REMINGTON UMC

METALLIC CARTRIDGES

Made by the Foremost Ammunition Concern in America

THE biggest name in the ammunition and firearms world today is Remington-UMC. Whether your arm is a Remington or any other standard make, whatever its calibre and the load you need, you want Remington-UMC metallics—not because they are necessarily stamped with the same name as your firearm, but because they give more accurate results.

This Company has been making ammunition for fifty years. We produce metallics for every standard make of arm—and every Remington-UMC cartridge is tested in the arm for which it is made.

There is a dealer in this community who can give you Remington-UMC Metallics for your rifle, your pistol. Find him. Ask him for them. Look for the Red Ball Mark on every box of metallics and shot shells you buy.

THIS YEAR TO BE BETTER THAN EVER

Much Interest Manifested in Coming Show and Fair—Officials Working Hard.

We are pleased to note that as the time for our annual fair draws near much interest is manifest by the officials of North Franklin Agricultural society.

It has been well known for several years that there seemed to be an incentive somewhat noticeable centering on out of town fairs and a very perceptible falling off in interest at home, but by the untiring efforts of the officers last year and a very much improved program the society not only made good but gained a marked degree of prestige in the whole affair, which they now have in store to assist in making a grand success in our coming show this fall.

The trustees are devising and advising on new features for this season and there is no doubt that if Sept. 23-25 is good weather every participant will be satisfied in the success, which we are sure we shall reach this year.

We will keep the public in touch through these columns with new features as we obtain them from the Trustees so no one in this vicinity need say they were ignorant of what was coming.

PHILLIPS AND MADRID PLAY BALL

A picked team from Phillips played the Madrid town team a game of baseball last Saturday at Toothaker park and the result was a victory for the latter by the score of 11 to 7. In the first five innings the game was very exciting, the score being 3 to 1 in favor of Phillips. After this Madrid took the lead and kept it all through the game. Errors were plenty on both sides and no sensational plays were made.

The Phillips team played Madrid at West Phillips, Aug. 13 and the result was a tie, 4 to 4. Another game will probably be played soon at Phillips and the local team will be made up of different material than it had last Saturday. Some fun and excitement is looked for at the next game between these two teams.

"BOX SHOPPERS" FIND THEIR EQUAL

Kid Pitcher Outclasses Opponent—Rooters Present to Help the Game Along.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Eustis, Aug. 18—The story of the long promised game from Stratton was told Saturday afternoon, Aug. 16 when the mighty farmers of Eustis defeated the noble nine of "Box Shoppers" 6 to 7 at Eustis park.

The game was a clean, well played one up to the sixth inning when the riot began in earnest over the disastrous decisions made by the popular umpire, Fred Jennings. It is a pretty hard task to beat ten men, although such a thing can be done and such was the result of this victory.

The contrast in pitchers was marked by a large margin, although perhaps it was due partially to the misfortune of the broken finger which Frederick received in early part of the game.

A large bunch of enthusiastic rooters were present which showed to the teams that they take somewhat of an interest in the way they play the game.

It was a fairly well played exhibition with several classy and snappy features. Dana Fotter, the kid pitcher, as several called him, outclassed his opponent in the box, striking out nine men to his four. Pretty good, Dana.

Several times with one man out and chuck bases Eustis succeeded in shutting them out without allowing a run. The heavy willow lacing was a feature as it was like taking candy from the kid to hit the opponent pitcher. Little "Henry Tanguay" and several other pinch hitters drove numerous slippery ones to a land, which was far beyond the limits of the field. There were practically no injuries that were serious, although the riot started in fierce. We hope to meet the good boys for another duel soon, as we stand even games 2 and 2.

Borrowed a

Marlin TRAP GUN

made a perfect score—50 straight and won the Amateur Championship of Canada.

Mr. T. W. Barnes was "among those present" at Canada's biggest shooting event at Hamilton last week. His double gun broke—so he borrowed a Model 28 Marlin hammerless trap gun and entered and won the Amateur Championship event, making the perfect score—50 straight—with a gun he had never before handled or fired.

Only a few weeks ago, Walter A. Welnoski won the big Eastern Preliminary Handicap at Wilmington, Del., with 94 x 100 (tie) and 20 straight in the shoot-off, in a field of 160 entries, shooting a Model 28 Marlin hammerless trap gun, brand new from the factory and never fired before entering the Preliminary Handicap. He was the last man in the last squad and had to break the last target to win.

Did you ever hear of anyone breaking in a brand new gun by winning an Interstate Handicap?—or winning a National Championship with a perfect score from a gun which he had never previously fired?

You should know these Marlin hammerless guns—the best "natural pointers"—the best-shooting guns ever made. You can improve your scores with a Marlin; write us today for free catalog explaining all Marlin repeating shotguns and rifles. Do it now!

The Barker, Mooselookmeguntic Lake, Aug. 16—The New Yorkers continue to come and every cabin and the hotel packed. Those who came weeks ago are as glad to be here, where even this the warmest day of the season, no one is uncomfortable, for there is a cool breeze blowing across the lake.

HUMOR IN THE STATE MUSEUM.

Curator James in speaking of his many humorous experiences, when he incidentally is trying to be pleasant and answer all questions to visitors, many of whom visit his museum—he calls it his, and he seems to have the right says the Kennebec Journal.

I remember one woman in particular, "says Mr. James," a well dressed lady, cultured, who was indifferently inspecting the gray horned owl. She turned to me and asked, "I don't see any horns and why is it called a horned owl? I went on to explain very carefully that the appearance of the ears, which resemble horns, gave it its name.

"Well," she said, "That may be, but anyway, it's a great, big beautiful animal."

Mr. James tells another story of a woman, who evidently had not seen many deer, other than those in captivity, and was immensely interested in the stuffed exhibits.

"Is it true," she asked, "that deer shed their horns every year."

"Sure," nonchalantly replied Mr. James, who was just then busy with a "fussy job."

"And, oh, Mr. James," she asked "Do they shed their skins too?"

ABOUT MAINE EAGLES

Mrs. S. E. Bates Bartlett of West Paris, now 83 years old, tells in the Norway Advertiser of recent date, something about the eagles which used to be seen at Umbagog lake in her childhood days. She tells of two young ones caught and kept in a shed until they could be sold at fancy figures. She says they were black and as large as turkeys. At another time a trapper lost his paraphernalia and found no trace of it until the following spring, when he discovered it when the ice was breaking up, the trap having caught a big eagle. The bird evidently had flown with it attached to its legs for some distance until the encumbrance exhausted its strength and it fell with the trap and died.

the Lake.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Bald Mountain Camps, Mooselookmeguntic Lake, Aug. 16—With the camps all taken and everybody happy, the August days are going fast.

One of the guests said to-day "can we have a party of friends come if we will give up part of our camp?" And they are coming, for the old saying "there is always room for one more" is true in this instance.

To-night the sunset was glorious and many watched the "path of gold" across the lake change to one of crimson and a party of ladies who have been coming here for years when not in Europe said, "This dear, beautiful old spot by the lake shore, how we love it."

