State of Maine

Council Chamber at 16th 1821 your Committee who had under consideration the petition of John N Fairbanks praying that the sentence of the Supreme Judicial Court passed on him at Wiscasset in the County of Lincoln on the fourth Tuesday of September in the year one thousand eight hundred & twenty may be remitted after due consideration — ask leave to report — that your Committee having sufficient proof to satisfy them that the said John N Fairbanks is in a low ^{and} dangerous state of health by reason of which one of opinion that the prayer of the petition ought to be granted and that the Governor be advised to grant him a Pardon —

all of which is respectfully submitted
