Waffle Suppers and Dances Very Popular with Guests Here.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Bald Mountain Camps, Mooselook-meguntic Lake, Aug. 31—Summer has ended and even now the trees are changing color and soon the mountains will take their autumn dress of scarlet and gold. This morning it was a pretty sight as the steamboat came to the wharf to bring more people. There were about 15 of the guests all ready for a morning dip and they all took to the water at once. Some went on the steamer, from which they made a dive and swam ashore. This season bathing from the camps has been most popular, as this beach is one of the best at the Rangeleys.

Last evening 27 from here went over to "The Little Brown House on the Trail" for a waffle supper and dance and declare, "We had one of the best times of our lives," and this is the third party from Bald Mountain entertained there this week.

The big garden on the farm was never better than now. All kinds of "garden sass," milk, cream and chickens that come from "Ellisdale" are now served on the table.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Hussey and daughter of Danvers, Mass., returned home yesterday after a pleasant stay of two weeks.

Camp Portland is taken for part of September by J. A. Smith of Portland, who represents the Standard Oil company. Mr. Smith is accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Elinor, and son, Donald G. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis McInney of Philadelphia, who have been in Camp Malona for two months, were this week joined by their sister, Miss McInney, who is greatly delighted with this her first visit to Bald Mountain Camps.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Richardson of Boston are among the old timers, who have returned and will spend September days in Camp Earl.

Charles W. Thompson of Meriden, place of meeting and F. L. Blinn, the Conn., has returned home after a pleasant stay of several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Martin of Bath, Miss Ella J. Ames and James D. Clark of Rumford came up this morning for a few days' sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ellis today entertained Mrs. William T. Hoar and Mrs. Ellis' little granddaughter, Mythil Huntoon, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Rowe and Master Kenwood Rowe from Rangeley.

Mountainview House, Rangeley Lake, Aug. 31—One of the gentleman who has been here for several weeks and returned to the city recently and who is missed by the guests "Moore and Moore" sends to Com. Newlin the following:

I am in the dusty city
And my collar wilts with heat,
While I dodge the rushing trolley
As I wander through the street.
And I sigh to be there with you,
Gently rocking to and fro,
While I puff my sweet Havana
Where the summer breezes blow.
So I crave your consolation,
When you hear my distant wail.
For I miss the friends and faces,
My canoe, and forest trail.
Give my love to all the ladies.
Do your best, Dear Commodore,
Should the same meet with favor
I send you plenty—Moore.

At this writing every room in the hotel and all the camps are occupied and if the weather continues warm there will be more people entertained at this hotel than ever before in the autumn days.

Today Mrs. Fronefield and daughter Betty started off up Cupsuptic for a week's camping trip, with Jim Wilcox, guide, and as the Maine law says, "Duck shooting begins September 1st, they will not go hungry, for Mrs. Fronefield is a fine shot as well as a good angler.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lawton of Portland, who were taking a trip through this region in their automobile, made a short stay here this week.

William T. Howes and son of Bridgeport, Conn., also spent a day here while on a motor trip this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lewis of New York, who have been here in the past, were greeted by old friends the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bodwell of Brunswick, who have not visited the Rangeleys for many years, spent the week here and were surprised to find so many changes and improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Beck of New York, who were here for the first time last season, arrived Wednesday to spend part of the month.

Bridge Parties Entertained---Wheatland Party Auto to Belgrade House for Dinner.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Rangeley Lake House, Sept. 3—For the past three days many a one has grasped the hand of a friend and said "good bye until we meet at Rangeley another year." Such pleasant days will not be forgotten even in the rush of the social and business life in the city, for to one who have been fortunate enough to be of this "big happy family" he has passed a most delightful season and there will be no clouds in the bright sky of memory for the summer of 1913.

Last night was the first since the beginning of August that rooms have not been occupied in the village homes, which tells that the travel this way has been by far greater than ever before.

Among those who have been here for the season and who started homeward the first of this week, many of them to linger at Poland Springs, or the White Mountains for days, others to take up their work at school and in the office, are Hon. M. J. Mulqueen, whose family remain this week, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. King, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Plaks, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. King, Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Duning, Mr. and Mrs. Walser and other New York families.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dunning of Chicago are for the first time spending a week at Rangeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Morey of Boston spent the week end here.

The following Bostonians who were touring through Maine tarried here part of the week: Mr. and Mrs. George R. Armstrong, Mrs. Frank R. Gammon, F. Royal Gammon and Howard G. Marston.

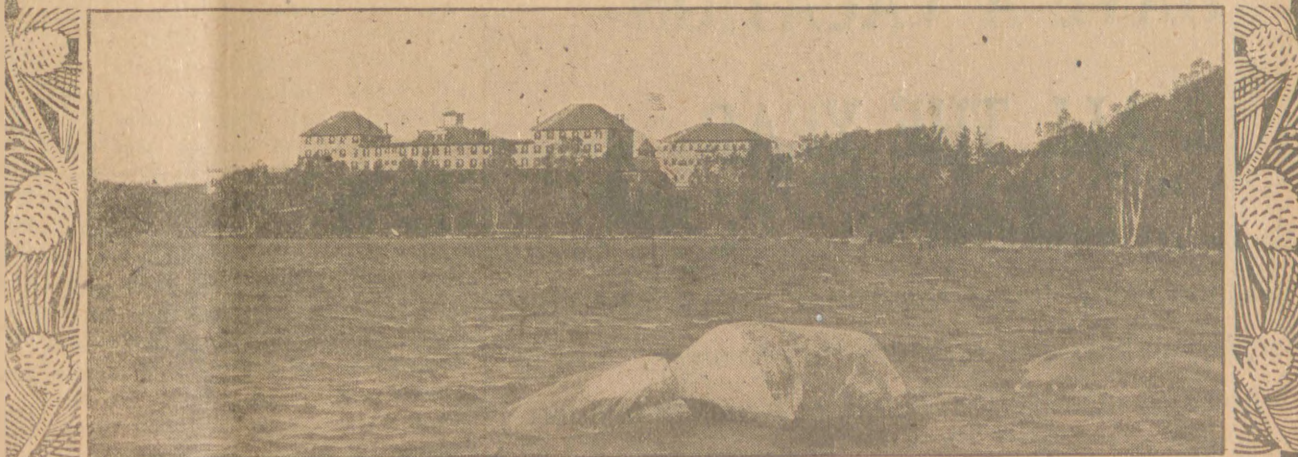

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Snow of Greenfield, Mass., who are on an auto trip through Maine spent a short time here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hamlin are New Yorkers who have chosen this delightful place for the September days; also Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson of the same city.

The Chatillon party were on Thursday joined by Miss Eleanor E. Chatillon of New York.

GOLF AND PARTIES AT POLAND

Songo and Sebago Furnish Picturesque and Delightful Trips for Guests Here.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Poland Springs, Sept. 1.—Golf and informal parties have been the consuming interests of this week at Poland Spring. The professional match of A. H. Fenn, Tom MacNamara of Boston and T. J. Carroll of the Samoset Hotel, drew out a large gallery who were highly satisfied at the result of the contest. Fenn, the Poland Spring veteran defeated his opponents by 9 and 12 strokes respectively, MacNamara's being 78 for the 18 holes and Carroll's 81, against Fenn's 69.

Fenn's ball rolled into the grass on the second round and prevented him from equalling the course record of 68. MacNamara and Carroll were playing in very bad form, and on the following morning both made low scores, the metropolitan ex-champion 70 and the Samoset proprietor 77.

The Songo River and Sebago trip by automobile and steamer is very popular this season and attracts many of the visitors at Poland Spring for all day or an afternoon. George W. Elkins of Philadelphia and William Beni of Brooklyn have each taken parties of friends for this picturesque outing. Among those who have enjoyed these trips are Mrs. J. B. Foraker, of Cincinnati; Mrs. W. E. Blodsford, Brooklyn; Mrs. Charles Gale, Washington; Mrs. B. B. Ackerson of Hackensack, N. Y.; Col. C. P. Echols of West Point; Major and Mrs. J. T. Crabbs, New York; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barber, New York; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Flint of Brookline; Dr. G. L. Walton, Boston and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Elkins, Jr., of Elkins Park.

A moving picture show on the putting green before the Poland Spring House is a recent novelty at this resort. It was brought, machines, operators, pianist and everything else, bodily from Lewiston and a nine reel exhibition kept the 200 visitors who lined the veranda, well entertained.

Mrs. I. W. Chick of Boston gave a very pretty card party to a number of her friends last Friday evening in the Poland Spring House card rooms. Among those present were Mesdames Richards, Hoffman Croucl Painter, Stran, Allan, Pettit, Ricker Ladd and Miss Richards.

The putting tournaments recently held on the Mansion House green for ladies of the hotel was won by Miss Bessie Fenn with her 41, Miss Morton of Albany with 43, and Miss Batie of Mobile, Ala., with 46. The handsome silver cups were presented by Mrs. Andrew J. Miller of New York. The 20 contestants and numerous gallery were served with a delicious luncheon after the play.

HAS THE SKUNK A CALL?

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

Phillips, Me.,

September 1.

I notice in your last issue the inquiry, by some one seeking knowledge under difficulties, who asks, "What is the call of the skunk?" At first I thought that there had been a typographical error and that the inquirer meant the word caul which as almost everyone knows is a membrane covering the greater part of the lower intestines; then I thought that maybe he meant the signal which the female gives to her male mate the same as the cow moose calls her lord and master the bull.

There is no doubt but that there is a skunk language but this can not be understood by man. When the skunk wants to communicate with humans he does it through a tainted atmosphere and the olfactory nerves. There has been no skunk census taken but the fact exists that the population is not decreasing which proves that they have this kind of a call.

On second thought I am convinced that your inquirer wants to know the object, the reason, the advantage, the necessity and the supreme life-work of the common skunk. His stage name is Mephistice Americanus and if any one doubts about his having a place in nature all that one has to do is to disturb his Skunkship in any of his daily or nightly peregrinations. He will surely let you know that he is all there and strictly on the job.

Yes the skunk has a call, just as much as a minister has a call to preach or a divine healer to cure the sick. In fact the fetid liquid with which nature has armed the little animal, to be emitted as a means of defense, is said by medical men to possess valuable medicinal powers. The extremely offensive scent, however, interferes with its use by tenderfooted patients.

Then skunk's grease is used to alleviate the pains of rheumatism and the inconvenience of swollen joints. The fur of the skunk is sought for far and wide with which to decorate the rich robes of royalty and "Les Modes Parisiennes" would receive a black eye were the beautiful black and white pelt left out. The human family has never been free from offensive scent. I presume that our scent is more offensive to animals than their scent is to us. Inventive man, however, has devised means and formulated nostrums to neutralize his scent, among which are musk, eau de cologne, burgamot and burnt coffee. The skunk, however, has the advantage and his perfumery is created with him, all bottled up and ready for instant use without the necessity of a corkscrew.

