AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Machine Badly Smashed but No One Seriously Injured

An automobile party consisting of four gentlemen of Auburn whom we understand were Dr. Webber and brother, Messrs. Howard and Littlefield were en route to Rangeley last Friday evening and took the Tory Hill road by mistake. We are informed that the lights were not in evidence and that the machine was going at a high rate of speed. In coming to a sharp turn where two roads meet, in place of making the turn successfully the machine kept on and into a ditch and fence.

It was at first thought that one of the party was seriously injured, but as there was a doctor in the party everyone was well fixed up at once and fortunate indeed it is that there were not more serious results.

The machine was badly damaged and is being repaired by Fred Dodge.

We understand that the brake broke which accounts in part for the mishap but there is certainly no excuse for an automobile being run without lights.

EAST MADRID

July 28.

Mrs. Fred Raymond, Misses Ada and Angie Pease of Avon were recent guests at J. H. Welts'.

Mrs. George Gould is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Solon Mechem and Ezra Wheeler saw a white swallow last Sunday, a very uncommon bird around here.

Ray L. Welts is gaining slowly although he will not be able to sit up for a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris and children of Portland were week end guests at F. H. Thorpe's last week.

The Oberton league will entertain the Reed's Mill circle on Thursday, Aug. 7. A cordial invitation is extended to all the old and new members of the Reed's Mill circle to meet at the pleasant home of Mrs. Solon Mechem.

Misses Olive and Gussie Barnjum of Kingfield were guests a few days last week at Mrs. George Barnjum's. The young ladies made the trip on horseback.

DIXFIELD MILL MOVED TO STRONG

"Plans have just been completed for the removal of the equipment of the toothpick mill of the Charles Forster estate from Dixfield to Strong. The Forster estate already has one of the largest mills of its kind in the world at the latter place and when the addition is completed will have the largest toothpick plant in existence. This means the removal of about 50 employees from Dixfield to Strong. Last fall Maurice Forster, another large toothpick manufacturer, moved his equipment from Dixfield to Oakland, and this latest change leaves only the toothpick mill of J. G. Harlow at Dixfield. Mr. Harlow will build a large addition to his plant this summer and will employ all from the other mills that care to remain in Dixfield. The removal of so many families to Strong makes necessary the building of a number of new houses, accommodations at present being very scarce and that village will be a scene of general activity this summer."

Some weeks ago we had an item in this paper that some such plan as the above was contemplated, but that it would not materialize for some time. We understand that the above item from an exchange is correct and that additions and repairs are under way at the mill in Strong which would indicate that the removal will be made before long.

WEST FARMINGTON

The measles are prevailing at West Farmington.

Mrs. W. U. Farmer, who has been visiting friends in Boston has returned home.

Mrs. Clifford Barrett has returned from Rumford where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. Mary Parker has moved into the Frank Harris place opposite the schoolhouse.

Miss Alice Connat of Temple has been visiting friends in town.

Arthur Farmer has been visiting friends and relatives at Martha's Vineyard.

Mrs. C. A. Clark and daughter Frances, have returned from visiting friends.

Mrs. Whitmore is sick with German measles.

HALEY'S CAMP HAS OCCUPANT

Man Walks In and Makes Himself at Home Generally

S. G. Haley, who owns a camp at Sandy River pond was informed by Mr. Millett, who is in the employ of Haley and Field, peeling pulp, that a man was occupying his camp there.

The man in question had been camping at Long Pond for a short time and he got Chauncey Haley to take himself and baggage to Sandy River pond. Soon after Mr. Haley learned that he went to S. G. Haley's camp, broke the staple and allowed that he was "Monarch of all he surveyed." Chauncey Haley, in company with S. C. Harden went down and tried to get the fellow to leave but they could not make a go of it.

Frank Haley, son of S. G. Haley, in company with Sheriff Harry E. Bell of Phillips, decided to make a call on him and he seemed very pleased to see them. When informed of their errand he turned and went into the house and on entering they found him rocking, his dress suit case beside him with a dirk knife handy, a double barreled shotgun and a handle to a cantdog. He said he had papers that gave him the right to go to anyone's camp or residence and do as he pleased and he should stay there.

He did have papers that showed that he had been in the employ of the government in 1907 as a surveyor or some such position.

He was a stout built man, probably weighing over 200 and about 40 years of age and it was not a particularly enviable chance to take a man with the weapons that he had with him. He allowed that Sheriff Bell could not take him unless he had the papers. Messrs. Bell and Haley stepped into the kitchen to talk the matter over and decide what to do and while there the man picked up his baggage which consisted of a steamer trunk, suit case, etc., loaded them into the boat and put off.

He got someone to take him to Rangeley and he went through Phillips on the morning train Tuesday. Sheriff Bell was at the station here and the man bowed very smilingly to him.

No. 28T. "Trap Grade," 12 Gauge, Take-Down, Matted Ribbed Barrel, 6 Shot, Price, $43.00

THIS Marlin Hammerless Trap Gun WON THE PRELIMINARY HANDICAP

At the Eastern Handicap, Wilmington, Delaware, July 16th, the big Preliminary Handicap with 160 entries was won by Walter A. Welnoski of Wilkesbarre, Pa., breaking 94 x 100 (tie) with 20 straight in the shoot off.

He used a brand new standard grade Marlin Hammerless Trap Gun as above illustrated—the first shot fired from it was fired in this race. He was the last man in the race and had to break the last target to win. How is this for a "Natural Pointer"?

In the preceding event, 100 targets, using his old gun, Mr. Welnoski broke 84; he bettered his score by 10 birds the first time he shot the Marlin gun. Many other shooters have improved their scores by using the new Marlin Hammerless Shotgun. Why don't you try a Marlin?

Complete details regarding Marlin Trap gun and all other Marlin rifles and shotguns in our gun catalog, mailed for 3 stamps postage.

GUESTS GIVEN DANCE AT CASINO

Young Lady Gets Record Fish from the "Middle Grounds"—De-lightful Picnic Party Goes up Cupsuptic Stream

(Special to Maine Woods.)

The Barker, July 25—"We are going back to the city to-day and wish it were possible to take this cool weather along with us." "Indeed we do, and wish parcel post could bring us some of this pure air now and then," said two guests that were starting homeward this morning.

Last evening Mr. Gratz of New York gave a dance for the guests at the casino. The dancers were in evening costume and the occasion was a most enjoyable one. During the intermission the company were invited to Valhalla cabin and Miss Ruth Goodfriend as hostess served assorted cake and iced drinks.

A. S. Thompson of Palatka, Fla., Traffic manager of Ocklawaha and St. John's Navigation Co. accompanied by his brother, Wallace Thompson of Orlando, Fla., and W. A. Kingsbury of South Framingham, Mass., have been here for a stay this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cadden of New York, who are here for a week, have George Robinson for guide and with his motor boat are having a great outing and spending most of their time on the lake. Mrs. Cadden is very proud of her 3 1/4 pound salmon and her husband of one weighing 5 pounds.

The Misses Rockwell and brother, Geo. A. Rockwell of Boston, returned home this week. Miss Alice Rockwell caught her first record salmon this week, a 3 1/2 pounder.

Mrs. Max Ellinger and daughter, Miss Alice, and son Master Robert, of New York and their young friend, Master Jeffrey Steinharat of New Orleans, La., have taken Camp Yapeeshu for several weeks' sojourn and later will be joined by Mr. Ellinger.

Stewart R. Brown of New York, who with Tom Canadian, guide was here part of the week, recorded a 3 pound salmon and a 3 pound trout.

Miss Grace L. Rosenberg, who is here with her parents for the summer records the largest fish that any of the "plug fishermen" have been able to catch from the "Middle grounds" this week, a 4 1/2 pound salmon. Gard Hinkley was her guide.

Mrs. Walter Lewenthal of New York, Webb Bolton, guide caught a 3 1/2 pound salmon.

W. Gratz of New York, caught two record fish on Saturday. One salmon weighed 3 3/4 pounds, the other a 4 pound trout. Master Frank W. Gratz pulled in a 3 pound salmon the same day and the eight year old lad was greatly excited over his luck.

Leonard L. Stein, Cederbunt, L. I., and friend, Nathan Stinfield of New York, have for a week been enjoying life in Cozy Corner cabin.

Dr. William Beam of Kharbun Sudam, Africa, and brother, John P. Beam of Philadelphia, who were here last season, have returned for another stay of two weeks and the Philadelphia gentlemen is proud of the two salmon he caught this week. One weighed 3 pounds, the other 4 1/2 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hananer and daughter, Miss Alice and maid and Mrs. Paul Stanner of New York came Saturday and have taken Pine Tree cabin for the remainder of the season. They have engaged the large motor boat "Miss Clara" and have Clarence Gorin for guide and later will report "good fish caught."

Mr. and Mrs. H. Seligman of Boston are here for their first season and occupy Lynn Lodge.

On Sunday, S. Brady of New York came to join his wife for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. J. Goodfriend and daughter, Miss Ruth, gave a picnic party to 20 of the guests on Wednesday. They had three guides and went up Cupsuptic stream where lunch was served and it was a most enjoyable outing.

"BIG BEAR" PROVES TO BE HEDGEHOG

A Subscription Bridge Party Held And Dancing Enjoyed in the Casino.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

The Birches, July, 25—Each day brings more guests, for the city people are sure of happy days and cool comfortable nights here on the island while no call of the "long distance" ever reminds one of the rush and hurry of city business life at home.

There has been only one exciting event on the island recently. That was in the early evening the first of the week. Two city young ladies who occupy one of the log cabins on the west side, on opening their door noticed what they were sure was a good sized black bear, slowly walking along the piazza on one of the camps just below theirs as if on the way to call on them. One rushed back into the camp closing the door and windows, while the other made a mad run for a man and a gun going back of the cabin. Harvey Farrington of Yonkers, N. Y., was the brave man who with a gun came to their rescue. Sure enough there in the twilight going up a near by tree was what looked like a black bear, that fell to the ground with a thud when the bullet from the true aim of the Winchester took effect. By that time the crowd was gathering and by lantern light the less fearless ones went to look at the "bear" which proved to be the largest hedgehog that ever made his home on this island. "Well, I don't wonder the girls thought that was a bear" remarked one.

