Convalescent Camp near Alexandria

General

I am here sick and shall never be able to rejoin my Regiment; I have written several times to my Captain for my Descriptive list; but as the Regt. is in motion most of the time and the Company books packed up, he cannot send it — the sooner I get it, the sooner I shall be discharged and enabled to come home, where by proper care and treatment I may recover —

Will you be so kind, Sir, as to send my Descriptive list Directed to "Post Hospital, Alexandria Care of Colonel Belknap"

and greatly oblige

Your obedient servant
