1864-07-13 Charles H. Smith asks if brother-in-law Winslow H. McIntire survived the June 18 battle at Petersburg

Charles H. Smith
Boston July 13th

To the Adjutant General of Maine

Dear Sir,

Through the papers I am informed that the 1st Me Heavy Artillery lost heavily in the battle before Petersburg on the 15th of June I have a Brother in law in it his name is Winslow H. We intire he enlisted as one of the quotas of the Town of Sidney The Company he joined was Co D as we have not heard from him for five weeks & being anxious to hear what his fate has been I know of no other way to find out than to write you If you will be so kind as to give the information I ask you will oblige his Mother & Sisters Of Yours Truly, Chas. H. Smith Direct Your letter to Charles H. Smith 58 Knickerbocker St Boston
Charles No. Smith
Boston Mass
July 15, 1864

[Handwritten text not legible]