It seems like old times to have Robins Nest cabin again taken by Mr. and Mrs. M. Hampton Todd and daughters, Misses Anna and Jean Todd of Philadelphia and grandson, Master M. V. B. Brinkerhoff of Brinkerhoff, N. Y. Last year the party were traveling in Europe, but found no more beautiful spot to pass summer days.

For the week end Mr. and Mrs. Jos. B. Johnson of Wynnwood, Penn., and friends Mr. and Mrs. M.

Ashbrook Griffith of Ardmore, Penn., had a pleasant stay in Birchbark cabin.

Dr. William J. Vogler of Yonkers, N. Y., is for ten days the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Farrington, who with their sons are at home for the summer in Idlewild and Kumseus cabins.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Bartlett of Boston, who are at their camp at Hirobsamcook on the lake shore were this week guests of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hannah of New York, who are spending the season in Bijou cabin.

Hiawatha camp is taken by two young gentlemen, who have chosen this place for vacation days, Messrs. Walter W. Ward of Winthrop, Mass., and John A. Gilles of Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Morse have been joined by their son John P. Morse of Pittsfield, Mass. and everybody is glad to have "Jack" on the island for he is not only happy himself but makes all his friends the same.

Although there has always been fish in the ice box and the fishermen say "we have had good luck," Charles C. Bailey of Flushing, N. Y., is the only one whose name is recorded this week and that was for the 4 1/2 pound salmon he caught Wednesday.

Mrs. Abbie G. Poore of Auburn is the guest of her brother, Capt. F. C. Barker and adds one to the happy party of Miss Mary E. Barker, Miss Abbie F. Carpenter of Portland and Captain's daughter, Miss Florence.

On Sunday evenings the guests gather in the casino and all join in a song service.

Several parties each Sunday morning take a sail up the lake and attend mass at the church of "Our Lady of the Lakes."

W. C. Thomas of Philadelphia, while making a tour of the lakes made a short stay here this week.

Monday evening eight tables enjoyed a Subscription Bridge party in the casino, after which was a social dance, the music being furnished by a new victrola machine which has recently been added to the casino and is greatly enjoyed every evening.

The tennis court is in excellent shape and the young people are having great games every pleasant day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walker of Hartford, Conn., who have chartered the steamboat Wm. P. Frye take parties out on the lake every day. They fish and they play bridge and serve afternoon tea and all declare that the Walker party are charming entertainers.

Mrs. I. H. Thurber, Miss L. A. Freyfogel and Miss A. F. Green spent part of the week here en route up the lake.

The guests are daily taking excursion trips to Rangeley, Cupsuptic, over to Richardson pond and the many nearby places where a jolly good time is enjoyed with a dinner cooked out in the open, adding much to the pleasure of the day.

ELKINS LEADS ALL FISHERMEN

Sixteen Have Jolly Hayrack Ride --Governor Haines and Other Distinguished Guests Here.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

So, Poland, July 30—With ideal summer weather and more visitors at the resort than ever before in July, Poland Spring is enjoying its best season. Golf tournaments have begun, tennis was never so popular as this year on the splendid courts, and the automobile traffic is far in excess of all previous years. Fishing is very good in the lakes at the foot of Ricker Hill and a number of visitors are angling. Geo. W. Elkins of Philadelphia leads all other fishermen thus far with catches aggregating twenty pounds of bass for this week. His largest fish was a four pounder. Dr. H. C. Register of Philadelphia, and Geo. B. Adams of New York, also made good catches.

Geo. W. Elkins, Jr. of Elkins Park, Pa., holds the billiard-bagatelle record for this season with his score of 450. Mrs. Parker of Boston, holds the highest record for ladies with a score of 311. The two handsome cups are on exhibition in the window of the pool room.

Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary of Eagle Island, Maine, was a visitor at the Poland Spring House over Friday night, on his way from Kamp Kohut in Oxford.

The accustomed pleasures of sport and social life are now and then varied by an informal frolic such as took place on Monday evening of last week when sixteen of the visitors at the hotels participated in a jolly hayrack ride to the outlet of Sabbathday Lake under the conduct of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bacon of Brookline, Mass. It was no modernized affair but one of the good old-fashioned kind. After a supper at the lake shore, the ride was continued, the company returning to their hotels late in the evening. Those who went were Misses Anaretta and Pauline Luke of New York, Mrs. A. A. and Master Robert Quinn of Brookline, the Misses Bacon and Francis Bacon of Brookline, Ralph Jester of Dallas, Tex., Mrs. Emma Maxwell and Irving Maxwell of Portland, James Harris of Providence, James Ricker of Poland Spring, Samuel Cooper of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Herbert Adams of Dallas, Tex.

Mrs. A. B. Ricker and Miss Marion Ricker of the Mansion House returned Tuesday from Philadelphia where they attended the wedding of Miss Gladys Campbell to Frank Baker of that city. Miss Campbell is well-known at Poland as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Ross Campbell, who have a summer home near the Mansion House.

Poland Spring people were glad to welcome Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Harban of Washington, who returned the fifteenth of July for the remainder of the season at the Poland Spring House. Dr. Harban is well known here as a golfer of prominence.

Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt of Newport was a recent visitor at the Poland Spring House in company with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney F. Colford, and Joseph Harriman. They were touring in a large French machine and went from Poland Spring to Bretton Woods over the Ideal tour.

Among the distinguished visitors at this resort is Rear Admiral Wm. Mahew Folger of Cornish, N. H., who with Mrs. Folger is at the Poland Spring House for a visit.

Guests at the Mansion House were glad to see Judge and Mrs. Henry W. Bragg of Boston, who returned July fifteenth for their annual visit. Governor William T. Haines with Mrs. Haines and party in an automobile arrived at Poland Spring House Sunday night.

Garret A. Hobart, Jr. who is staying this season at his Rangeley camp, is at the Poland Spring House visiting his mother, Mrs. G. A. Hobart.

Mrs. H. W. Ricker, Jr. of Poland Spring has gone to Colorado where she will meet her son, Hiram W. Ricker, Jr. at the Stanley Hotel in Eustis Park. Both will return to Poland in a few weeks.

Dayton Voorhees of Camden, N. J., a well-known guest at Poland Spring in other seasons, arrived this week at the Poland Spring House from a fishing trip in Newfoundland. He will shortly go to Montana where he will hunt big game among the mountains.

NEW HIGHWAY COMMISSION TAKES REINS OF OFFICE.

The new State Highway Commission, composed of Lyman H. Nelson of Portland, chairman; William M. Ayer of Oakland, and Philip J. Deering of Portland met, Wednesday, at the office of the highway department and in reality took in hand the reins of office and from this time forth the State highway commissioner is no more.

According to law, the act creating this commission went into effect on midnight, July 11, but the commissioners, though gradually acquainting themselves with the work of the office, did not take actual possession until after the confirmation of their appointment, and did not then until Wednesday.

Parker Hardison, the former highway commissioner, has been carrying on the work, since that time. Mr. Hardison was appointed by Governor Plaisted, and succeeded Paul D. Sargent. The term of Mr. Hardison, has seen the completion or practical completion, of the Kittery-Portland trunk line, one of the best State roads in Maine.

The work was practically up to the dot, and all the loose ends had been drawn in by Mr. Hardison, before his turning of the duties of office over to his successor.

The commission have before them the problem of laying out a system of interlocking highways throughout the state. This will mean a tour of every county in the state, and of the choosing from the several thousand roadways in the state, roads that will best suit this purpose. The $2,000,000 bond issue, will take care of the expense of building these roads, though the municipalities will take care of the expense of their upkeep by paying $60 a mile annually.

The commission, Wednesday, chose their acting officers as follows: Chief Engineer, Parker L. Hardison; assistant chief engineer, Lucius D. Barrows; secretary, Anne P. Bibber. The present office will be maintained.

Another matter that will come within the jurisdiction of this commission is the recent appropriation of $100,000 by Governor and Council to obtain $50,000 aid from the federal government for good roads.

The commission gave out no notice as to what their policy would be and stated that they would be in session at 10 a. m. Thursday of each week.

Ask Any Sickle Smoker Why

he sticks to Sickle plug and slices off each pipeful as he needs it, when he could get tobacco already cut up, in packages. He'll tell you, "because the Sickle way is the only way to get fresh tobacco, that smokes cool and sweet, and doesn't bite the tongue." He knows.

Tobacco that is cut up at the factory gets dried up on its way to you. Result—it burns fast and hot, and "bites." Fly Rod's Note Book

BY FLY ROD

Kennebago Lake House, Kennebago, July 21—The haymakers are sharpening their scythes, for this morning the work of cutting the tall grass around the clearing has commenced and the fresh perfume of new mown hay fills the air. The city children are having the time of their lives and are as merry, and happy as the birds and it is amusing to watch some of the professional men ewing the scythe for about two minutes "for it looks so easy."

Sixty guests in camp the 20th of July and daily having to refuse those who wish to come for August, tells something of the business that is being done at this popular place this season.

Last summer one day Judge G. A. Kellogg and G. W. Guy of Hartford, Conn., took a walk to Kennebago. "We always recognize a good thing when we see it," said the Judge," and we decided 1913 would find us here and here we are twelve of us and the happiest party that ever came to Kennebago." They came by train arriving last Tuesday and plan to stay until August and the company include Judge and Mrs. G. A. Kellogg their two sons, Martin and Willard Kellogg, Miss Isabel S. Williams of Gladstonbury, Conn., and her friend, Miss Francis Edmonson of Little Rock, Ark., of Smith college 1912.