The musk ox and the musk deer are fast disappearing animals. Sometime the last one will have yielded up the ghost to make perfumery to satiate the craving of mortals seeking to alleviate the disagreeable human scent. Then the skunk will come to the front as nature's rich and rare perfumist. The new perfume may seem a little strong at first but like alcohol it can be reduced. This will probably be called split perfume and once advertised in the Parisian market will have a world wide sale.

Yes, the humble skunk has a call. He was not created in vain and when other nostrums fail man can have recourse to nature's reserve of strong-scented essence from his royal highness Mr. Americanus Mephisticus Skunkibus.

Qui Vive.

MY FIRST AND LAST FISHING EXCURSION.

"As the twilight gathers o'er us
We are one day nearer home, beautiful home."

J. G. Rich came from Boston, and settled near the shores of the Richardson Lake, at the time I was there they had four children. The name of the oldest was Barton, who grew up to manhood and became a doctor. I think he was educated in Boston by a wealthy friend of his father.

J. G. Rich was a very jolly man full of life and mirth, and seemed to enjoy seeing others happy as well as himself. He had a great many friends, and went as guide for city excursion parties. He was quite a noted man in that line for his day.

He came to my father's while living there and invited me to go to his home on the shore of the Lake. We started and followed a "spotted line" for a number of miles to reach his little boat, moored there; before embarking for our journey across the lake he kindled a little fire, and so arranged to have a little kettle into which he had put water, sugar and tea, we had some bread and cake and I enjoyed the lunch very much. Then we started and arrived at his house about eventime. Mrs. Rich seemed overjoyed to see us, said she had not seen a woman for over a year, but seemed happy and contented.

They reminded me of a story I had read for their life was indeed similar to that of Robinson Crosee, for they "were monarch of all they surveyed." Mrs. Rich's sister was visiting her from Boston. She was young about my age, and Mr. Rich wanted to give us a little outing. We took the boat and went nearly across the lake to a place called "Cedar Stump," which was called a great place for fishing, for the fish went there to spawn, in large spawning beds. There could be seen hundreds of fish mostly large, weighing all the way from two to six pounds each, and was one of the prettiest sights I ever saw.

Now, this is how it was: Mr. Rich went to an old pine stump and hewed off quite a lot of pitch wood split fine, and he had an iron grate something in the form of a basket. This he had made for he had a little place furnished with bellows, anvil and coal, and could do some blacksmithing very well. The grate held nearly a half bushel, this he placed and fastened securely on a long pole, and then fastened it again down on the bow of the boat. Just back of this he took his stand and braced himself by placing one foot on either side of the boat. He had a long pole in his hand, a spear, and if he struck a fish fair with that he was pretty sure of him. I had a fish pole in my hand and so did Miss Parker, while Mr. Rich stood back of us, very much interested in his work, and so were we, too, for this was new business to us and intensely interesting.

As I was on the opposite side of the boat, seeing in the bright light from the pitch torch, just above Mr. Rich's head, and as I went to cast my hook off, it caught in something and I pulled hard, thinking I had a trout on the hook and became so excited in this, to me, new way of fishing, I pulled hard to get the trout in, but no, he did not start from his place, and we were soon reminded by Mr. Rich's hearty laugh as I looked up, that there was a fish on the hook which could not be caught that way. The hook had caught in his pants just above where he took a seat on a chair, or perhaps on a log, maybe so, —I cannot say as to that, ha, ha!

That was all the fish I caught that day, and Miss Parker did not catch any, but said she had enjoyed the fun very much indeed. In a short time Mr. Rich had taken all he wanted, then kindled a little fire, made some tea, and with what we took along with us, had a supper fit for the queen.

He dressed his fish and put them in a barrel with salt for winter use, I wish I had some now. Mr. Rich moved out to Upton and built a good house and a small store. He had one room in his house which he called his museum, in which were a collection of wild animals stuffed and mounted for display.

Mr. Rich had quite a large family, some of them may be living now. He had good business talents, and a fair education for that day. He was chosen as a jurymen on a number of cases, and used to come to Paris Hill often to attend to that business.

There are nice cottages all along the shore of that lake now, so I have been told for summer company, who love the beautiful scenery. Little steamers run on it now, carrying summer people to and from the lakes, and surely there can be no pleasanter place to spend the hot sultry days of July and August. Many cottages are also built along the shores of Lake Umbagog and on up to Lake Parmecheeny, (tents of ducking.)—Mrs. Sara E. Bates-Bartlett in Oxford County Advertiser.

DUCK SHOOTING IN MAINE SEPT. 1

Owing to the revision and recodification of the game laws, there has been a good deal of misunderstanding about the law for the shooting of wild ducks of all kinds. Ducks may be killed on and after Sept. 1. The law in regard to this, as it now stands, says there shall be an annual close time "on all varieties of ducks, from the first day of January to the 31st day of the following August, both days inclusive." That means the open season begins at midnight on Aug. 31 and continues until midnight on Dec. 31.

There are certain restrictions in regard to the hunting of ducks, given in the following, section 47 of the game laws:

"It shall be unlawful for any person at any time to use a boat or launch of any kind propelled by steam, naphta, gasoline or electricity and other mode than the ordinary sail boat or row boat, in chasing, hunting or gunning any sea birds, ducks or water fowl in any of inland waters of the states, under a penalty of not less than $25 nor more than $100 and costs for each offense."

RECORD FISH OF THE SEASON

East Sebago, Maine, Aug. 23.—The record fish to date for Sebago lake was taken to-day by King A. G. Lindsay, guide Frank Sawyer. It was a magnificent specimen of the "Ouhiniche" lan locked salmon, weight 14¼ pounds. It's length was 31½ inches and it measured 17½ inches around it. King Lindsay took the fish in very deep water and was using for a line a very fine copper wire which ran to a great depth in trolling. After the strike the salmon put up a grand fight and made several terrific rushes in which he cleared the water two or three feet.

Mr. Lindsay is stopping at the West Shore camps run by Mr. A. L. Brackett, and to-night is the recipient of the hearty congratulations of his fellow guests there.

The title of "King" was given to Mr. Lindsay last summer at the Rangeley lakes on account of his making the largest catch while there, and his performance to-day makes his claim to the title doubly secure.

The salmon is to be mounted by W. H. Hatch, the East Sebago taxidermist, and will be exhibited by Mr. Lindsay at the New York Sportsmen Show this winter.

PROSECUTIONS.

Isaiah Smith of Fort Kent, was prosecuted before Trial Justice Wallace Foley of Stockholm, for having deer meat in his possession in close season. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $40 and costs. He appealed. Peter Terriault was the warden. Morton Tompkins of Bridgewater was tried and fined $40 and costs for killing one deer out of season. Peter Gagne was also before the same court and sentenced suspended, his case being the having of deer meat in close season.

PUZZLED MEMBERS OF FISH AND GAME DEPARTMENT.

The fish that was found in the waters of Cobbosseecontee, and which puzzled members of the fish and game department to name, has been finally named by Curator James as a fresh water sculpin. The fish is about three inches long, has a large head with a body tapering to the tail of an eel, and is of a yellowish green color. This specie are rare in Maine lakes and are hardly ever found.

The fish is not unlike the salt water sculpin, only is smaller and rarely grows to a larger size than the one caught.

THINKS HE HOLDS BEST RECORD.

Boston, Mass., August 21, 1913.

To the Editor of Maine Woods:
I noticed in your issue of August 14, 1913, you state that Fred M. Furbush thinks he holds record time from Auburn to Phillips.

In your issue of Sept. 29, 1910, you published a schedule of my trip of July 1, 1910. In figuring this time consider blow-out, necessitating change of tire at Fairbanks.

Again on Sept. 10, 1910, my trip shows better time. It must be remembered that the road conditions of today show a marked improvement over 1910. Is not mine a better record?

Yours truly,
George M. Bonney.

Putting Tobacco in Tins is Like "Locking the Stable Door"

—"after the horse is gone." Because when tobacco is chopped into small pieces, much of the flavor evaporates before the tobacco goes into the tin.

There is only one way to keep all the natural fragrance and original flavor in tobacco until it reaches your pipe—and that is the hard-pressed Sickie plug. And the natural leaf wrapper is a better protector than any tin, tinfoil or waxed paper.

You always get a fragrant, slow-burning, cool smoke from Sickie, because you slice it off the plug as you use it. You get more tobacco, because there's no package to pay for. There's no tobacco wasted—and the last pipeful is as fresh and sweet as the first. Smoke Sickie today—all good dealers sell it.

THE CLOCK GOLF TOURNAMENT

Crazy Place on Thursday Evening
---Mrs. Miner Gives Children's Party.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Upper Dam, Aug. 28—Yes "Dar's a salmon in dat pool ya-a-s-dar-be," but the fishermen seem to forget it, for they have all taken to the clock golf course, where everybody plays and those who are not there are on the tennis court.

Just to remind one this is where people cast the fly over the famous pool that is known the world over, S. H. Palmer of Milford, Penn., brought in a 3 pound, 8 ounce salmon.

E. F. Van Dusen the New York angler, who has made great records caught a 3 pound salmon and Dr. Frank B. Gummy of Philadelphia with a gray wing fly, a 3 pound 6 ounce salmon.

The clock golf tournaments of the past week have been exciting and popular events. The ladies came first as usual and 18 entered the tournament. A big crowd made the gallery an interesting one. The gentlemen cheered and "threw" encouraging remarks at them. Mrs. James Dougherty and Mrs. E. F. Van Dusen played a tie and in the play off for the first prize Mrs. Dougherty won giving the second prize to Mrs. Van Dusen. In the afternoon "a mixed pair tournament was held" for men and women. In this event Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Marble of Lowell, Mass., won and they well deserved the prize, as they putted well and displayed excellent team work. To-day a most exciting men's handicap tournament took place, twenty one entries. Ten was the highest handicap and ranged down to one which was scratch. The par of the course being 24 strokes one can appreciate how difficult it would be to make this score with a small handicap. A great crowd was on the green to cheer and ring the dinner bell, play jews harps and mouth organs when a hole was putted in 1. At noon when the dining room was filled G. F. Brown of Germantown, Penn., announced that there was a "winger" amongst them and E. F. Van Dusen took the first prize with a handicap of 10. Dr. Wister took second prize with a handicap of 7. Misses Atter and Fair took third and fourth prizes, with handicap of 2 and 4 and the "Booby Prize" with a handicap of 1 was taken by Mr. Brown. The clock course at Upper Dam is one of the most popular places in this section. Just watch them.

At present this place is packed as there are over 80 guests now being entertained here and it is the merriest, jolliest crowd ever gathered here. Most of the camps were taken early in the season and since then many have been coming and going.

Prof. Benj. F. Harding of Milton, Mass., and friend, Dr. G. R. Sattler, of New York, who have been enjoying a stay of several weeks at Saddleback camps are here for a few days on their return home this week.

