Bangor, August, 1, 1862.

Hon. A. Washburn Jr.

I write you at this time to solicit at your hands a favor, in the appointment of my son, William H. Casey to the post of first or second Lieut in one of the Companies of the 18th Regt. now being organized in this City. He is now a non-commissioned officer in Co. I Second Maine Regt now at the seat of war. Col. Roberts will recommend him as every way qualified and worthy - Col. Chaplin of the 18th desires his appointment, knowing him intimately, and if desired by you I will forward to you their written recommendations and certificates of qualifications. He has been in all the battles with the glorious 2<sup>d</sup> Maine and comes out with the endorsement of his officers as possessing the qualities which would recommend the Soldier.

Should you find it to be within ~~your~~ the scope of your ability to confer this honor upon him you will ~~surely~~ greatly oblige him & also

Your Obedt Servt
