SNOW, Manuel H.

b. Masardis, August 31, 1896
Dear Mr. Snow:

Your recently published book, A GOD-CALLED MAN, was brought to our attention as a book by a Maine writer. We do not know whether you are Maine-born, or Maine-adopted, but we extend our congratulations, and write to tell you about the Maine Author Collection.

For some years our authors and we have shared the pleasure of building a permanent exhibit of inscribed presentation copies of books written by Maine people, those resident here, or writing about the state. The inscriptions are as varied as the books, which range from cookbooks to poetry, history to juvenile stories, novels to art, religion to biography. The recognized worth of the collection attracts students and visitors steadily, and we are always happy when we are able to add another book to the outstanding exhibit.

We hope that you may want to inscribe and present to the collection a copy of A GOD CALLED MAN. Please accept our good wishes for its success, and our cordial invitation to call at the library and see the collection when you are in Augusta.

Sincerely yours

hmj

My dear Mrs. Jacob:

Your letter came.

I shall be happy to present to the Maine State Library a copy of the book I have recently written. I am sending a copy.

I hope it will be of help.

Faithfully yours,

Manuel H. Snow

Dear Mr. Snow:

Thank you for your friendly response to our letter about the Maine Author Collection. The inscribed copy of A GOD-CALLED MAN has arrived, and we acknowledge it with appreciation of your generous interest in the collection.

We are placing the book on these exhibit shelves and making a note of it for the next issue of the Bulletin of the Maine Library Association.

You have our continuing good wishes for your work.

Sincerely yours