Dr. J. W. Harper and mother, Mrs. Thos. A. Harper of Hartford, Conn., were welcomed by friends on their arrival Friday and will spend some time here.

H. C. Dunham the artist of Waban, Mass., is one of the old timers every one is glad to have return.

Miss Cleop. Donovan of New Rochelle, New York, accompanied by her nephew, who for several years have been here for the first of September came on Monday for a two weeks' stay.

Carl E. Howell of Columbus, Ohio, is a guest at Camp Fishordie.

On Wednesday Mrs. Tom Miner of New York gave a delightful party to the children in honor of her husband's birthday. The little ones 13 in all came to her camp and each one was given a number and sent out to find a package that contained a gift with the same number, the all came back for the birthday cake and a happy hour.

The flowers are now in full bloom and their beauty adds much to the place and the dining room and camps are most attractive with many vases of their bright blossoms.

On Thursday night this was a "crazy place" and everybody was in it, for a "Tack-y" party was given in the west camp. The music, piano and drum, was furnished by Rufford musicians and was excellent. The costumes were both clever and funny. The Philadelphia physician came as a girl and nobody knew him. Mrs. Van Dusen was an Indian maiden and her husband a Dutchman. Mrs. Nicholas was cute in a costume of bath towels fastened with cloths pins. Miss Atlee was a "pikkininy" and Mrs. Dallan a colored mammy. The Palmer boys dressed as twin sisters and Mr. Brown was a farmer. Mrs. Miner as one from a comic supplement took the prize and others were too funny to mention. It was near midnight when the laughing crowds departed and the Indian meal was swept into the fire place and peace and quiet again came over the place.

For quarter of a century Rev. Fr. John D. Colbert of Wakefield, Mass., has been coming to this pool to spend vacation days. Everyone who met him always felt that life was better for knowing such a kind, thoughtful and cultured gentleman. Fr. Colbert came here several weeks ago after a severe attack of pneumonia. He was accompanied by his nephew, John Welch, who gave him every attention. For two weeks he gained so much all felt his health would return, but their hopes were vain, for suddenly he grew worse and it was decided best to return and Fr. O'Connor came and on Thursday they returned to Wakefield, Mass. On Saturday the good priest, who was widely known and beloved passed "over the river of death" to be rewarded for many years of faithful work for the Master. Thousands of people attended the funeral Mass at Wakefield, on Tuesday last. Here at Upper Dam many friends will miss and not forget as the years go by Rev. Fr. Colbert, who was the friend of everyone.

G. E. CUSHMAN WANTS COMMISSION.

Numerous petitions have been forwarded to the governor and council at Augusta, asking that George E. Cushman of Portland be appointed chairman of the board of fish and game commissioners, to succeed John S. P. H. Wilson of Auburn.

Mr. Cushman has the endorsement of many prominent business men of Portland and other cities of the state in addition to those of several fish and game clubs. Mr. Cushman has been a fish and game warden in Portland for over 20 years. Some opposition has developed from Eastern and Northern Maine.

It is understood that the appointment, which has been held in abeyance for some time, will be made in a short time.

WILTON LADY ENJOYS DEEP SEA FISHING.

On Thursday morning of last week, a party of eleven left Camp Ellis for a trip at deep sea fishing says the Lewiston Sun. They returned about 2 p. m. after making a catch of over 500 pounds, including cod, haddock and one man eating shark. This shark was caught by Mrs. C. F. Blanchard of Wilton, its weight was about 75 pounds, its length four feet.

Mrs. Blanchard was unable to land the monstrous fish but brought it to the surface of the water unassisted. The captain soon came to her rescue and stabbed the fish but it did not die for nearly an hour afterwards. It was towed to Camp Ellis wharf, five miles distant and then carried to the Perry cottage, Ocean Park where Mrs. Blanchard is now stopping. This was Mrs. Blanchard's first experiences at deep sea fishing and she is quite pleased with the good luck for she not only caught the huge shark but 7 pollock, the smallest not weighing less than 5 pounds.

ENCAMPMENT TO BE HELD AT CHATTANOOGA.

An event which has naturally attracted wide interest and comment throughout the nation was the decision of the Grand Army of the Republic to go South again 50 years after.

This year's Encampment is made to coincide with the semi-centennial of the deadliest of American battles. "Backdy Chickamauga."

There is no escape from the thought that for thousands this must be the last pilgrimage to the ground they made sacred by their heroic deeds of half a century ago.

Every instinct of patriotism is aroused by the feeling that this, the first Grand Army Encampment to be held on a noted theatre of war, is also the first to be held in the real South, placing on this community the responsibility of sustaining the fame of Southern hospitality and proving by our tender care of these battle scarred veterans that we are in fact a reunited people, able and glad to pay homage to valor, whether clothed in gray or blue.

This event will be held from September 15 to 20.

"CHATTANOOGA WILL TAKE CARE OF EVERY VISITOR." The homes of all citizens will supplement the hotel and boarding house accommodations. The veterans and their friends will all be well cared for at reasonable rates. The convenience of the hosts and the pleasure and comfort of the guests make it urgent that those coming in parties or groups should make reservations at once. Address the Chattanooga Encampment Association, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Two Tilton, N. H., fishermen went "outing" at night, and in order to keep their fish fresh dropped them as fast as caught, into a bag suspended in the water. On starting to go they were amazed to find that all the fish had disappeared. There was a hole in the bag.

FISH AND GAME NOTES.

Skowhegan advices are that a large black bear was killed recently on the Solon road. A farmer was told that bruin was in his field and taking a rifle brought the fellow down.

Charles E. Kipp saw seven deer in one bunch in the woods near his house one evening recently, at Oquossoc. As he stood watching the animals, another which was lying down in some small bushes arose, and he saw that it was nearly white.

C. C. Garland of Old Town has returned to his home from an extended trip to Prince Edward Island, where he went to study the silver-black fox ranching industry which has been making so much money for the people of this island. He reports the industry as prosperous and was much pleased with the country.

CHANGE OF RAILROAD TIME

Curtailment of Service and Import- ant Changes on Sandy River & Rangeley Lakes Railroad.

It is to be much regretted that the management of the Sandy River
and Rangeley Lakes railroad has deemed it advisable to curtail the service on that road.

It has been expected that we would have to go back to the old regime for the winter, but we were not looking for the removal of any but the early morning and evening train until late in the fall
as usual.

The schedule which will take effect Monday, September 8 at 12.01 o'clock a. m. is this: The early morning train from Farmington to Rangeley and Bigelow and the evening train from Rangeley and Bige-
low to Farmington will be discontinued, and the noon train from Phillips to Rangeley and the morning
train from Rangeley to Phillips
will be discontinued, leaving in effect practically the winter schedule. The morning train will leave Phillips at 7 a. m. instead of 7.05
as at present. Do not get left next Monday morning.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF HOTEL MEN.

There was an important gathering of Maine hotel men at Brunswick on Friday, the 22nd. Hotel Eagle was the popular landlord, provided a spread
that was the subject of much favorable comment. Wilbur T. Emerson, president of the Maine Hotel Proprietors' association, presided, and a general discussion followed as to the adoption of the European plan by Maine hotels. All present participated in the consideration of this important subject and the discussion was both interesting and profitable. Another meeting will be held later at which the subject will be further discussed. The M. H. P. A. will be represented by a committee at the meeting of the New England Hotel association at The Griswold at Eastern Point, New London, Conn., Sept. 4-6.

"WORM DIGGER" ADVERTISES FOR BUSINESS.

There is one Foxcroft boy who is out after business and he believes in doing business in a business-like manner. His name is Verne Eldridge and he advertises to be a "worm digger." Neatly printed cards bearing his name and his business as "worm
digger" have been circulated in places
in Foxcroft where anglers are likely to congregate and his business is growing rapidly. He promises nice fresh worms, including the favorite big "night walkers" but he does not guarantee that every worm will induce some elusive trout onto a hook.

Fly Rod's Note Book

BY FLY ROD

One day recently when at Kenne-bago, I spent part of the morning
hours at Snowman's Point, where Dr.
S. W. Lambert and family of Columbia University are occupying for their fifth season one of the log cabins of the Kennebago Lake Co.

The doctor and family are all lovers of nature and out of door life. Their son and two daughters are expert with the paddle, they love to fish, to follow the trails and in fact to live out in the open. As usual, Guy Brooks is their guide and Aaron Soule often goes with them. The doctor is a great lover of nature, the trees, flowers,
birds and the fish are all friends of the family.

The young ladies sleep on the piazza
in a couch hammock and it is most interesting to hear them tell of the early morning hours. They are often waked up by the little birds who come on the piazza and hop around and chatter to each other, and sometimes they even come and pick the woolen blankets for a bit of bright wool for their nests. As long as the girls keep quiet they can study the bird life.

Dr. Lambert on Sunday had a strange experience with a mink. With Mrs. Lambert and guide they were out on the lake when they noticed something swimming ahead of them.

The guide was not quite sure at first what it was, but they started to follow and found out it was a mink,
swimming across the lake and made
chase for him.

First the wise little mink would try his speed and when they were almost up to him would disappear and under the boat out of sight he would dive and come up the other side. They kept up the exciting chase for half an hour when the doctor reached out his fish net and brought him in. Quick as a flash, when the net was brought to the boat the mink ran up the rim
of the net and around so they had a good look at him, and then jumped into the lake, and they watched him
swim for his home on the shore.

Dr. Lambert and wife often take a row up to Little Kennebago and early
one morning as they were rowing up stream they noticed near the shore a trout that would weigh nearly three pounds on top of the water on its side,
and as they came up found the trout looked as if it had been speared, for there was a hole clear through the fish, that had only been made a short time. The doctor was greatly surprised and did not understand it, but Guy Brooks said, "Those confounded heron are around here! They have done that, they kill more of our big fish than a few, and in the fall they kill many of them on the spawning beds."

Then they decided to explore around
and not long after they found a dead
trout nearly as large, and on the shore
standing in the water they noticed a big heron, as still as the bushes on the shore, but with her long sharp bill
close to the water.

For a long time they kept as quiet
as the bird that looked as if it were a stuffed one, when quick as a flash down into the stream, right through a trout that was swimming past went
the long sharp bill of this heron, but she was not allowed to keep the trout

for her breakfast.

Now does this not prove that the
heron kill many of our fish?

Other friends of the doctor's family
are the beavers that come into the cove near their camp, and give free exhibitions that are watched with interest.

Who in the still night has not heard
a beaver strike the water with his big flat tail, making as much noise as a man falling overboard, and not been frightened half out of his wits, if he did not know what it was?

Fred N. Beals of Phillips who is a good shot and always likes to see others try their skill shooting at the bull's eye, when recently here for a short stay, told Tibbets & Look if they would build a rifle range in the field, where there would be no danger of shooting a cow or deer, he would have made to order by the Winchester company, a special target rifle. On Sunday, Mr. Beal brought into camp with a thousand rounds of ammunition and targets, the rifle, which is a handsome one, that he presented to Mr. Look for one or all the guests who would like to try their skill and with-
in a few days they will be shooting
for a handsome medal.

