Boys Located in Kennebunk

Tuesday evening Deputy Sheriff Ernest S. Jones picked up a couple of boys at York Beach, whom the police of Lawrence and Beverly had been looking for. They passed through here yesterday, probably on their way home. Stephen H. Connor of 25 Mill street Beverly is one of the lads. He says he was committed to the Massachusetts Reform School by his mother because he wouldn't work. He is an American. He has a brother in the Navy, who is the sole support of the family. His father is dead. The other one is John Fredette, aged 15 of 21 Tremont street Lawrence, Mass. He has a father, mother, 6 sisters and two brothers. He was committed for breaking and entering a store there in Lawrence. These lads made their escape about a week ago and walked from Lawrence to Portsmouth. They were searching for work and not finding any there boarded a freight train and came to Portland. From there they walked to Biddeford. They slept in an old wagon Monday night and Tuesday, while hungry, tired and cold, broke and entered the home of Jennette Haynes on the state road between here and Biddeford, in search of food. While there they stole clothing and a few small articles amounting to about $10. They were returned to the Chief of Police of Lawrence Wednesday.

ANNUAL FAIR

The ladies of St. Monica's Church will hold their annual fair in the Town Hall February 15. In the afternoon and evening. The Hibernians of Biddeford who made such a decided hit here last year, will provide the entertainment. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale. Twenty-five cents admission will be charged in the evening, but the afternoon is free. The fancy table is tended by Mrs. P. Raino, and Mrs. Eugene King.

Mrs. Frank Clark has charge of the aprons.
Mrs. Lamontague and Mrs. Ne-dean have charge of the cake table.
Miss Eva King and Miss Irma Chartier will sell the candy.
The bundle table is in charge of Mrs. Mary Maling and Mrs. George Chartier.
The booths will be prettily decorated and the hall will doubtless present a very attractive appearance.

K. H. S. NOTES

There will be some changes on the line-up of the basketball team. The boys are making a good showing, although they have no place to practice.

Kennebunk High School will play Gorham Normal School next Saturday, January 29 at Gorham. February 4 they play Berwick Academy at Berwick.

Other games pending are Biddeford High and York High.
The Yankees went to Biddeford last week and played a picked team from Biddeford; the score being 22 to 10 in favor of the Yankees. The local boys who played were: Lunge, Eldridge, Hanson, Emery and Littlefield.

Kennebunkport High lost to Biddeford High 96 to 9, the same evening.

13TH COMPANY NOTES

Regular drill Friday night. Non-commissioned officers school Thursday night.

Perley Knight and Victor Hesp are signal men for the 13th Co.

The new equipments and uniforms that have been expected arrived today and every man will be supplied next Friday. All new members are requested to be present to receive them.

Colonel James L. Moriarty, Inspector General of Lewiston will inspect the 13th company Thursday March 2.

February 5, 15 men will go to Portland to work on the big guns. Those showing the most marked improvement in the work will be chosen.

LOCALS

Mr. Harvey Grant was in Portland over Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Reginald Hartford of Portland was at home over Sunday.

Mrs. Sumner Pitts was a Portland visitor Sunday.

Neal C. Harden was confined to the house several days last week, ill with a cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bailey of Boston were Sunday guests of Miss Louie Williams.

Miss Alice Allen has been confined to the house by an attack of grippe.

Robert Cram returns to Kennebunk January 29 for the mid-year vacation of one week.

Mr. Ray Cousins has been ill for two weeks with a severe attack of grippe.

Mrs. Fannie Jackson has returned from the Maine General Hospital.

The girls sewing class of the Lower Village will resume its meetings on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Chase.

Rev. G. L. Thompson of Laconia, N. H. supplied at the Unitarian Church last Sunday. His theme was "Music."

The Unitarian Alliance will hold a meeting at 4 o'clock Thursday in the Church parlor. The fortnightly social will follow. Supper at 6.30.

Mr. Howard P. Grant, of Boston, Mass., a graduate of the New England Linotype School, is assisting on the machine at the Enterprise office.

The February meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held February 4 with Mrs. Raino. Program: The Crusade Spirit Selections from Frances Willard. Hour of meeting 3 o'clock.

All members interested in sewing for the York County Children's Aid met (this) Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Cram. Contributions of cloth or money will be greatly appreciated.

For husky throats use our improved Bronchial Lozenges, 10c a box, Fiske, the druggist.

Miss Margaret Haley, Mr. Edward Titcomb and friends, Miss Marion Hurley and mother, Mr. Bernard Cook, A. L. Boston and Richard Crediford were among the local people who saw "The Only Girl" in Portland Saturday.

Use Fiske's Almond Toilet Lotion for rough and chapped skin, 25c.

