DESCRIBES CONDITIONS IN VENEZUELA

Artist Abbott Graves Talks Interestingly to Port Club

ACTS AS MESSENGER

The Olympian Club was entertained by Mrs. J. M. Chambers, at The Manse, on Friday, July 15. The members of the club and their guests were addressed by the distinguished artist, Mr. Abbott Graves, who has for a number of years made Kennebunkport his summer home, and who has recently returned from Venezuela, where he spent the winter. He gave an interesting description of beautiful Caracas, the capital of Venezuela, to lighten the portrayal of the conditions of the political prisoners in the terrible prison by the Sea. These prisoners are chiefly educated and wealthy men, physicians, generals, men who have been ministers to foreign countries, one a member of the Hague Tribunal, imprisoned for merely expressing an opinion critical of government of Gomez. Such men are tortured as soon as arrested to make them tell anything which they may be suspected of knowing about a possible conspiracy and afterwards are thrust naked into the lowest tier of cells below the level of the sea where the water seeps through the walls. As a result of their tortures these men become imbeciles and are never again seen by their friends. One of these prisoners was a boy of fourteen who, in a school publication, had merely signed with other boys an article criticizing the government—which means Gomez the self "elected" president of Venezuela. The other boys had immediately been sent out of the country by their friends. This one is in the wet dungeon wearing an iron ball, weighing sixty pounds attached to a chain to his leg. When an effort was made to see if something could not be done to at least mitigate the conditions, the investigator was told that his friends need not expect ever to see the boy again.

In the six years of Gomez' presidency he has deposited to his credit in Germany six million dollars. Wealthy prisoners are made to pay a hundred dollars for a glass of water and the wife of one was compelled to pay ten thousand dollars that her husband might be fed. In a week another ten thousand was demanded. From this it may be guessed how some of the six millions has been acquired. Gomez was an Indian peon and is described as most cruel and avicious and absolutely uneducated.

A revolution against Gomez is now being planned and Mr. Graves having agreed to deliver a package of documents to a general outside the country, on his way to the United States, had a very narrow escape from disappearing like many other foreigners who have incurred the disapproval or suspicion of the governor.

Mr. Graves declared privately to some of those present that some of the facts known to him were too shocking to be described before an audience of ladies—that they would not sleep that night if he did. Mr. Graves feels strongly that something should be done to put an end to such barbarities in a country within a few hours' sail—less than a day—from our shores. To this end he has written and spoken extensively since his return.

Besides the members of the club many women prominent in the village and the summer colony were present at the meeting.

OPEN AIR VIEWS AND LECTURES

Rev. Henry N. Pringle, of the National Reform Bureau, Washington, D. C., a former Congregational clergyman holding pastorates in this state and a former Secretary of the Christian Civic League of Maine, was in town Monday and Tuesday, giving an illustrated lecture in Post Office square each evening on the temperance question and other activities of the bureau with which he is connected.

A fine assortment of pictures, depicting conditions in every section of the country before and after campaigns for improvement had been made and showing conditions which, if not speedily remedied, will create havoc in our entire economic policy, were thrown upon the screen in the presence of over 200 men, women and children.

Brief and interesting remarks were also made by former Sheriff Edward Emery of Sanford and Rev. C. H. McVey on the subject of National Prohibition and progress made along lines of sobriety.

A point worthy of mention brought out by one of the speakers was the fact that after many years whiskey and brandy are to be dropped from classification as drugs in the next issue of the United States Pharmacopeia, by the committee of 51 which is at present revising the list. It is true the vote for removal of these liquors was close, but physicians are yearly coming to realize that intoxicants are of little or no therapeutic value and rarely prescribe them.

The European war has already been a big factor in hastening the day of universal temperance and should such a condition come about the increased prosperity and stamina of manhood worldwide would soon bring about a normal condition in each country affected at present.

Apparent progress for National prohibition is made almost daily and workers in the cause have many reasons to feel encouraged as to the attainment of their principles.

13th Company Notes.

No drill Friday night.

Practically all of the infantry equipment of the company, rifles, blankets, etc., has arrived and is in storage until the armory has been fitted up.

Several members of the Company are planning to take advantage of visitors' day at Fort Williams next Sunday, leaving Kennebunk at an early hour by train.

The town authorities have been handed specifications of the needed equipment and changes in the town hall and lockers, etc., will be installed at an early date.

Capt. C. H. McVey, Lieutenants A. C. Merriman and Woodbury Stevens, together with Joseph Gallant, Earl Smith and William Wormwood will attend the tour of duty at Fort Williams, Portland Harbor, next week, being assigned to other companies of the Corps.