G. W. Guy, one of the best known milliners of New England and whose Paris hats are worn by the wealthy ladies of the land, is accompanied by Mrs. Guy and daughter, Miss Eunice Guy, H. W. Nuckols president of the Columbia Motor Car Co. and wife of Hartford, Conn., and L. J. Bevan of New York, a Cal., University man. The party have their cabins and there is not a trail in this region where they have not left a foot print. They have fished in the early morning hours, paddled their canoes over the lake and the days are far to short for the happy life they are living here in the Maine woods.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pierce of Indianapolis, who have Silver Birch cabin are very enthusiastic over life here, their first experience in the wilderness and two months' stay will change their ideas of way down in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Avery Cary of Medford, Mass., have just returned home after a two weeks' stay. They had excellent success fly fishing and Mr. Cary, who is an expert with the camera took many beautiful photographs.

Dr. H. G. Uleich of Baltimore, Md., is here for his twenty first summer and everyone is glad to welcome him. The Dr. will later be joined by his wife for a month's stay. "Coming by rail to Kennebago surely is a change and saves both time and money and as long as the Iron horse is six miles away, the railroad is not as unwelcome as we thought it would be," remarked the Doctor.

Misses Mary F. and Luella K. Leivitt of Newport, R. I., last week enjoyed camp life here.

Coming from Short Hills, N. J., Perry D. Trafford, a New York lawyer, who distinguished himself on Harvard foot ball team, with his wife and four children, Melinda, Ruth, Master Perry D. Jr. and William B. Trafford and maid are spending the month in the large camp next to the office. Frank Porter is their guide and is off this morning taking them for a trip to the top of West Kennebago Mountain. "We have not had time to go fishing yet, will try that later," was the answer given when we asked "what luck fishing."

L. D. Craft of Holyoke, Mass., who has been coming to this part of the wilderness for quarter of a century is this morning putting his rods together and before September will have good records to report as he knows where the trout hide and the art of catching them.

Donald H. Choate of Bridgeport, Conn., came on Saturday for his second season and plans to stay until October.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Haskell and little daughter, Marcia of Boston with Charles Hoar guide are at home in Camp Bide-a-wee for several weeks. The Doctor seems to know just when and where the trout will rise and he always has plenty of them for the fry pan.

Dr. E. W. Rockey of Portland, Oregon, who is now practicing in the Mass., General Hospital, Boston regretfully reeled in and started for the city this morning after a ten days' stay. With Charles Harnden for guide, he has had good fishing and canoeing.

Mrs. Albert Leeb of South Orange, N. J., two sons, Henry L. and Brian P. Leeb and friend Theo. G. Brewer, who came the middle of the month, are happily located for their sixth season in Owls Nest cabin until October.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Fry and son Gilbert Crawford Fry, Jr. of Philadelphia, Penn., with Eben Harnden guide, who have been in camp here for two weeks returned home making the trip via the Chain-of-Lakes and White Mountains.

CLARK-HUTCHINSON COMPANY, BOSTON, MASS.

with him for his guest, Rev. Dr. H. P. Burhler, who is president of the well known boys' school, The Hotchkiss of Lakeville, Conn.

At present Dr. E. R. Humphries, of Holyoke, Mass., Mrs. David F. Roy and daughter of Marion, Mass., are guests there.

Coming to Kennebago on the Sunday p. m. train at the station was waiting a large covered team to take passengers for Kennebago Lake House. It was soon filled and over the new road we drove half a mile to the bridge where the boats were waiting and we took the sail down the lake. I stopped at Forestholme and gave the latch string a pull, remembering that my good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Atwood of Stonington, Conn., when they first welcomed me to their beautiful home in the forest said, "The latch string will always be out when you come this way and we shall be happy to have you give it a pull at any time." Mr. Atwood extended a kindly greeting and such a delightful afternoon as we passed. Mrs. Atwood is for a few days at their home in Conn. Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Cutler and son Benj. F. Cutler of Stonington, Conn., are now guests at Forestholme. Mr. and Mrs. Quincy A. Atwood of Newton, Mass., as a reminder of the happy days just spent here, since their return home, sent as a gift a most elegant sterling silver punch bowl engraved "Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Atwood from Mr. and Mrs. Quincy A. Atwood 1913" and on the handle of the ladle "Forestholme." September 20th is Mr. Eugene Atwood's birthday and they have invited Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Atwood to return at that time when the punch bowl will be filled for the first time. The little squirrels daily come to the camp and often into Mr. Atwood's pockets, where they always find the peanuts. A big woodchuck whose home is on the lake shore now takes a walk daily over the lawn. Mr. Cutler, just to amuse himself is building a rustic seat under the trees.

Mrs. Atwood and daughters are expected to come next week and bring a house party of young ladies, who surely could not be entertained at a more charming place than Forestholme.

If one thinks life here in camp is dull, he is mistaken. There was a dance here in the office Saturday evening; over thirty kept time with the music of the two step and waltz. When someone told Mr. Look "If you will take up the rugs and put corn meal over the floor, it will be just right for a dance," he was ready to try the experiment, all declaring they never had a better floor to dance on. Try it, if you want to change a camp floor into a dancing hall.

The tennis court is in excellent condition and the players are having great games.

The trails that Whitman Preston the Boston gentleman spends most of his time on, are now in good shape and ferns and wildflowers one gathers as they pass over them, make as beautiful bouquets to decorate as any city can furnish.

DEER ATE HIS SCARECROWS.

Henry Davis of Oakdale to frighten off deer eating his garden stuff made two manlike scarecrows show up deftly under the glare of two lanterns.

The deer scented the new hay which padded the scarecrows' trousers, trotted up to the figures and ate them both. Then the deer butted out the lanterns hanging like punching bags from a tree and fled.

FISHING METHODS AT PHIPPSBURG.

That modern methods of fishing are responsible in great part for the scarcity of most kinds of fish is the belief of Jonathan Young of Phippsburg, the oldest fisherman along the Maine coast. He is now in his 91st year. Mr. Young is popularly known among the fishermen of the New Meadows river as the Sage of Sebasco. He says that at the present rate it will be but a few years before fish will become as scarce and high as native beef. According to his views propagation has not kept pace with the rest of the industry.

True Anglers Use The Williams Barbless Hook

Because it is guaranteed to catch and hold better than a barbed hook, yet you can remove the little fish without injury. Yearlings, spawn, and their killing wastes thousands of eggs, this means certain ruin to a glorious sport. The Williams Barbless hook is a scientific and a practical lure, no mechanism, just its ingenious shape. It stands for a SQUARE deal to the future of the sport: a SQUARE deal to the little fish and a SQUARE deal to yourself as a sportsman. Imported standard flies, $1.60 per dozen, bait hooks 25 cents.

GAVE GARDEN PARTY.

Mrs. Frederick E. Boothby of the Falmouth, Portland, who for the past year has been far from well, has recovered sufficiently to enter actively into philanthropic projects in which she is so much interested. Mrs. Boothby is well known throughout Maine as one of the state's most progressive and broad minded women and on Thursday, afternoon of last week at their beautiful colonial home in Waterville with Colonel Boothby gave a garden party for the benefit of the Maine Sanatorium recently burned. The spacious house and grounds were thrown open and there were two concerts in the barn. At six o'clock supper was served. There were baked beans cooked in a hole in the real old fashioned style. The whole place was brilliantly lighted by electricity and a special feature was the Waterville band under the direction of W. D. Haines. There was a mystery booth and similar attractions which go to make such a program a success. Mr. and Mrs. Boothby passed through Phillips Saturday en route for a few days at Rangeley.

DOING AWAY WITH TRAMPS

English Authorities Think They Have Found a Way to Cope With a Present Evil.

London.—The tramp problem in the British Isles is in a fair way toward solution. The "way ticket" method of dealing with vagrancy is accomplishing a revolution. The latest reports on the working of the system indicate that within a very few years the ranks of the ragged mendicants on the highways of the United Kingdom will be reduced almost to vanishing point.

The object of the "way ticket" is to give a better chance to the unemployed who really want work, and to make the way of the professional tramp as hard as possible. The man who wants to work but is compelled to take to the road is taken into the poorhouse at night and released next morning instead of suffering the usual period of detention. When leaving he is given a ticket which entitles him to a certain allowance of bread and cheese along the road he intends to take. He is also put in touch with the local labor exchanges and everything possible is done for him if he shows a genuine desire to obtain work.

On the other hand, the habitual tramp obtains short shrift. After spending the night at the poorhouse he suffers the usual period of detention and gets the allotted task. Finally he is given the "way ticket," so that he has no excuse for begging. Very soon the poorhouse masters begin to look askance at the man who persistently presents the ticket and his journey from village to village and from poorhouse to poorhouse in the counties where the system prevails is not made any too smooth. The tramp finally seeks a county where this method does not prevail, so these sanctuaries are beginning to adopt the system as self-defense.

The system only becomes successful when the householders co-operate. Circulars are issued instructing them that since all vagrants have access to the bread tickets there is no excuse for giving food to beggars, and the tramps who neglect to provide themselves with the tickets are beginning to learn that the circulars have not fallen on barren soil.

Pin Causes Death.

Louisville, Ky.—A pin, swallowed when he was a baby, which lodged in his vermiform appendix years after, caused the death of Murray Blunk, a young reporter. In his last hours Blunk, delirious, called for a typewriter. "I want to write the story of my death for my paper," he cried to the nurses.

Ways to Cook Potatoes.

Boston.—Mayor Fitzgerald say there are one hundred ways to cook potatoes, and one is fricassee.

To Conserve India's Rainfall.

A great scheme was proposed at Bombay recently, by which it is proposed to utilize India's huge rainfall for the purpose of providing electric power for industrial purposes to the Bombay section of Western India. During the monsoon season, there is a rainfall on the west coast averaging 175 inches at Lanoul, and sometimes greatly exceeding this figure. Three lakes or reservoirs are to be formed. One at Lanoul will be large enough to hold sufficient water during the longest breaks in the monsoon season, and the Walwhan Lake, covering 2½ square miles is to serve for the remainder of the year and will have a capacity of 2,600,000,000 cubic feet. The generating station is to be at Khopoli, 300 feet above the sea and 96 miles from Bombay.

