A good turn-out for the lawn party at the Methodist church Wednesday evening. The grounds were handsomely decorated with lanterns, and the evening was a little chilly, like the rest of this year, but the ice cream sold well. There was no special programme.

This is an Oklahoma editor's view (and there is the germ of truth in it). "To run a newspaper all the way from do to do is to be able to write poems, discuss the tariff and money question, write a base ball game, report a wedding, saw wood, describe a fire so that the readers will shed their wraps, make a dollar, do the work of ten, shine at a dance, measure the liquor, and, in short, do everything else that a man can do."

The town of Wilton celebrated the centennial of its incorporation on Tuesday. A salute of 100 guns was fired at the celebration. The programme included an address of welcome by Dr. A. R. Adams, president of the centennial committee, an oration by Hon. Robert Luce of Somerville, Mass., a poem by Mrs. Sarah E. Lowell, and an historical address by Hon. C. N. Blanchard. Fireworks in the evening completed the programme.

Card of Thanks. After a delay of several weeks, but not so long as to be forgotten, we wish to express our thanks to all who so kindly stood by and assisted us during the last illness of our companion and mother, and to the many friends who gathered for the fine vocal and instrumental music furnished at the funeral, nor those who accompanied the flowers with which the casket was decorated.

JOHN TIMBETH, FRANK BENNETT, Mrs. A. S. Brooks, Mrs. LAMONT COLE.

Thousands suffer and hundreds die every year in this country from some kind of a cancer complaint. The best remedy for these diseases in children or adults is Dr. SETH ARNOLD'S Italian Liniment. It is a sure cure for all kinds of cancer, and is given in the form of a liniment, ointment, or pills, as the case may be. Leonard Briggs, formerly of this town, died in Newmarket, N. H., last Monday. He had been in the country for some time, and for a much longer time had been in feeble health. The remains were brought here Wednesday afternoon, and accompanied by his wife and son, and were buried in Riverside Cemetery, with prayer by Rev. A. W. Pottle. Mr. Briggs was 64 years of age, a native of Paris and a resident here until within a few years. He had been in the U. S. Army, and was discharged in 1864, serving till the end of the war.

The expenses of a term are now as low as before the present splendid equipment was completed. $50.00 to $65.00 will pay all bills for a term of twelve weeks. By self-teaching, students are able to reduce expenses to a rate within the means of any ambitious boy or girl. Write the principal for catalogue or further information.