As we went up the lake the flag
was flying at "Foresthorne" camp and I asked the steamboat to stop at the wharf and was soon welcomed by my old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Atwood. Nowhere in the Maine wilderness is there a more beautiful summer home, with nature in all its wild beauty. One can quickly see that my friends love the beautiful if they stop
only a short time at this clearing in the woods on the lake shore. Mrs. Atwood had returned from a few weeks
at her home in Stonington, Conn., accompanied by her brother, T. Whitridge Cutler and sister, Miss Frances Cutler and friend, Miss Josephine B.
Dennison, from her home.

Jerome C. Read of Paterson, N. J., was the guest at "Foresthorne" last week, and greatly charmed with his first visit at Kennebago.

I doubt if there is a happier lad in Maine than Eugene A. Hartman of Danville, Penn., who is spending his vacation with his grandfather for whom he is named and he can cast the fly and catch trout at almost any hour of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Q. Hartman of Denistown, Penn., on their recent visit came via the Dixville Notch and through the White Mountains.

Coming to Kennebago in a parlor car
is now an easy trip, although now and then some one comes via the old buck-
board road.

Two large and unusually fine bear skins Mr. Atwood has just added to the decoration of his camp.

Many the coming days bring health,
happiness and many unexpected joys
to the good friends whose latchstring
is always out for

The Hot Weather Test makes people better acquainted with their resources of strength and endurance.
Many find they need Hood's Sarsaparilla which invigorates the blood,
promotes refreshing sleep and over-
comes that tired feeling.

MR. CAMP OWNER

It is rumored over the state that no hunters are coming to Maine this fall on account of the new license
law. Do you believe this? Do you believe that true sportsmen who love to place a good gun on their shoulders can find such a variety of hunting in any other state in the Union? We do not believe they can, and we also believe that Maine will have a good big bunch of hunters
this fall.

IT IS NOW TIME TO ADVERTISE

for them, and Maine Woods offers publicity that is more valuable, to Maine camp owners, than that of any other publication.

Don't let the other man get all the hunters. Send

POPULAR PLACE FOR DOCTORS

Oxford Team Wins from "Moose-looks"---The Rt. Rev. Bishop
C. W. Currier to Preach
at "Our Lady of the Lakes."

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Mingo Springs, Rangeley Lake, Sept. 2—No doubt the lakes and forest were just as beautiful many years ago when the Indians followed a spotted line through miles of the then unbroken forest and camped here by this spring of sparkling water. We are told that they came to drink this water knowing its healing power and that they brought their sick ones.

To-day by the lake side are distinguished persons who have come
for rest and vacation days.

One of the best known physicians,
a surgeon of renown, from Baltimore, Md., Dr. F. J. Kirby is here with his family in Rosecliff cottage and
as their guest they are entertaining
Mrs. Kirby's uncle, the Rt. Rev.
Bishop C. W. Currier of Matanzas, Cuba, who in July was consecrated Bishop in Rome and before returning to Cuba spends a short time in the United States. Last Sunday morning the Rev. Rt. Bishop Currier celebrated Mass in Rose-cliff cottage and in the evening in the large reception room the guests
had the pleasure of hearing him
give a most interesting talk and we are happy to announce that next Sunday morning, Sept. 7, at the church of "Our Lady of the Lakes"
at Oquossoc the Rt. Rev. Bishop will be present and the people of this region will have the opportunity of hearing this distinguished speaker.

Miss M. L. Whitlock and friend,
Miss Marion M. Wilkison of Los Angeles, Cal., who came early in the season and have greatly enjoyed life in one of the log cabins on the hillside, start for their home on the Pacific coast on Thursday, stopping in New York at the Colling-wood Hotel until the middle of October.

The tennis court is where the guests spend many of the morning
hours, while the delightful walks
in the woods are always inviting
those who love the ferns and wild flowers.

Dawson C. Glover of New York
City, who was here in 1911 has returned and will remain until late in the month.

This healthy spot seems to have a fascination for Doctors one would judge by the number who come. C. L. Overlander, M. D. and friend, Wm. P. Newcomb of Boston
was the last one to register.

Dr. James F. Hasbruck and family of New York are so much pleased with this place they will linger
as late as possible and have already engaged the same bungalow
for next season.

H. Waker of Springfield, Mass.,
has been spending the week here.

Mrs. W. B. Laine and son Henry
P. Cook of New York, who came in June on Thursday start homeward
having had a most pleasant season.

Monday a special train from Rum-ford brought 135 people who were off to celebrate Labor Day and they brought the Oxford ball team that played on the diamond here against the Mooseheadreggie boys and went back shouting for themselves as they won 6 to 3. A big crowd from the hotels and camps all over the region came to watch the game and they had a jolly good time.

SAW BULL MOOSE

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

Sept. 2.
We returned from a two weeks'
stay at our Rangeley lake cottage to-day in our auto! We had hoped to see at least a deer while there but did not.

You can imagine our surprise
when we were crossing the bridge
over the outlet of Bretten's pond
right at home to see a bull moose walk out on a point in the pond into the water and swim across the

NUMBER OF RECORD BEAUTIES

Tramps Through the Woods, Trips
on the Lakes, Games and Dancing.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

York Camps, Sept.—The fishing at Loon lake is for this time of the year most exceptionally good. During the past two weeks many fine catches have been made and nearly every day the limit is brought in by the guests at York's.

Mr. Kingsbury, I believe is in the lead as to numbers and some of the salmon weighing from three to four and one half pounds are certainly beauties. Miss Crehore has a 5½ pounder to her credit. Mr.
Birch is not by any means far from the lead as he has many four pounders on his list of lucky strikes. Mr.
Lloyd is also among those who enjoy good fishing and has brought
in some fine specimens of the salmon family. Mr. Crehore has to his credit over fifteen record fish
though but a few are brought ashore
as he fishes with his guide Joe Tib-bitts just for the sport of landing
them in the net and putting back
for another time.

There are many young people
here at present and they seem to be having a dandy time out on the lake
or on tramps through the woods and all kinds of games and dancing every evening.

Among those who have not been previously mentioned in our returns to the Maine Woods are Mr.
and Mrs. Kingsbury of Portland, Me.,
and Miss Pattie Foster of New York;
Dr. W. E. Henricks of New York
City who has been here since August 16; Mr. Wallace W. Thom and Mr. Cotte of New York; Jean W.
Mijer and sister of New York; Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinsen of Provid-

pond about half a mile to the other side, we had field glasses and could see him plainly. One of our company, Mr. Howard Somers, ran around the shore and got very near
to him when he came out of the water. He did not appear to be frightened. No moose has been seen here before for more than 70 years.

Our party consisted of S. R.
Morse, Howard Somers of Atlantic City, N. J.; Mrs. B. F. Gordon and

BUSY MONTH AHEAD

Close of a Successful Summer Season Is at Hand---Many Guests Leaving.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Eelgrace Lakes,

Sept. 2.

To-morrow the so-called summer season will end and very many of the summer guests will depart for their city homes, leaving row and reel with the motor boat to await another summer.

The time of schools to begin is
at hand and the apparently neglected business routine again to be taken up.

It has been a very busy and successful season commenced late
but many people have filled the whole village making it seem more like a small city than a country village.

Fishing has been good and oc-asionally a large fish will be brought in, exciting the admiration.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Whipple of Hoosier Falls, N. Y., Mrs. Whipple (nee Miss Nadine Bolles) were welcomed by many old friends on their arrival Saturday, when they joined their sister, Miss Ethel Bolles for the autumn days.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hartrauft of Philadelphia joined their uncle's, Mr. Garigue's party on Saturday.

Mrs. H. A. Adams of New York has been joined by her husband for the September days.

Mrs. Bissell welcomed her son, Cyrus G. Bissell of Montreal, who came on the Sunday train.

"Fisherman Hawkins" of Providence, R. I., is adding honors to his last record for on Friday he caught another big salmon, a handsome 5-pounder and his friend, Thomas J. Herron of Hartford, Conn., landed a 3-pounder and a number that just missed being recorded.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Peirce, Bostonians, are enjoying a two weeks' outing at this hotel.

Roger J. Holloway Jr. of Montclair, N. J., arrived on Saturday to remain with his father until the middle of the month.

Surely there is something doing at Mountain View these days for A. Montgomery Jr. of New York has arrived and is as great a favorite as ever. "Just back from a six weeks' fishing trip in Canada," said Mr. Montgomery, who will soon have fish stories to reel off and fish to plank, and fish to fry.

Mrs. Edward A. Pearce of Hackensack, N. Y., who has been missed among the old friends this summer, while at the seashore, was welcomed today and with Mr. Pearce will remain until October.

"Off for supper at South Bog," called Prof. Dunham and party as with their motor boat, two canoes and baskets of lunch they left the wharf at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Ralph I. Trask of the Worcester Telegram is taking life easy, and does not "sharpen a pencil" while he is adding health and strength during vacation days, which his many friends trust will be very beneficial.

Rev. H. A. Childs of Rangeley came down with a party of ten and held services in the music room at 3.30 this afternoon, which were much appreciated by the guests.

Miss H. A. and Miss E. C. Cranska of Moosup, Conn., who are spending several weeks here are fine pianists and by their playing add much to the pleasure of the guests who in the evening gather in the music room.

These are the days when motor boat parties, automobile trips, a climb up Bald Mountain, a drive to Rangeley or a waffle party over at "The Little Brown House on the Trail," canoeing, bathing and tennis are in order and the next few days will be merry ones for the many young people who are enjoying life at this hotel.

WHY NOT GIRLS' CAMP AT RANGELEY.

Maine remained here for a day; Mrs. D. L. Parker, Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Miss Elizabeth Watson and Miss Marion Parker.

Chas. V. Snedeker of New York arrived on Thursday to remain for part of the month with friends.

A most charming lady and an author of several books including "The Dweller on The Borderland," The Marquise Clara Lenza, whose home is now in Washington, D. C., has chosen this hotel for the autumn days. The Marquise has traveled in many lands and comes to the Rangeleys for her first visit. She is greatly pleased with the hotel and the wonderful beauty of this lake and mountain country.

R. E. vom Saal of New York returned Saturday for his second trip this season.

The following party coming in two touring cars, who were en route for the Megantic club spent the week end here; Mr. and Mrs. A. H.

Bradshaw of Easton, Penn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Breed, Wm. Z. Breed of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. J. N. Schroeder, of Lancaster, Penn.; F. R. Burke, Quincy, Mass.; J. N. Schroeder and Alysses Mercer of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Snedeker of New York arrived Saturday for a sojourn of several weeks.