The next meeting of the Mothers' Club of the Lower Village will be held at the home of Mrs. Hurley, Feb. 2, at 2.45. The meeting will be addressed by Miss Minetta Moore on the subject: "First Aid to the Injured." A large attendance of the mothers is desired.

The Colonial Theatre, Saco opened Monday evening with "The Battle Cry of Peace." The decorations were very attractive with colored lights strung all around the building, both inside and out. The ventilation and fire escapes are the very latest and it presents a very pleasing picture.

Fiske's Hypophosphites are different, sold only by Fiske, the druggist.

Word was received last Thursday of the death of Harry Fall at the state hospital, Augusta, Wednesday. He was afflicted with valvular heart disease and died very suddenly. The remains were brought here Saturday and placed in the Hope Cemetery.

Enjoy good health, take Fiske's Hypophosphites, 75c a bottle and worth it.

The building in back of the Downing block is to be moved by Mr. Dana Densmore this week up on Main street, back of Mrs. Potters. It is a small building 8 by 12 feet and is to be used by Arthur Potter as a wireless station. He is very much interested in wireless telegraphy and is planning to make a lot of experiments in that line when he gets it arranged. Mr. Bickford is putting in a new floor, windows and new sills.

Mr. Wallace Hatch was in Biddeford, Sunday.

A Pure White Mineral Oil, the constipation remedy, is sold by Fiske, the druggist.

Miss Grace Hubbard is visiting her grandmother at Maryland Ridge.

Mrs. Wyatt of Grove street went to the Maine General Hospital, Portland, yesterday.

Mrs. O. W. Holmes of Portland spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Blanche Potter.

Mrs. Henrietta Hatch has sold her household goods and is now at the home of Mrs. P. D. Greenleaf.

Donald, the 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Rolean, of Water street died Thursday night following a short illness of pneumonia. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon.

Monday evening the Mens Club of the Baptist church met and had a supper and a talk on "What they might do for the church." A club was formed for this purpose. Vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed.

The next meeting of the Web-hannet club will be held with Mrs. Goodnow as hostess, next Monday, Jan. 31, at the Second Congregational church. Dr. Lathan True of Portland will give an organ recital to which everyone is invited. The theme is "Music."

"The music in my life I bore, Long after it was heard no more."

SALUS LODGE NOTES

One candidate was admitted to the Order at our last meeting.

Installation of officers at the next meeting. Dist. Supt. of Juvenile Work Mrs. J. R. Pollard was present and gave a short but interesting talk on the needs of the Juvenile Temple work. At the close of the meeting the boxes were sold and a social time was enjoyed by all.

REV. MR. CARTER'S SPEECH

A meeting of the Men's club of the Congregational church was held Monday evening. After a supper consisting of oyster stew and its accompaniments, the address of the evening was given by Rev. William Carter former pastor of the Methodist church in the town in a very pleasing manner. A part of it follows:

"I have chosen to give my address the caption, 'The Conservation of the American Idea.'"

"This is a day when the term conservation has a large place in the vocabulary of thinking men. However applied it implies waste and destruction."

"As I shall use the term it recognizes forces working for the disintegrating of our national fabric, and the submerging of the American idea."

"I am here to say that the stylus with which our future history is to be written, is now being fashioned in the arena of intellectual and moral activities."

"The American idea scorns the false ring of a belligerent spirit and justifies war only when war is inevitable, as in the defense of national integrity and honor, or in wresting the hand of tyranny from a helpless people, and in either case as a last resort in effort to secure results demanded by a high sense of loyalty to righteousness, law and justice."

"Whether it be great the unwarrantable presumption of an heirarchy diametrically opposed to cherished institution of our people, or the the inexcusable indifference of such as appear to be unappreciative of the duties and privileges of citizenship."

"The American idea comprehends the best welfare of the people at large and also recognizes the right and privilege as well as duty of the individual. It challenges the advance of every idea which in its development may become a menace to our national life."

"In order with conservation must be preparedness that calls for a programme including intelligent citizenship, empowered manhood, consciousness of God."

High School Shooting Tournament

Through the courtesy of the local Co. 13, C. A. C., Capt. Merriman commanding, the newly installed rifle range in the lower part of the Town Hall has been offered to the high school boys for use one day each week under the supervision of A. F. Winter. Arrangements were completed yesterday at a meeting of the High School Athletic Association to hold a shooting tournament and the following boys enrolled:

Roland Hill, John Davis, Leon Davis, George Stanley, Albert Waddington, Hobart Kilgore, Ralph Davis Willis Day, Rodney Day, Sheldon Haywood, Oliver Truscott, Sherman Huff, Ellsworth Emmons, Raymond Lunge, Joseph Dane, Victor Hesp, Trafton Russell, Donald Grant, James Ross, Harry Littlefield, Raymond Whicher, Wallace Hatch.