Much progress was made at Company drill last Friday evening under Sergeant Sutton and after encampment the boys will settle down to steady work. In view of the tense foreign situation much interest is being manifested the country over in National guard matters. The Maine state soldiers rank high in efficiency and in the 13th Company every effort will be made to equal and surpass if possible the enviable records of the other 12 companies of the Corps.

Dr. D. B. Crediford passed away at Rialto, California, last Monday afternoon, the cause of his death being heart failure. He was a native of Kennebunkport, a graduate of the Bowdoin Medical College and practised medicine a few years in this village. Owing to the severity of our winters he had made his home for the past few years in California.

BARNUM TO BE OUTDONE

The old society circus "in-jine" is already running with the throttle wide open and a clear track has been signaled right through to the big station dated "August 19th." Chief Engineer Parsons is certainly making the wheels of his preparation special just hum and he has a crew of train men with him who are backing his efforts to the limit. Nearly 100 strong the committee members are working loyally and none has yet refused to jump right into the game when requested.

There are twenty-three groups of workers each captained by a good capable live leader and the plans which they have this early outlined would fill a library. The forenoon parade exhibits will be a mile long and any of those ever attempted in the state of Maine before will be forgotten when this one "comes to town." The "auto eating sea serpent" alone will be worth walking miles to see. Parties are already being made up as far away as Lawrence, Mass., and Lewiston, to attend the circus. Join everybody else in boosting "to beat the band." Following are the officers, chairmen of committees and some completed groups of workers:

KENNEBUNK TAKES ONE MORE GAME

The Kennebunk team visited Bar Mills Saturday afternoon, easily defeating the home team in an interesting and well-played game. Goodnow pitched for Kennebunk and held the home team scoreless until the ninth, when Elwell, who was the only man to reach 3rd, scored on a passed ball.

RESCUES BOY FROM DROWNING

John Darvill Proves Equal to Emergency

MONDAY AFTERNOON

To the presence of mind and timely action of John Darvill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Darvill, on Monday afternoon little Reginald King undoubtedly owes his life.

The King boy, who cannot swim, while in the act of being carried across the river near the dam, on the back of Eddie Brown who was bathing at that place became frightened and in his struggles lost his hold on his carrier at the same time practically disabling him. Brown was in no condition to assist the little fellow and came near drowning himself. Young King made frantic struggles in the water and had sank for the third time when Darvill who had just finished his swim and was dressing nearly jumped in and brought the boy to safety.

John has been the recipient of hearty congratulations for his heroism but modestly refuses to discuss his part in the affair.

Two Sisters Nearing Century Mark.

In the town of Berwick reside two sisters, whose combined age is 187 years, Mrs. John Clement, aged 99, and Mrs. Patience Downs, aged 88. Mrs. Clement is now rather feeble but is able to walk about the house, assisted by her cane, and takes a keen interest in all that goes on about her. Her sister, Mrs. Downs, is with her most of the time and bustles about like a woman at least 20 years younger in helping make life comfortable for her. The eyesight of each is but slightly impaired. They are the daughters of Nehemiah and Mary Cooper and reside on the Cooper farm.

New England Railroads Claim Serious Losses.

Seven New England railroads have filed petitions in the U. S. Court of Claims at Washington, alleging they have lost sums aggregating nearly $11,000,000 in the last six years through carrying the mails under the present system of weights. Over two millions of that sum is claimed by Maine roads the Maine Central purporting to be the heaviest loser.

A Tannery for Biddeford.

The members of the Business Men's Association, who have been endeavoring to secure new industries since the organization was formed several years ago, expect to secure a tannery, employing 125, before fall, says the Biddeford correspondent of the Boston Globe.

Democratic Chances Good.

Charles T. Read, of Biddeford, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, who has been through the eastern part of the state with Senator Johnson, reports that many Maine Republicans favor Wilson and that the party organization is at present in better shape than for a long time.