A. A. Tilney of Plainfield, N. J., joined his wife and daughter on Saturday for the remainder of their stay.

Miss Campbell with a party of nine young ladies from Camp Abena, Belgrade lakes came across the country by auto and took lunch here on Saturday.

We often hear some one remark "Why is there not a Girls' camp at the Rangeleys?" and "This is just an ideal place for a Boys' summer camp" and the Maine Woods has for years often suggested that a summer school or camp for boys and girls be located in this one of the most desirable and attractive sections of New England.

Saturday John W. Morrell and Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Camp of Hartford, Conn., joined Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Morrell and Mrs. Geo. L. Chase of the same city, who came in June and the first part of the week they all returned to their homes.

U. M. Waile of Glenn Falls, N. Y., and L. R. Benson of New Rochelle, N. Y., spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall of Philadelphia have this week joined friends at this hotel for a two weeks' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Smith of Melrose, Mass., were among those who spent the Sabbath here.

J. C. Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hill of Kansas City, Mo., registered here Sunday on their return from Kennebago.

A party of Bath people, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. B. Smith, Bartlett, Ohio, and Miss Janette W. Smith and Wm. B. Palmer, who were on a motor trip were here over Sunday.

On Wednesday afternoon the big sun parlor presented a most beautiful and attractive picture. Vases and baskets of bright flowers were arranged about the room where nine tables of bridge were played, the ladies being entertained by Mrs. Tunis of New York. After prizes were awarded, tea was served.

Miss Gladys Gilman, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Gilman of Haverhill, Mass., was most heartily greeted on her arrival this week. Miss Gilman has just returned from a delightful summer in Europe and is now the guest of Miss Rachel Marble.

On Thursday evening was one of the closing social events of the season when two New York ladies Mrs. M. J. Mulqueen and Mrs. Geo. Adams entertained in the big parlor 16 tables of ladies and gentlemen for bridge. A most delightful evening was passed, elegant prizes were given and punch and ices served.

The following Philadelphia people have come this week to spend a few days and perhaps linger until October: Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Stahler, Mr. and Mrs. Horace C. Stahler, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Braun, Mrs. Wm. Braun and W. F. Harold Braun.

H. W. King of Cleveland, Ohio, on a return trip from the Megantic club registered here on Monday.

One of Boston's best known dry goods merchants, S. E. Sherman is among this week's comers and spends the last month of the season at this hotel with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Chase, Miss

Ella P. Chabe and Mrs. Henry D. Andrews of New York, who have been spending a week at the Balsams came across the lakes on Monday and are now happily located here for September.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Cutler, Miss S. A. Cutler of Newton, Mass., and Mrs. N. P. Cutler, Jr., of Haverhill, Mass., were one of the automobile parties to linger here this week.

On Tuesday Mrs. S. G. Wheatland of Salem, Mass., who is passing the summer at her beautiful cottage on the lake shore invited Mrs. Crocker, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Bauchle, guests of this hotel for an automobile trip over to the Belgrade House where they took dinner and returned in the afternoon, having a most delightful day and report the roads in fine shape.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Russel Marble, their daughter, Miss Sarah A. and son, John P. Marble of Worcester, Mass., are here for a short stay. Mr. Marble, who has for years been coming to the Rangeleys for the spring fishing is well known and has made many friends in this section who are happy to meet his family who are here for their first visit.

Mrs. L. P. Waldo Maroin and daughter of Hartford, Conn., who have been spending a number of weeks at this hotel were on Monday joined by Mr. Maroin and son, Edward, who have been to Megantic. Mr. Maroin was accompanied by his friend, D. T. Huntington of Anking, China, who will remain here for September.

Mrs. Jas. P. Gueernsey, Miss Gueernsey, Mrs. B. S. Clark and F. B. Clark of New York, who have been stopping at Poland Springs reached here last evening coming by automobile.

This week's arrivals who plan to spend part of the September days here include Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hutchinson, John B. Hutchinson of Cambridge, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. R. Comport and son of New York; Mr. and Mrs. M. Munger and Miss Juliet Weber of Plainfield, N. J.

"If the fine old fashioned Rangeley weather continues for the next 30 days you will see more people in this part of Maine than ever before during this month," remarked one of the gentlemen who is waiting on the piazza to make up his mind to go fishing.

SUFFERED
AWFUL PAINS

For Sixteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Moretown, Vermont.—"I was troubled with pains and irregularities for sixteen years, and was thin, weak and nervous. When I would lie down it would seem as if I was going right down out of sight into some dark hole, and the window curtains had faces that would peek out at me, and when I was out of doors it would seem as if something was going to happen. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and I had awful pains.

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My troubles disappeared and I am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. W. F. SAWYER, River View Farm, Moretown, Vermont.

Another Case.

Gifford, Iowa.—"I was troubled with female weakness, also with displacement. I had very severe and steady headache, also pain in back and was very thin and tired all the time. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured of these troubles. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. INA MILL-SLADLE, Gifford, Iowa.

VACATION BOYS HERE

Bangor, Aug. 30—A happy crowd of Philadelphia boys are enjoying their vacation at Eagle Lake, where they will remain until September. They are under the care of S. B. Knowlton, professor of English in the Haverford school, Philadelphia and have been on Eagle Island, off the Maine coast since early in the summer.

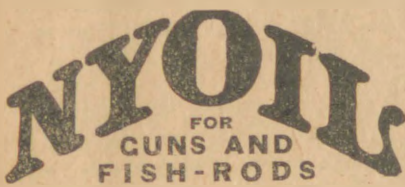

They were brought to Bangor, in the yacht Alliquippa by its owner, Capt. Charles F. Austin. Until September 1st they will be at Camp Penobscot, Square lake, one of the Eagle Lake system.

The boys are tanned, healthy and happy from their prolonged exposure to the ozone of Maine.

TRAPPING EELS A NEW INDUSTRY.

A new industry is to be promoted in Somerset county. F. W. Briggs of Pittsfield has secured the rights to trap eels in the Sebasticook river and traps have been made for this purpose. This industry has been carried on in a small way for a time and large quantities of this kind of fish have been caught and then barreled and shipped away.

HORSES AND HORSEMEN

By S. W. Parlin.

The two-year-old trot at Lewiston, mile heats, best two in three, was won in short order by Guiterman, time 2.28 1/4. Guiterman is a bay colt, bred by J. M. Johnson, late proprietor of Johnson Farm, formerly Forbes Farm, Ponkapog, Mass., and got by Echo Todd, 2.26 1/4, the sire of Todd's Echo (3) 2.21 1/4, winner of the three-year-old trot at Lewiston, and whose breeding was given in a recent issue of Maine Woods. The dam of Guiterman (2) 2.28 1/4 was Nelly Eaton p. 2.20 1/4, by Jewmont 2.28 1/4, a son of King Almont 2.21 1/4; second dam by Messenger Chief 1825, and third dam by Pilot Denmark. Bonnie Setzer, that won second money in that race, was by Henry Setzer 2.10 1/4, a son of Todd 2.14 1/4, and third money went to Prize Cochato, whose sire was Cochato (3) 2.11 1/4, another son of Todd 2.14 1/4. The two other starters in that race were distanced, which gave Guiterman (2) 2.28 1/4, first and fourth monies. Guiterman lowered his record to 2.24 1/4 at Augusta, Me., Aug. 14th.

Earl Jr. that won the free-for-all pace at Lewiston, July 31st, where he took the fourth, fifth and sixth heats in 2.08 1/2, 2.10, 2.08, is a grey stallion, eight years old, bred in Illinois, and got by The Earl, trotting record 2.17, pacing record 2.14 1/2. The Earl, p. 2.14 1/2 was by Mambrino King 1279, a highly bred son of Mambrino Patchen 58, the most successful son of Mambrino Chief 11, as a progenitor of standard record performers. The dam of The Earl, 2.14 1/2 was Princess Royal (2) 2.30, whose sire was Chines 2.20 1/4 the most successful son as a sire of Electioneer 125 and the renowned Beautiful Bells 2.29 1/2. The second dam of The Earl, p. 2.14 1/2 was the noted brood mare Estabella, dam of Hel-at-Law, p. 2.05 1/4, Prince Regent 2.16 1/2, etc., by Alcantara 2.23, whose sire was George Wilkes 2.22 and whose dam was the great brood mare Alma Mater, the most successful daughter of Mambrino Patchen 58 as a producer and progenitor of standard record performers. The Earl's, p. 2.14 1/2 third dam was Annabel by George Wilkes 2.22; fourth dam the renowned brood mare, Jessie Pepper, by Mambrino Chief 11, and fifth dam the White Mountains. The fifth dam by Sidi Hamet, a thoroughbred son of Virginian, by Sir Archy. The latter was the best son of imported Diomed, both as a race horse and a progenitor of race-winners. The Earl, p. 2.14 1/2, sire of Earl Jr. 2.01 1/2, was one of the best bred sons of Mambrino King 1279.

The dam of Earl Jr., p. 2.01 1/2 was by Sagasta 4617, whose sire was the renowned Nutwood 2.18 1/4, the most successful brood mare sire that ever lived. Daughters of Nutwood 2.18 1/4 at the close of 1912 were credited in the Year Book with 378 standard performers, 20 of which had made records of 2.10 or better. Nutwood 2.18 1/4 was by Alexander's Belmont 64, a son of Alexander Abdallah 15 and Belle, a producing daughter of Mambrino Chief 11. The dam of Nutwood 2.18 1/4 was the distinguished brood mare, Miss Russell (dam of the old-time trotting champion, Maud S. 2.08 1/4, etc.) by Pilot Jr. 12; second dam, Sally Russell, a thoroughbred daughter of the famous race horse, Boston. The dam of Sagasta 4617 was by Princeps 536, whose sire was Woodford Mambrino 2.21 1/2, a son of Mambrino Chief 11, and Princeps' 536 dam was Primrose, by Alexander's Abdallah 15, one of the best sons of Hambletonian 10. Primrose was the dam of six trotters with standard records and ten of her sons sired standard performers. Sagasta's second dam was Lindora by Hambletonian 10.

The second dam of Earl Jr., p. 2.01 1/2 was by Laclede 1895, whose sire was Happy Medium 400, a son of Hambletonian 10 and Princess 2.30, by Andrus Hambletonian, a son of Judson's Hambletonian, and he by Bishop's Hambletonian, a thoroughbred son of imported Messenger. Earl Jr. lowered the half-mile track record of Maine to 2.06 1/4 in a race that he won at Bangor, Aug. 6th, and according to report he paced the last quarter of a mile in 25 1/2 seconds. There are but few better bred horses than Earl Jr. now racing in public, either trotters or pacers.

