES THAT INTELLI-GENT POWER IN THE MASSES ALONE TO BE RELIED ON AS THE BULWARK OF FREE INSTITUTIONS.—JOHN C. FRE-MONT'S Letter of Acceptance.I very much deprecate all sectional issues. I have not been in the past, nor shall I be in the future, instrumental in fostering such issues. But the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and as a consequence, the extension of slavery, are no issues raised by us: they are issues forced upon us, and we act but in self-defense when we repel them.— That section of the country which presents these issues is responsible for them, and it is this section which has subjected past compromises, and now seeks to force slavery into Kansas.—WM. L. DAYTON.

The Platforms. The Last Word.

We ask attention to the articles in our paper to-day on the Platforms of the Fremont and Buchanan party. The Platforms contain the announcements of principles upon which governmental policy is predicated.Men are but the agents through which policy is carried out. We thought it most, at this time, the last opportunity we can have before the final decision is made, to ask the intelligent freemen of our County and State, to scrutinize closely these platforms. In the hotly contested canvass, which has been protracted for near six months, conscientious believers that the very foundation principles of our republican government were endangered, and would be destroyed if this new and novel principle of the Cincinnati Convention was approved by the people, —ratified by the election of James Buchanan, have striven, not in the spirit of the partisan, but in the spirit of a patriotism heightened by the thousand glorious recollections of our country's honor and fame which thrill a truly American heart, to avert the impending calamity. We have presented facts, arguments, and never knowingly, or willfully misrepresented the acts, or the principles of our opponents. We abhor slavery in all its forms. With Jefferson we say "Eternal hostility to every form of oppression over the mind or body of man," and believing in this sentiment we have done what lay in our power to prevent the adoption of a principle under which oppression could be stronger, and more difficult to eradicate. So far as our pen is concerned, our work in relation to the pending struggle is finished. With the consciousness of having done our duty, we give these our last words to our friends, invoking them not to cease their efforts for their country, and their country's cause, until the last republican vote is polled on Tuesday next. If John C.

Fremont is elected, as we confidently hope, they will have the proud satisfaction of having aided in promoting the success of a cause in which is centered the highest hopes of the patriot, contributed to the security of republican institutions, and to the preservation of the Union.

It is a fact that Mr. Buchanan's leading organ, the Richmond Enquirer, says, "the South now maintains that slavery is right, natural and necessary, and does not depend on difference of complexion. The laws of the Slave States JUSTIFY THE

HOLDING OF WHITE MEN IN BON-DAGE."

A Break Down. "The Union Safe."

The flag of the Buchanan men in this city, which has been hoisted most of the time since the Maine election, was run out again on Friday last week, with some tough stories about the recent elections in Pen-sylvania and Indiana, (nothing said about Ohio) inscribed thereon in flaming letters printed in white cotton. It had not been out but a few moments before it got as badly twisted up as were the Buchanan men in Maine at the last election, and very soon the pole broke and the flag went by the board, carrying into the ditch, Buck and Break, big letters, the pole staying in a four or six pannel door in a building near by.

Considering the Manchester stories the flag bore the wonder is that it bore up as long as it did. It would require great strength in a pole, to withstand the immense pressure of sections as these, "Democracy triumphant"—"45000 gain in Pennsylvania," "20,000 in Indiana"—"the next Congress Democratic." Our Democratic friends have carried the State of Pennsylvania, frauds included, as given by the official vote by 2774, and their loss from last year is precisely 8635, when they carried the State by 11,434 plurality, and the aggregate Republican vote on Congressmen is 1266 more than the Buchanan vote. Like the Dutchman, who broke his leg in consequence of falling from the mainmast, the border ruffians are rejoicing that the election in Pen-sylvania has not broken their necks. We congratulate our Democratic friends on placing one truth, "The Union safe" on their flag. We hope now that they have satisfied themselves that their patriotic allies in the South, Bully Brooks, "Ebon Shin" "Wise," and other distinguished friends of Mr. Buchanan, cannot destroy the Union, even though Fremont be elected, that they will breathe freer, and clearer. It must be a relief to them, to be assured, even for a few days, of the safety of the Union.LATER. The flag is out again. On Monday the pole was splintered, by the joint efforts of Capt. E. Perkins, Com. Patterson, Boatswain Simpson, with other assistants, the P. M. of our city standing by "boosing the job." We were an admiring spectator of the second getting up. If the pole does not break again it will be because poles as well as men, by being brought into the circle of vicious influences get toughened to sin, and can carry off a terrible load of lies in the end. Our Buchanan play the braggart well, probably in the hope that their braggadocio will dishearten and frighten the Fremont men. Let them go on. There is not a Fremont man here and elsewhere, who does not know the facts, in relation to the Pennsylvania election, and while they are willing that the Buchanan men shall make the most of their own milk victory in Pen-sylvania, they will show by their votes on Tuesday, that they have not been frightened by border ruffian gongs, from their property, or the assertion of their principles.