When He Quit.

"Somebody really ought to get out the society vote." "I once tried to campaign among the Four Hundred, but I heard one woman tell her maid not to let any strange politicians kiss Fido, and then I quit."

CARD OF THANKS.

Dear Friends and Townsmen:

We feel that we owe you a debt of gratitude which we will never be able to pay for the prompt, willing manner in which you responded to the call of line at our mill.

We fully realize that if it had not been for your nerve and willingness to work that our loss would have been very much heavier. The quick work done by the teams and automobiles was remarkable.

And again we sincerely thank you for the deed you did which we will never forget.

Very truly yours,

Hescoc and Atwood.

Mrs. Chas. Hinkley had a slight operation performed on her wrist recently by Dr. F. B. Colby.

Mrs. Aaron Soule, who has been visiting her parents for the past month returned Saturday.

Mrs. Fred McLaughlin and little daughter of Phillips are guests of Mr. McLaughlin at Geo. Russell's.

Prof. Dwight Porter, Prof. of Engineering at Institute of Technology will address the Boy Scouts Thursday evening. The society is in a very flourishing condition and the boys are still enthusiastic over the work. They have agreed to keep the church lawn in good condition during the summer.

Little Damon Hoar son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Hoar is ill with bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. William Wilcox has a very beautiful garden which calls forth much comment from those who see it. Her friends have received much pleasure from the generous bouquets with which she has remembered them.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Proctor returned the latter part of the week from an auto trip to Farmington and Augusta. Mrs. Albion Turner of New Vineyard accompanied them home.

Phil Pillsbury is at home from Orono for a few weeks.

John W. Judge of Somerville is the guest of his sister, Mrs. F. B. Colby.

Judson Jonah is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Carlton and Miss Alice Jonah is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Bridgman.

Rev. Geo. Gaul of Philadelphia who is spending a few weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Smith, preached at the church Sunday to a good sized and appreciative audience.

His subject was miracles and his text "Give ye them to eat." Music was furnished by the chorus. Next Sunday, Rev. H. A. Childs will occupy the pulpit, taking for his subject "Sign of salt."

Alexis Blodgett is ill with la grippe.

Sheriff Esty made two arrests for intoxication Sunday and as a consequence a search and small seizure was made. The young men were placed in the lockup and Monday, De Berna Ross conducted a trial at the Town House which drew a good sized audience. The men were tried and pleaded guilty to the charge, but were dismissed after paying the fine and costs.

Alvin Berry had the misfortune to fall and dislocate his shoulder Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Gile had a serious ill turn Monday.

While at work repairing the gasoline tank at the light station, John Russell met with a slight mishap Tuesday morning. Every precaution was taken but in some way the gas coming in contact with the soldering flame exploded burning the left side of Mr. Russell's face. Dr. Colby dressed the injured man's burns and it is thought no very serious damage was done as the burns do not appear to be deep.

Orrie Haley is confined to the house by illness.

Miss McVaine and Mrs. Burton F. Pye had an exciting experience Sunday which they do not care to repeat again right away. Mrs. Pye and little daughter and Miss McVaine were out pleasure riding in a carriage, and when opposite Charl Hoar's, a large automobile belonging to R. L. Spotts came tearing along. The turn being quite sharp and the speed of the machine so great that they were unable to make the turn as they should, an accident was the result. The wagon was quite badly damaged and the horse received numerous scratches but fortunately the people escaped with only slight bruises. The horse dashed along for a short distance and came upon Mrs. G. L. Kempton and Miss Josephine Rowe, who were also enjoying a carriage drive. Seeing the runaway and trying to avoid a collision, Mrs. Kempton injured her carriage in turning out at the side of the road. The roads are very narrow and winding in many places about here and this should serve as a warning to the many automobile parties who enjoy travelling through our narrow country roads at such a rate of speed.

HORSES AND HORSEMEN

Those who are well posted in combination of blood lines which have produced race winning speed with the greatest uniformity and who carefully watch the summaries of races as well as the reports of well authenticated workouts of horses at various tracks where the miles and fractions are caught by competent, trustworthy impartial timers who have reliable split second watches, are able to predict with considerable certainty, the successful sires of the future long before such stallions are so recognized by the public generally, or the majority of horsemen.

Judged by the above tests the stallion Cochato (3) 2.11½, stands a good chance to attain high rank as a sire among the best sons of the renowned Todd 2.14½. One of his get, the first season that Cochato (3) 2.11½ stood in Kentucky is Walter Cochato p. 2.04 record made in a race that he won during the recent Grand Circuit meeting at Pittsburg, Pa., where he beat the game campaigners Branham Baughman p. 2.04½ driven by, Walter R. Cox, and Longworth B. p. 2.04 driven by Tommy Murphy. He won this race in straight heats, time 2.05, 2.04. The official time of the last half of the first heat was 1.01½ and of the last quarter 30 seconds. Walter Cochato was in fifth place at the half, hence his actual time for the last half was less than 1.01½. The official time of the last half of the second heat was 1.01½ and at that point Walter Cochato again was behind all the others. The official time of the last quarter of this heat was 29½ seconds and Walter Cochato was eased up at the finish.

Last year, when four years old, Walter Cochato made a record of 2.04½ in the third heat of a seven heat race which he won during the two weeks' race meeting at Lexington, Ky., in October. He also won several other good races last year, one of which was a six heat contest at Galesburg, Ill., Aug. 21, where the time of his fastest mile was 2.06½. He also won a good five heat race in a field of nine starters at Indianapolis, Ind., where he took the second, fourth and fifth heats in 2.06½, 2.09½, 2.07½. He has inherited gameness and endurance also speed ability of a high order.

Another fast one got by Cochato (3) 2.11½ the same season is the fast and handsome, but unfortunate trotter Beirne Holt (4) 2.11½, that trotted miles in 2.10 or better as a 3-years old; and still another got the same season, is the trotting stallion Dichato 2.15½ that is owned by W. L. Eaton of Calais, Me., and is one of the best bred stallions in this state. His dam is a full sister of Direct p. 2.05½. Dichato 2.15 1-2 has won several good races in Canada this season.

Cochato (3) 2.11½ was bred by Col. A. C. Drinkwater, a native of Maine, but for many years past a resident of Braintree, Mass. The colonel sold Cochato, 3, 2.11½ when a 3-years old colt for $10,000 to J. M. Johnson and George W. Leavitt. Mr. Johnson was at one time Mayor of Calais, Me., and George W. Leavitt was born and raised in Washington county, this state, but both are now residents of Massachusetts. At the close of last season Cochato (3) 2.11½, then nine years old, was credited in the Year Book with 25 standard performers, 20 of which were trotters. Several new ones have been added to his standard list this season. Others that have not taken records have shown fast miles in their work. Cochita, a green mare by Cochato (3) 2.11½ recently trotted a mile in her work in 2.08½. She trotted a mile last season, when four years old, in 2.08½. She is the same age as Walter Cochato p. 2.04. Another daughter of Cochato (3) 2.11½, that has been worked at the North Randall, Ohio, track this season, has shown wonderful speed and disinterested horsemen of good judgement pronounce her the best gaited trotter ever seen on that track. As the champion trotter Uhlman 1.58 has been trained there this season the daughter of Cochato must be wonderfully good gaited. Keep your eyes on the get of Cochato (3) 2.11½ the next few years and see if he fulfills predictions.

Hank's meeting at Lewiston this week undoubtedly will attract a large number of horsemen to that city.

Norris Hackett thinks that Linn Stinchfield owns the best acting, suckling colt of his age that he has ever seen. His sire is Lord Wilkes 45,200 and his dam is a daughter of Van Helmont 2.19½. Such breeding as that should result in an animal of merit at maturity.

SIDELIGHTS ON WINNING A HANDICAP.

(With a Marlin Trap Gun.)

Who ever heard of breaking in a new gun by winning an Interstate handicap?

This "stunt" was accomplished by Walter A. Welnski of Wilkesbarre, Pa., who won the big Interstate Preliminary handicap at Wilmington with a brand new Marlin trap gun.

The big handicap shoots of the Interstate association can usually be relied on to bring into the trap shooting limelight more than one modest shooter of exceptional ability and endurance. Mr. Welnski certainly proved his title to membership in the select class of handicap winners by winning the preliminary handicap, high man in a field of 160 top-notch shooters who took part in this event, for he had his nerve and skill and a supreme confidence in his new Marlin trap gun. Mr. Welnski broke 94x100, tying with one other shooter for high; and won with 20 straight in the shoot-off.

He was using a brand new Marlin hammerless trap gun No. 28 T which had never been fired since leaving the factory until he started in this Preliminary handicap event. He was the last man in the last squad (enough to discourage anyone) and he had to break the last target of the 100 in order to win. He was accordingly the center of interest, a mighty nervous and trying position for most shooters; enough to insure a breakdown for any shooter who did not have absolute confidence in himself and in his gun. Mr. Welnski is to be congratulated on his excellent shooting and the Marlin Firearms Co. are certainly to be complimented on producing in their standard stock grade hammerless trap gun a gun so perfectly suited to trap shooting requirements that it returns home from its first tryout with the unique experience of having won one of the most important of the Interstate handicaps.

Details of the Marlin hammerless trap and trap special grade guns, as well as the various other Marlin repeating rifles and shotguns will be sent free on request of any of our readers by the Marlin Firearms Co., 33 Willow street, New Haven, Conn.

CAMPERS AT WEBB LAKE

Miss Bell Gives Interesting Talks of Her Work Among the Poor.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Weld, July 27.—Mrs. John A. Decker and son, John Raymond Decker of Boston are at their camp at the head of the lake for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell of the St. James school, Maryland, are occupying Kittridge's camps for the third season.

The Misses Freeman of Boston and Mrs. Mendum of Boston are in Cohasset for another summer. Miss Gladys Mendum will spend August with her mother.

Mrs. Hawley, at the Doubledecker, has as guests her sisters, the Misses Miner of New Haven.

