

HON. W. H. GANNETT, AUGUSTA, ME.

THERE'S joy in old ancestral halls;
 There's sweet delight in riding far
 Thru deeps of vernal country road,
 In smoothly-gliding "Peerless" car.
 There's Power, in place of Trust; so dear
 To heart of him, to whom it's come;
 And pride of birth—Mayflower descent:
 And Public Office—fairly won.
 There's Hope—a heaven-given dream;
 And high Ambition's restless call:—
 Success may bring a world of things
 But—"COMFORT"—that's the best of all.