Robert Boyd, the 13-year-old son of Hon. Byron Boyd, former Secretary of State, and grandson of U. S. Senator E. C. Burleigh, was instantly killed at Augusta, yesterday, while playing with boy friends on a steel tower carrying high tension electric wires.

larger cities, including Boston,
New York and Chicago, containing daily stories of heat prostrations and deaths, Kennebunk for the past few days has been enjoying cool breezes and pleasant weather. This is a normal summer condition for this locality, which is yearly attracting more and more summer visitors who, after one season are regular patrons of our nearby beach resorts.If present plans materialize the state of Maine will some day be a factor of no mean importance in the cattle raising industry. A company proposes to take over 38,000 acres of land in Washington county which is figured as being sufficient to support 5000 animals the year around. In many sections of the state land is available for this purpose and with the nearing depletion of our timber supply some such use must be made of the land in the more rural sections.Massachusetts politicians who farmer to make as much cider as he could. Maine's prohibitory law has been a political football for many years, partly for this reason and the state does not now occupy the position it rightly should in the campaign for national and world-wide prohibition.

KENNEBUNKPORT NEWS

PORT TEAM WINS AGAIN.

The Kennebunkport Baseball
Club added to their laurels last Saturday afternoon, when they defeated the husky Fort Williams team in a stubbornly fought contest, the score being 6 to 8. The shower at noon threatened to prevent the playing of the game, but the sun came out shortly after,
and, although it seemed likely to rain almost any minute, yet a few drops were all that descended, until after the completion of the game. The sun at times shone in a fiery manner upon the players and spectators. The clubs proved to be quite evenly matched.
The local team was somewhat altered in its makeup, Cody having been introduced at shortstop, in which position it is understood he will be a fixture for the balance of the season. Littlefield was unable to play, having been prostrated by an attack of the grip. Barker filled his place at third in a splendid manner. Butland and E. Coombs were the battery for Kennebunkports and played in excellent style, the former having superb control of the ball and walking only one man, while being credited with a good number of strike-outs. Flagg, the giant pitcher of the opposing nine, had great speed, and did good work in his position. McCandles, the visitors, second baseman, covered his territory in a fine manner and is also to be credited with the longest hit of the day, which, going into deep left field, unfortunately for the batter, went over the fence and, according to the ground rules, allowed him only two bases for it, when otherwise it would have been good for three of them and possibly for a home run. Shelling of the same team made the most spectacular catch of the day, capturing a foul fly, that seemed beyond the reach of any player, after a long run. For this he received the well-won applause of the spectators. Butland nabbed a high bouncer by a surprisingly lofty leap and put the runner out by a good recovery and accurate throw to first. There were several double plays; in one inning the visitors had a man on first and the batter sent a hot grounder to Cody who fielded it promptly to Gould at second, who got it to first ahead of the runner. In another inning Barker caught a fly with a man on first and got it to A. Towne at first before the runner could get back to the bag. It was a close play, but the umpire called him out and his decision was accepted.
Gould at second caught a runner by the old trick of holding the ball and tagging the runner. This player had been on first and a batted ball had been fielded to first in time to put the striker out, and then had been thrown to second, but arrived too late. In the confusion the runner lost track of the sphere and started to take a little headway from second, when he was caught napping. Another game between these clubs would be an attraction to the fans.
Two games have been already played and honors are now easy.
There was a good attendance of baseball enthusiasts, who enjoyed the game all the way through. The score follows:

BALL FIELD DONATED.

Kennebunkport is to have a ball field of its very own. The interest shown in this game and in other athletic sports has led Henry Parsons of Parson's Beach and New York City to add another to his already long list of beneficencies to the communities hereabouts. This matter has been in contemplation for some time and has just been concluded in the passing of a check drawn by Mr.
Parsons for payment of the price on the lot selected. The new field will be situated on a part of what was formerly the Maling lot on School street, which was purchased several years ago by Charles D. Wescott, of Malden, Mass. It is a plot containing 210,000 square feet and is, roughly speaking, 400 by 500 feet in dimension. The surveyor who measured the land before the deal was completed pronounced it one of the most eligible sites he has ever examined for the purpose for which it is intended. Very little grading will have to be done to put it in shape. Mr. Parsons proposes, in his generous and thorough-going manner, to grade and drain the lot and lay out the diamond in first-class shape before turning it over for use. This splendid gift of Mr. Parsons is very highly appreciated by the permanent and summer residents of the community. Deep interest in such a center of outdoor sport and exercise—a plot that can be devoted not only to the great American pastime, but may also be used for such contests as tennis —is shown by a lengthy subscription list secured by Silas H. Perkins some months ago, when the project was first broached. Work on the preparation of the grounds will be commenced within a short time and it is anticipated that all arrangements will be made before the season of 1916. One improvement under contemplation is the erection of a suitable grandstand, from which spectators can view the contests under comfortable conditions. The community is under great obligations to Mr.
Parsons for his thoughtfulness.
The streets of the village are being treated to a coating of asphalt oil. About two and a half miles of road are being so sprinkled. The roads thus favored are Main street, from Lutelle Hutchins residence to the road leading to the Wildes district and the cross streets running from Main street to Ocean avenue. It was found the oiling of a larger distance could be done about as cheaply as watering of a much shorter length. It is anticipated the enterprise will contribute much to the comfort of the people during the summer months.The funeral services of Theodore C. Rounds, who died suddenly last Tuesday, as noted in the Enterprise of last week, were held at his late residence, in the Wildes district, on Thursday afternoon.