Laforest (Foss) Worthley's handsome, speedy bay mare, Mary Nelson, gave birth to a large, strong, handsome, upheaded bay filly on the 18th inst. She is as straight and clean cut and shows as much quality as a high-class thoroughbred. This young miss is a royally-bred, square-gaited trotter and a credit to her rich inheritance of blood lines. Her sire is W. T. Hinds' son, Brayer 53645, a son of Bingara 34707, by Bingen 2.06 1/4 and her dam, Mary Nelson, was by the renowned Nelson 2.09; second dam, Lady Palmer by Gideon 145, a son of Hambletonian 10; third dam, Clara, by Drew Horse 114, and fourth dam, Lucy, by Withereil Messenger 7, a son of Winthrop Messenger, by imported Messenger. This filly is the first foal got by Brayer 53645 that is known to be eligible to registry, in the standard department of Wallate's American Trotting Register. "Foss" will be driving a winner of his own raising a few years hence.

The officers of the North Franklin Agricultural Society, with work horses and a crew of men began on Monday, the 25th inst., to put the track at Toothaker Trotting Park in condition to race over at the coming fair. The track last season was pronounced by horsemen to be in better condition than ever before. The managers say that it will be fully as good this season as last, and probably better.

Report says that the world's champion, Uhlan 1.58 is slightly lame. It is hoped that his lameness will prove to be but temporary.

HELD AT PORTLAND FOR FOX STEALING

Lemuel Caughlin, aged 40 years, of Fortune Cove, P. E. I., was arrested in Portland recently by Inspector Quinn of the local police department charged with being concerned in the robbery of valuable breeding foxes from a fox farm in Summerside in that island.

The arrest was made at the request of Charles Black, an officer of the island who came there with a warrant for Caughlin, having learned that he was in the city. He found his man at the Union station, where he is employed.

It is charged that Caughlin is the leader of a gang of men who have been stealing foxes from the island farms for some time, but the specific charge against him is of stealing two breeding black foxes which it is claimed are worth $18,000 each. Most of the foxes stolen have been recovered but the pair are still missing.

TROUT PUT IN SHOWING RESULTS

Get Wonderful Scenery at Saddleback--Good Fly Fishing All Through Season.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Saddleback Lake Camps, Sept. 1--Saddleback Lake Camps have been well filled for the past two months and are just beginning to show a little falling off.

The guests at these camps have enjoyed the new trail of 3 1/4 miles from here to the summit of Saddleback Mountain. Several parties from the Rangeley Lake House made the trip to the summit to avoid the long walk the other way.

The fishing has been very good. Trout have risen to the fly every day this season. The three largest trout taken on a fly was 4 1/4 pounds taken by William Wilson of Taunton; 3 1/2 taken by Dr. Nichols of Boston and one of 2 1/2 taken by Allison Dunn of New York City. As a whole there has been some very fine fishing.

Dr. A. P. French took four trout recently on a fly weighing 4, 3 and 4 pounds.

The 15,000 brook trout put in the past years have shown great results, as they have been twigging the fisherman's lines the whole season.

One who has never visited the summit of Saddleback Mountain in a good, clear day does not know what he has missed. This mountain, the second highest in the state, gives a most wonderful view of the whole surrounding country. The partridge shooting is going to be the best this season that it has been for the past five years, as every flock seems to have not less than a dozen. What little I have traveled the woods the past weeks I have seen as many as 100 partridges, young and old.

As to the new license, I cannot see as it is going to effect the number of hunters coming to Maine in the least. It is shutting out some of the market hunters and sending in more that want the real sport of it. What is the $10 extra when one can have the woods clear from a bunch of cheap hunters. Last season being the first of my visiting these camps I did not have enough hunters from out of the state to pay me to keep my camps open, while this season I have plenty in view to carry me through the month of October, although the new license law will be in effect.

Here is hoping that this year will be a busier one in this section than in past years.

A UNIQUE MACHINE.

A motor vehicle which is rapidly gaining in popularity is the motor-cycle. Recently it has become very much the thing to take one's young lady or some friend to ride and for this purpose a small seat has been arranged in the rear of the driver, the latest thing, however, is a sort of baby carriage arrangement attached to the side of the motor cycle in which a woman or anyone else can ride with considerable comfort.

One of these machines is owned and operated by J. W. Treat of Bangor, who with Mrs. Treat has been on a recent trip to Portland.

LAW SHOULD BE REPEALED.

Phillips, Pa. August 25.

To the Editor of Maine Woods: It may seem superfluous to further discuss the new game laws. The explanation given in your columns by a member of the committee shows that it was not their intention to make the October charge of $25.00 for license apply to those who gun for birds alone. To ask a man who may shoot a possible fifteen or twenty birds to pay a license fee of $25.00 is ridiculous and will cause vacationists to go elsewhere or to pack their guns away September 30th. This absurd feature of the law should be repealed at the next session of the legislature.

Your truly,

S. W. Evans.

YALE PROFESSOR GOOD FISHERMAN

Death of Well Known Man, John S. Danforth, at His Southern Home.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

The Birches, Mooselookmeguntic Lake, Aug. 29--With September come the usual amount of changes. Several parties go home on Labor Day and as more come than go, if the weather continues good this will be the banner month for the end of the season for years past.

The fishing for the past week has been good for those who have gone out.

Prof. H. M. Reynold of Yale College, who with his wife has for two months been enjoying life in Camp Ideal, greatly enjoys fly fishing and daily catches a few small ones.

The largest fish recorded this season was a 6 1/2 pound salmon that M. H. Todd of Philadelphia landed this week and had good sport with. The big fish was planked in great shape and attracted much admiration when served. Mr. Todd also records two more salmon this week, weighing 4 1/4 pounds and 4 1/2 pounds each. Jim Todd is the guide employed for the season by Mr. Todd.

B. C. Messler of Montclair, N. J., Harry Nelson, guide, was proud of the 4 1/2 pound salmon he caught this week.

P. P. Getty of Yonkers, N. Y., brought in a 4 1/4 pound salmon yesterday and E. J. Drake of Montclair, N. J., one 3 1/4 pounds today, William Lufkin, guide.

Capt. Barker, this week, received the sad news of the death of John S. Danforth, who will be remembered by a host of old friends in this part of the state. Mr. Danforth's sister wrote that he would be buried at Stewart, Fla., which was his southern home. He leaves one son, who lives in Stewart, and the friends of long ago extend sympathy and will not forget John S. Danforth, who was one of Nature's noblemen, who loved the wilderness and did much for the improvement of the country at Farmachenee, where he built camps which he sold to the Farmachenee Club.

Lawrence Gardiner of Providence, R. I., on Friday joined his parents and brother Robert for vacation days and was greeted by many old friends at the Birches.

Mrs. R. Kilpatrick and daughters of New York, who for several weeks have been in Camp Comfort was joined by her son, John D., for the week end.

Harvey Farrington with his three sons and friend, Mr. Getty, have this week been on a tramping trip through the Magalloway region and to the Brown farm. They had fine fishing and a great time out in the open.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wabadt of Columbus, Ohio, who were for the first time touring the Rangeleys, spent part of the week in camp at the Birches.

Messrs. E. C. Patten and E. J. Drake of Metuchen, N. J., are enjoying their first visit in camp.

Miss Marion B. Wood of Philadelphia is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Todd.

Lieut. Frederick B. Downing, U. S. Army, has been spending the week at Camp Mayflower, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Battin of New York are for two weeks at home in Camp Kilkare.

On Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morse chartered the steamboat, William P. Frye and invited a party of friends for a day on the water and they went up Cuspsitic and had lunch.

Philip P. Getty of Yonkers, N. Y., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farrington.

On Friday evening, Miss Lilla L. Morse of Rochester, N. Y., delighted the ladies by giving an exhibition and sale of dainty and beautiful handmade novelties from "The Birthday Shop" and many a handsome Christmas gift was purchased.

The Casino that is prettily decorated with spruce and pine is a merry place, for all gather there for music and dancing in the evening.

The ladies who recently gave the Charity Whist at the Casino, which added $150 to help on the good work being done at the Blind Babies' Nursery, in Boston, are deeply indebted to and wish to thank Mr. Hannah, the treasurer, and the following persons whose generous donations helped them to raise so large a sum: E. N. Shaw of Page & Shaw, T. M. Davis Arms Co., Edward & Walker Co., S. S.

Pierce Co., Hannaford Bros., the Shaker Sisters, Edward C. Foss, D. W. True Co., Berry Paper Co., F. H. Roberts Co., Esterbrooke and Eaton, Howard E. Morse, Col. J. S. Bell, St. Chairs, Bob Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen L. Bartlett, A. S. Hinds, Peter, the Indian, R. L. Spotts, Mr. and Mrs. Hannah, C. W. Gardner.

The action that preceded the bridge was one of the most entertaining. E. L. Morse was a wonderful auctioneer. His keen sense of humor and clever repartee kept every one laughing and the evening will be remembered as a most enjoyable one of 1913.

FISHING ROD WON.

A fine fishing rod has been won by Ralph Hayward, for the biggest black bass caught in Kennebec county this season. The fish was caught in the Narrows pond and weighed 4 1/2 pounds. The rod was presented by Earl S. Norcross.

PROTEST AGAINST "JOE."

A. B. Penley of Frye, sends the Times a copy of the Boston Post containing the article concerning Joseph Knowles, the Boston artist, who is living as a cave man in the woods at Spencer, Maine. He makes the following statements concerning the foolish whim of Knowles.

Mr. Editor:—

I for one protest against such a thing being done in the State of Maine as that Boston artist is doing. Why did he not try his experiment by the Frog Pond on Boston Common or over in the Back Bay, then when he got hungry and went to some back door for a bite, he would be sure of getting it, for 'tis said that there are more dogs there than babies. I pity him if he should happen to come to a certain house up this way, for that house has one of those women who are always looking on the dark side of life and she says, "The idea, this year we have the "cave man" and we dare not go in the fields for berries for fear that he may be there, as sure as night follows day. Next year we will have the "cave lady" with us and then my man will have to stay by the house or I will have to go with him when he goes to the fields to work. If this thing becomes a fad and all of those sixty thousand females of Massachusetts, who are on the "waiting list" should come to Maine for a "back to nature" stunt, we will not be able to keep a hired man on the farm. Potato bugs won't be any trouble compared to those cave ladies once they get started. A man who has a nice flock of sheep is putting them under lock and key every night, for he says "Such cool nights might get the idea into the cave man's head that he wanted a sheep skin coat." Another man says there will be trouble if those ears of corn disappear that he is saving for a corn roast. We think he is a wise one to choose this time of year for his stunt when all the farmers' gardens are ready to pick and apples are ripe and berries in abundance. I would like to see him make his start about November 1st and then see what he would have to say January 1st. I hope the Times will join with me and help discourage this thing which is causing so much uneasiness and fear among your young lady readers.

LIFE'S BEST ASSET. Is Good Health.

With sound health anything and everything is possible. With a sick headache, indigestion and consequent poor nourishment and lack of proper sleep, the whole of life's effort is at odds.

The True "L. F." Atwood's Medicine begins with digestion, puts the stomach right, acts on the bowels, relieves the system of its impurities, and brings back a normal condition.