Mrs. Maning at Hiawatha's Wigwam is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Forman, Ivan Taylor of Boston and Howard Reynolds of the Boston Post were visitors at Mae-Mae-gwam Lodge for a few days recently.

The Misses Root of Boston arrived in Dixfield Saturday and will open their camp on the West Side during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Root and daughter, Mary, will arrive the first of August.

The C. L. D. Tomkins are not occupying their camp, Mt. Blue cottage this year. It is the first season for many years that they have spent away from Weld.

Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Milliken and son, Harry, of Portland are living at the Twaddle farm during the summer months.

Miss Lucille Ladd, her grandfather, Porter Ladd, and maid of Portland have opened their summer home.

Friends of Mrs. Leon Blunt are glad to hear that she is recovering from her recent severe illness and she will probably come to Weld during August.

Harvey G. Woodward of Birmingham, Ala., has joined his mother at Villa Kismet. Mrs. H. G. Woodward is with her mother in Greenfield, Mass.

Dr. Frothingham of Boston, who brought a patient here in June, is boarding with Mrs. Flora Masterman on Center Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Sills and son John, who have been at their camp for the past month, returned home to Mt. Vernon, N. Y., last week.

Rev. Edgar Fletcher Allen, who formerly preached at the Congregational church here and Mrs. Allen, Speica Foster, of Ipswich, Mass., are visiting at Mrs. J. A. Witham's for a few weeks.

The Landers of Newton, Mass., who were at the head of the lake last year, are occupying Mrs. Decker's camp below the village for this season.

Leon Blunt of Portland spent Sunday at his summer home here.

Dr. W. H. Bragg and Mrs. Bragg of Belmont, Mass., will arrive this week and open their bungalow Worcester. Mr. and Mrs. Edgerley, who formerly spent their summers here, will tent on the point.

Arnold Werner Stanhoff of Washington, D. C., his niece, Miss Wilhelmina Jeannette Roberts of Madison, N. J., are at Mrs. Tainter's for the summer. Mrs. Stanhoff will come later. William Ames Robinson and his brother, Arthur Robinson, of Aurora, Ill., two Yale men, who have been at Mrs. Tainter's for the past few weeks will return to their home this week.

James Covert and Burton Covert of Montclair, N. J., are living at Mrs. Tainter's until their parents arrive to occupy their camp Innismond, about the middle of August.

Mrs. Tainter's Red camp will be occupied soon by the Lechtmans of Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. Burton of New Jersey will be at Mrs. Tainter's until late in September.

The Charles Wests of Montclair, N. J., are at their camp on Pine Point for the rest of the summer.

The Oslers and Markes of Philadelphia, are expected to arrive here and open their camp about the first of August.

Miss Harriet Bell of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., gave a very interesting talk on her work among the poor of New York's east side. She also gave a brief account of the Bowery mission. After her talk last summer the children of Weld sent apples and postcards of Maine views to her to give to her kindergarten scholars and they hope to do more this year. Last Sunday night Mr. Dorman of New Bedford gave an instructive discourse on the value of education.

Mrs. Leon B. Leavitt of Wilton and friend of Washington, D. C., who is visiting her, called on friends last week and had supper at the Maples.

H. W. Thersom and party of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who have been at the Maples since early in July returned home last week.

Among those who have registered at the Maples lately are: Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Boothby, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Case, Boston; M. M. Pratt and H. C. Russell, Farmington; George C. Graves, James M. Helfenstein and chauffeur of New York; N. S. Stowell and wife, Dixfield; J. S. Frank, New York; E. J. Hiller, Chicago; Mrs. Annie Gibson Yates, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; and H. W. Huson and party of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Wallace Conant of Milford, Mass., is staying with his uncle, Oscar Conant, until September.

OLD SUBSCRIBER WRITES IN REGARD TO GAME LAW

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

Norwich, Conn., July 21.

As an old subscriber, I have been not a little interested of late in the controversies and interpretations of some portions of your recent game laws. Being somewhat of a literary novice would not be expected to unfold the clouded mysteries of an august body of talented sages chosen for the special purpose of formulating and transforming statutory enactments for the safe and wholesome guidance of the people of her commonwealth, yet find myself reckoned among a legion of novitiates. I had hoped ere this to learn that the befogged clause relating to the late moose and deer law might be so interpreted as to invite us to continue our twenty year annual trips to your physical sanitarium, but for the radical extortions inflicted upon non-residents by the terms of your recent law, it is estimated by those best qualified to judge, that fifty annual Maine woods visitors from this county alone are turning their faces to other parts of the country for their fall recreation. We have always felt that a ten dollar deer licence was the limit of fairness, although tolerated a fifteen dollar licence for several years. Now that a premium of twenty five dollars is placed on our absence we propose to pocket the premium and look elsewhere.

Four fifths of the State of Maine borders on ten dollar licence territory well within easy reach and reasonable cost. Should that prove too strenuous for the tenderfoot, Connecticut has now provided for her own by opening up a season for a nominal fee for the same privilege and no doubt this will supplement hundreds of former plans, and localize a large amount of funds.

Your late law would either indicate a high class of sportive legislation or an avicious slopover. Our former protective laws have operated to such an extent that deer have increased in such numbers as to become a roaming, destructive nuisance, destroying fruit orchards as well as field and garden crops, consequently our last General Assembly provided for their curtailment. The farmers of Connecticut will welcome her crack shots to their premises to relieve them of damages. We rest our case with complacency pending further interpretation of your late game law.

Most respectfully yours

H. F. Palmer.

PARTY AT HOBART SUMMER HOME

Afternoon Tea and Waffle Parties Very Popular at Present.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Mooselookmeguntic House, Haines Landing, July 25—"If the weather is not cool enough in the city come to the shore of Mooselookmeguntic lake," was the message a New York gentleman sent a friend to-day and if one wants comfort and log cabin life he is sure to find it here.

This afternoon Mrs. Garret A. Hobart gave a tea at their camp followed by a dance party. From this hotel were present, Miss Eliza L. Willets of Flushing, N. Y., Mrs. and Miss Bluff and Miss Edna W. Birdsall of New York; also Messrs. L. Stanford Briggs, Harrison K. McCann of Bowdoin college; R. W. St. Hill an Oxford man who is a guest at Camp Frye and is sometimes called "the Saint on the Hill." Messrs. L. S. Briggs and St. Hill are agents for Standard Oil Co. and are enjoying their vacation days here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Willets and daughter, Miss Eliza L. Willets of Flushing, N. Y., have returned for their eleventh season at Haines Landing, for they say "we are always happy here and cannot find such a delightful spot as this for our summer outing." Not only the family, but "Jap" the handsome large black and white pointer are welcomed by many old friends.

William H. Hendrickson of Ridge-wood, N. J., to-day joined his wife and sons, who for several weeks have been enjoying camp life here. Mrs. Hendrickson on Tuesday evening at the "Little Brown House on the Trail" gave a waffle party to a company of eight.

Afternoon tea and waffle parties are now quite the thing and the Misses Katherine and Mary Roeschen of Philadelphia, know just how to entertain in a most delightful manner.

Mrs. B. Campan has returned from a week's trip to New York.

Miss Mary C. Rogers of Jamaica Plain, Mass., a teacher in the Martin school, Roxbury, is passing happy vacation days here, as the guest of Mrs. T. L. Page and Mrs. Burns.

W. C. Thomas of Philadelphia, was here for the week end.

It is understood there has been a great drop in the stock market, but as long as angle worms have gone up to $1.50 per quart, who is worrying about the stock market?

Mr. and Mrs. N. Lincoln Greene of Boston are here for their third season and have the motor boat "Junior" during their stay.

The camp on the rock beyond the hotel is for the present the happy home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith of Newark, N. J., and Mr. and A. A. Fraser of Glenridge, N. J.

Mrs. Harrison Taylor and sons of Philadelphia, after a pleasant stay of six weeks, left for home this morning.

Guests Have Opportunity to See a Big Doe and Two Fawns.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Bald Mountain Camps, Mooselookmeguntic Lake, July 25—"If we could only see a deer while at these camps we would not care if the wind blew a gale and we did not catch a fish while we are here," said one of the new comers this week. The next morning Landlord Ellis came in and said for them to walk quietly, and not to speak a word as far as the road by the stable and there they saw a big doe deer and two fawns near the watering trough.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sterns and three children of Montclair, N. J., who expected to remain until September, were called home this week on account of the illness of one of the family. Mr. Sterns caught two more record salmon before he left, one 3 pounds, the other 3 1/4 pounds.

Manhattan camp is this summer taken by a Philadelphia family who come to the lakes for the first season. They are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Brown, two daughters and maid, who are very enthusiastic over life here at the foot of Bald Mountain. Mr. Brown is greatly pleased over his first record salmon that weighed 5 1/4 pounds.

Mrs. Amos Ellis is this week entertaining her niece, Mrs. Joseph Boston, and son, Master Wendall of Phillips.

Mr. Ellis was on Wednesday, happily surprised to receive a visit from the "schoolmarm" who taught him his first lessons at the little red school house, Mrs. Emily Moor of Portland accompanied by Mrs. Jerry Oakes of Bangsley.

George A. Allen of Livermore Falls and W. B. Carroll of Rumford have been here for a week's fishing trip and although they did not catch any big one, they had a fine box of fish to take home including a 2 1/2

DR. HEBER BISHOP GROWS ALFALFA

And Is First One in Maine to Raise It Successfully.

Dr. Heber Bishop of Boston, a well known sportsman, who has recently become interested in agriculture, has successfully grown alfalfa in the State of Maine says the Oxford County Citizen. Although several attempts have been made to grow alfalfa no one has successfully been able to do this, and at the request of the United States government Dr. Bishop experimented with the alfalfa. He planted four half-acre plots, each with different seed. The government had sent him the four kinds of seed, Dakota, Kansas, Swiss and Canadian, and each grew as well as the other, all four yielding two tons to an acre. In order to successfully grow the alfalfa, however, it was necessary to bring some soil from Massachusetts to the "Harmony Lodge" farm in Maine. Dr. Bishop placed the seed in the soil which was brought from the estate of Professor Grosvenor, a leading agriculturist, in this way inoculating it with the bacteria in the soil in which alfalfa had been successfully planted. Forty pounds of seed were sent Dr. Bishop by the government, with the request that he make the experiment. The alfalfa was of excellent quality and grew from 20 to 24 inches high.

