

Head Qrs 3rd Brigade
1st Div 5th Corp

June 23rd 1863

This may certify that Captain Pentip W. Fogler of the 24th Me Regt. - temporarily on duty as there Head Quarter as acting Aid. has shown himself to be a Competent and faithfull officer. at the battle of Middleburg on the 21st of June he rendered valuable service and though constantly exposed to the fire of the Enemy he ~~showed himself~~ behaved with coolness and bravery Ever constant at his post. Ever ready to perform any duty his position demanded. a young man of strictly temperate habits and an upright moral character. it is with pleasure that I give him this letter of recommendation. and think him worthy of a higher position

Cyril
S. Vincent
Col. 3rd Line Army Corps

W. M. Clark
a. a. a.

The following is an extract from Col. VINCENT's report to Gen. BARNES, commanding the Division, in relation to the part taken by the 3d Brigade in the fight at Middleburg. It will be seen that several officers from this region were highly complimented by Col. VINCENT. col. Vincent says "I wish to express my thanks to the officers of my staff for their intelligent and energetic aid on the march and in the field, and commend them to the favorable notice of the General Commanding. In addition to the assistance of the Acting Adjutant General, Lt. Clark, my Acting Aids, Capt. Judson and Fogler, Dr. Burchfield, Brigade Surgeon, and Capt. Ball, A. C. S., both non-combatants, tendered their services, and with the others behaved with great gallantry and coolness in carrying orders under fire."