Head Quarters
Fort Corcoran
2nd Regt Maine Volunteers
Sept 14th 1861.

Dear Sir

In reply to your letter of the 9th inst. inquiring as to one Mr. Stevens, can only say, that there is a man by the name of Stevens employed as "Wagon Master" in the 6th Regiment. Said Stevens was drill master of one of our companies at Bangor, is quite tall, sandy complexion, is not I think our old friend William. Shall write Governor Washburn in a few days in relation to Major of the Maine Volunteers

which you may find in the papers
of the 6th Regt

Very Respectfully Yours
Chas. W. Roberts
Col. 2nd Maine

Please remember me to Col. Hord's Major Miller and others, be very careful and turn bottom side up all the men you send me in that position, you can easily detect hidden diseases. CW
