Ag't Gen. John S. Hodgeson
Dear Sir

I hope you will pardon me for my intrusion but I feel very anxious for the welfare of my brother and friends that was in the 1st Maine Heavy Artillery which I have not heard anything from since the Battle and thinking you may have received a list of the casualties I know by past obligations that you will be willing to oblige me with a favor and inform me whether Chas S. Patten or Alfred B. Shea are among the list or not and oblige respectfully yours
