Bangor July 30 1862
Gov Washburn,

Dear Sir - I address you in behalf of Richard Kelleher a member of Co (D) 2^d Me Regt, now sick in hospital at Annapolis -

Mr K. was for a long time official Clerk of the Courts under Bro Weston - has often been in my employ in my office, I know him well - he left a salary of $600 per year - where he gave entire satisfaction he is a young man of good character, good habits, well educated & worthy in all respects - he is now sick & unfit for duty - his fellow countrymen feel, (I think justly,) that he should have a better place, it is wished by his friends that he may be permitted to have a furlough - renew his health - & when again fit for duty, have a place assigned him commensurate with his merit -

Very Respectfully yours
C. P. Bowen