"I have been using your "L. F." Atwood's Medicine for the last two years for biliousness and liver complaint. I have found that it is the one medicine which meets my case in every way. Were the price $2.00 per bottle, I would rather have it at that price than any other. I could buy, as I know it means good health to me, something I did not know until I commenced to use the "L. F." Atwood's Medicine. Sample free on request. "L. F. MEDICINE CO., Portland, Maine.

TRAPPING RACCOONS AND MINKS.

By F. L. Butler.

Union City, Pa., July.

PART TWO.

I note in the August issue of Maine Woods, that the publishers made two mistakes, typographical errors, in my article on "Trapping Raccoons and Minks." It read, "but one may use coon or live frogs as bait," for coons unless it is coon, and it should read like this, "but one may use corn,—or live frogs as bait," but I seldom ever use any bait for coons, unless it is corn; I mean corn in the ear. The body of the coon itself would be no good as bait for attracting any other coon, but could be used to advantage as bait for skunks, minks and weasels. I trust that the publishers will correct this error. As it stands, it would place me on the simple list.

I caught three coons in one night once by just baiting my traps with sweet apple. One trap was set under a big root and the other two were set in muskrat's runways.

I have read a good deal about minks, muskrats and coons being caught in a tile ditch by setting traps at its outlet. This is a good set in some places, while in others it is a rank failure. Whether this is due to improper setting of traps, or scarcity of the animals in question, I have never been able to exactly determine. Nevertheless, I have taken coons, minks, muskrats, possums and weasels in the open ditch, not tile ditch. A hollow log along some stream of water is a reasonably good mink and coon set, but I would not advise the young nimrod to try the log-set at the start, or perhaps not at all. In the log-set one is bothered continually with squirrels and chipmunks, getting in to his traps. This is the worst drawback of all, and there is, I believe, positively no way to remedy it, save not to make the log-set.

Coons and minks are becoming scarcer each year and more wary, and therefore they become harder to trap; and in some instances these animals cannot be induced to come near a baited trap. Patent baits are, as a rule, utterly useless, save for one or two kinds which are fairly good, but no baits will work where there are no animals.

The No. 1 trap is best for minks, and the No. 1½ is best for coons. There is no use in smoking your traps when you set them in the water, but the smoking process is all right when dry land sets are to be made. I have caught a good many minks in muskrats paths or runways without using any kind of bait. But let me go back and say a few words about the hollow log set. There is one way the hollow log may be used for setting traps in and one will not be bothered much with small varmints getting in to your traps, and that is place the hollow log so that a small stream of water will run through it continually. This only makes the set more sure for mink and coons, and it also keeps out squirrels, to a certain extent, but there are exceptions to all rules. I will say this for the benefit of the young trappers, as the old boys know better. Don't begin trapping minks and coons in September; the last of October, or first of November, is soon enough. Coons and mink are very scarce around here, hardly one in ten miles this way. This sounds pretty strong but I believe it is reasonably true as I know this country around here like a book. I only heard of one coon being taken last winter. One man I know of did have two small live coons which he caught early in the season, and but very few minks were trapped around here last winter. Weasels were quite plenty everywhere.

With the Editor's permission I will write more later on and tell you how I trap weasels and skunks.

TRIBUTE TO SETH E. PAINE.

(Written in affectionate remembrance of Ruel E. Paine of Coplin, Maine, who entered into rest July 11th, 1913, aged 47 years.)

Dear Seth: A devoted husband and father.

"Thou art gone from us, our darling, And we cannot call thee back; Thou hast crossed death's trackless river,

Dear kind, faithful, loving Seth, Thy loved ones miss thee keenly, From dawn, till close of day, And we three are so lonely dear, Since you have gone away. We shall miss thee in the summer, As we gather in the hay I shall miss thy merry laughter, With our little boys in play; We shall miss thee when the sun sets Behind the distant hill As 'round your dear old home we wander,

When all nature's calm and still, We shall miss thee in the springtime. We shall miss thee in the fall; We shall miss thee every minute In our sad and lonely home. No cheery voice to comfort us, No willing hand to help, Oh, while we had thee here, dear Seth, Would we had loved thee more! We shall miss thee in the winter When the sleigh bells ring out clear, And the sound of many voices Will greet the list'ning ear; We shall miss thee, oh, our darling, As none but God can know, And distant time alone can heal Our sad and bitter blow. Thou art gone from us, dear husband, To be in heaven above, To live with Christ eternally, Where all is peace and love, And when the Lord shall call each one To tread death's trackless sea, We shall meet again, Seth darling In the vast eternity.

GETS GOOD SALMON

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Levy were in Phillips last Friday en route from Rangeley where they have been for the past six weeks. Mr. Levy deals in furs and has been a regular visitor to Rangeley for several seasons where he sells large quantities of furs, rugs, etc. Mrs. Levy is very proud of a 4½ pound salmon that she caught trolling on the Big lake. While in Phillips they stopped at the Hilton House.

FAR FROM THE HAUNTS OF MAN

A Delightful "Heart Party" Given ---Bachelor Girls Entertain.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Mooselookmeguntic House, Haines Landing, Aug. 29—With the August days among the past, one looks forward to September as the days of perfect weather and those fortunate enough to remain until late have planned many excursions.

This morning Charles A. Willits and sons, Morris L. and Chester A. Willits, with two guides, Warren Wilbur and George Love started off for a trip until the middle of September or later to Lincoln Pond. They have packed their provisions and plan to tramp to every pond, and follow all the trails over the mountains and in fact "live far from the haunts of men."

On Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spotts invited Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bruff, Miss Edna Birdsall, Miss Eliza L. Morris, L. and Chester A. Willits and A. Degraun Warnock, guests of this hotel, to a dance at their charming camp on the Point. Judge of their surprise when the guests came dressed in Turkish costume, all as women. It was an unique sight as they entered and without speaking marched around the room. Later refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Spotts in their usual hospitable manner gave great pleasure to the guests. The next morning there was a merry game of tennis on the court, when the same costumes were worn.

"Jap," the handsome black and white pointer of Mr. Willits, who is everybody's pet, met with a painful accident the other morning. The dog was not far from camp when attacked by a wild animal that is thought to be a bob cat, as two have been seen around here this season.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Tiepke of Providence, R. I., gave a most delightful party to 12 of the young folks at their camp in the circle, "Rhody's Roost." Beautifully decorated was the camp with evergreens and many China lanterns. It was a heart party and favors were given, and from 8 o'clock until midnight the merry crowd were entertained. The display of German parlor fireworks, was very novel and received with great enthusiasm. Refreshments were served and the young people will always shower good wishes upon Mr. and Mrs. Tiepke, who do so much to add to the happiness of all at Mooselookmeguntic. Miss Prudence Richardson and F. W. Miller carried off the first prizes, while Miss Gladys McLay and D. S. Wilson were consoled with booby prizes.

On Thursday, fifteen who have been here for weeks started homeward and regretfully said "Good bye, until 1914."

The Koch party from New York are to return later in September for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hendrickson and family, who came in June, returned home having had one of the most delightful summers in the country and have engaged the same cabin for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rogers of New York, who are touring Maine in their automobile spent the week in camp here.

Messrs. F. W. Miller and L. A. Kniffin, two young gentlemen from Westfield, N. J., have arrived to remain until the middle of September.

Mrs. A. Hobart of Braintree, who with her son, have been for six weeks in camp here, returned home this week, leaving her son Aaron for a month longer.

Dr. F. A. Hayden of Portland has been here for a week's outing.

A. D. Warnock of Haverford, Penn., this week joined his parents for a month's stay.

One of the log cabins was taken Friday for two weeks by Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Taber and Miss Taber of New York, who are greatly pleased with this their first visit to Haines Landing.

The ball given by "The Bachelor Girls" on Monday evening at Oquossoc was one of the best social events of the season. There was a fine crowd from the different hotels and many of the private camps. "The Girls" spent the day in bringing greens from the woods and the hall was handsomely decorated. Cheers for "The Girls!"

Labor Day there is to be an excursion from Rumford, bringing the Oxford ball team to play against Mooselookmeguntic team at Mingo Springs.

In front of the log cabin occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Warnock of Jamaica, New York, is tied a bunch of excelsior, that swings in the breeze. Everybody who passes by asks, "What have you that hanging there for?" and many times every day Mr. or Mrs. W. will answer, "Don't you know that the motto of New York is 'Excelsior!'"

A delightful musical was given one evening this week in the parlor.

September promises to be a busy month and if the weather continues good this will be a busy and merry place as long as the hotel is open.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS' INTERESTING ORGANIZATION.

Recently the Alsea Campfire went on a picnic to the Bull's eye, a group of merry little girls in their Indian ceremonial costumes, says the Bangor Commercial. There they had their ceremonies, went swimming and rowing and sang their songs

Four and perhaps more groups of the campfire girls are to continue through the winter. Once a campfire is well established, it lasts until the girls in it are in their twenties. To earn the harder honors takes the intelligence and maturity of a grown girl—the older and more in earnest the girl, the more she realizes the meaning and possibilities of the Campfire organization.

Anyone interested in the camp fire can find the Camp Fire Girl Manual at the public library, or send for it for 25c at the Camp Fire Girls' Outfitting Co., 110 Fifth avenue, New York. It is well worth reading.

The purpose of the organization is to fit girls for life, to be good wives and mothers, to be efficient, well rounded and sympathetic women.

Each camp fire this winter is to have a meeting once a week with their guardian, and a ceremonial meeting once a month at which they wear their ceremonial costumes and receive beads for the honors they have earned. These honors may be won by a great many definite tasks well done which are subdivided into seven crafts as follows:

Health craft, home craft, nature craft, camp craft, business craft, hand craft, patriotism.

When a guardian sees her girls, they begin to say, "I've made my bed for a month. Yes, I remembered to air it. Shall I get an honor for that?"

"I've trimmed a hat."

"I swam a hundred yards yesterday."

"I've kept my cash account for a month."

"I've saddled my horse and ridden him three different gaits."

"I haven't had any sodas or candy for a month," till she feels as if the world were full of girls struggling for honor beads. Those are some of the simpler honors.

Each campfire—usually a group of 12 girls—has a big book to keep a painted list of symbols for the honors they have won.

These very artistic and rather elaborate books are usually ordered from headquarters but the playground campfires, and one of the campfires outside the playground, which were started by the Bangor Recreation association, are making their own books by hand.

The Recreation Association hopes that anyone else in Bangor who may be starting a campfire or wish to start one will notify the Playground office, 35 Franklin street. There will soon be a meeting of guardians to discuss the winter program and any guardians of other campfires would be most heartily welcomed

AN HONOR TO COLONEL DOOLEY

Friends of Lieut. Col. John J. Dooley of the ordnance department of the National Guard of the State of Maine will be pleased to learn of his appointment as assistant executive officer on the staff of Brig. Gen. Robert K. Evans, U. S. A., the executive officer of the National and International matches, which are being held at Camp Perry, Ohio. This detail is a special honor to Col. Dooley, and is a recognition of the excellent work which he did in a similar capacity at the National matches in 1910, this being the second time he has served in such commission.

