

AMUSEMENTS.
Sunday excursion—Port Popple.
NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Special notice—Shine's New York store.
Wanted—Providence and vicinity.
Wanted—To hire money.
Abbot family school.
Millet, Evans & Co.
Kings Brothers—S.
Wanted—House.
City of Portland.
Rooms to let.

DR. NICHOLLS'S.

Close Attention to Business.

Dr. Nichols, who is now widely and favorably known to the people of Portland and vicinity, is devoting himself very closely to his extensive practice during the summer months. The doctor finds it impossible to take a much needed vacation even for one week. The large number of patients suffering from chronic troubles need his constant attention. No doubt the exercise of such attention in connection with the doctor's great skill and ability as a physician is constantly doing much for suffering humanity. During August Dr. Nichols will be absent from his office every Friday and Saturday.

There is no one article in the line of medicines that gives so large a return for the money as a good, pure, strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Kachache Plasters.
July 24/46w1w

A WARNING.

The modes of dress of the present, and statistics show conclusively that many persons die because of the heat of the summer. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system, and where these germs fall upon a suitably soft start into the lung tissue, at first slowly, and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat, and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs, produce consumption, and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous, and it is allowed to proceed with it, in time, cause death. Therefore, you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous, and may lose your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Doan's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES.

The Republican voters of the several wards are notified to meet at their respective Ward rooms, Monday Evening, July 30th.

AT 7:30 O'CLOCK.

To elect six delegates from each ward to attend the Republican County Convention to be held at Reception Hall, Portland, on Wednesday, August 8th, at 10 o'clock a. m.

On Wednesday, August 8th, at 10 o'clock a. m., the delegates will meet at Reception Hall, Portland, at 10 o'clock a. m., to elect delegates to the Republican County Convention, Federal Street and select one delegate at large. For order of the Republican County Convention, see page 1.

LEWIS S. SANBORN, Chairman.

Secretary.

THE PRESS FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

The PORTLAND DAILY PRESS will be furnished from now until September 15th, postage prepaid, for 75 cents. From now until the November election, for $4.00.

The MAINE STATE PRESS, which is published every Thursday, will be furnished from now until September 15th, for 15 cents. From now until the November election, for 40 cents. From now until the cash must accompany all orders.

Address: PORTLAND PUBLISHING CO., 77 Exchange Street, Portland, Me.

ATTENTION ARMILARY.

Officers are requested to meet at their headquarters, Park Grand, Saturday evening, July 28th, at 7:30.

Per order of Committee.

ATTENTION TROOPMASTERS.

The Troopmaster Guards will meet at Headquarters, Federal St., SATURDAY NIGHT, July 28th, at 8 o'clock, for drill. Every member is requested to be present and be measured for uniforms.

Per order, G. A. DAVIS, Captain.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

RECORD RECORDED.
August—John Collins, intoxication. Fined $3 and costs.
August—John Collins, intoxication. Fined $3 and costs.
August—John Collins, intoxication. Fined $3 and costs.

Long Island Division, S. T. visited Portland Division last evening.

A large number of Italian laborers were landed from the Winthrop laborers on their way to Bangor.

J. K. Carleton of Cape Elizabeth, accuses Lewis Emmett of stealing a coat and vest from him.

The late Mrs. Eliza Sager, among other bequests, left $1000 to the Home for Aged Women in this city.

The Portland Light Infantry are most pleased with the new drill hall on Plum street.

The ladies of the Bowditch Relief Corps, who were to visit Mrs. Turner last week, will go next Friday, going out with the Grand Army of the Republic.

Store No. 42 Free Street, lately occupied by C. A. Watson & Co., has been engaged for a ward room and will be used for the first time next Monday evening.

Chandler's orchestra played in Waterville Thursday evening at a lawn party given by the Episcopal society on the grounds of the mother of Mrs. F. E. Boothby.

The Agate Brothers, of Bangor, a pleasant excursion to Long Island yesterday.

The threatening weather in the morning kept many from attending.

The Bar Association had a very delightful day at the Ottawa House yesterday. The lunch and dinner were excellent, the speeches, doubtless witty.

Edwin Lehman, of Portland, arrived at his place that a man bought some goods at his store yesterday, and in making change, the fellow managed to steal $50 from him.

There will be an excursion today from Saco, over the Maine Central railroad and Casco Bay boats to Peaks Island and Greenwood Garden.

The deep sea fishing excursion of the Express yesterday was very successful. The party caught over a thousand pounds of cod and haddock.

