Dr. Sir

John S. Little of Co. A.
2<sup>d</sup> Maine Reg. is a young man of good education, good habits, and a self made man. At considerable sacrifice he enlisted in the defence of his country and has proved himself to be a good and valient soldier.
It would be gratifying to him and his friends, as well as a reward for personal worth, if he should be promoted from the ranks and commissioned as an officer. I wrote for Washburn respecting him and had the promise that something should be done for him as soon as there was a opportunity.

Will you please bear him in mind when an opportunity offers and do something for him? And it will be considered a personal favor as well as helping him.
Truly & Respectfully