SEES "DROVES" OF MOOSE AT PATTEN POND.

The Ellsworth American tells us that when Fred W. Joy of New York and Ellsworth, was told by Arthur Giles, of West Ellsworth, that he had seen "droves" of moose near Mr. Joy's camp at Patten's pond, he, the said Joy, swallowed hard, and while admitting that he was not from Missouri, but from little old New York, still he would have to be shown. And he was. The other morning with his sister Bertha and Miss Mabel Joy, he was enjoying the fishing at Patten's pond, when one of the ladies discovered the "drove" of moose feeding on the heath near the head of the pond—two bulls, two cows and two calves. They watched the animals to their heart's content at as close quarters as they dared to venture. This was only one of the adventures of a strenuous day at camp. A battle with a monster eel, in which Mr. Joy came off victorious only after the free use of his sheath-knife; a close view of an eagle and a flock of wild ducks, to say nothing of partridges, and an exciting battle with two colonies of hornets, were other incidents crowded in to one short day. But the sight of the moose was worth all the rest. Once before Mr. Joy has seen a moose at Patten's pond. A few years ago a big bull moose paraded the length of a beach, a few yards from his boat, for his admiration,

TENNIS COURT NEW ATTRACTION

Champagne Did Not All Go to the Fish

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Upper Dam, July 24—Some one remarked, that the fish, who are still holding a convention near the dam, must have been informed that the gentlemen in the pool have sharp hooks amid the pretty bunch of feathers they offer for lunch, for the same big nice looking salmon swims all around among the others as if offering them free advice. The fishermen from early morning until night are near and can be seen sitting in their boats and casting the fly in all directions over the pool. Now and then some sporty fish will give a jump clear out of the water and make such a splash as to wake up the guides, who are taking a nap in the boat. Now and then a fish will take the fly, just to keep the courage of the angler up.

Miss Beatrice E. Fair of East Orange, N. J., had the good luck to strike a gamy record fish Monday and she handled her rod skillfully bringing the fighter to net after a good battle, a 3 pound, 11 ounce salmon, the only one taken from the pool that day. Miss Fair is the second lady to place her name in the record book this season. Ernest Grant was her guide. Miss Fair's father, Wm. B. Fair has this week caught two record salmon, both taken on a small fly and weighing just 2 pounds, 1 ounce each.

S. H. Palmer of Milford, Penn., continues to be in lead as he has two salmon this week to his credit weighing 3 pounds, 6 ounces and 3 pounds, 1 ounce.

One other fish is recorded and the record reads, "John S. Doane of Boston, caught a 4 pound, 5 ounce salmon, guide absent at devotions."

The new tennis court has this week been completed and for a time some of the fishermen have left the pool and are taking their exercise chasing the balls over the court, which they say is as good as any in Maine and are greatly pleased with this much needed attraction to this place.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dougherty of Syracuse, N. Y., returned home this week after a pleasant month's stay. Mr. Dougherty can cast as fine a fly and handle the fish with as much skill as ever, but he was too busy this year to fish much and only recorded four record fish this trip, all salmon, that weighed as follows: 4 pounds, 3 ounces; 3 pounds, 2 ounces; 3 pounds; 3 pounds, 6 ounces.

Joe Moran has a fine new motor boat 27 feet long that was christened "Catherine" one day this week and the story is too good to keep. Tom Miner of New York gave a picnic party for the children and with Geo. Thomas his guide all went down to Viva Vale camp. To have every thing equal to the occasion the usual bottle of sparkling champagne was to do duty. The bottle was all ready for the sweet little Miss Miner to break when someone said, "Only think of that quart of champagne being wasted in a lake in the state of Maine, the fish don't need it." Then they all talked the matter over and someone pulled the cork and the picnic cups and glasses were brought into use and all but one glassful was divided among the party and as the bottle broke and the fishes' drink went overboard all drank to "Catherine," which here in Maine seemed the proper thing for the company to do.

Next week Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Fair and daughter, go to their home in East Orange, N. J., where the wedding of Mrs. Fair's niece will occur. Monday afternoon at their camp Mrs. Fair gave a social afternoon tea which was much enjoyed by the ladies.

The flag is now flying from the handsome cottage at the end of the row facing the pool. Mrs. E. Mithoff Nicholas of Columbus, Ohio, arrived Wednesday for the remainder of the season. Mrs. Nicholas was accompanied by her three children Master, Edward and daughters, Helen and Charlotte and maid and friend, Miss F. D. Allen of Detroit, Mich. Mr. Nicholas is now on a fishing trip in New Brunswick, but will be here later and no doubt, as in the past record some of the big fish now in the pool.

Camp Kirk is now taken by Mr. and Mrs. C. McDermott of Jersey City, who are here for their first visit.

Mrs. S. Y. Whelen of Philadelphia, a friend of Dr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Wintner is here for a stay of several weeks.

"Upper Dam garden peas" are now on the menu and the bushels that are picked tell of the amount of green peas the city folks eat.

Tom Miner with Geo. Thomas guide went fishing yesterday over to the West Arm and they came back with the limit of trout and one of the party had a fine box sent to his home this morning.

Several parties are coming next week and in a short time all of the cottages will be taken.

Geo. B. Bearce and son, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bearce and children of Lewiston, have been spending a few days at Beaver lodge.

NOTES FROM THE FAR WEST.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Spokane, Wash., July 28—Fishing in the streams and lakes of the Spokane county this year is more than mere sport; it has come to be an obsession not only with the hardened, seasoned devotees but with scores of others just converted to the joys of angling.

Never were patience and skill more amply rewarded than this year. Several lakes that heretofore have been termed mudholes by the initiated have been yielding splendid strings of trout and bass.

The papers have been teeming with stant fish stories of late. Starting with the biggest one caught in the Spokane county this year, the following are the facts: A sturgeon weighing 320 pounds and measuring nine feet in length was caught in the Kootenai river by Clarence Fry on a set line. The fish yielded 50 pounds of eggs, which brought 60 cents a pound.

From Deer lake, a comparatively unknown body of water 40 miles north of Spokane, have been taken several big Mackinaw trout this season. Dresser brothers landed one weighing 23 1/2 pounds. He took a pearl spoon and used up 30 minutes of time before coming to gaff. A 19 pounder was caught there the same day.

Hayden lake bass fishing has attracted many persons this season, the catches there being splendid. The proximity of Hayden, its accessibility and excellent accommodations make the lake a valuable asset to Spokane.

Big catches of Dolly Varden and Cutthroat trout and char have been made in Pend Oreille lake, and handsome strings have been caught every day since late spring in the Spokane river at the edge of the business district. Fishing has indeed been the sport of kings in Spokane this season.

Former State Senator John H. Geiger, who is the owner of a large ranch on Fisher river, in northwestern Montana, states that beavers have become so plentiful on his place that it is going to be necessary, in spite of the law, for him to kill off some of the animals to protect his property. The beavers are constantly cutting down cottonwood trees, dropping them into the river, and they have constructed numerous dams. Geiger has tried to discourage them by destroying the dams, but as soon as a dam is destroyed they at once take up the work of repairing it. These dams sometimes have changed the course of the river and sometimes back water up on to cleared land, damaging the crops. Mr. Geiger believes at least a thousand of the animals live along the river in his locality. They have been increasing rapidly since the legislature, five years ago, passed a law permanently protecting them. Previous to that they had been nearly exterminated in the state. Mr. Geiger expects to get a permit from the game authorities to kill as many of the beavers as may be necessary to protect his property.

Robert Green, a traveling salesman for a Dalgage, Iowa, chemical company, happened to be in the Spokane county court house this week when a rancher presented to the county auditor six live coyote pups and two skins for the $2 bounty paid for the extermination of every such animal. Green took a sudden fancy to the pups, which appear innocent when young, and purchased three of them as a present for his wife. He also arranged to have the auditor keep the remaining three for him, saying: "If my wife does not like the first bunch I send she can turn them over to the Cleveland zoo. If she takes such a fancy to them as I have I will send the other three." The coyote is famed for his nocturnal, deathlike, long-drawn yell and thieving tendencies.

PICNIC PARTIES BEING ENJOYED

Much Regret Felt for Loss of Old Landmark on Saddleback Mountain

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Mountain View House, July 28—The summer days are rushing by and the guests here on the lake find them crowded with pleasures, for "just to sit here on the veranda and chat with friends who have been here each season for years, is better than fishing," said one gentleman who sat smoking the pipe of peace this morning. "Do you remember when we came to Mountain View 25 years ago?" asked another and then they chatted about the "good old times" and of many who come no more but are remembered by the good they did.

Sunday evening H. E. Moore of Brookline, gave a fine concert from a canoe on the lake with his Columbia graphophone when many of the best records furnished fine music, that a large number of guests greatly enjoyed from the piazza and loudly applauded.

On Wednesday Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Bassell gave a picnic at Haines Point. It was a merry party that crossed the lake, Miss Hawkins, Miss Bolles, Miss Wilcox, Mrs. Gould, Messrs. Roy Hawkins, Harry Fisher, Albert Bissell, Cliff Edwards, H. E. Moore. They cooked their own dinner and "Mr. Moore boiled potatoes. Albert Bissell made the coffee, the girls did the honors and we had the best time of the season," was the report given.

Everybody regretted the departure of Albert Bissell, who on Friday said good bye to his many Mountain View friends and started on an extended western trip of several months including Vancouver and the Canadian Rockies, accompanied by Walter Ruprecht and all wish him a safe return.