It is not the Portland Club that has invited the City Council to a dinner at the summer club house next Tuesday, but the members of the City Council that are members of the club.

Captain Kulek of the United States Recruiting Station, reports a very fine body of men recruited this month. The new recruits are very satisfactory to the officers at the stations where they are sent.

The Wilkinson Opera Company will include Arthur Wilkinson, Alex. Bell, Charles Bigelow, George Bogle, Marie Bell, Lorraine, Helen Adelaide Russell and Jennie Smith. The chorus will be taken from the Ideal Opera Company.

There is some reason for believing that Freddie Wentworth's death at Higgins's Beach Thursday, was caused by heart disease, not drowning. He only went in as deep as his knees, suddenly fell, and when pulled out was dead.

Steam yacht Rose G. of Boston, arrived in the harbor yesterday morning from Newcastle, N. H. On board were Mr. M. M. Canine of Boston, Mr. J. Barry, Morton Mitchell of the Boston Herald, and John Donoghue, the well known sculptor. The party is bound east and left in the afternoon for Bath.

A New Weekly Newspaper.

The "Weekly Universal," a new newspaper to be devoted especially to Irish American subjects, is soon to be published in this city. Its columns will not be limited to Irish American subjects, but will contain the news in general. Two young printers have entered the business in hand, and we predict for them a large number of subscribers and advertisers. The first number will be issued about the first of September.

Youthful Miscreants.

Three young scamps broke into C. J. McLellan's house at Saco on the other night, ransacked the house, left the faucet running so that the house was flooded with water and did considerable other damage.

GIVEN A HEARING.

Raymond and Friedman Held To Appear at the Next Term of Court.

Raymond Waives a Hearing and Both Plead Not Guilty.

William Raymond and Jacob M. Friedman were arraigned yesterday afternoon in the Municipal Court on the charge of breaking, entering and larceny. Friedman was arraigned on the charge of stealing $28 worth of goods from the house of Harrison Richardson on Gray street, June 18th, and evidence given to show that he was the man seen by the family in the house when they returned.

County Attorney Sellers appeared for the government and Dennis A. Meagher for the defense. The court room was crowded, and from the time Recorder Dyer entered at 12 minutes of 3 o'clock, until the close of the trial great interest was manifested in the case.

After the court was called to order Friedman rose and pleaded not guilty to the charge of breaking, entering and larceny on June 18th.

Mrs. Louisa C. Richardson was the first witness called to the stand by the government. She testified: "I have lived at 20 Gray street for the last two months and on the 18th of June a fellow broke into the house and stole three or four silver spoons, a locket and chain, bracelet, etc., to the value of $28. I left the house about 10 o'clock in the afternoon on the day of the burglary and gave the key to my little girl. I returned at about 5 o'clock and sent my daughter to bed. She told me that a man rushed down stairs, opened the door and ran out in front of her, passing close by. We watched him until he reached the corner of State street and then he started on the run."

Q.—"Do you recognize the prisoner as the man who passed out of your house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"By what do you recognize him?"

A.—"I recognize him by his hat, which I am sure is the same worn by him at the time, and by his moustache and build."

Q.—"Have you ever seen him before since the 18th of June?"

A.—"No, not from that day to this, that I remember of."

On cross examination Mrs. Richardson stated that she remembered the clothes as well as the hat that the burglar wore, and that they were the same as worn by the prisoner. The clothes had been so close to her that his clothes brushed hers.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

On cross examination the witness testified that she recognized in the prisoner the man who rushed out of her house on the afternoon of June 18th. The witness said the prisoner in his cell in the forenoon and recognized him.

These were the only witnesses called by the government.

Friedman, the prisoner, next took the stand. He gave his name as Jacob W. Friedman, and testified that he had lived in Portland for the past month and a half here.

Q.—"Did you see the burglar when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door?"

A.—"Yes, I saw him when he was in the house after mother went away, but seen him after he reached the door."

Q.—"Is the prisoner the man you saw in the house?"

A.—"Yes."

Q.—"Do you recollect the hat he wore?"

A.—"Yes, I do."

PERSONAL.

Colonel Coppinger, U. S. A., Mr. Blaine's son-in-law, left in August.

Hon. William Gould, of Windham, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. E. L. Bowen, a special student of the Romance languages at Johns Hopkins University, has been appointed Instructor in French and Latin at Bowdoin College.

Mr. Y. B. Simon, of Concord, N. H., was at the United States Hotel last night, and Judge Enck Foster, of Bethel, at the Falmouth.