SOLD TO BUCHANAN. We learn from an undoubted source, and "one who knows" that the whig State Committee made a formal delivery of their stock in trade, good will &c., to the Buchanan State Committee, on Friday last. The trade was made in a joint meeting of the two committees, in one of the rooms of the U. S. Hotel. What the consideration given by the Buchanans was, we have not learned, but E. W. Farley, John H. Kennedy and others in their own behalf, and in the behalf of all others of the strait whigs who can be brought into the arrangement, are to vote for Buchanan.— On the strength of this the Buchanan leaders, supposing that the Fremonters would be, in consequence of victory, make much exertion were to send runners into all the counties and secretly arouse their men, and thus try to carry the State. James McIntire and Tim Shaw who were in Portland and acted for the Buchanans of York, when the ratifications were exchanged, were charged with warning the Buchanans of York "as easy as possible," and in pursuance of the plan McIntire has been engaged in the towns on the line of the railroad for several days, we think with rather poor success. The trade will not amount to much any how.

The whig vote in our State was only about six thousand, and whatever Farley and the leaders may do, not one half of the Fillmore men can be sold to Buchanan, and as to catching the Fremonters asleep, we think that Tuesday's vote will show a different story. Our vote over all, in September was over 19,000, and we may expect even that, if we do our duty. We suppose this is the last of strait whiggery in this State. It has been a poor affair from the beginning and ends as we were satisfied it would, in the going over of a few old fogey individuals to border ruffianism. It lived without honor and died without regret. Peace to its ashes.

The Last Lies.

Any quantity of "Roarbacks" will be circulated by the Buchanan men just before election. The slanders against Col. Fremont will be poured out with a still greater intensity. Already letters have been concocted in New York, purporting to have been written by Col. Fremont, acknowledging himself to be a Catholic, &c., which are of course some of the LAST LIES. Heed none of these slanders. Be surprised at nothing you hear, as the Portland Advertiser says: "even if you are told that Col. Fremont has been a slave-catcher, has starved his own mother, and finally, has killed his friends requesting them to vote for James Buchanan! Lies nearly as bad (except the voting for Buchanan part) have already been told about the peerless PATRIOTISM!"

All those falsehoods are invented, because our malicious enemies have nothing better to offer. Pay no attention to them—but work and vote!"

Threat to Subdue Fremont.

On the 12th of March, the day that the majority and minority reports, from the Committee on Territories, were made to the Senate, Judge DOUGLAS, in the course of a reply to remarks by Mr. SUMNER, spoke as follows:—(See Daily Congressional Globe, March 13th, 1856, 5th column of second page.)

"The minority report advocates foreign interference; we advocate self-government and non-interference. We are ready to submit to the laws and to the constituted authorities; to submit to the ACTION THOSE WHO RESIST THEM, AND TO PUNISH REBELLION AND TREASON. I am glad that a defiant spirit is exhibited here; we accept the issue."

National Republican Platform.

We publish below, the National Republican Platform, adopted by the People's Convention, held in Philadelphia, which nominated JOHN C. FREMONT for the Presidency.

We conceive it to be an appropriate time to renew our call to the attention of the electors of our State, to the patriotic purposes avowed by the men, who framed the platform, and the sound and statesman like principles set forth therein. The platform embodies the principles which form the distinctive creed of the Republican party of the nation.

All who vote on Tuesday next for the Fremont electoral ticket, will say by their votes that the government of the nation should be administered, and its measures and its policy should be predicated upon the principles expressed in this platform. They will express by their votes,

FIRST. That the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and those embodiedin the Constitution, are essential to Republican institutions, and that the Constitution and the Union must and shall be preserved.

SECOND. That the ulterior design of the Republican fathers, was to give to all persons, under the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal government the "inalienable rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," and that neither Congress or a Territorial Legislature, can give legal existence to slavery, or extend it in any territory of the United States.