sister, who was unable to attend.
Mr. Rounds was in the navy during the Rebellion. He was very highly esteemed by those acquainted with him. The inter-has developed in these contests, which afford considerable amusement for contestants and specta-

ered on the square last Wednesday evening by Rev. I. E. Terry, pastor of the local Advent Christian church. At its conclusion a few representatives of the Salvation Army held a brief meeting.Walter Sicily, chauffeur for Henry Meyer, was charged with an assault by threat on Reuel W.
Norton of the Breakwater Court, and a hearing was held before Judge Bourne last Thursday evening. Several witnesses, besides the principals were examined and the defendant was held guilty by the presiding judge and a fine and costs, totalling $7, was imposed.
Mr. Sicily appealed to the Septem-

Rev. John Bicknell, who was a recent pastor of the Congregational churches of this town, has been appointed president of Jaffna college, which is located in the island of Ceylon. Some years ago Mr.
Bicknell was a teacher in that institution. Mr. Bicknell has presented his resignation to the Congregational church of Mansfield, Mass., with which he has been connected since leaving Kennebunkport. It is expected that he, accompanied by Mrs. Bicknell and their little son, will leave for the new field of labor about the first of August, spending some time in San Francisco before taking ship
for the voyage across the Pacific.
The best wishes of a host of warm friends follow him from this place.Saturday afternoon the local baseball team will meet a club from Limerick on the playgrounds.
A match previously arranged with these players was called off planning to make every effort to overcome them this week.Last Friday afternoon Mrs.

Lobster Law Referendum Lost

A canvass of the petitions for invoking the referendum on the lobster license law at the Secretary of State's office Monday disclosed the fact that these petitions lacked about 4,500 of the necessary 10,000 names, and that the referendum had not been invoked.

The lobster license law is the strongest for the protection of lobsters that Maine has adopted in the years of legislation on the subject of protecting the lobsters, and the general belief among those interested in the lobster industry is that it will pretty effectually kill the business in "shorts."

The law provides for a system of licenses for lobster fishermen, the smackmen and the lobster dealers. Smackmen are also to put up a bond of $500 that they will not violate the law, and this bond is forfeited if they are convicted of violating the law. The legal limits for lobsters are not changed, but heavy penalties are provided for catching, selling or having short lobsters, and the eventual punishment is loss of license, which would prevent one from engaging in the lobster business at all. Statewide jurisdiction is conferred upon fish wardens, they are given increased power, and two patrol boats are provided for their use.

OGUNQUIT

Rev. E. H. Macy of Lynn, Mass., was again the preacher at the Christian church as a candidate Sunday. Next Sunday President Ware of Atlanta University will preach. Mr. Ware is among the most popular of our summer cottagers. Mr. Macy is a fine speaker and a talented soloist, and has held a number of large pastorates with good success. He has one adopted daughter.

There was a steady stream of automobiles Sunday. From an actual count made it was estimated that there was an average of four each minute passing a given point.

The bathers were out in force Sunday, a large crowd being in the water and a large crowd watching the bathers.

Hotels and boarding houses are now well filled and between the showers it begins to look like the good old summer time.

St. Peter's church was crowded with worshippers Sunday to listen to Mr. Fernley and from what we were well pleased.

Prof. Ward's Musicales.

Professor Julius E. Ward's musicale at the Ogunquit Christian church Friday evening proved an artistic success. A splendid audience and chorus and soloists

TRAGEDY IN MAINE

The following heart-breaking story is from the poetical pen of Helen A. Prince of Portland throughout the tortuous tale one hundred and twenty-six names of Maine's numerous post offices, lakes and rivers are interwoven. It is worthy of memorizing.