Mrs. W. R. Fronfield and daughter, "Betty" with Eben Harnden this week went on an "old fashioned camping trip," sleeping on bough beds in an old camp, cooking out doors and Miss Betty says "Thank God I did not go camping 50 years ago," but says "such a good time as we did have."

The party who went camping up on Saddleback Mountain and had such a good time, came back very indignant that the famous huge boulder that has stood there since time immemorial as been destroyed and one of the number inscribed the following poem on the camp register and the request has been made that the Maine Woods print it. It is as follows:

"A boulder grand on Saddleback Beyond man's right of way Was placed by nature there to stand forever and a day.

Months, years and ages passed away It stood the blasts and thumps But the landmark has been shattered By a bunch of soulless chumps.

The Saddleback boulder was the friend of thousands. The thousands, who are to climb this famous peak will never see it. A man who would commit such an act would foul nature's bird cage with murder, then lift his voice in song while enjoying his bobolink dinner."

Who will gather up the fragments and restore the landmark on old Saddleback Mountain.

The Mountain View campers of recent date, surely are poets for one of the crowd who was kept awake by the hedgehog wrote the following:

"We traveled up the peak and back We sat beside the stream We wandered back to camp at night To sleep and sweetly dream. The hedgehog gnawed into our pack We heard the wildcat cry, We grabbed our gun and quickly hit a pint of good old rye."

And Mr. Hedgehog still "gnaws and gnaws."

Mr. and Mrs. S. Nusbaum of New York, who came the middle of June, returned home on Saturday after a most enjoyable stay at Mountain View.

Mrs. C. C. Gould and family of Brooklyn, N. Y., who since the first of the season have been in one of

FISHING STILL CONTINUES GOOD

Party Go on Trip to Meadow Grounds---All Kinds of Garden Truck on Menu from York's Fine Garden

(Special to Maine Woods.)

York Camps, Loon Lake, July 28—Good fishing we are told is dropping off in the several lakes and ponds and from all indications Loon Lake is still in the lead. Mr. James H. Sullivan of New York city again visited York camps where he with his wife spent several days last week having the usual luck and capturing a fine salmon which he has had mounted to take back as a souvenir of his visit to the Maine woods.

Dr. H. H. Haskell of Boston with his guide, Chas. Hoar are here today and have gone to Cow pond regardless of showers to try his luck among the trout for which that small body of water is famous.

H. N. Fairchild with Clarence Gile as guide was away from the camps for several days going as far as the Meadow Grounds north of Kennebago lake. They had a fine tramp and caught all they needed for food en route.

Messrs. Ernest H. Geyer and Henry P. Cook of New York city accompanied by the Misses Eleanor and Margaret Dale of Nutley, N. J., came over in their car as far as York's Farm and spent the day at the camps but the increasing showers deterred them from fishing. The party have been for some time sojourning at Mingo Springs.

Messrs. George W. Guy and George A. Kellogg of Hartford, Conn., accompanied by Miss Mabel S. Williams of Glastonbury, Conn., were guests at the camps on the twenty-fifth.

On the same day Miss V. Y. Coombs of Freehold, N. J. and Miss May, R. Rink joined the guests at the camps and will remain until September.

The gardens at York's were never better and every day or two stuff is sent out to the different camps, there being plenty to supply the great demand. Loads upon loads of finely cured hay have been put in the barn during the fine weather which was taken advantage of by Mr. York who has a jolly knack of making everybody get busy and push the work right along to the finish.

About half past three the rain clouds passed over and all the fishing lovers took the boats immediately after dinner, as the lake "looked good" to them being covered with many rises. Truthful James.

Not Much Difference.

"Do you act towards your wife as you did before you married her?" "Exactly I remember just how I used to act when I first fell in love with her. I used to hang over the fence in front of her house and gaze at her shadow on the curtain, afraid to go in. And I act just the same way now when I get home late."

our breath with joy. A young deer came out from the forest just a rod or two ahead of the car, stopped midway in the open space to view us with fearless curiosity and then back to the shelter of the trees he vanished leaving as quickly as he had appeared. Of all the picturesque spots that were visited none stand out more vividly perhaps than the one which has been rightly named Paradise. Hundreds of feet above the sea level a beautiful field of a hundred acres overlooks all the country side around. Just to gaze upon the marvelous view is a revelation. Outlined against the sky are a hundred and fifty peaks. Mt. Washington, Kearsarge and many others, almost as well known being pointed out by Mr. Chapman as we watched the exquisitely changing skies and lingeringly looked upon the wonderful picture. This special bit of earth is the gem of the Chapman estate and no fairer land than this could be found on the whole wide globe it would seem. That Mr. Chapman loves every inch of his farm is not to be doubted by those who see the sparkle of his eye and hear the ring in his voice as he goes over it with you and maybe it is this which has been the source of inspiration that has made the Festival so great a power and artistic success."

OF INTEREST TO MAINE PEOPLE.

There was local color at the first concert given by Lillian Nordica at Honolulu, a few weeks ago. As the Pacific Commercial Advertising remarks: A touch of the evening, appreciated by the Honoluluans was the admiring bewilderment of Madame Nordica when a great bouquet of the blossoms of the night-blooming cereus were passed over the footlights to her. A floral tribute possible in no other city in the world than Honolulu and only possible here on occasion. The great blossoms nodded their snowy heads as the great songstress held them in her arms, the Lily of the North and the Lily of Hawaii. It was plain that the prima donna did not know exactly what the sumptuous blooms were, but it was equally plain to see that she greatly admired them, and when responding to an encore immediately, after, she sang, "Mighty Lak a Rose, the hit with her and with the audience, was evident. Another Honolulu paper, the Star-Bulletin, begins its columns of praise with these words: "With a glorious voice, naturally sweet and pure, exquisitely trained, and its melody untarnished by the passing years, and with a personality that engages her audience from the moment she came upon the stage, Madame Nordica last night scored a great personal and artistic triumph at the opera house in the first of her local concerts."

LETTER OF EXPLANATION

Some Enquiries Answered In Regard to Game Laws of Maine

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

Newburyport, Mass., July 5.—In your issue of June 26th the change made by the last legislature in the non-resident hunter's license fee, you state that the $25 fee is only for hunting deer and smaller game is $1 I have before me a copy of the "Maine Woods extra," which purports to be a copy of the "public laws of the state of Maine passed by the 76th Legislature, A. D. 1913." I have carefully read chapter 206 relating to the fish and game laws and fail to find any mention of a non-resident hunting license for $15. Section 51 of said chapter 206 reads "persons not bona fide residents of the state shall not hunt for any bull moose, deer, ducks, partridges in October, Nov. and Dec. Such license shall be issued upon payment of twenty-five dollars to hunt bull moose, deer, ducks, partridges in Oct. Nov. and Dec. But to hunt ducks, partridges and other birds up to Oct. 1st a license fee of five dollars shall be paid. A person having paid the fee of five dollars may procure a license to hunt bull moose, deer and other wild animals and wild birds during the open season on bull moose and deer by paying an additional fee of twenty dollars." If this copy of the law is correct, then I fail to understand the English language if your statement that "the $10. dents additional to the $15 for non-residents hunting license is required only for moose" is correct I trust to receive an explanation.

Very truly,

S. W. Morse.

We have received the following letters in regard to the non-resident hunting license since we published the statement in reply to a communication from Mr. Hunting in our issue of June 26 that the $10 additional was for hunting moose only.

We supposed we were correct as we went to good authority for our information and the gentleman in question was very much surprised when he found that the law read differently.

As Hon. H. B. Austin was a member of the committee on Inland Fisheries and Game of the last legislature he has kindly written a letter of explanation for the benefit of the readers of Maine Woods, which we publish below.

Boston, Mass., July 15.

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

There has been considerable difference of opinion hereabouts as to the exact interpretation of some of the game laws passed at the last session of the Maine Legislature, particularly with reference to the amount of a non-resident's hunting license for the coming season. Personally I had supposed that the fee for hunting deer, birds and smaller game would be $15, with an additional charge of $10 if one desired to hunt moose. Several of my friends, however, one of whom is connected with the Boston Globe maintain that a non-resident hunter can do no hunting in the Maine woods after the deer and moose season opens without the payment of the full license fee of $25. This difference of opinions among non-resident sportsmen apparently is not confined to this immediate vicinity, as I note in your issue of the Maine Woods of June 26, on page 7, there is printed a similar inquiry from a subscriber, C. H. Hunting of Hartford, Conn. Your reply to his letter states "that the $10 additional to the $15 for non-residents' hunting license is required only when the non-resident wishes to hunt for moose, and that the $15 license covers deer, bear and all smaller game."

I have since received, however, a copy of the 1913-14 revision of the Maine Fish and Game laws, which, on page 43, under section 51, clearly states that non-resident hunters cannot hunt during the open season of deer and moose without the payment of the $25 fee. Also I am in receipt of a letter from Chairman Wilson of the Fish and Game Commissioners, dated July 10, in which he also states that "if a non-resident wishes to hunt after Oct. 1 in Maine the fee would be $25." I would suggest that this fact be given due prominence in the coming issue of the Maine Woods, in order that hundreds of other sportsmen throughout New England, who have been as much in the dark as brother Hunting and myself, may know the exact facts and make their hunting plans accordingly. The impression is rapidly gaining ground among non-resident sportsmen that the state of Maine is fast killing the goose which has for so long laid many of her golden eggs. Hundreds of us who believe most thoroughly in legal protection of both hunting and fishing are considerably loath to pay in addition to our carfare, board and guide expenses, a fee of $25 for practically no other purpose than the privilege of hunting deer and partridges. A moose may be seen and even shot once in a blue moon, but no man to-day who wishes to secure a good specimen of moose will stop on the Maine side of the Canadian boundary and it may also be said that good deer hunting may be had in northern New Hampshire upon payment of a license fee of but $10.

The law in New Brunswick for hunting deer, caribou, or moose calls for a total payment of $50 which a non-resident must pay before hunting any of the three species of game mentioned.