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hill of New York came to-day for their first visit and will spend some time in Sunset camp.

Mrs. A. H. Eldredge of Melrose, Mass., and three daughters, Misses Ruth, Esther and Emily, who came a week ago were to-day joined by Mr. Eldredge and the family who have been here for several seasons are having a delightful outing in Camp Ellis.

The beach in front of the camps is one of the best on the lake and everybody has taken to the water to-day, men, women and children and some swim far out into the lake.

Some of the little children are delighted to have for a pet a squirrel that is so tame he comes up on to their piazza and takes nuts from their hand.

Bert L. Voter, Mrs. A. E. P. Perham and Mrs. G. C. Parker of Farmington, who are on a trip through the lakes were here for dinner to-day.

A. S. Nash of New York, who for years has spent several weeks here annually, came this week.

TRAPPING RACCOONS AND MINKS.

By F. L. Butler.

Union City, Pa., July.

Hundreds of books and magazines are flooding the markets of to-day with literature pertaining to traps and trapping, but very few of these books, if any, come to the real point, save in a very roundabout way and to the nimrod such books are more or less confusing, because they are hard to understand unless one is well versed in literature.

These books are good in their way but to the young Nimrod just starting out to trap his first mink or coon, I would advise a close study of the nature and habits of the animal he intends to trap.

In trapping coons some advise the log set, but nine times out of ten the log set is a dismal failure. In my long years on the trap line I have found that the surest way to take the raccoon is in his own or a muskrat's runway or path leading from the bank to the water's edge. Here set your trap just under water and stake down solid. Use a long wire on the end of your chain, say a piece three feet long. This will allow the coon to reach deep water and drown. He won't always drown unless you use a weight of stone or iron on your trap. A stone will answer the purpose. This set needs no bait, but one may use coon or live frogs as bait, if desired, but I seldom ever use any bait for coons unless it is coon.

Minks may also be taken in these paths or runways if care is used in concealing the trap. If dry land set is made, dig out and set trap on level with the rest of the ground and cover with rabbit fur, or fine feathers; no bait is needed for the water set. Place trap under water at end of runway and hang a rabbit head over the trap, or roasted dried herring. This latter is the surest bait I have ever used.

Log sets for mink, that is, where one uses a hollow log as a natural runway, is very good except in times of high water, then your traps are liable to be washed away. Logs may be fastened to bank by the use of some heavy wire.

It is a good plan to throw out some bait a few days before setting your traps for minks or coons. This will get them used to traveling in the same direction and then set and bait your traps; the animals will almost always come where they have been used to finding food.

The place was transformed into a real wood scene, with the decorations of lanterns, trees and shrubs. Punch and ice cream cones were sold and the money derived from this feature of the evening, together with the amount cleared on Thursday evening makes over $70 which will be available for the purchase of new books for the library. The especial and unique feature was the cake walk participated in by several couples in costume, some of whom were Prof. A. W. Spanhoffd of Washington, D. C., and H. N. Drake of Albany, N. Y.; Webster Jones and Miss Jones of Newton, Mass.; H. C. Fales of New Rochelle, N. J., and Mrs. Chester Blunt of Weld and Albert Root of Jamaica Plain, Mass., and Miss Lucille Ladd of Portland. Prof. Spanhoffd and Mr. Drake carried off the prize cake. Music was furnished for the dancing by Prof. Spanhoffd's victrola and D. B. Swett who played the violin. About 100 were present who all agree that the informal affair was without doubt the one big event of the season.

This week will be the most eventful of the summer, when there will be lawn fetes, a ball game, picnics and a dance Saturday night at the Grange hall to fill out the week.

Dr. C. E. Proctor, who has been in Augusta for treatment for a few weeks, has returned home.

Thursday Weld and Dixfield played ball on Conant's field, Weld, winning by the score, of 8 to 7 in the very last of the ninth after two men were out. C. Schofield pitched the first part of the game for Weld and was followed by M. Conant. Richardson pitched for Dixfield until the eighth inning, when Coburn went in. Weld made 10 hits with a total of 14; Dixfield made 10 with a total of 14. Weld was given one dead ball, five bases on balls and made four strike outs, while Dixfield got only one base on balls, had one man hit and five of her men struck out. In the sixth A. Swett caught a fly and made a double to Buker. M. Horn of Dixfield and F. Phillips of Weld, umpired.

David Robertson, who has been ill for a week went to the hospital Monday morning for treatment.

Last week's arrivals at the Maples were: Dow Chamberlain and family, Kennebunk; E. I. Littlefield, West Kennebunk; Ernest Chamberlain and wife, Mrs. R. A. Hart, Fred Chamberlain and family, Harry O. Buzzell, Lebaun; Miss Anna Bahley, Derry, N. H.; J. H. Hart and wife, Miss Bernice Hart, Sanford; Mrs. Rachel Hart, Eas Lebaun; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lowell, Portland; Mrs. J. S. King, George F. King, Melrose, Mass., Geo. B. Carpenter, Phillips.

BROWN TAIL MOTHS

Until a man comes in contact with the business end of a brown tail moth he is inclined to laugh at the fears that many people seem to have of the pest. But the moth is by no means a joke. The brown hairs in the tail cause a skin affection, the seriousness of which seems to be governed somewhat by the physical condition or the susceptibility of the ones infected. Park Commissioner Iverson, of Bangor is authority for the statement that the fine fuzz which comes from the moths, will if inhaled cause a cough that may last a lifetime. The brown tails do most damage to the fruit trees, including pear and apple trees, wild cherry trees, maple and others. They have done great damage this year in eating the foliage. To prevent the farther spread of the gypsy moth and brown tail moth pests the United States department of agriculture has just declared an embargo on all plants sent from Maine and other New England states.

True Anglers Use The Williams Barbless Hook

Because it is guaranteed to catch and hold better than a barbed hook, yet you can remove the little fish without injury. Yearlings, spawn, and their killing wastes thousands of eggs, this means certain ruin to a glorious sport. The Williams Barbless hook is a scientific and a practical lure, no mechanism, just its ingenious shape. It stands for a SQUARE deal to the future of the sport: a SQUARE deal to the little fish and a SQUARE deal to yourself as a sportsman. Imported standard flies, $1.60 per dozen, bait hooks 25 cents.

THINK KNOWLES IS SAFE AND WELL

The Boston Post of Aug. 20 says:
Indirectly word has been received giving some assurance, at least, of the safety of Joseph Knowles, the Boston artist, and that he is still at his unique task of roaming the Maine wilderness, naked and alone, unarmed and without implement of any kind, to prove that man can exist indefinitely if need be, without those aids from civilization to which he has been accustomed.

A party of sportsmen and guides,
who are daily travelling the track, lakes and streams of the north and west of Knowles' vast range of 25 square miles reported when they returned to camp, that they heard a sound as though someone was breaking through the branches.

One of the party, exploring in the neighborhood of the sound, found a human foot print in the soft earth on the edge of a small stream.

