To Governor Washburn

Having been informed that Charles Drew of Augusta is an applicant for a commission in one of the Maine Regts, it affords me great pleasure to recommend him as in every way well qualified. Although I am no military man yet from my daily notice of Mr Drews attention to the wants of the men under his charge, and the respect with which he is treated by the men I am satisfied that he knows, how to discharge the duties of an officer, and that he possesses the will to faithfully perform it.

Very respectfully
Yours Obedt Serv,