If the state of Maine through its Legislatures should exert the same diligence to protect its inland fish and game from the depredations both in seasons and out, of the lumber camps and other native hunters, that it seems so desirous to maintain over the few non-resident hunters, it would take a long and most efficient step forward in the conservation of its wild life, and the pleasure of hunting and fishing not only for those of us of this generation, but those to come in future years.

Yours truly,

H. A. Robinson.

Farmersville, Ohio, July 18.

J. W. Brackett Co.,

Gentlemen: I am somewhat interested in the game laws of Maine and will ask you to tell me by enclosed card what changes there are in the deer and moose law, or rather the changes in the license law. I have been told the license to hunt deer and moose is $25 instead of $15 as before. I have been asked several times in regard to the changes but was not sure about it; thought perhaps it was raised only on the moose but would like to know if it includes deer also.

Yours truly,

L. Kentz.

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

In accordance with your request for an explanation of how the non-residents hunters' license came to be raised from $15 to $25 I would say that as a member of the committee on Inland Fisheries and Game of the last Legislature which revised the fish and game laws I was much surprised to notice that according to Section 51 of the revised laws which relates to non-resident hunters' licenses, "Such licenses shall be issued by the commissioners of inland fisheries and game upon application in writing and payment of $25 to hunt bull moose, deer, ducks, partridges, woodcock other birds and wild animals during their respective open seasons and in the manner provided by law in October, November and December."

Early in the last session of the Legislature an order was passed providing for the arranging, collating and revision of the fish and game laws by a committee consisting of the Commissioners of Inland Fisheries and Game and the Legislative Committee on Inland Fisheries and Game and empowering this revision committee to employ legal counsel for the above named purpose. This committee organized at once and held frequent sessions throughout the winter as the amount of work entailed proved to be enormous. The laws were carefully gone over section by section as fast as they were worked into shape for revision, private and special laws were dropped from the statutes as far as the committee deemed it advisable, their idea being that a much simpler and less bulky code of laws was needed. But, notwithstanding the constant and hard work of the Commissioners and counsel and of the Legislative committee, the laws as revised, could not be gotten into shape for enactment in a body until the closing hours of the session and not until too late to advertise and give public hearings upon the proposed revision by sections as originally planned.

The fight in the legislature over the proposed four years close time on moose was prolonged until the last week of the session which was devoted to enacting laws and was finally compromised by a proposition to cut down the open time to one month instead of six weeks as formerly and to increase the non-resident license to hunt moose from $15 to $25. I never heard the proposition to make this increase in the non-resident license to $25 to apply to any other game hunting excepting moose, discussed in or out of the committee and not until the laws were published did I have any idea that such a provision was embodied in the revised law.

I have absolutely no explanation to offer as to how this provision came to be embodied in the law as now written and if any other members of the committee have any knowledge whatever of the reason for it I should be very glad to hear from them.

I know it wasn't the policy of this committee to sanction any changes in the laws which would tend to keep from the state any part of the large number of visiting sportsmen who annually come here to hunt deer and game birds, but on the other hand it was their policy, to try and simplify our fish and game laws and thus make them easier to understand by not only non-resident but by our resident sportsmen.

I think I can speak for the Legislative committee in expressing regret that during the closing hours of the Legislature it was impossible to go over again the whole law in detail and by a few further changes improve what otherwise I believe to be the best code of our fish and game laws ever enacted into law.

If Mothers Only Knew!

By Dr. True

Nineteen-twentieths of the sickness of children have two causes: constipation and worms!

The danger of constipation is understood, but there are 50 different kinds of worms that may exist in the stomach and bowels, and children are especially apt to have them. Usually stomach and pin worms.

Signs of worms are: Indigestion, with a variable appetite; abnormal craving for sweets; nausea and vomiting; swollen upper lip; sour tongue; offensive breath; hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel; face at one time flushed, then pale and in a few cases the face takes on a dull leaden hue; eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids; itching of the nose; itching of the rectum; short, dry cough; grinding of the teeth; little red points sticking out on tongue; starting during sleep; slow fever; pulse quickened and irregular; body may be hot; and often, in children, convulsions.

Rid the child of worms and you will have a healthy, happy child.

NOTE—Dr. True's own prescription, sold under the name of Dr. True's Elixir, is the best remedy in the world for worms. It destroys all worm life, expels worms from the body and makes the child healthy again. All dealers, 35c, 50c and $1.00.

A Thing Of Beauty Is A Joy Forever

The only way to make your teeth a source of such enjoyment is to have them carefully attended to at regular periods, for the little hole once started grows big with frightful rapidity and almost before you are aware of it your teeth are ruined, only to be replaced with artificial ones at a much greater cost than would have been required to save them in the first place.

It will cost you nothing to have your teeth examined and find out just what needs to be done. DON'T wait until they begin to ache. Do it now and save money.

IN AND ABOUT PHILLIPS

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Noyes, who have been in Stratton for the past month have returned to their home in Phillips. Guy Sweetser of Farmington is visiting them for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Glidden Parker are receiving congratulations on the birth of an 8 pound son, Glidden McLellan Junior, Saturday, July 26. The flag was unfurled at the residence of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hersey, in honor of the young man's arrival. Both mother and son are doing finely.

Mrs. J. Watson Smith and daughter, Nathalie, who have been the guests of her brother, F. N. Beal and other relatives in Phillips for a few weeks past, went to Auburn Saturday, where she will visit her niece, Mrs. Charles Cunningham. She plans to return to Phillips again before going west.

Miss Miriam Brackett was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Everett Beede in Auburn over Sunday.

F. N. Beal was in Portland Monday on a business trip.

Hon. D. D. Stewart of St. Albans has generously remembered Monmouth Academy by sending Principal Arthur J. Chick a check of $6,000 for the use of the school. Mr. Stewart has made similar gifts to Maine schools and charitable organizations, in the past two years. This will interest many Franklin county people as Mr. Chick is a Franklin county boy and a graduate of the Farmington Normal school, class '94.

Miss Elise Vinal of New Bedford, Mass., is the guest of Miss Miriam Brackett for two weeks.

The Union Sunday school will be closed during the next four weeks, until the last Sunday in August.

Mrs. J. C. Tirrell is at her cottage at Harver pond this week and has as a guest, Mrs. F. H. Worthley. Miss Doris Haley has charge of her store.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sparks of Rumford are at Vinalhaven for a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. E. N. Carver is in a hospital at Forest Hills, Mass., recovering from a surgical operation. It will be remembered that Mr. Carver was employed in the Phillips Phonograph by O. M. Moore for some time.

Mrs. J. E. Hartlepen of Hartford, Conn., has been the guest of Mrs. Diana Aldrich and Miss Eugenia Aldrich for a week past.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Field, J. Blaine Morrison and Miss Gladys Bates were at Kennebago over Sunday going to Haines Landing by automobile. They saw several deer, had all the fish they wanted and report a fine time generally.

Hartley Kenniston of Pittsburg, Pa., made a short visit last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kenniston, and sister, Miss Blanche Kenniston.

Mrs. Cony Hoyt and little daughter, Maxine, visited her sister, Mrs. Guy Everett in Skowhegan a few days recently.

The West Phillips reunion will be held at the Reed schoolhouse Wednesday, Aug. 13. There will be a basket picnic this year, each person bringing their own food with the exception of beans and coffee which will be furnished by the association.

Mrs. Lida Rogers, who has been visiting her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kempton the past week, returned to her home in Gardiner.

Mrs. Mitchell is quite sick with the measles.

Mrs. Eva Beedy arrived in town Wednesday and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Curtis Lawrence.

Perl Kempton from Farmington is this week the guest of Mildred Kempton.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Field, Mrs. Mary Field, Mrs. J. W. Brackett and Miss Elise Vinal combined pleasure with business and made a trip to Farmington by automobile Tuesday.

Hon. and Mrs. H. B. Austin were at their cottage at Weld from Saturday until Tuesday. They will go to camp in a few days to remain through August.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Carrie Brackley has had several very ill turns recently.

Miss Margaret Everett, sister of J. Z. Everett, who has been very poorly for some time is greatly improved in health.

Harrison Harnden of Belgrade lakes, accompanied by a friend, was in town for a day last week, coming by automobile and did some repairing on his residence.

W. B. Hoyt is improving somewhat from his illness and is able to walk down street.

R. H. Preble is having a piazza added on the west side of his residence.

E. W. Marshall of Rangeley, manager of the N. E. Telephone company was in town last week doing some work on the lines.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lander and children of West Newton, Mass., who are spending the summer at Weld were dinner guests of Hon. and Mrs. H. B. Austin last Friday as were also Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Field. Saturday evening the Landers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Field at dinner at their cottage at Weld.

Mrs. Knapp and son, Everett and Miss Algla Pratt went to the latter's cottage at Long pond last week where they planned to remain for a week or more. Mr. Pratt will also go for a few days.

Mrs. H. H. Field entertained the Christmas Present club Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Mary Field and Mrs. N. U. Hinkley were guests of the club. The members have decided to discontinue the meetings through August as some of the members will be out of town and they will hold the meetings every week through some month to make up the right number for the year.

Mrs. E. L. Matthews entertained the Main Street Sewing circle Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served. The circle will meet with Mrs. D. T. Harnden Friday afternoon, Aug. 8.

Mrs. Ed McCleary of South Strong is caring for Mrs. Chas. Berry who remains about the same.

GUARANTEED ECZEMA REMEDY.
The constant itching, burning, redness, rash and disagreeable effects of eczema, tetter, salt rheum, itch, piles and irritating skin eruptions can be readily cured and the skin made clear and smooth with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. Mr. J. C. Eveland, of Bath, Ill., says: "I had eczema twenty-five years and tried everything. All failed. When I found Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment I found a cure." This ointment is the formula of a physician and has been in use for years—not an experiment. That is why we can guarantee it. All druggists, or by mail. Price 50c. Pfeiffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. R. H. Preble, Phillips; L. L. Mitchell, Kingfield; Chas. E. Dyer, Strong; Riddle's Pharmacy, Rangeley.
