At Congress Hall.

Strange and Mysterious Magnetic Power.

Dr. Smith, the justly celebrated and most powerful magnetic healer in this country, has engaged Congress Hall, in the city of Portland, where he will publicly heal the sick free of charge, every morning from 10 to 11 o'clock until further notice commencing Monday morning, August 27. Dr. Smith is the only thoroughly educated physician and surgeon in this country who is endowed with the magnetic gift of healing to that degree which enables him to go upon the public stage and publicly heal all manner of disease simply by the laying on of hands. Diseases of years standing that have baffled the skill of the medical profession and have been given up as incurable are restored to health in a few moments' time by the simple application of his hands to the affected parts. This strange magnetic power which Dr. Smith possesses has been the subject of much scientific investigation and has been the cause of much wonder and amazement. He has been the subject of many newspaper articles and has been the cause of much discussion and controversy. GRAND ARMY NOTES.

Opening of the Reunion of the 14th Maine Regiment.

Yesterday was first day of the annual reunion of the 14th Maine Regiment.

The reunion was held at Long Island during the day and continued over old times.

Some of the veterans who were present yesterday were not seen since they were mustered out of service on Feb. 13, 1865.

The parade was held on the 14th of December, 1861, and like the other Maine regiments its history is a glorious one.

In the afternoon the veterans were called together and Col. T. W. Porter, of Boston, president of the 14th Maine Regiment Association, presided over an informal meeting.

Secretary William Carver, was also present. The location of permanent headquarters was discussed and a preliminary ballot resulted as follows:

In favor of Long Island, 17.

In favor of Waterville, 2.

The matter will be settled at the business meeting, probably in favor of Long Island, Portland.

There were present yesterday the following officers and comrades of the 14th Regiment:

Among the passengers by the train from Portland to Boston Wednesday was Rev. Dr. J. W. Chickering, who was pastor of High street church in this city from 1855 to 1885.

He is now in vigorous health, though now in his eighty-first year, and expresses his regret at passing by Portland, for the first time in fifty-three years, without even a call, owing to a long illness in Boston.

Chickering, however, hopes to visit his home in September and to be present at the centennial of the Second Parish church.