FRESH WATER SCULPIN

The fish that was found in the waters of Cobbosseecontee and which puzzled members of the State fish and game department to name, has been finally named by Curator James as a fresh water sculpin. The fish is about three inches long has a large head with a body tapering to the tail of an eel, and is of a yellowish green color. This species are rare in Maine lakes, and are hardly ever found. The fish is not unlike the salt water sculpin, only is smaller, and rarely grows to a larger size than the one caught.

Caribou correspondence tells us that numerous reports are being heard of bears being seen much more frequently than usual this year. Mr. Wass, who has recently surveyed the Aroostook valley extension to the Quebec boundary, reports bears as being numerous but quite afraid of man. In Hodgdon a bear is reported as having killed a yearling heifer, and one has been seen not a great way from Caribou village, so it is understood, Wesley Armstrong having seen one on his farm only a mile or so from the village, one day last week.

NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH FROM BEAR.

Obedience to his father's command, though apparently to meet his end, saved seven-year-old Juan Ortega from being torn to pieces by a bear. The elder Ortega is a cattle herder in the Upper Santa Ynez near Santa Barbara, Cal. As he was coming along a ridge of the mountains above the pasture, seeking stray cattle, he heard his boy's call for help and on the opposite side of the ridge saw the little fellow scampering down the trail, while not far behind him was a female bear plunging for him, her two cubs whining in the brush nearby. To shoot meant to endanger the boy's life, as he was between the father and the bear. "Lie down flat," shouted the father in Spanish, and the boy, accustomed to obey, fell prone upon the ground and the next instant the father's rifle poured a deadly rain of lead into the bear. Though he shot from a distance of 250 or 300 feet, every shot went true. For months the herders have been troubled by the slaughter of their cattle by bears, which seem to be more than numerous on the upper ridges of the Santa Ynez range.

THE SEASON OF FAIRS

By Holman F. Day

This is the season for fairs, by gosh, oh, this is the season for fairs; They're thicker than spatter, But what does it matter? They scoop up the cash, but who cares? From now till October they'll swallow the change, These state fairs and town fairs and county and grange, But apples blush brighter arrayed on a plate, And the cattle look scrumptious in dignified state, Enthroned in a stall and a'gazing with scorn On the chaps going by without ribbon or horn. And the trotters and nags of the blood-royal strain Are a-furnishing fun for the people of Maine; While prouder than princes they prance to the band, And ogle the ladies arrayed in the stand. Ah, every exhibit in stall or in hall, From hooked rug to hossflesh and punkin and all, Takes on a new meaning, assumes a new light, And is, for the moment, a wonderful sight. And the people hang over the stuff that's displayed. They swig up whole barrels of red lemonade, And hark to the fakirs and tumble to snides, And treat all the young ones to merry-go rides. They sit on the grandstand man crushed against man, All shouting acclaim to the track's rataplan; And all the delight is as fresh and as bright As though the big crowd had not seen the same sight. And the people flock home with dust in their eyes, But with hearts all a-fire with fun and surprise.

Oh, this is the season of fairs, by gosh, the season to lay off your cares, Each fair is a wonder, They're thicker than thunder. Hooray for the season of fairs! —Exchange.

SHARK GETS AWAY

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Plummer, two sons, Norton and John, have returned from a week's trip to Vinalhaven. Master Norton has something that he experienced on his trip that he can rightfully boast of. Mr. Plummer and his son were engaged in deep sea fishing for cod off Vinalhaven, one day last week. Norton was fishing with two hooks on his line. Suddenly he felt a bite and started to pull. He had not pulled the line in but a short distance when it commenced to come harder. The fellow on the other end hung on, and after a hot tussle the supposed cod was drawn alongside. The fish proved to be a big shark about six feet in length. As Norton was about to take him aboard, the shark got the line in his teeth and cut it to shreds, making good his getaway. Of course, the young fisherman was disappointed, as he wished to photograph the monster and show it to some of his chums. Nevertheless he has the distinction of almost landing him, which is considerable for a lad of his years.

Cutler, Lewiston; Arthur Keith, Farmington; D. L. Fox, George L. Morris, Portland; Fred Harlan, Rumford; W. E. Lawless, Kenneth Lawless, Auburn; George E. Bearce, F. E. Wheeler, Lewiston.

Mrs. Lucy Hilton, who is the proprietress of this house, is receiving many compliments from the people who have sojourned there for the excellent table set. In addition to the transients, she has 25 regular boarders at the present time.

The arrivals published above are a small part of those who patronized the place for that time, for many do not register. Several automobile parties are entertained each week.

The house is very convenient to the railroad station, being only a two minutes' walk and many avail themselves of this convenience.

Mrs. Hilton does the cooking and the guests find both meats and pastry of the best. Fresh vegetables are served from her own garden.

GOOD RECORD FOR NON-PROFESSIONAL

Electric Plant Will Still be Run by Old Company---Ladies' Aid Emergency Loan Organized.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Rangeley, Sept. 2—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Davis and three daughters of Berlin, N. H., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tibbets.

Wm. T. Hoar although not claiming any great honors in the shooting line had rather a peculiar experience one day recently. The blackbirds were making merry with his garden and when the chance came Mr. Hoar fired a full charge of bird shot into the bunch killing twenty-one at one shot. Pretty good record for a non-professional.

The E. S. Lincoln Co. of Waltham, who have been contemplating the purchase of the electric light plant, have finally decided not to purchase the plant. Tomlinson and Colby plan to put the plant in good condition immediately. Both engines are now in good running order and the street lights are again a welcome sight moving picture nights. The present management have endeavored to give the people good service which is much appreciated.

The Ladies' Aid Emergency Loan which has recently been organized at the instigation of Miss S. M. Soule, met with Mrs. Ada Sprague to make needed articles for the society. Many gifts have been received among them being a web of sheeting which the industrious ladies quickly converted into sheets and pillow cases. Next Monday the ladies meet with Mrs. Ada Kamp ton.

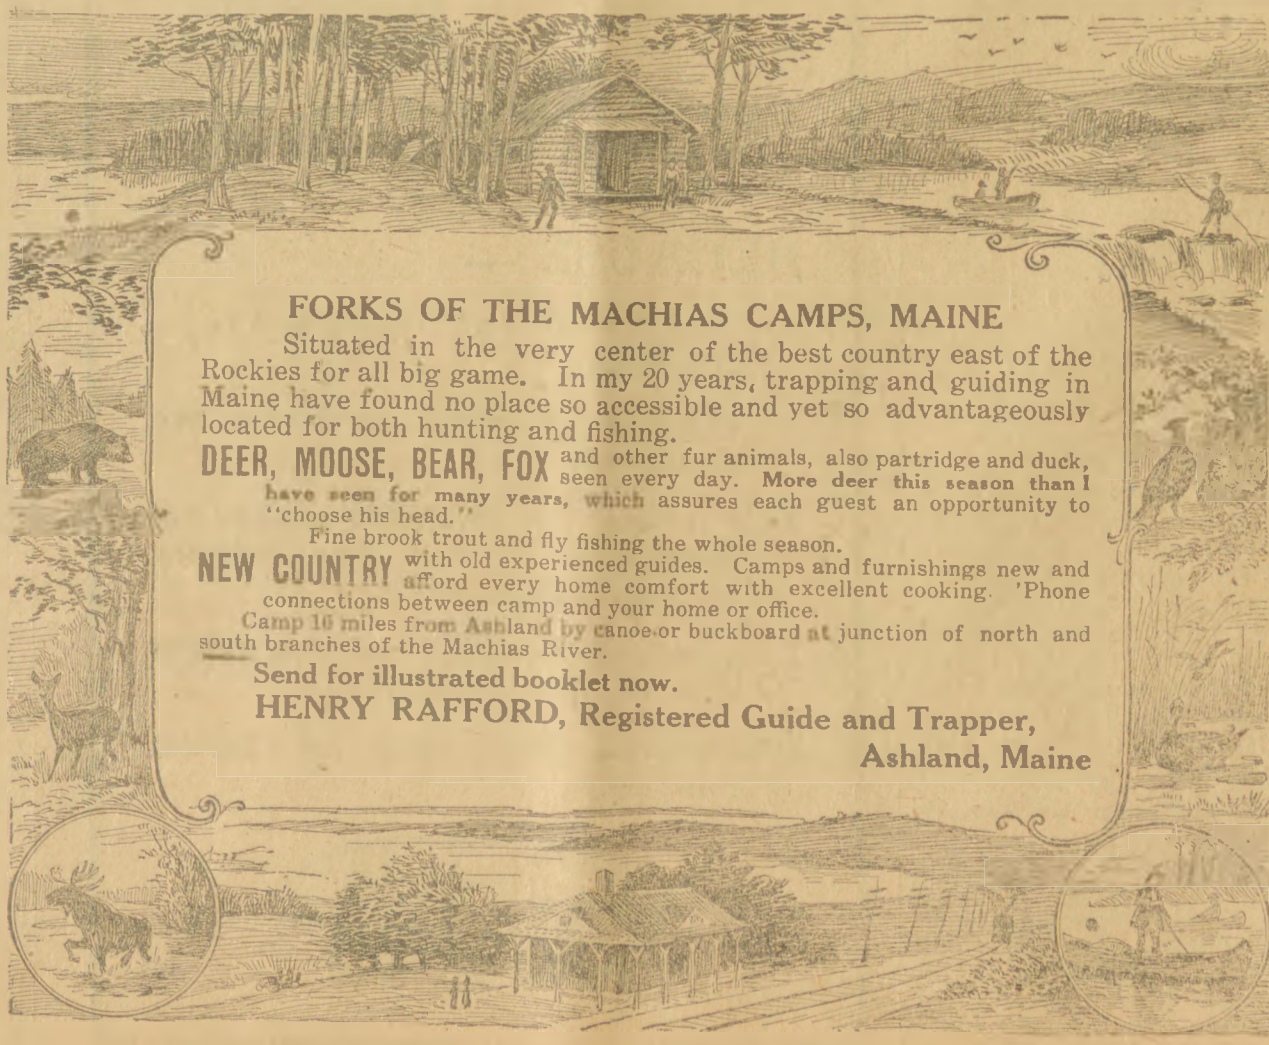

BUSY MONTH AHEAD.

catch one like it. Mr. Samuel Jones of New York city came in Sunday with a large pickerel weighing 5½ pounds with a head and mouth large enough for a ten pounder.

Among the departing guests after the holiday were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Healy of Providence, R. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Grotectoss of Suffern, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wahd, Malden, Mass.; Rev. Dr. White and family who have spent the summer here and have been welcome guests for many years.

Letters come in almost daily for accommodations for the month of September which looks like a busy month ahead.