Young Byron Matineus, riding through Maine,
Slowed his Cobboscontee to a Norridgewock,
As Brighton the Greenfield the Sunshine did Wayne,
And this was his song to the Wytopitlock:
"The South Windsor blowing Andover the Lee
The Brooks to the Riverside Carroll along,
I Ask with all Freedom of Friendship, you see,
And I Hope, Little Squaw, that your Hartland is Strong:
I am Benton a Union, a Minot a man
You'd Revere and Lookout for till Christmas Snow Falls?
We could Marion nothing Solon (g) as you can Cook dinners for Tennants (and) Harbor them all.
Moro-ver my Deer Isle praise up your food,
The knives and The Forks and the China you use,
Give me Porter to drink from the Brewer so good
And Great Works you'll see, Myra, Phair, don't refuse Let Surry the wedding, Tilden I can Waite,
With Industry Frankforts and Alewives I'll chew,
But calves' Livermore strongly appeals to my pate
With he Cranberry Isle soon be eating with you.
Now loan me an Eagle Isle buy you a ring,
A Diamond costs more, but a crystal is neat,
Somerset in pure gold, but copper wears well,— Dirigo to Seeket, Olamon so sweet.

Up spake Wytopitlock, "O, Jay, save your breath,
Don't Action an impulse, just Holden, you see,
A Manset the fashion to Marion love,
But gold Bonny Eagles look better to me,
Otis useless to ask, Cyr, you're Stark staring Mad—Rid your mind of the Prospect of such Harmony,
Anson, let me tell you, I like not your form,
A good Casco beer would look better to me.
Brasua and you're Calais and Denmark my words,
You are Castine a mould I could never admire,
'Tis my cooking you love, as I Frye the Reed birds,
But Pushaw, that's enough, I must go fix my fire."

Then Byron Matineus blazed forth in wrath,
As Wytopitlock so savage, laid on the hard Knox,
"I'll Maranocook, to the North Leeds my path,
I'll go Saddleback to the far Macwahocs.
Damariscotta! Chesuncook!" Rapids Woolwich now Wales,
"Muscongus, Wiscasset, Cusabexis, Mopang!
Pamedamcook, the great Annabessacook fails, Welokennebacook! giddap and g'lang!"

Wytopitlock stood watching, as toward Baskedegan,
Deer Pataquongomis quick galloped away,
Then cried out, "Tomhegan and greater Skowhegan, Monhegan and Sshoodic and Wallagrass Gray!
O, Mooseluckmaguntic, by great Sourdahunk, Agamenticus, Musquash and Little Sebago!
Ripogenus, Cape Neddick, Molechunkamunk, Mattamiscontis and great Kennebag!
O, Passamaquoddy, Aroostook and Mousam,
Isle Au Haut, Mattawamkeag, Sebec, Allegash, Carrabassett, Ogunquit, Pamcockamook rouse 'em—
I smell something burning, I'm scorching the hash!"

JOHN KENDRICK BANGS ON VACATION

There is real sense and considerable sound philosophy in that little poem of our fellow-townsmen, John Kendrick Bangs, entitled, "Give Old Mother Nature a Chance." It runs like this:

"Escape from the shop for a little,
No matter just where it may be,
Go out in the green woods and whittle
Or wander along by the sea,
Fly forth from the turbulent city
And all of its clangorous ills,
And list to the jovial ditty
Of birds on the bourgeoning hills.
No matter how much you enjoy it,
Drop work for a moment and dance.
Go out for a little and 'boy it'—
Give old Mother Nature a chance.
Be noisy and fresh, and be jolly;
Build castles of nothing but air;
Drop worry and blank melancholy—
Escape from vexation and care.
Go lie on the grass and just holler;
Go laze by the babbling streams.
Forget there's a thing called a dollar,
And live in your visions and dreams.
Like mist of the night, like a bubble,
Will vanish unquiet and fear,
And out of the sea of your trouble
Will rise the warm sunlight and cheer."

CAPE PORPOISE.

acquitted themselves most creditably.

Prof. Ward deserves much credit for the interest he has shown in the musical development of the town. Miss Florence Gaffney, 19 years old, soprano from Boston, and Stanley Pierce, 18 years old, bass from Chicago, both took the audience by storm. Both have a glorious career ahead of them. Miss Florence Kember, contralto, of Biddeford, sang "Good-by, Sweet Day," in a manner seldom heard, and her rich, full, deep contralto, in the duet, "Vivo E Tamo," with Prof. Ward (which was sung by both in a most artistic manner) is one of rare sympathy and compass. Miss Elsie Woolard, soprano, of Biddeford, has a remarkably sweet and pure soprano voice. Prof. Ward's versatility as a composer, pianist, vocalist, conductor and teacher of pure Italian method of singing, was fully and most acceptably demonstrated. His clear, mellow, full tenor showed to great advantage in "None Ver." A repetition of the musicale was demanded and will be complied with by Prof. Ward.