Another party, occupying two camps near the narrows of Big Spencer lake, observed an object moving in the water. At first they thought it a muskrat or a wild animal, but a guide, whose vision has been made keen by long sojourn in the wilds, declared that it was a man's head that bobbed above the surface of the water.

These incidents have served to allay the fear that Knowles' friends had entertained that he was injured or ill.

Knowles has been having clear weather during the day but at night it is positively cold. As low as 40 degrees has been reached by the mercury.

Unless Knowles has secured some sort of bodily covering, he must be undergoing one of the hardest tests civilized man could be put to, the backwoodsmen at the camps say.

Berries and fish have been Knowles' food so far as he has been heard from. The fish he secured without net, line or hook, and he procured enough to last him for some time.

His deficiency during his first week was salt. Knowles, of course, knows of salt licks, but he said he would avoid them consistently, for if he appeased his natural desire for salt from these licks he would be resorting to aid from civilization, and it is part of his test to divorce himself from anything and everything which modern man has to use.

E. W. Burt of Lynn, author of "Camp Fires in the Wilderness" has written to the Post that he does not believe Artist Knowles can carry out his program and remain in the woods for two months under the conditions he has imposed on himself. Mr. Burt is the well-known shoe manufacturer in Lynn.

Harrowing Thought.

Germs are bad, of course; but they could be worse. Suppose they sang at the funeral.

SUB-MASTER OF WATERVILLE HIGH

In the election of Charles P. Steward, Jr., of Portland, to the submastership of the Waterville High school, means the coming to the faculty of the local school, a man well qualified both in ability and experience to act as teacher in the science, and to assist in the governing of the school. From a field of almost 20 candidates, Mr. Steward was picked because of his experience and excellent qualifications.

He was graduated from Bates college in 1906, and the following fall went to Deer Isle High to teach.
After a few years there he accepted a position on the faculty of the Haverhill, Mass., High school. Illinois then claimed his efforts for a few years. He taught the same subjects, the sciences, in the High schools at Hindsdale and Alton. He is a native of Phillips, and can thus bring to bear the educational methods of two New England states, as well as those practiced in the Middle West.—Kennebec Journal.

As well as other Phillips friends
Maine Woods is pleased to know of Mr. Steward's success in securing this desirable position.

THAW ARRESTED AT QUEBEC.

The newspapers are again filled with the doings of Harry K. Thaw, who recently escaped from the New York state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan and his arrest at Coaticook, Quebec. Thaw may be sent back to New York through one of two processes.

First—Through deportation proceedings begun under that section of the Dominion law which reads as follows:

"No immigrant shall be permitted to land in Canada who is feeble minded, an idiot or epileptic or who is insane or who has had an attack of insanity within five years.

Second—Through extradition proceedings, instituted by the state of New York and conducted by the proper federal authorities of the United States on a warrant for Thaw's arrest charging him with bribery.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT NORTH ANSON.

The entire business section of North Anson was destroyed by fire Tuesday. Eight dwellings were also burned. The aggregate loss is estimated from $125,000 to $150,000. business section consisted of about 25 buildings, mostly frame structures.

The fire started at 3.20 a. m., from an exploded lamp in the kitchen of Hotel Somerset. There were few guests and all got out without accident. Help was sent from Waterville and Madison but only just before it was under control.

Talking Shop.

Enthusiastic interest in one's occupation is always an advantage, but, on the other hand, it is not well for a woman in business to talk of her work at all times and places. Naturally, the thing that we do constantly is our most absorbing interest, but we must remember that other people have other things to talk about.

YOUNG MAN WOULD—

Schools to Commence Early in September—Many Improvements Noted.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Rangeley, Aug. 19—Max Weybrant is spending a few weeks at Wm. Tomlinson's.

Misses Stella and Rachel Huntoon have gone to Indian Rock where they have employment for the rest of the season.

Miss Mial Lamb made a short visit to Wilton last week returning Saturday night.

Mrs. Annie Field and Mrs. Orrin Walker of Phillips were recent guests at Ed Lamb's.

Dr. F. B. Colby received a professional call at Kennebago Saturday. He made the trip to Oquossoc in his machine, leaving it at Oquossoc while continuing his trip by rail. A young man wishing to take a little ride started the machine but quickly found that he was not competent to act as chauffeur and proved the fact to his satisfaction by running into the ditch and against a big ragged boulder. The young man escaped without injury and after a few minor repairs the machine was ready for use again. Needless to say the young chap will be careful about borrowing automobiles without the owner's consent.

Miss Emily Greenwood and Miss Lizzie Greenwood of Farmington are visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Ed Greenwood's for a short time.

Mrs. Winfield Archer, Miss Maud Archer and Master Norman, who have been spending the past three months at C. L. Stansbury's returned to their home in Worcester the latter part of the week.

WILL ISSUE 500

Taking effect Sept. 1, 1913, the Maine Central railroad will issue a 500 mile mileage book, good in the state of Maine, at a rate of 2 1/4 cents a mile or $11.25 a book. The announcement of the placing on sale of the books comes in a letter to Gov. Haines from Geo. S. Hobbs, general manager of the Maine Central railroad, in reply to a letter from the Governor, dated Aug. 15, in which he explains why the act providing for a 500 mile book did not receive passage at the last legislature and asking, now that the referendum has been ordered on the public utilities bill to provide the public with the books.

In his reply to Gov. Haines, Mr. Hobbs grants the request and tells why the road is compelled to charge 2 1/4 cents a mile for the books, basing his claims on the grounds that the passenger train service is not at the present time self-supporting and that the road could not afford the present rate of mileage ticket books. He declares the amount of passenger traffic light compared with the other roads issuing the 500-mile books. The placing on sale of the books will fill a long-felt and needed want in the state, especially among the traveling public.

Could Hardly Care for Children — Finds Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bovina Center, N. Y. — "For six years I have not had as good health as I have now. I was very young when my first baby was born and my health was very bad after that. I was not regular and I had pains in my back and was so poorly that I could hardly take care of my two children. I doctored with several doctors but got no better. They told me there was no help without an operation. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me wonderfully. I do most of my own work now and take care of my children. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."

Mrs. WILLARD A. GRAHAM, Care of ELSWORTH TUTTLE, Bovina Center, N. Y.

ROW OVER PASTOR'S VOTE

Popularity Contest Brings Charge of Padded Returns at Woodbury, N. J.

Woodbury, N. J.—Among the congregation of the three colored churches in this city there has been for some time a good deal of controversy as to which had the most popular pastor.

Finally it was decided to put the matter to a test vote, each voter contributing five cents for the work of the three churches. The contest closed the other night, and as the exciting count concluded trouble was precipitated which may go somewhat further.

According to the count Rev. Mr. Groves had 1,140 votes; Rev. Mr. Harris, 640, and Rev. Mr. Hersey, 237. Pastor Harris at once accused Pastor Groves, the high man, of padding the returns by buying $25 worth of votes with his own money at the last minute. Pastor Groves sniffed and said he had the votes all the time and withheld them to the last merely to see how far his opponents would go. Pastor Harris now claims that he has 1,400 votes, and a recount may be asked.

