The names of the sons who enlisted is Daniel Dyer & John W. Dyer.
in Co. F, Capt. White's 2nd Maine Regiment

Bangor July 31st 1862
Genl Hodsdon

My very Dr Sir
My friend Mr John Dyer of Bradford (who has been in the Insane Hospital West Wester) has two sons in the army who enlisted in Co F 2^d Maine Regiment in the month of December last while their father was in The Hospital One of whom was killed at the battle of Manover Court House while bravely fighting Mr Dyer states that his sons were uniformed as he supposes at Augusta (Genl Butler so informs him) & they left their clothing there when uniformed & Mr Dyer asks as a special favor that you will ask the proper person to see them sent to Bangor in my care & I address you personally not knowing who else to address If you will please give this matter a little attention you will greatly oblige him & confer a favor on Sir Very Truly yours