The tournament opened this afternoon with the several goupes shooting at appointed hours. High scores were made by John Davis, George Stanley, Victor Hesp, and Leon Davis. John Davis scored seventy six out of a possible hundred. The second round of the tournament will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the same hours.

THOSE DIVIDENDS

Answer—As a practical matter, the dividend status of Boston & Maine preferred stock hinges chiefly upon the credit position of the road. It will have some $13,600,000 floating debt due March 2 next, the permanent financing of which the road has been unable to accomplish.

Within a fortnight Boston & Maine has had about $5,000,000 cash on hand, but current interest and rental disbursements have reduced this by some $1,700,000. The road has of course recently been earning its fixed charges by a considerable margin, surplus income for the 12 months just ended having been at least $1,700,000. The sum would represent about 4 per cent on the outstanding $39,505,000 common stock after 6 per cent in dividends on the $3,149,800 preferred, and is over eight-fold the requirements for such disbursement on the preferred issue.

Dividends on the preferred are non-cumulative, and the issue is not preferred as to assets.

As of Sept. 30 last Boston & Maine reported a profit and loss deficit of $2,490,000. Entirely regardless of reorganization ambitions, this would have to be made good before any dividends can be paid on the preferred stock. Of the $2,490,000 total, however, it is probable that at least $700,000 may be written off from the December quarter's earnings. Moreover, an equipment appraisal made within the past few years which showed in excess value of some $2,000,000 could without much doubt be resorted to for changing the profit and loss balance to a surplus if those in control desire.—Boston News Bureau.

Is the story of the approaching crisis of the Boston & Maine Railroad the Boston News Bureau puts much of the blame for the present condition of the road on to the New Hampshire Legislature of 1915. The News Bureau said in part: "There have been so many forces working against them (the B. & M. road) among the different secuin-manger attitude of the New Hampshire legislature, that the task of harmonizing all of the many conflicting interests and getting them on some common ground has presented insuperable difficulties." In this case, the News Bureau is not far from right. When the matter of the Boston & Maine railroad was up for action last year, the legislator failed to come to the rescue of the road when a little real action would have removed the railroad from the hands of the New York stock manipulators; and the people of this state and others, which are served by the road, would have had the control of the road. The opportunity is lost.—Herald, Portsmouth.

MARY ANTIN

Quite a few of the members and friends of the Webhannet Club went to Sanford Sunday, at the invitation of the Searchlight Club
of that place, to listen to an address on "The Responsibilities of American Citizenship."

Mary Antin is considered one of the most wonderful lecturers of the present day. She was born in Polobsk, Russia, and had never seen books until coming to America at the age of twelve years. She made notable progress through the Boston schools and passed on to Barnard College, New York where she filled a conspicuous place among the thinkers and writers of her time. She is the wife of Professor Grabau of Columbia University and lives in a suburb of New York City and spends her time in lecturing. Her autobiography "The Promised Land," published in 1912 is a thrilling account of the opportunities and possibilities in this wonderful America.

It was a worth while meeting.
Among those fortunate enough to hear it were: Mrs. L. W. Nash, Mrs.
Frank Parsons, Miss Minetta
Moore, Mrs. Charles Hatch, Miss
Marion Hatch, Mrs. Josephine Pollard, Mrs. B. H. Tilton, Miss Gladys Tilton, Miss Grace Hanson,
Miss Marion McCrindle, Mrs. I. T.
Emmons, Mrs. Mary Moody, Miss Annie Nason, Mrs. Carrie Webb,

land Express-Advertiser, A. H.
Jones, Rockland Courier-Gazette,
Fred W. Sanborn, Norway Advertiser, C. F. Flynt, Kennebec Journal.

Address, "Advertising and Some Ways of Advertising Agents," J.
H. Ogier, Camden Herald. Discussion by F. B. Nichols, Bath
Times, W. O. Fuller, Rockland
Courier-Gazette, F. W. Sanborn, Norway Advertiser, Roland B. Patten, Skowhegan Reporter-Journal.

Address, "The Local News,"
Charles H. Fogg, Houlton Times.
Discussion by Roland B. Patten, Skowhegan Reporter-Journal, George W. Norton, Portland Express-Advertiser, Fred B. Merrill, Bethel Citizen, B. E. Kelley, Boothbay
Register, Merle L. McAlister, Madison Press.

Address, "The Editorial Page,"
Chas. A. Pillsbury, Belfast Journal. Discussion by Frank B. Nichols, Bath Times, Charles H. Prescott, Biddeford Journal, Arthur Staples, Lewiston Journal, J. H.
Ogier, Camden Herald, G. W.
Hinckley, Good Will Record.