HORSES AND HORSEMEN

By S. W. Parlin.

Kavack, that won the 2.16 class pace at Lewiston, July 29, losing the first heat to Emma Hal in 2.16½, but taking the next three in 2.13½-2.14½-2.17½, is a ten-year-old gray stallion bred at Allen Farm, Pittsfield, Mass., and got by Kavali p. 2.07½, a son of Kremlin 2.07½. The latter was by Lord Russell 4677, a son of Harold 413 and the famous brood mare Miss Russell, dam of Maud S. 2.08½. Nutwood 2.18½ etc. by Pilot Jr. 1, Kavak's 2.13½ dam was by Conway p. 2.18½, whose sire was the game trotter Wedgewood 2.19 and whose dam was by Alexander Abdallah 15, his second dam being by Vandal, a thoroughbred son of imported Glencoe. The second dam of Kavak p. 2.13½, was also by Alexander's Abdallah 15, the son of Hambletonian 10 that got the noted old time trotting champion Goldsmith Maid 2.14.

Todd's Echo, that won first money in the class for three-year-old trotters at Lewiston, in straight heats; time 2.21½-2.21½, is a bay stallion, bred by J. M. Johnson, late proprietor of Johnson Farm, Ponkapog, Mass., and got by Echo Todd 2.26½, a son of Todd 2.14½, by Bingen 2.06½. The dam of Echo Todd 2.26½, was Amiss, (dam of Phalla p. 2.04½, and 4 other standard performers,) by Mimic 4253, a son of Messenger Chief 1826; second dam by Barney Wilkes 7433, a son of George Wilkes 2.22, and third dam by Lee Paul, a thoroughbred son of the old four-mile running-record-breaker, Lexington, a son of the renowned Boston.

The dam of Barney Wilkes 7433, sire of the second dam of Echo Todd 2.26½, was by Roscoe 273, a son of the noted brood-mare sire Pilot Jr. 12. His second dam was Vienna, a thoroughbred daughter of Vandal, by imported Glencoe, and third dam by Cracker, whose sire was the renowned Boston and whose dam was by Lance, a thoroughbred son of the famous four-mile race winner American Eclipse the greatest four-mile race horse that had been bred in the north up to his day.

The dam of Todd's Echo (3) 2.21½ is Virginia Todd, by Todd 2.14½; second dam Decora, dam of Dichato 2.15½, by Director 2.17, a son of Dictator 113, by Hambletonian 10; third dam Echora 2.23½, (dam of Direct p. 2.05½,) by Echo 462, a son of Hambletonian 10, and fourth dam the Young Mare by Jack Hawkins, a thoroughbred son of Boston, the most successful long distance race horse in America in his day.

The pedigree of Todd's Echo (3) 2.21½, is an ideal one both for a trotter and a successful sire of race winners. If memory serves me correctly this colt is owned by T. H. Phair Esq. of Presque Isle, Me. I sincerely hope that Todd's Echo (3) 2.21½, and his more than half brother Dichato 2.15½, may both be kept for stock purposes in this state, and that, a few years hence, some of the best bred daughters of Dichato 2.15½, may be mated with Todd's Echo (3) 2.21½, thus doubling the blood of Todd 2.14½ and Decora. Dr. Kilborn that won second money in the above three-year-old race is by Cochato (3) 2.11½, a son of Todd 2.14½.

Peter Billiken, that won the 2.17 trot purse $5000 at Lewiston, was bred in Kentucky and got by Peter the Great 2.07½, a son of Pilot Medium 1597, by Happy Medium 400, a son of Hambletonian 10. The dam of Pilot Medium 1597, was Tackey 2.26, by the noted brood mare sire Pilot Jr. 12, a son of the celebrated Canadian pacer Pilot. Peter Billiken's dam was Baron Lass, by Baron Wilkes 2.18, a son of George Wilkes 2.22; second dam Annie Sharp, by Nutwood 2.18½ and third dam by Dorsey's Goldust 150, a son of Vermont Morgan.

Foxy Jane, winner of the 2.20 pace at Lewiston, purse $4000 that took third, fifth and sixth heats in 2.18½-2.18½-2.21 is a chestnut mare, age and breeder not given, got by Bovar 29544, a son of Beauvoir 9218, by Mambrino Russell 2008. The latter was by Woodford Mambrino 2.21½, a son of Mambrino Chief 11, and his dam was the famous brood mare Miss Russell, (dam of Maud S. 2.08½, Nutwood 2.18½ etc.) by Pilot Jr. 12; second dam Sally Russell, a thoroughbred daughter of Boston. The dam of Foxy Jane p. 2.18½, was Crazy Jane, that also produced Myra Wilkes p. 2.19, but her breeding is untraced.

Baron Alcyone, that took first money in the 2.24 pace, in straight heats; time 2.14½-2.13½-2.14½, is an 11 year-old brown gelding that made a trotting record of 2.15½, four years ago, and lowered it to 2.11½ in a trotting race that he won at Fort Erie, Ontario, in 1911. This is the first season that he has been raced at the pacing gait. His sire is Baron H. 2.19 (a full brother of Baron Rogers 2.09½) by Baron Wilkes 2.18, a son of George Wilkes 2.22, and his dam was by Alcyone 2.27, another son of George Wilkes 2.22. His second dam was by Jefferson Prince 6212, a horse considerably inbred to both Messenger and Diomed blood.

Harry Goodwin of Phillips upper village is the owner of a remarkably straight, clean-cut, blood-like, active and well-bred filly dropped Aug. 7. Her sire is Brayer 53645, owned by W. T. Hinds and Son, and sired by Bingara 34707, a son of Bingen 2.06½. The dam of this promising young Miss, as stated by Mr. Goodwin was by Allen, (sire of Maud Nelson p. 2.19½ etc.) by Nelson 2.09, and her second dam was by Black Nathan 2.17½, a son of Robinson D. 2.17½, he by Daniel Boone 2.31½, a son of Hambletonian 10. This filly should make a valuable brood mare.

The writer saw two very promising sucking colts a few days since, at the farm of W. T. Hinds and Son. One was by Bingara 34707, a son of Bingen 2.06½, and from Adaze (dam of Kallum (3) 2.25½,) by Adolt (1) 2.23; second dam Suffrage, (dam of two standard record trotters) by Electioneer 125; second dam the renowned Miss Russell (dam of Maud

S. 2.08½, Nutwood 2.18½ etc.) by Pilot Jr. 12 and third dam the thoroughbred Sally Russell, one of the best bred daughters of the famous race horse Boston. The other colt was by Brayer 53645, a son of Bingara 34707, and his dam is by Nelson 2.09. One will go a long distance to find a handsomer or more nearly perfect colt in conformation than this young son of Brayer 53645.

NEWS NOTES FROM MINGO

The Sargent Family Make Sweet Music.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Mingo Hill, Aug. 18—Since my last letter written about a month ago, there has not been much doing on our ball field as the boys were mostly busy in the hay fields but now that the hay has been harvested the ball games are once more in evidence.