THIRD. That Congress has the right, and it is its imperative duty to prohibit in the territories those twin relics of barbarism, POLYGAMY AND SLAVERY.

FOURTH. That the people of Kansas have been robbed of their dearest rights, guaranteed by the constitution, subjected to thegreatest outrages, and the present President of the United States, his advisers,agents, supporters, apologists are accessories, either before or after the fact, before the country, and before the world," and should be brought "to condign punishment."

FIFTH. That Kansas should be admitted as a FREE State into this Union;

SIXTH. That land striding under Buchanan's "Ostend Circular" is dishonorable, and unworthy of American Diplomacy;

SEVENTH. That the interests of the whole country would be promoted by the construction of a railroad to the Pacific Ocean;

EIGHTH. That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors of a national character, are authorized by the Constitution and;

NINTH. That all legislation is improper which impairs the liberty of conscience or equality of rights among citizens.

These are the objects and purposes of the men who vote for John C. Fremont.— There is not one of them but what is eminently national, not one of them but what is desirable, and there is not a line or a sentiment in the platform, but which is in accordance with the letter and spirit of our constitution, and preservation of the constitution and the union. This platform has not been, nor can it be successfully assailed.

So far as it relates to the announcement of principles by which the government should be conducted, it is a perfect and safe charter by which the government must be administered, if the principles and views which led to its establishment are carried out; and so far as it relates to measures, either adopted or suggested, it contains nothing but what is called for by the requirements of justice and the constitution, and which if practical would add to the safety of the union, the renown of our country, and the interests and happiness of the people. Whether the republican party is successful or not in the coming contest, the principles embodied in this platform, are living ones and will forever be the points around which rally all who cherish the true ideas that led to the establishment of this government, and who believe that republican institutions can only be sustained by enlarging, instead of circumscribing the area of freedom.

Here is the platform, read it attentively:

The National Republican Platform.

The Platform adopted by the People's convention at Philadelphia, was as follows:

This Convention of Delegates assembled in pursuance of a call to the people of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, to consider the repeal of the Missouri Compromise—to the policy of the present administration—to the extension of slavery into free territory; in favor of the admission of Kansas as a free State—of rescinding the Declaration of Independence, and to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, and for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, do—

Resolved, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, are essential to the preservation of our Republican Institutions, and that the Federal Constitution, the rights of the States, and the union of the States must and shall be preserved.Resolved, That with our Republican faith, we hold it to be a self-evident truth, that all men are endowed with the inalienable right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and that the primary object and ulterior design of our federal government is to secure these rights to all persons in this country, and to maintain in its exclusive jurisdiction. That as our Republican fathers, when they had abolished slavery in all our national territory, ordained that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty and property, without due process of law, it becomes our duty to maintain in this provision of the Constitution against all attempts to violate it, for the purpose of establishing slavery in the territories of the United States by positive legislation, prohibiting its existence or extension there.— That we deny the authority of Congress to a Territorial Legislature, to give individual or association of individuals to give legal existence to slavery in any territory of the United States, while the present Constitution shall be maintained.Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the territories of the United States for their government and that in the exercise of this power, it is both the right and the imperative duty of Congress to prohibit in the territories those twin relics of barbarism, POLY-GAMY AND SLAVERY.Resolved, That while the Constitution of the United States was ordained and established by the people "in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty," and contains ample provision for the protection of the life, liberty and property of every citizen, the dearest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them.Their territory has been invaded by an armed force;Spurious and pretended legislative, judicial and executive officers have been set over them, by whose usurped authority sustained by the military power of the government, tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been entered and enforced;

