Maine Central Railroad Company,

TREASURER'S OFFICE.

Waterville, Meas. 31 1863

Hon. A. Coburn

Dear Sir:

John R. Day

of Co. H. Maine 3^d Regiment was at our Soldier's Lodge on Friday evening last drunk and the worst of all was that he had on nice new Shoulder Straps ~~on~~ of the rank of Captain in our glorious army. He had a bottle of liquor with him, and drank himself with another in the Hall, to the disgust of all who saw it. I have nothing against the man, but may God and the Governors of our States save our soldiers from being led by such drunken officers.