Aug. 9, what promised to be a very enjoyable game, was nipped in the bud by a heavy shower, which set in as the last half of the second inning was opening. The team were the West Rangeleys and Rangeley Lake House and the score was even, each having made one run in the first.

Aug. 14 the same teams played and the local team won cleverly from the Lake House boys with a score of 5 to 1. Dill pitched for the West Rangeleys and was very effective, the opposing team getting no runs until the ninth when a single run was made after two men were out.

Aug. 16 the local's regular first baseman, Herbert Welch, brought one of his phenomenal aggregations from Haines Landing and showed his West Rangeley associates that he was able to organize a winning team as well as play first base in fine form as his men took their opponents into camp very easily with a score of 13 to 7 in eight innings, the ninth being cut to allow the boys to take the steamer for home at about 5 o'clock.

Eddy pitched a winning game for the Mooselookmeguntics, while Dill, the West Rangeley's regular pitcher, retired in favor of Nile, after the first his usually invincible arm having weakened. Nile started off nicely but his delivery was quickly solved and was hit freely in the 4th and 8th.

The West Rangeleys lacked of their regular men three of their best players, besides their first baseman and had to ring in some of the younger generation who did well considering their youth and inexperience.

Welch on the other hand had good material to spare and when his catcher had to retire with a split hand from a foul tip he filled his station and also put an extra man in his own position at first just to give the boys a chance.

Last Thursday we celebrated our wedding at this camp, three years ago, by keeping open house afternoon and evening following the ball game and the young people made things lively until nearly midnight. We were extremely fortunate in having for neighbors this summer the talented Sargent family which have furnished the music for the dances at Oquossoc.

They generously brought their violin and cornet and music and with Miss Rebecca at our piano we had music galore. "Hal" lead with his violin of which he is a master while Neil tooted the cornet in a professional manner. Miss Sargent's guest, Miss Brown, who arrived from Boston on the evening train, favored with some excellent piano solos as did also Mr. Lambert from the Carl Faelton Piano school, Boston.

These young people while still students are finished players with unusually fine technique and their playing was greatly enjoyed. After the indoor music the piazza was resorted to and by the rays of the full moon which lighted up the woods and lake brilliantly, an impromptu vaudeville show was given by the "Spotted Mountain Quartet"

FEDERAL MIGRATORY BIRD LAW

Rules and Regulations Governing the Protection of Migratory Birds.

A digest of the rules and regulations governing the protection of migratory birds, promulgated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture June 23, 1913, under authority of the Weeks-McLean Law and compiled by E. A. Quarles, second vice president of the American G. P. and P. A. appears in the Forest and Stream of August 9, 1913, in the first installment, and from which we copy a portion.

Information can also be obtained by writing the Bureau of Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

The new federal regulations relating to the protection of migratory birds will take effect on or after October 1, 1913, whenever approved by the President.

This law is revolutionary in its character, superseding at one stroke all legislation on the statute books of the several states that is in conflict therewith and substituting two zones with respect to which open seasons are prescribed for fifty that have existed in effect under the former system of state protection.

In view of the facts stated above, it is felt that a complete digest of the regulations that have been announced is imperative.

In using the digest it is important to bear in mind the following points:

1. The rules and regulations are not effective till October 1, 1913, and may be altered between now and then.

2. Under the new rules two zones are established, a northern breeding zone, known as Zone No. 1, and a southern or wintering zone, known as Zone No. 2.

3. States included in Zone No. 1 are: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

4. States included in Zone No. 2 are: Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Nevada and Utah.

5. For the purpose of fixing open seasons in Zones 1 and 2, migratory game birds have been classified as follows, the open season for each class being given herewith:

Zone No. 1: 1. Waterfowl, Sept. 1 to Dec. 15. 2. Rails, Sept. 1 to Nov. 30. 3. Woodcock, Oct. 1 to Nov. 30. 4. Shore birds, Sept. 1 to Dec. 15. Zone No. 2: 1. Waterfowl, Oct. 1 to Jan. 15. 2. Rails, Sept. 1 to Nov. 30. 3. Woodcock, Nov. 1 to Dec. 31. 4. Shore birds, Sept. 1 to Dec. 15.

made up of Messrs. Sargent, our nephew, Arthur Austin, and his chum, Herbert Cutbill, both from Yonkers, N. Y.

These young men had just returned from a camping trip to Spotted Mountain and judging from the songs and dances they brought out with them they had a royal good time. Mr. Sargent, senior, woke the sleeping echoes with a cornet solo from our piazza which a lady at the Springs returning late from an auto trip declared was enchanting. A parting glee sung by the quartet from the lawn closed the festivities.

Mr. Hays with his partner, Mr. Hirschfeld, as a guest, has been keeping bachelor's hall at his bungalow on Mingo shore for the past week. This is Mr. Hays' third trip to Rangeley this season and although a very busy man he finds it is good economy to stand away from the cares of business for

The "Dam Nine" Make Many Brilliant Plays--Have a Lunch on Observatory Mountain.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Upper Dam, Aug. 16--As usual the middle of August finds the hotel and camps full, extra table in the dining room and those who expect guests are arranging to add another cot to their sitting room and sometimes folks do sleep on the piazza and many more would do so if only once they got the habit of sleeping out of doors.

It seems a little odd to see so few boats in the pool, for the fish are there if the fishermen are not. The charm of the pool seems to have been broken, or why are the rods hanging on the hooks outside the camps? Why are the anglers chasing the tennis balls over the court for hours calling "love one, love fifteen?"

Talk about fish stories, here is a fact easy to prove. Nearly a week ago while casting the fly in the pool E. I. Atlee of Philadelphia lost a nine foot leader with a silver doctor fly and this morning S. H. Palmer of Milford, Penn., caught a 2½ pound salmon with a morning glory fly and when he got him into the net found he not only had a salmon but the very leader and fly that Mr. Atlee parted with several days ago.

E. F. Van Dusen caught a 3 pound salmon, El I. Atlee a 3 pound, 7 ounce trout and E. M. Nichols a 3 pound salmon, is all the record fish taken on the fly from the pool the last few days.

The baseball fever that has been in the Rangeley region for several weeks, has been caught by the guests here. On Friday afternoon the "Dam Nine" played a wonderfully exciting game and a perfect scream from the guests from the first inning until the last. The star was a brilliant one and all the boys take their hat off to her, for Mrs. D. English Dallam, Jr., of Philadelphia played a whirlwind game from start to finish and when not sliding a base was making a quick run. E. F. Van Dusen's ball spot made a target for the pitchers, while Geo. F. Brown of Philadelphia swatted the sphere into the pool. The Palmer brothers exhibited great strength in athletic training, "Steve" proving himself equal to "home run Baker," making a home run every time. John B. Welch of Boston Tech. proved himself a veritable "Ty Cobb" in center field. D. English Dallam, Jr., made many double plays batting with both hands and the others of the nine who distinguished themselves were Jim Dougherty and Harold White.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dougherty of Syracuse, N. Y., who were here for several weeks the first of the season have returned.