General H. M. Sprague, who accompanied Worumbus Canton to Cincinnati, has been appointed chief of staff to General Cushman.

Representative Davison, of Greenville, is on a journey to Southern California, whither he has gone to get the remains of his son, who died out there last winter.

Rev. Gardner Holmes, formerly of Bridgton, pastor of the M. E. church in York, has declined a call to the M. E. church at Butte City, Montana, at a salary of $1500.

George H. Larrabee, who was graduated this year from Bowdoin, has been engaged as principal of the new High School at Buxton.

Mr. E. R. Drummond, of Waterville, brother of Hon. J. H. Drummond, completed last Sunday his seventeenth year as superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school at Waterville.

Mrs. Julia Lefavor and Miss Lefavor, of Columbus, O., are guests of Geo. L. Bailey. Mrs. Lefavor is an invalid, and it is hoped her sojourn at the old home may be beneficial.

Mr. M. H. Boutelle, a graduate of Bowdoin in the class of 1888, has successfully passed his examination for admission to the bar in Minneapolis. The Minneapolis papers speak in high terms of his examination. Mr. Boutelle is from Bangor, and a brother of Congressman Boutelle.

Chief of Police Cloyes, of Cambridge, Mass., passed through this city yesterday morning on a vacation. He took a look at Raymond, the burglar, who evidently recognized him, for he asked the chief when he left Boston. Cloyes said he recognized Raymond's face, but couldn't place him.

Next Monday Mr. Hight, formerly of this city, now of the firm of Lord & Hight, of Baltimore, Md., with his son, Mr. Grant, McDonald, of Portland, and John D. Lord, Jr., of Baltimore, will leave for Montreal to take the position of the Allan line, for Liverpool. Mr. Hight's son and Mr. McDonald will pass two years in study at Geneva.

The "Boards" of Bowdoin College have made an appropriation for the purpose of maintaining and improving the college "choir" or "Glee Club," and Mr. Harry M. Nicholson, of Portland, a pupil of Professor Dennetts, of this city, and a senior in the Medical School, has been appointed by President Hight to the position of instructor and leader. Before he has been successfully and acceptably held for the year past.

Yesterday morning there met on Exchange street five gentlemen, all of whom assisted in pulling down the spire of the Second Parish church in 1825. They were Hon. William Gould (born in 1809), Samuel Cole, worthy (born in 1807), Samuel R. Leavitt (born in 1809), Edwin Sawyer (born in 1810), and William J. Bradish. All these gentlemen agreed as to the details of that affair, and they all remembered that the vane had a hole through it at that time.

Portland Club.
The campaign committee of the Portland Club has organized with the choice of C. A. True, Esq., as chairman, Charles A. Strout, Esq., as secretary, and William S. Plummer, Esq., as treasurer. The chairman was authorized to appoint the various sub-committees. It was decided to raise, J. F. Barrett, A. L. Emery and J. W. Boardman were appointed a committee to submit designs for a badge, to be worn when the club appears in any procession, to be the emblem of the committee which is to be held next Tuesday evening.

This afternoon a shore dinner will be served at the Portland Club House, Great Diamond Island, to members of the club, their families and guests, at 5.30 promptly. Grimmer's orchestra will be in attendance. Horse cars will be at the wharf on the arrival of the boats leaving the island at 8.35 and 10.30 p. m.

Horses Stolen.
During Thursday night a very valuable pair of dark bay horses, with black manes and tails, weighing about 1400 pounds each, were stolen from the farm, Decatur, which is located this side of Cumberland Mills. They are valuable horses. The thieves, in order to escape detection, and prevent any sound being heard, laid mats down from the stable floor to the road, over which they drove the horses. Yesterday the horses were found in an adjoining field, the thieves having given them up, probably because they were too fat to trot fast enough to take them any distance from the town before they would be pursued and overtaken.

Greenwood Garden.
Today will be the closing day of the specialty entertainment. The opera season will open Monday afternoon with a strong cast and chorus. This evening will close the guessing contest for the gold watch. Among the attractions will be a display of fire works and illumination. This afternoon will be children's day. All will be given reserved seats in the Opera House. Sunday afternoon there will be a band concert by the celebrated Garden Band.

Free from Impurities. Index Soap.

MARRIAGES.

In Cape Elizabeth, July 24, by Rev. Frank T. Reed, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.

In Portland, July 25, by Rev. J. H. Bennett, William C. McFarland, of Cape Elizabeth, and Miss Della F. Wharf of Newcastle.