Mrs. Helen Scott of Chautauqua, Ill., is spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Louis Nelson. There were one hundred and forty-three guests at the Langsford House over Sunday.

Mrs. Dudley of Bryant's Pond and Mrs. Saunders of Bethel have been spending a few days with Mrs. Arthur Nunan.

Mrs. Arthur Talbot of Norwood, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Seavey. Miss Addie Bryant, also of Norwood, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Mehitable Moulton of Lynn, Mass., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Littlefield of this place. Although quite aged Mrs. Moulton enjoys the auto trips, and was brought to this place from Sanford by her son, Oren Moulton accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Brown, taking in the beaches on the trip.

The Rev. Mr. Newton of Biddeford, who with his family is spending his vacation on Vaughn's Island, gave a most interesting address at the church Sunday morning.

How, and Why,

—the GOODRICH "Fair-List" Propaganda

now saves Car-Owners, yearly,

over $25,000,000 on Tires

THERE are 1,923,951 Automobiles now State-licensed, and running, in the United States.

Of these, 1,803,951 are Pleasure Cars—i.e., exclusive of Trucks, etc.

More than 90% of them, or about 1,623,555, use Pneumatic Tires.

Each car will wear out and replace, on average, about one Set of Four Tires per year.

Therefore, the interests of each Car-Owner as well as each Car-Manufacturer, each Car-Dealer, and Salesman, is vitally and personally affected by the price of Tires to Consumers.

Because,—Tires and Gasoline are the two big items of consumption in the operation of Motor Cars.

The Owner who used his Car 1,000 Miles less per year, than he would have done, because of "the high-price of Tires and Gasoline," received that much less return from his entire investment in the Car proper.

The potential, or prospective, Car-Owner who fails to buy a Car because of "the high cost of Tires and Gasoline,"—he who sells his Car and does not buy again because of "the high cost of Tires and Gasoline"—or he who, for the same reason, stores his Car and does not run it during a considerable part of the year, is a direct loss to —1st—Automobile Manufacturers, as a class.

—2d—Automobile Dealers, as a class.

—3d—Garage Owners, as a class.

—4th—Lubrication & Gasoline Manufacturers, as a class.

But,—he is a greater loss to TIRE Manufacturers, and Dealers, as a class, than to any others.

Because,—

—Gasoline and Lubricants, for instance, can be sold to the Owners of Motor Boats, Stationary, and other Motors.

But,—Automobile Tires can only be sold, in the ultimate, to the man who OWNS a Car, and who wears out Tires through using it.

EVERY mile that each Automobile runs, means an automatic Sale of Tires to replace that mileage with new Tires.

But, all the Salesmanship, and all the Advertising, under the Sun, could not increase, by a single Tire, the total sales of Tires beyond the number of Cars owned by Consumers, and the number of Miles each Consumer runs his Car yearly.

The Market for Tires is therefore limited inflexibly, to the number of Cars running, and the Mileage which each Owner is induced to run yearly.

Therefore, we opine that to promote greater Sales, and greater use, of Automobiles, few better incentives can be offered than markedly-lowered cost, TO CONSUMERS, for Tires and Gasoline.

Just as we recognize that the only legitimate expansion open to the Tire Industry, as a whole, would be due to the Sale of more Automobiles each year to Consumers, with a greater average Mileage USE, per year, of each Car by each Owner.

That is why we favor the lowest possible price for Tires,—to Consumers, consistent with maintenance of high quality and a fair profit to Dealer and Mfr.

So this, then, is a leading reason why WE initiated, and propagated, that Goodrich "Fair-List" Movement which we publicly announced in the press on Jan. 31, 1915, and which caused practically every Pneumatic Tire Manufacturer in this Country to follow our lead and bring his prices down to a fairer level.

THIS is also the reason why some Tire Manufacturers, who could not, or would not, "meet" our BASIC prices for Pneumatic Tires (even though our "Fair-List" Propaganda obliged them to make heavy reductions off their former Lists) might erroneously suppose that "Goodrich" Tires have been cheapened in Quality, as well as in price.

Hence this explanation (to the Public, to Car-Manufacturers, Dealers, Car-Salesmen, Garages, and Tire Dealers generally) that we deem it "good business" to sell the best Goodrich Tires (of fabric construction) we have ever made, at the fairest price possible for such quality.

Hence, too, the following TEST offer to Consumers.

