

Adj. Gen. Artillery Brigade 2^d Corps
February 22nd 1865.

Sir:

Allow me to present for your favorable consideration for promotion A. R. Lincoln Assistant Surgeon 1st Maine H. Art. I have known the Doctor for a period of over nine months and have seen him frequently during the trying scenes of the last campaign from Spottsylvania Court House to the front of Petersburg, - and I have had unusual opportunity of witnessing his zeal, capacity, and fitness for his duties as a medical officer - During the last four months he has been on duty in this brigade and has ever given entire satisfaction - He has been in service nearly three years - always at his post and I have no hesitation in cordially recommending him for promotion - Such an appointment would reflect equal honor upon your selection as well as doing a simple act of justice to a worthy and meritorious officer. I have the honor to be

Very Respectfully Obedt. Servt.

W. J. Davis

Surgeon in Chief
Artillery Brigade 2^d Corps

To His Excellency
General Long.