E. M. Nichols of Columbus, Ohio, after a fishing trip to Newfoundland has joined his family in Camp Fishordie for the remainder of the season.

In honor of her guest, Miss Fredricka D. Allen of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Nichols on Friday gave a lunch party at the top of Observatory Mountain. The guides took all the good things up the mountain in their packs and the occasion was a merry one for the climbers.

On Friday evening Mrs. Geo. F. Brown chartered the steamboat Dorothy B. and gave a moonlight sail on Mooselookmeguntic lake in honor of her friend, Mrs. F. D. Barksdale, who this morning started for her home in Richmond, Va.

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Gummey of Germantown, Penn., arrived this week for another season at Upper Dam and were accompanied by their friends, Mrs. C. F. Wreaks, Francis and Miss Dorothy Wreaks of Elizabeth, N. J. As it was impossible for them to live at camp the party are all in the West camp.

Mrs. F. R. Baker and daughter, Florence with Geo. Robinson guide, spent several days at Kennebagos this week.

Since the trip by rail can be taken so quickly many are going there for a few days' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Marble of Lowell, Mass., are here for their second trip this summer.

Master Edward Nichols only seven years old is very proud of a new four ounce fly rod that his father bought him and he bids fair to cast the fly as well as his father, who is one of the experts that send the fly dancing over the pool.

Mill Brook Lodge built by the late Hon. E. V. R. Thayer of Lancaster, Mass., which has been closed for several years was opened last week by his daughter, Mrs. Henry Bigelow, who with her husband, family and maids will spend several weeks there. Clayton Sweatt of Andover is still superintendent of the place; Hollis Ellingwood and Irvin Akers are guiding them.

Myhisana Lodge again has the flag flying as Mr. and Mrs. M. Goldsmith and party of New York are there.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Suter, Jr. of Winchester, Mass., have been for a week at the Boston camp on Mollychunkamunk lake.

As the thermometer says "86 in the shade" this promises to be the hottest day of the summer.

GOES ON SIXTH TRIP TO PACIFIC COAST.

On the 27th of this month W. L. Marble, advertising manager of the Marble Arms and Mfg. company will leave for his sixth trip to the Pacific coast and will spend six weeks visiting jobbers and dealers via St. Louis, Denver, El Paso, Douglas and Grand Canyon to Los Angeles.

His wife and daughter will accompany him and they will spend the winter in southern California.

C. E. Hawkins, the assistant advertising manager, will be advertising manager during his absence.

A "POP CORN" PARTY ENJOYED

A Sacred Concert Sunday Evening Assisted by the Orchestra Much Enjoyed.

Mooselookmeguntic Lake, Haines Landing, Aug. 16--Many city people who are out in the early morning are surprised at the beauty of lake and forest, when the dew glistens like diamonds on the grass and the birds are after their breakfast of worms and bugs. It is then a paddle in the canoe over the lake that is smooth as glass, or a walk over the carry has charms one does not know exist.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rogers of Albany, N. Y., who have been camping in their automobile in the woods near here left this week for their homeward trip going down the Kennebec to the sea.

Fredrick Hoe of New York, who since the first of June, with his son and daughter have been most happily located in one of the cabins in the circle, declares that he has never found such an ideal place for a summer outing and that every day brings health as well as happiness. This week with Frank Fall guide, they have been on a camping trip to Four ponds.

Mrs. G. Kluyskens of New York, who with her children and nurse has this season been occupying one of the cabins in the woods, was on Saturday joined by her husband and friend, Mr. Noekle, who spent part of the week here.

F. B. Gott of Cleveland, Ohio, Dr. Arthur F. Hills of New York and Joseph Hills of Boston registered here this week for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Laied of East Orange, N. J., who for several years spent their summers at the Rangeleys and are touring in their auto this season reached here last Saturday and spent part of the week visiting different places.

"Crows Nest" the attractive camp on the rocks is taken by guests of this hotel, Miss Margaret K. Goodwin and Martha M. Potter of Pawtucket, R. I., who will spend the month there.

Coming by automobile from New York, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Strickler, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Lipman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Phelps were here the first of the week for a short stay.

Tom Canadian, the guide, is taking D. S. Wilson of New York for trips all over this region and they are having a fine outing.

Everyone had a welcome for the Shaker Sisters on Thursday and they had a big sale of their pretty hand made articles.

Wm. H. Hendrickson of Ridgewood, N. J., this week joined his family who came the first of the season. Mrs. Hendrickson's sister, Miss R. L. Snyder came with him. The party plan to remain until the September days.

Messrs. J. L. Morton of Boston and H. H. Ward of New York spent part of the week here while touring the Rangeleys.

Hiram E. Foster of New York registered Friday for a short stay.

On Monday evening a party of the young folks went over to Oquossoc and enjoyed a Box Ball Bowling match.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mitchell of Jacksonville, Fla., coming in their touring car reached here Friday and have taken a camp.

One cool evening this week when a good fire was crackling on the hearth some one announced "a pop corn party" and the young folks soon twenty gathered in the office and it was a merry jolly crowd that popped corn, toasted marshmallows told stories until a late hour.

On Sunday evening a most demmmmmightful sacred concert was given in the parlor. The orchestra leading. Misses Ryan and Cullinane sung a duet, Miss Richardson and H. L. Welch each a solo and all joined in "the good old songs we used to sing."

On Friday Rev. Fr. T. J. Mc and told stories until a late hour. Lightful sacred concert was given in the parlor. The orchestra were guests of friends for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. M. Crane of New York are greatly pleased with this their first visit to the Rangeleys.

There is now a delightful company of guests being entertained at this hotel and many of them remain for part of September days.

EIGHTY BLACK BEARS KILLED IN VERMONT.

In the same time, 81 bay lynx were killed, as against 120 for the previous year. Bounty was paid on 27,000 hedgehogs killed during the twelve months up to July 1.

for the coming month.

James W. Platten and son J. Homer, of New York returned for their annual outing on Monday. Their old guide, Bob Martin met them and from now on will keep them traveling over the trails through the forest, and fishing on the lakes. This week they have gone to Kennebagos.

Springfield camp is taken by newcomers Mrs. J. E. White, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Holt and daughters, Phyllis and Ida E. Holt of Summit, N. J. }

For days here on the island great interest has been taken for "sweet charity's sake" in a great and noble work, helping on the good work that depends on the generous hearts of the people, The Boston Nursery for Blind Babies, and Mrs. Henry C. Kennedy of New York who is always doing for others thought the guests would like to join and it was decided to give a subscription bridge. The large casino is beautifully decorated and this evening the event which promises to be the leading social one of the summer will occur and next week we will give a full account telling of the many who have sent beautiful gifts for prizes and that will be sold at auction and we trust add a good sum to the treasury of the Nursery.

