

During the time that I commanded the 16th Regiment, Maine Volunteers, Mr Henry T. Fisk was a Corporal in that Regiment and I frequently opportunities for remarking his manly and self sacrificing conduct and devotion to the cause of his Country.

Mr Fisk is a capable, faithful, and hard working man, and officer, and in my opinion deserves a better position than that of Sergeant, which he now fills, Should there be any vacancy in the 16th Regiment, I sincerely hope that Mr Fisk will receive promotion, and I know that he will do credit to the service, and to himself, in any position for which he may think proper to apply.
