POTATOES

Local buyers are paying $1.50 for Green Mountains and $1.25 for Cobblers with few offerings.

The Produce News says: Boston Trading was quiet, with liberal receipts, but a fair demand. Quotations were: Green Mountains, $1.50 bag; Maine Cobblers, $1.25 1/2 1/4 sack.

SURPRISE PARTY

A very pleasant evening was spent last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Grant when a number of young people gathered as a surprise, in honor of Mrs. William Patterson of Philadelphia (formerly Miss Faye Grant of this town).

Various games were enjoyed, after which refreshments of ice cream, cakes and punch were served. At a late hour the party broke up reporting a very enjoyable time.

MRS. LUELLA BATES

The death of Mrs. Luella Bates of Patten occurred Tuesday at the home of Lee Irvin on Court street where she had been nursing for the past six months.

The deceased was a widow, sixty-six years of age and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Birmingham of Patten where she had many friends who will deeply regret to hear of her sudden death.

She is survived by three daughters and one brother, Mrs. Harry Birmingham of Patten, Mrs. C. C. Richardson of Lynn, Mass., Mrs. G. L. Lougee of New Limerick and Orvin Casey of Kinnaman.

The funeral services were held Tuesday at New Limerick, the Rev. Mr. Cosman officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery there.

MERCHANTS' ASSN. WILL BE OPEN ARMISTICE DAY

At the annual meeting of the Merchants' Association it was voted to close the stores Armistice Day but as the day has never been declared a legal holiday there seemed to be some objection by the merchants of closing this year as November 11th fell on Saturday.

On Monday, November 6th, at a special meeting held at Assembly hall and after hearing the arguments of several of those present it was voted to rescind the vote and remain open Saturday. A further vote was taken and it was decided to close from 12 to 1 o'clock and all stores to display flags.

ELKS TO STAGE COMIC OPERA

The Houlton Elks have started rehearsals for their annual show which is to be presented at the Temple theatre in about two weeks. J. Dal Luther, who has had charge of the annual shows for a number of years, has selected for the current offering a Comic Opera entitled "A Pirate Bold." This is a marked departure from the policy of the past few years of presenting a Minstrel and should meet public as it is a number of years since Houlton has enjoyed the delightful melodies and stirring choruses, the colorful costuming and spirited action of light opera.

There are twenty-two musical numbers including solos, duets, trios and quartets and choros. Rather pretensions but a fine effort in a good direction.

HERBERT A. CUMMINGS

The death of Herbert A. Cummings which occurred Thursday morning at his home on Fair street, will come as a shock to his many friends.

Mr. Cummings was born in Eddington, Maine, fifty-five years ago and was an employee of the B. & A. R. R. for thirty years, being foreman of the bridge crew at Houlton for the last three. Although living in Houlton only a few years he made many friends who will regret to hear of his death.

He is survived by a wife, an infant daughter Emma, and a brother Guy C. Rich.

The funeral services were held Saturday at two o'clock from the home, the Rev. Mr. Cooke of the First Unitarian church, assisted by Rev. H. C. Shedd, officiating. The services were largely attended by friends, relatives and neighbors of the deceased.

The interment was made in the cemetery there.

BUNDLE DAY

Cold weather has come and with it the need of warm clothing for children and the Philanthropic committee of the Houlton Woman's Club have decided to hold a bundle day Saturday, Nov. 11.

You are asked kindly to contribute clothing that can be repaired or made over and new goods will not be rejected. All goods to be delivered to Flora I. Lougee, Market Sq., chairman of Philanthropic committee.

ROTARY CLUB

The regular meeting of the Houlton Rotary Club was held at Watson hall on Friday evening, caterer Barrett serving a very appetizing meal.

The club was honored by having as guests Mayor Mair and Frazier Armstrong of Woodstock who spoke to the members in a very interesting manner, which was much enjoyed by the large number present.

The next meeting will be on November 17 when the teachers of the town will be guests of the club.

EVENT OF THE SEASON

There will be a big basket social on Tuesday, the 14th, in Society Hall for the benefit of the Houlton Baseball Association.

A rare opportunity for a "Tuckout" and at the same time you'll be helping a cause that is more worthy than the half-starved Turk in far-off China!

Every female woman in the town is respectfully requested to help out by bringing a basket.

Baskets will be sold at 10 p. m. Dancing before and after sale.