MOOSE LANDS IN BARN

One morning recently a moose walked out in an open field on a farm in Dyer Brook and was soon discovered by three men, Frank and Norman Ellis, and Louis Ahrens, the latter from New York city, who was spending a few days in Dyer Brook with relatives and friends. These three gave chase after the monster, which ran directly into an old barn on the farm. Drawing nigh, the three closed the big doors and the moose was a captive, although trying hard to batter down the strong walls of the barn. A rope was secured and creeping softly into the enclosure where the moose stood at bay, a lasso was thrown over his head and then the fun began. The fellow who held the rope quickly, shinned a beam while the other two took upon the scaffold with another rope and began to wind it around the moose, who was trying his utmost to escape. After a time he was secured. Mr. Ahrens, although great at hunting, but filled with the right kind of "sand," approached the moose, when the animal made a plunge at him and he took up the nearest post to escape with his life. This feat was not on the program and was not repeated. The moose was led out of the barn and his photo taken. After the townspeople had all seen him, the monster was turned loose and lost no time in hiking for the woods. This is the first case on record of a moose entering a barn when routed from a feeding ground. As a rule they will make for the woods, but somehow this moose got bewildered and landed in the barn.--Mars Hill Review.

He might well say with "Ike Marvel"

"From all the tramp and bustle of the world, I delight to steal away for days and for weeks together, and bathe my spirit in the freedom of the old woods and to grow young again, lying upon the brook side and counting the white clouds that sail along the sky safely and tranquilly—even as holy memories go stealing over the vault of life."

CHAT ABOUT THE MAINE PEOPLE

Interesting News About Arkansas City--July Dryest for 30 Years.

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

Arkansas City, Kan.

July 31, 1913.

What would the Pilgrims think could they look from our window Sunday afternoon and see the barges and racks rushing past carrying people to the ball game at Walnut Park. Sunday evening the churches hold a union service at Paris Park. This is a particularly pretty park in the center of the city; boats to carry one on the water and trees, shrubs and flowers adorn the grounds. The evenings are delightful no dew perceptible until after twelve o'clock, but it must fall sometime for the early morning finds the grass wet with it.

Friday the thermometer marked 110 degrees in the shade, still Arkansas City does not often lose her south wind and we have to be thankful for good water. The city water has been improved and is much better than three years ago, then there is good cistern water, rain water filtered through the earth and ice, manufactured ice, pure and cut in blocks; a nickel will give you as much as a dime's worth in New England. It is so dry here that there is a shortage of water in some of the small towns. We are reminded of what we heard a Maine pastor say after a year in California. "Oh that everlasting sunshine, I got so tired of it." It has not been so dry here since 20 years ago when the strip was opened.

Last Wednesday was a great day the meeting of the A. H. T. A. (the American Horse Thief Asso.) They are down on any one who steals a horse in this part of the country. The excitement began at 7.20 a. m. when the governor of Kansas arrived. He was escorted to the 5th Avenue hotel for breakfast. At 10.30 was the grand parade and 11 the speeches at Walnut park with a "squatters" picnic at 12, speeches and ball game in the afternoon, catching and hanging of the horse thief at five, and addresses at Wilson park after open air band concert on Summit St in the evening. The parade reminded us of some we had read about in magazine articles on California, it seemed never ending. One auto was completely covered by lavender and white flowers, wheels and all, four ladies occupied this all in white, carrying white sunshades decorated with the same lavender flower. The prettiest was gotten out by Newman's big department store, they have a complete, up-to-date store. This was a large float, white with beautiful flowers along its sides. As they have a machinery department doubtless these came from there. Around the edge was mossy green and over the top green tissue which shed a becoming shade over the faces of the clerks, who rode within dressed in white. This was drawn by four horses, and leading each was a man in white.

One represented the natatorium, the large swimming pool in the center of the city. This was mostly black, with boys and girls in black continually diving into the water and it was really water for they would come up dripping. Kress 5-10 and 25 cent store was represented by a very dainty float, for we have a Kress store out here. There were three bands, one from Wellington. A girls band, 35 girls in it, played well and looked modest, navy blue jacket and skirt, white waist and shoes, and navy blue hats. The parade started promptly at 10.30 by the firing of a pistol and the blowing of the fire whistle. Not all were represented in this parade for Arkansas City has packing houses, over-all factories, flour mills, box factories, planing mills, paint factories, interurban and street car line, two newspapers, Santa Fe railroad shops, division points for seven lines of railroads, broom factories, foundries, machine shops. A four mile canal from one river to the other gives a waterfall of 24 feet. There were about 10,000 people in the city, yet all were quiet and no arrests were made.

Mr. Newman and family have gone to Colorado to spend the remainder of the heated time.

Mrs. A. D. Prescott is visiting at Vancouver, British Columbia. She has been in many interesting places in the Western States and Canada. She will go to St. Paul, Minn., and from there may go east to stay until fall. On July 4, she took dinner with Joe Sherburne, formerly of Phillips, at Browning, Montana.

Mrs. H. P. Farrar is visiting in New Hampshire, but expects to return soon. Mr. and Mrs. Foss Farrar have also visited in the east.

In spite of the drouth a farm on the bank of the Arkansas river just south of the city will have a fair crop some of the corn measuring 14 feet, 6 inches. Eggs are selling for ten cents per dozen. We have been gathering squash and canteloupe seed and our crop of cucumbers are starting out fine, but the dry weather has destroyed most of the first crop everywhere.

Our porches are screened for the flies but there are no mosquitoes. We can sit out of doors any warm evening and never will their song come to our ear. A man pastures his mare and little colt on his city lot 50x100 feet sown to rye, and claims it will keep the mare and pretty nearly keep the colt all summer.

Prizes were offered early in the season for the best kept lawn, the best flower beds and the best kept premises. The dry weather has interfered with the keeping of the lawns in condition, yet there are pretty lawns to be seen. White clover makes one of the prettiest lawns in the whole city. This month of July has been the dryest for 30 years.

With good wishes for those under the shadow of Mount Blue and pleasant memories of the days spent there.

Mrs. Fred S. Farmer.

BLISS BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Fall Opening Will Be Tuesday, Sept. 9th--Large Enrollment.

"Maine's Greatest School of Business," is the slogan of Bliss Business College, which is located at 164 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, Maine. This well-known School of Business Training has been in operation in this city since 1897, each year showing a gradual increase in enrollment until its yearly enrollment ending June, 1913, was 384 students.

It is needless to say that the equipment of this school is unsurpassed by any, and that its teachers are experts in their line. Mr. O. D. Bliss, president, who was reared and educated in Ohio, is of a family who have given their lives to Business College work. It was his uncle, the late F. H. Bliss, who was the author and publisher of the Bliss System of Actual Business. This system is in use in many of the leading colleges, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and has found its way to some of the foreign countries.

A course in Stenotype, which is machine shorthand, will be introduced into the college this fall, and Miss Grace E. Hall of Auburn, head of the Shorthand Department, is in attendance at Simmons College, Boston, this summer taking advanced work in this new course.