—We will cheerfully pay for any Goodrich Safety "Non-Skid" Tire, sold since our "Fair-List" price-reduction (announced on January 31, 1915), which when cut open shows any reduction in quality, in number of layers of Canvas, in thickness, or quality of Rubber, when compared with any other Goodrich Safety "Non-Skid" made by us, and sold at our higher prices current before the Goodrich "Fair-List" Movement.

And,—this is further to authorize any Tire-User to extend this Offer (at our expense) to any Tire Dealer, or Manufacturer.

We ask Car-Owners, and Tire Consumers, in their own interest, to see that no "implication" of lowered quality in Goodrich Tires goes unchallenged—just as we have protected their interests, for our own sake, through our "Fair-List" Propaganda.

BECAUSE of that GOODRICH "Fair-List" Propaganda, every Car-Owner who now buys any make of Tire sized 37 x 5, now saves on each set of 4 Tires, an average of about $46.27.

—Every Car-Owner who uses 34 x 4 Tires, of any make, now saves, through the Goodrich "Fair-List" Propaganda an average of about $26.15 per Set of 4 Tires.

Made as always—

- The same reliable Construction.
- The same dependable Service.
- Nothing whatever taken out of materials or Quality, no matter what reductions in List-Price are ever made.

—Every Car-Owner who uses 30 x 3 1/2 Tires, now saves, through the Goodrich "Fair-List" Propaganda, an average of about $14.70 per Set of 4 Tires.

Other sizes in proportion.

The 1,623,555 State-licensed Car-Owners who use Pneumatic Tires now save about 20% of what they last year paid for ANY make and size, whether they be Goodrich or competing brands,—equal to more than $25,000,000 per year.

And, don't forget that this giant saving to Car-Owners was never mentioned to the Public by other Tire Manufacturing Concerns until the Goodrich "Fair-List" Propaganda made it imperative that they extend the Saving to Consumers on their Tires, or lose business to the Goodrich Co.

But, notwithstanding all this,—the fact which should loom largest to TIRE-USERS is the contrast of 10% to 40% in prices, that still exists between the low price of the best Non-Skid Tires (of fabric construction) that money can buy, or the largest Rubber Factory in the World produce,—(to wit, GOODRICH Non-Skid Tires) and all other "responsible" Tires in the field.

Compare prices and see!

Then, if you are not already a Goodrich User, do yourself (and us), the justice to buy at least one GOODRICH "Non-Skid" Tire.

Test that out for Quality, Mileage and Resilience against any other Tire, at any price, which you are now using.

The result of such Test will cause you to wonder why you ever paid more for Maximum Quality, Mileage, and Resilience than the Basic price of Goodrich Non-Skid Tires?

INSPIRATION OF THE COUNTY FAIR

By Peter Radford.

When you enter the agricultural department of the county fair, you feel your soul uplifted and your life takes on a new power—that is the inspiration of the soil. You are overpowered by the grandeur and magnificence of the scene—that is the spirit of the harvest. You can hear the voice of nature calling you back to the soil—that is opportunity knocking at your door. It is a good chance to spend a quiet hour in contact with the purity and perfection of nature and to sweeten your life with its fragrance, elevate your ideals with its beauty and expand your imagination with its power.

These products as food are fit for the gods, and as an article of commerce they ought to bring up-top prices on any market in the world.

The products of the soil are teachers and preachers as well. Their beauty gives human life its first entertainment, their perfection stirs the genius in artists; their purity furnishes models for growth of character and their marvelous achievements excite our curiosity and we inquire into the wonderful process of nature.

Before leaving the parlor of agriculture where nature is parading in her most graceful attire and science is climbing the giddy heights of perfection, let us pause and take a retrospective view. How many of you know that after these wonderful products are raised, they can seldom be marketed at a profit? Take the blushing Elberta, for example—they were fed to the hogs by the carload last year. The onion—the nation's favorite vegetable—every year rots by the acre in the Southwest for want of a market and as a result hundreds of farmers have lost their homes. Cotton—nature's capitalist—often goes begging on the market at less than cost of production.

It is great to wander through the exhibits while the band is playing "Dixie" and boast of the marvelous fertility of the soil and pride ourselves on our ability to master science, but it is also well to remember that there is a market side to agriculture that does not reflect its hardships in the exhibits at a county fair.

UNIVERSAL PEACE

This nation is now in the midst of a controversy as to how best to promote universal peace. That question we will leave for diplomats to discuss, but peace within nations is no less important than peace between nations and it is heavily laden with prosperity for every citizen within our commonwealth.