The Friday session will be devoted to the printers, the Portland Typothetae, by vote last year, being invited to attend and take part.
The program is in charge of Fred
L. Tower, local member of the executive board.

Topics: "The New England
Printers' Conference," "Fred W.
Sanborn's Printing Costs—A Confession," Charles H. Fogg of the Houlton Times.

A banquet has been tendered the members by the fraternity of Portland and this will be held at the Falmouth Hotel Thursday evening
members with ladies being invited.
The postprandial exercises will be under the direction of George W.
Norton, toastmaster, and will include:

Address, "Co-operative Advertising for Maine" Leonard Withington, secretary of the publicity department of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

is doing for Maine Journalism," Prof. W. C. Anney of the University of Maine.

Address "Journalistic Amenities," Arthur Staples of the Lewiston Journal.

It is hoped that all members may feel like lending a hand in helping restore the Association to its old-time condition of prosperity.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

Next to the affairs of the church that are distinctly spiritual, comes the social life of the church. We all have a social nature and it should not be asphyxiated by neglect. Neither should the social functions of the church so absorb the activities and energies of the church that the spiritual life suffers decline. We are trying to find the true balance in these things,
and to supply the needs of the complete man.

Next Friday should be a great day with the church. At 3 p. m.
we will begin the exercises of the day. District Superintendent Rev.
Joshua M. Frost will be present and speak. The Roll of the church membership will be read and those present will respond. Absentees have been requested to send messages to be read. At 6 p. m. the annual banquet will be ready in the vestry, and all the Methodist people are welcome. There is no charge, but all who are not specially solicited are asked to furnish cake.

Following the feast, post prandial exercises are to be enjoyed.

At 7.30 or later as may be necessary, there will be an address by Rev. J. M. Frost and he will conduct the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the church. Every department of the church work is to be reported, and the elections for the next Conference year will be held.
The public is cordially invited.

The people of the church are looking forward to the coming of Evangelist Felix Powell with great anticipation. He is now at Monmouth, holding a series of meeting in the Methodist Church.
Last Sunday the attendance was so large that they were obliged to secure Cumstun Hall that all might have opportunity to hear him.

Next Sunday the pastor Rev. S.
E. Leach, plans to preach on "Plain Facts Personally Applied." Every one is urged to become either a
"Red" or a "Blue" in the attendance contest that was inaugurated
last Sunday in the Bible School.
The hour is 3.15 p. m. The pastor has a new class for persons who have not usually attended Sunday School.

The evening meeting next Sunday will be a People's Service. The pastor will speak on "The Call of the Coming Christ." Every one enjoyed the meeting last Sunday evening. The orchestra music was very helpful and the solo by Miss Young inspiring. They will be in evidence next Sunday evening.
Souls are seeking and finding the Saviour each week.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Public worship next Sunday morning at 10.30. Music by a chorus choir. The session of the Sunday school will follow the morning service. Last Sunday was the largest attendance for a long time. The Sunday evening praise service at 7 o'clock, is one of the most helpful of the day and you cannot afford to stay away. The mid-week social service on Wednesday evening at 7.30. It will do your soul good to attend one of these mid-week meetings. You are most cordially invited to all the above services of this church and you are sure to find a most cordial welcome.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Sunday service at 10.45 a. m.
Wednesday evening testimony meeting, 7.45 p. m., at Christian Science chapel, Summer street.
All are welcome.

Reading room open Wednesday
p. m., from 3.30 to 4.30, where authorized Christian Science literature can be read and procured.
Same address.

CONGREGATIONAL

Morning service, 10.30. Sermon
Sunday school. Ladies' Bible class and Men's Bible class after service.

Evening service, 7.00.

Wednesday evening, 7.30.

of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Twombly, and Arthur Pratt Felton of West
Newton, Mass., Rev. John M. Chambers of the Congregational Church officiating. To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal March, played by Miss Katherine Twombly, the couple entered the parlor, the only attendants being Miss May Twombly
as bridesmaid and Mr. Eugene Felton as best man. The bridal path was fenced off by white posts covered with evergreen, and white ropes were draped from post to post. The marriage ceremony was performed under a beautiful bower made of fir and white carnations.
The dining room where refreshments were served was most attractively trimmed in yellow and white.

Only the immediate relatives of

IN THE WILDS OF OGUNQUIT

George York had quite a thrilling experience the other morning in the "wilds of Ogunquit." He had set some traps and in a few hours started back on the trail and found a fox caught in one of his traps. The fox resented his liberty being taken away and put up a game fight. Mr. York was getting the worst of it, his clothes being torn and his face and hands badly scratched, when Gordon Brook came to the rescue and helped kill the fox.

Moral: Never go trapping alone.
