D. Sir,

The undersigned a poor Woman addresses you, on the present occasion, "that is to say," My Husband is in the 1st Me. Heavy Artillery (or ought to be there if living).
I beg to inform you, that I can not hear any thing from him no way. If you could inform me where he is at present, you would "Confer a lasting favor", and afford great consolation to me, his Wife, awaiting your answer I am D. Sir

Your Obedt. Servt