Many leading politicians and oftentimes political platforms have declared war upon business and no cabinet crisis ever resulted. Many men have stood in high places and hurled "gas bombs" at industry; thrust bayonets into business enterprises and bombarded agriculture with indifference. Party leaders have many times broken diplomatic relations with industry; sent political aviators spying through the affairs of business, and political submarines have sent torpedoes crushing into the destiny of commerce. During the past quarter of a century we have fought many a duel with progress, permitted many politicians to carry on a guerrilla warfare against civilization and point a pistol at the heart of honest enterprise.

No man should be permitted to cry out for universal peace until his record has been searched for explosives, for no vessel armed or laden with munitions of war should be given a clearance to sail for the port of Universal Peace. Let us by all means have peace, but peace, like charity, should begin at home.

GRASPING AT THE SHADOW

No man—especially if he is married—would deny woman any right she demands. Take the earth and give us peace, but why does woman long for the ballot?

When all is said and done, is not the selection of the butcher more important to the home than the election of a mayor; is not the employment of the dairyman a far more important event in the life of the children than the appointment of a postmaster; is not the selection of books for the family library more important than voting bonds for jail and court house? Why does woman lay aside the important things in life? Why leave the substance and grasp at the shadow?

Be it said to the credit of womanhood that it is not, as a rule, the woman who rocks the cradle that wants to cast the ballot; it is not the mother who teaches her children to say "Now I lay me down to sleep" that harangues the populace; it is not the daughter who hopes to reign as queen over a happy home that longs for the uniform of the suffragette. It is, as a rule, the woman who despises her home, neglects her children and scorns motherhood that leads parades and smashes windows.

When one class of people has anything to say, it has become largely the custom to make a political issue out of it instead of a friendly discussion, to print it in a law book instead of a newspaper and to argue it before a jury instead of to settle it in the higher courts of Common Sense. As a result, political agitators, political lawyers, political preachers and masculine women are powerful in politics and dissension, selfishness, intolerance and hysterics run rampant in public affairs, for when the low, damp, murky atmosphere of misunderstanding envelops public thought it breeds political reptiles, vermin, bugs and lice which the pure air of truth and the sunshine of understanding will choke to death.

We have too many self-appointed interpreters of industry who are incapable of grasping the fundamental principles of business and who at best can only translate gossip and add color to sensational stories. No business can stand upon error and might rules—right or wrong. No industry can thrive upon misunderstanding, for public opinion is more powerful than a King's sword.

When prejudice, suspicion and class hatred prevail, power gravitates into the hands of the weak, for demagogues thrive upon dissension and statesmen sicken upon strife.

The remedy lies in eliminating the middleman—the political gossip—and this result can be accomplished by the managers of business sitting around the table of industry and talking it over with the people. Interchange of information between industries and the people is as necessary to success in business as interchange in commodities, for the people can only rule when the public understands. Away with political interpreters who summon evil spirits from their prison cells and loose them to prey upon the welfare of the people in the name of "My Country."

Work for the best and the best will rise up and reward you.

Tenant farming is just one thing after another without a pay day.

Our Own Little Town.

If you meet a man who is down in the mouth, who thinks that his town is all wrong; just take him aside or give him a ride and hand him this quaint little song:

"There are fancier towns than our own little town, there are towns bigger than this; and the people who live in the tinier towns all the city excitement will miss. There are things you can see in the wealthier town that you can't in the town that is small; and yet up and down there is no other town like our little town after all. It may be the street through the heart of our town isn't long, isn't wide, isn't straight; but the neighbors you know in our own little town with a welcome your coming will wait.

"In the glittering streets of the glittering town with its palace and pavement and thrall; in the midst of a throng you'll frequently long for our own little town after all. If you live and work and trade in our town in spite of the fact that it's small, you'll find that the town—our own little town—is the best kind of a town after all.

THE COUNTRY EDITOR.

Year after year he chronicled
The little town's affairs;
The births, the deaths, the visitings,
The sorrows and the cares;
In his reports of weddings he Excelled—For instance, when
"The bride, a vision of delight"
Was made so by his pen.

Our graduations were his forte
(Held in the Public Hall)
At church picnics, "A pleasant time"

Was always "had by all."
Like murmured "requiscats" were
The "obits" he would write;
His daily comments kindly were,
Nor ever charged with spite.

And when the need arose, he'd fight;
Straight to the point he'd come,
And make the columns of his sheet
A true Palladium; He'd hold the "solons" to their task;
Their schemes and tricks would call;
He wished to curtail no one's rights,
But sought fair play for all.
