Bongor Aug¹ 1st 1862.

Hon. J. Washburn Sr.

Dear Sir

Capt. Garnsey

and Maj. W. Strickland think there will be fifteen or twenty recruits ready for the main next Monday. They are anxious I should take charge of them and many of the men desire to accompany me. If you wish me thus to take charge of them, please let me know by telegraph during the day tomorrow, or otherwise I do not intend to go by way of Augusta. Maj. Strickland with the men will leave for Augusta Monday morning and I shall accompany him if you desire it as above stated, and wait your pleasure there. My leave of absence will not expire until 10th Sept. but I am anxious to repair the reputation as consistent, though I am yet feeble and unable to do much duty.

Very truly
Yours to the point -

S. B. Morrison
