1864-08-08 John Kimball requests that Private John Hall's furlough be extended due to illness

John Kimball
State of Maine.

House of Representatives,

Augusta, Aug. 8th, 1863.

Dear Sir,

Private John Hall of Co. H 1st Maine Heavy Artillery, is now at his home in Homer, and is very feeble, having a distressing cough and very bad chronic difficulty, rendering him very weak. This pass requires his return to Augusta on Saturday next. I called to see him yesterday, and he was very anxious for me To write to his Surgeon, but having forgotten the Surgeon's name, take the liberty to address you, asking whether he must report at Augusta at the time, or whether he may report to Surgeon Patten of the 41st at Brewer, or whether his passage cannot be extended 20 or 30 days without being present himself. If not he will be there, but it must necessarily very much reduce him, as he is not able to walk but a very little at most.

Please excuse me for troubling you, as I know of no other one who would take any trouble in this matter.

Adjutant General

Your Most Obedient Servt.

J. H. Hodsdon
