THE FORMATION OF THE CLUB.

At a meeting of the ex-members of the Legislature of Maine residing in Massachusetts, holden at the Quincy House, Dec. 16th, 1885, P. S. J. Talbot, Harrison Hume, and S. K. Hamilton were chosen a committee to consider the advisability and feasibility of forming an association of the Sons of Maine residing in Massachusetts, for the formation of social and friendly intercourse, and such an advancement of business interests as would naturally flow from a more intimate acquaintance.

The Committee consulted a large number of Maine men and nearly all were enthusiastically in favor of forming such an association. On Feb. 16th, 1886, the Committee sent out a circular letter to such Maine men as came within the circle of their acquaintance, and not having a personal acquaintance with every man in Massachusetts who had lived in Maine, this may account for the fact that some prominent names were overlooked. Setting forth the above facts and asking if they approved of such an organization, and if they would attend a meeting to be called for that purpose, such favorable responses were received by the Committee that a meeting was called at the Quincy House, April 10th, for the formation of such an association. About one hundred gentlemen responded to the call. The meeting was called to order by P. S. J. Talbot, and a statement of the object of the meeting made by S. K. Hamilton. Hon. John L. Hayes was chosen chairman, Dana Estes secretary, and a committee of seven was appointed to report a plan of organization and officers, and the result was the "PINE TREE STATE CLUB," organized May 1st, 1886, Hon. John D. Long being elected the Club's first president.
