

Ans/

Ans/

Banger July 18. 1864,

Bro Nodden,

Asa Dunham
of Etna, a poor, but very excellent man - who is a cripple - is in great trouble - he had two sons in the army - one has been killed
The other Grenville Dunham 1st

Co "76" 1st Me Heavy Artillery was wounded in arm & lungs May 19, 64 - taken to Emory Hospital Washington D.C., on the 23^d of May - the father had a letter - saying he was very low -

In answer to a letter recently (July 2^d 64) the Surgeon of Emory hospital writes - That

Grenville Dunham of 1st Me Heavy Artillery died there May 29th 64,

I wish you to inform me if there is or has been any such man, as Grenville Dunkan in Co H, 16th - or in the 1st Me Heavy

Arty -

I have not the slightest doubt, but that this Grenville Dunkan is really Grenville Dunkan - son of Asa Dunkan etna - But the post man brings to the here that it may not be

The names in your last report is not correct, so many has since interest

Yours truly

to 1st Beacon

as Greenville Dorkan to Co. H, 16th - or in the 1st Me Heavy Artillery.

I have met the 1st Heavy Artillery, but other than that and Drunkards is really terrible in the hands of the 1st Me Heavy Artillery. I have met the 1st Me Heavy Artillery, but other than that
and Drunkards is really terrible
in the hands of the 1st Me Heavy Artillery.

L. P. Brown
Bangor
July 18, 1864