Students entering the Stenographic Department may take either Stenotypy or Gregg Shorthand, the latter having been taught in this school for a number of years. A Normal Department is maintained and any one wishing to qualify as a Commercial or Shorthand Instructor may do so. Some of the highest paid teachers and secretaries have received their education and training in this institution.

The Fall Opening will be Tuesday, Sept. 9, on which date many new students will enter and former ones will return to finish their course.

Any one desiring information in regard to the work or rates of tuition will receive courteous and prompt attention by calling at the office or by writing the secretary.

CHATTY LETTER FROM ABROAD

Miss Whitney Writes of Her Pleasurable Trip in Europe.

Under date of July 28 Miss Celia Whitney writes from Berlin:

Thought I would write you a few lines tonight as perhaps you would like to know how I was getting along.

We had a delightful voyage on the S. S. Pretoria, only having what we called one "rough" day and to a sailor it would probably have been called calm. It was pretty warm and particularly stuffy in our state rooms for the first few days or until after we got out of the Gulf stream, then it became cooler and was all right. We heard on the boat that it was the nicest weather for the trip that the Pretoria had seen for about ten years and a steadier boat could not be found sailing the sea. We would sit or walk the upper deck from the time we arose in the morning until we retired at night, going in for our meals and one would hardly have realized they were in a boat. We travelled an average of 12 miles an hour and it was with much anxiety that we watched the daily runs made as they were posted by a flag on the map in the course of the journey. These were made each day after lunch and the distance and latitude were also posted.

When we reached Cuxhaven, where we docked and left the Pretoria, the first sign we saw on the buildings was "Mellen's Food" and it did indeed seem quite homelike. We expected to go through to Hamburg on the boat but there were so many passengers on board, the boat was too heavily loaded to make the run. At Cuxhaven we had to make ready for the custom officers, claim our baggage and then pass on. They merely looked in my travelling bag and when I claimed my suit case and started to open it he shook his hand and I was very glad to pass on. It was very warm in there and I was rather "green" at the stunt before me. We were about two hours passing through for our names ranged from A to W. Our conductor, Miss L. C. Bodan of London, England met us there and we were on our way, in the train at 5.15 p. m., for Hamburg, where we arrived around 7.30 p. m., had dinner at the hotel Zum Kronprinzen and stayed at the hotel de l'Europe. We were supposed to go on to Berlin that night but we were all very tired and it was agreeable to us to stay in Hamburg. Had we proceeded on our way it would have been 11.45 p. m. when we got to Berlin and by staying in Hamburg we had a chance to see Carl Hagenbeck's tiergarden which is known the world over for its large variety of animals, birds and insects and their natural homes made for them to live in. There was also a South African family there. We had lunch there, at the restaurant and returned to the hotel for our baggage to be taken to the station, which was opposite the hotel. We left Hamburg at 6.14 p. m. for Berlin on an express train, making only one stop for the distance of about 150 miles and arriving at the latter place at 9.30 p. m. We were carried from the station with our baggage to the above place, Pension von Finch, in motor taxicabs. Dinner was served in the diner on the train at 7.15 p. m. The cars were very amusing indeed, for the aisle is on one side and the seats are placed three facing each other, in an apartment of its own throughout the whole car. Above the seats which were upholstered in brown and gray striped plush, were the racks which held the baggage. The racks were made of cord laced and interlaced and as our party numbered twelve the four racks in the two apartments just held the baggage for the party. Then when we got out the baggage was passed out through the window and put onto the cabs for us. The ride from Cuxhaven to Hamburg and likewise from Hamburg to Berlin was through a beautiful country, which showed that the farmers of Germany are indeed very progressive.

Want to say here that Friday night the sun set at 8.40 p. m. and the first star was seen an hour later. The glow from the sunset lasted for about an hour and it certainly was a beautiful painting. Sunday some of us went to the church of St. George, the church of England, or literally our Episcopal church, while others went to the American church. The service at the former was very good. In the afternoon we went through the Unter den Linden and saw the palace of the present Emperor and other buildings of note and on the way back went into the cathedral to hear the service. The cathedral is a massive building and the vibration from the large and powerful pipe organ could be distinctly felt in the body pews. The stained glass windows were immensely beautiful with the vivid colorings. We visited the beer garden last night and heard the band and orchestra play. Sunday is not observed here as a day of rest as in our country, but rather one of perfect recreation.

Today we have been through the royal palace which contains about 700 apartments, but only about 30 rooms are open to the public. Have seen the homes of the English, German and American embassy, the latter being seen this afternoon and as one of the official men was in front of the building, which occupied one whole square, with pretty grounds that are well kept, we gave the salute to him which made him know we were Americans.

We had a carriage drive to Charlottenburg this afternoon and visited the mausoleum where the bodies of Queen Louise, her husband, Frederick Wilhelm, the 3d., their son, Emperor Wilhelm, the 1st., and his wife, Augusta, were retained, the statues of each in Italian marble being perfectly sculptured and placed on the top of the retainer. These were all very beautiful, each one having such a perfect finish that it could hardly be believed they were of marble. From this we visited the palace of Charlotta where we saw more beautiful paintings, many rooms and beautiful china and Japanese porcelain, all of which was a wedding gift to her from the English merchants. The guides throughout these places were very interesting and while they explained the decorations in German we were fortunate in having a conductor who knew it and who told us the substance of what was being said. While going through the two palaces mentioned, we were obliged to wear felt slippers after the pattern of stateroom slippers with a flat heel, because of the beautiful inlaid hard wood floors.

To-morrow forenoon we visit the museums and in the afternoon we shall do a little shopping, for on Wednesday we leave for Dresden. Our next long stop will be in Paris from August 9 to 14 and from there to London, 15 to 19.

Guess I will now close as I have been talking with you for some little time. Don't have much time for writing but am trying to do a little. Haven't sent a postal card since I struck the continent but I have about 40 to get ready to mail. Wish everybody in Phillips was with me, for when I get there I can't begin to tell them all the beautiful sights I have seen on my nice vacation. Love to all.

I can hardly realize that I, little Celia Whitney, can be way over here seeing something of the world.

PLEASE NOTICE.

I hereby give notice that Shirley E. Smith, my wife, has left my home without any cause, and I will pay no more of her bills after this date.

ONLY A MASK.

Many are not being benefited by the summer vacation as they should be. Now, notwithstanding much outdoor life they are little if any stronger than they were. The tan on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, upset by trifles, and they do not eat nor sleep well. What they need is what tones the nerves, perfects digestion, creates appetite, and makes sleep refreshing, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Pupils and teachers generally find the chief purpose of the vacation best subserved by this great medicine which, as we know, "builds up the whole system."—Advt.

John A. Fraser, Phillips, Me., says: "About ten years ago I had rheumatic pains and I suffered a great deal. The pains were in my back and limbs and sometimes I thought I could not endure them. The secretions from my kidneys were in bad shape. I tried many ways to get relief, but nothing helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Cragin's Drug store (now Preble's Drug store) and began using them. It did not take them long to rid me of the trouble."
