General Hodson
Dear Sir

Yours of the 7th is before me and I hasten to reply. There is not a Regiment in the field in which I would rather be than in the one named by you. I am probably acquainted with more in it than ⁱⁿ any other one and do not know of an objection in any way or shape to an appointment in it, so far as I can judge it I trust would be very pleasant to all concerned and by doing my duty as I expect and intend to do where ever I may be I can hope to be as successful in gaining new friends as I have been in keeping them in the past. Your Kindness

I fully appreciate and should you think it proper to make the appointment I would receive it with gratitude and endeavor to be worthy of it.

Please inform me of your decision as soon as convenient giving me time to arrange my affairs, and I of course would receive instructions of a few lines. Hoping that this will be satisfactorily received.

I remain your obed^t servant
H. A. Reynolds
