1862-11-21 Lieutenant Colonel Tilden requests Captain Crandall be authorized to go to Washington for knapsacks

Charles W. Tilden

Head Qrs. 10th Maine Inf. Regt.
Camp Near Forts Station Va
November 24/62

I would respectfully request that Major Kerrham, 10th Maine Regt., may have permission to proceed to Aquia Creek for the purpose of telegraphing to Lieut. Sewell (the Officer detailed from my command to procure the clothing of this Regt.) now at Hagerstown Md., informing him of the location of the Regiment, that the articles may reach us at the earliest possible moment.

I have the honor to remain
Very Respy Your Obedt. Servt.

Col. Post.