The right of the people to keep and bear arms has been infringed; test oaths of an extraordinary and entangling nature have been imposed as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage and holding office;The right of the people to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury has been denied;The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, and the right of privacy, have been violated;They have been deprived of life, liberty and property, without due process of law;The freedom of speech and of the press has been abridged;The rights of conscience and of religious freedom have been nullified;Murders, robberies and arson have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished;That all these things have been done with the knowledge, sanction and approval of the present national administration, and that for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union and humanity, we arraign that administration, the President, his advisers, agents, supporters, apologists as accessories, either before or after the fact, before the country, and before the world; and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of these atrocious outrages, and their accomplices, to a sure and condign punishment hereafter.Resolved, That no person should be immediately admitted as a State into this Union, with her present free Constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled, and of ending the civil strife now raging in her territory.Resolved, That the highwayman's plea that "might makes right," embodied in the Ostend Circular, was in every respect unworthy of American Diplomacy, and would bring shame and dishonor upon any government or people that gave it their sanction.Resolved, That a railroad to the Pacific Ocean, by the most central practical route, is imperatively demanded by the interests of the whole country, and that the Federal government ought to render immediate and sufficient aid in the construction, and as an auxiliary thereto, to the immediate construction of an emigrant road on the line of the railroad.Resolved, That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors of a national character required for the accommodation and security of an existing commerce, are authorized by the constitution and justified by the obligation of government to protect the lives and property of its citizens.Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and co-operation of men of all parties—however differing from us in other respects——in support of the principles herein declared, and believing that the spirit of our constitution is in the Constitution of our country, guarantees liberty of conscience and equality of rights among citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.This platform strictly national, so eminently conservative and sound. JOHN C.

FREMONT in his admirable letter, accepting the nomination, endorses in the following well chosen language, extracted from his letter."The declaration of principles embodied in the resolves of your convention, expresses the sentiments in which I have been educated, and which have been ripened into conviction by personal observations, and experience."And he closes his letter of acceptance with the following patriotic avowal:"I, a people trustee to me the administration of the government, the laws of Congress in relation to the Territories will be faithfully executed. All its authority will be exerted in aid of the national will to re-establish the peace of the country on the just principles which have heretofore received the sanction of the Federal Government of the States, and of the people of both sections. Such a policy would leave no allied to that sectional party, which seeks its aggrandizement by appropriating the new territories to the extension of slavery, but would inevitably result in the triumph of free labor—the natural capital which constitutes the real wealth of this great country, and creates that intelligent power in the masses, alone to be relied on as the bulwark of free institutions."Trusting that I have a heart capable of comprehending our whole country, with its varied interests, and confident that patriotism exists in all parts of the Union, I accept of the nomination of your Convention, in the hope that I may be enabled to serve usefully its cause, which I consider the cause of Constitutional Freedom.Very respectfully, your obedient servant, JOHN C. FREMONT.Men of Maine, voters of York County, we have given you above the republican platform, and the declarations of the candidate at all without voting for principles.— You do not vote for government, but for the kind of government whether good or bad you will have. If you desire a government which will be guided by such principles as were sustained by the fathers of the republic, by Washington, Jefferson, Madison, and a continuance of that policy which regard involuntary slavery, as an evil not to be extended, and that, "FREE LABOR" the natural capital which constitutes the real wealth of this great country, and creates that intelligent power in the masses alone to be relied on as the bulwark of free institutions," you will vote on Tuesday next for their representative, JOHN C. FRE-MONT.

The Buchanan Platform.

We have given in another place the platform of the Republican party. We insert below, the plans relating to slavery inserted by the Cincinnati Convention, in order that our readers may see the difference in the two platforms in relation to slavery in the territories, and the powers and duties of Congress in the matter, and also its resolutions respecting affairs in Central America.Resolved, That claiming fellowship with and desiring the co-operation of all who regard the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, as the paramount issue, and repudiating all sectional parties and platforms concerning domestic slavery, which seek to embroil the States and incite to civil war, and armed resistance to law in the Territories, and whose avowed purpose, if consummated, must end in civil war and anarchy, THE AMERICAN DEMOCRACY RECOGNIZES AND ADOPTS THE PRIN-CIPLES CONTAINED IN THE ORGAN-IC LAWS ESTABLISHING THE TERRI-TORIES OF KANSAS AND NEBRASKA, AS EMBODYING THE ONLY SOUND AND SAFE SOLUTION OF THE SLAV-ERY QUESTION UPON WHICH THE GREAT majority of the people of this whole country can repose in its determined service of the Union; NON INTERFER-ENCE BY CONGRESS WITH SLAVERY IN STATES AND TERRITORIES; that this was the basis of the Compromise of 1850, confirmed by the Democratic and Whig parties in National Convention, ratified by the people in the election of 1852, and rightly applied to the organization of Territories in 1854; that by the uniform application of this democratic principle to the organization of Territories and the admission of new States, with or without domestic slavery, as they may elect, the equal rights of all the States will be preserved intact, the original compact of the Constitution maintained, and the perpetua-
