FLY ROD'S NOTE BOOK.

There is a good joke on one of the fishermen who takes life easy. Sitting in a comfortable chair and fishing from the wharf, he catches many a good trout and salmon at Mingo Springs. One morning recently some one called the angler and he said to the ladies, "Will you take my rod and watch the bob, there is a big fish around." He was delayed for a few minutes, and judge of his surprise soon after taking his rod to have some one call, "You have a fish sure." he reeled in. One of the ladies kindly helped to net him, and every one took an unusual interest, as in came the odd looking fish, a big red herring! Don't trust the lady anglers too much, is my advice.

CAMP AND COTTAGE NOTES.

Mrs. T. F. Baxter and children, Mrs. Susan Hartwell of West Newton, Mass., Mrs. Ernest C. Davis, of Rockland, and Miss Gertrude M. Pomeroy of Portland have been guests at Brown's Island, Cupsuptic lake for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Josselyn, Mr. Chas. S. Chase, and Mrs. Frederick Palmer of Portland came by auto, and are for a week at Mrs. Josselyn's father's camp, Oxford Bear, on Mooselookmeguntic lake.

Dr. B. Franklin Stahl, of Philadelphia, has leased his camp on the west shore of Rangeley lake to the following party who registered at the Rangeley Lake House Tuesday: Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Miss Mary Watson, Miss Antoinette Johnson, Mr. Randolph and Master Albert Johnson of East Orange, N. J., who are greatly pleased with camp life and expect a most delightful summer.

The flag is flying at Brandy Point, Mooselookmeguntic Lake, as Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wiley of New York have opened Camp Wiley, their beautiful summer home, for the season.

MAGAZINE MEN IN DEAD RIVER COUNTRY.

Wm. Arnold, the guide, who was one of the leading contestants in the Maine Woods Canoe Contest recently went on a four days' trip with a party of magazine men. They fished in Jim Brook, Mud and Shallow ponds, and were fortunate in getting large catches, and propose to repeat the trip before the season is over. The party consisted of Samuel E. Cassino, of the Little Folks, John B. Kelley, of the Metropolitan Magazine, B. A. McKennon, of the Pictorial Review, and George C. Crowley of the Crowley Subscription Agency.

RANGELEY LAKE HOUSE.

Many Happy People At This Grand Resort—Tennis Enjoyed.

(Special to Maine Woods).
June 30, 1911.

It is haying time and the perfume of the new mown hay and spruce and pine from the forest fill the air.

The June days have been happy ones for the more than usual num-ber of guests here, and with July the tourists are coming, bringing big trunks and many of them, and the season will soon be at its height.

There are now a hundred guests here and by the end of the coming week fifty more will be located for the August days in this hotel.

Dr. H. G. Ulrick of Baltimore regis-tered here Tuesday en route for his usual three months' sojourn at Kennebago.

There is a delightful company of young folks this season, and the days are not half long enough for them.

Everyone had a welcome to give Kenneth Wood of Buffalo, who joined his family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Page of Chico-pee Falls, Mass., are this year ac-companied by their friends, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Church, Millbury, Mass. The gentlemen have gone to Mr. Page's fine camp at Chain of Ponds and the ladies will join them soon for a month's stay.

One of the cottages is taken for the summer by Dr. and Mrs. J. E. McMichall of New York city, who came for the first season in com-pany with Mrs. E. M. Brown, who has been here for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Synnott, and maid, of Woodbury, N. J., who came last week were joined by their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Synnott, Miss Marion, Thomas W. Synnot, 2nd, and Miss Wood, who came by auto. Mr. Synnott drove his own car and the party report a fine trip.

Dr. Chas. W. Packard of New York and brother, Rev. E. N. Packard of Stratford, Conn. are greatly enjoy-ing this annual two weeks' fishing trip.

The following Bostonians: Messrs. A. L. Brown, C. E. Brown, H. C. Brown and A. T. Fletchers, who are touring Maine in their auto spent part of the week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae H. Rogers of New York and Mr. and Mrs. G. Denson of Brooklyn, were among the automobile parties here this week for a few days' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Quincy A. Atwood of Newton, Mass. returned from a two weeks' trip at Kennebago Friday. They reported a fine time and ex-cellent fly fishing. Mr. Frank C. Spinney of Lynn, Mr. B. Shaw and Miss Helen Shaw of Boston are among those registered here en route for Kennebago this week.

Last Sunday was a gala day as the Farmington Commandery and their Skowhegan guests were here for dinner and Chandler's Band of Portland gave a most delightful con-cert on the veranda.

The following party came from Bingham by auto and dined here Friday, Mrs. F. H. Colby, Miss Lena and Miss Florence Colby and friend, Miss Jeane Griffith of Easton, Pa.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Harp and Miss Kathe-rine Harp of Hoboken, N. J., who are here for an extended stay are much pleased with this, their first trip to the Rangeleys.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rogers of Portland, who are here for several weeks were joined by Mrs. Roger's son, Mr. Harry Josselyn and wife of Portland, and a friend who came by automobile for over Sun-day.

Mrs. Edwin B. Holmes and Mr. E. P. Holmes of Boston were this week guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Prince of Boston, who have been here since the hotel opened.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Henshaw of Boston spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Schramme and daughter, of Garden City, L. I. are here for a ten days' stay.

Two parties from Auburn, who came in touring cars have spent several days here this week, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Darling, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Coffin, also R. W. Penley, Mrs. F. and Miss Penley, Henry Haskell and Miss E. E. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Ambrose and three daughters, Miss Ambrose, Miss Elmira and Miss Rebecca Ambrose of Orange, N. J., after an absence of several years have returned for another season at Rangeley Lake House.

Mrs. J. B. Marble accompanied her daughter, Miss Rachel to Boston and said good-by on the Franconia, before she sailed for her European trip.

The tennis court, base ball ground and golf links are now in fine shape and a delightful company spend these pleasant days out of doors enjoying their favorite games.

July 5, 1911.

The hot wave did not get side-tracked this time, and was the record breaker for many years.

There are now 150 guests here and more coming daily.

This morning quite a party who came for the June days said good-bye until September, when they plan to re-turn. They were Mr. and Mrs. James H. Prince of Boston, who came the middle of May, Mrs. L. H. Bowdoin and son, Abel F. Proctor of Salem, Mass., Mrs. A. F. Breed, Mrs. G. L. Bray of Lynn, Mr. William Lee and his sisters, Mrs. C. P. Stevens and Mrs. C. F. Thurston of Malden.

There is now dancing every evening in the casino, for the orchestra came Saturday, three fine Boston musicians. Miss Josephine Durrell, the violinist, was granted a special certificate for violin playing at the Conservatory this spring and Miss Marion Moorhouse, cellist player, has just returned from a year of travel and study in Europe. Miss Stella Durrell, the pianist, is also a student at the New England con-servatory. The after dinner concerts are greatly appreciated, for but few hotels have such excellent music.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Synnott of Woodbury, N. J., have been joined by their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Synnott, Miss Mairon B. and Master Thomas W. Synnott, 2nd, and Miss Wood, who came from their home in a touring car and reported the trip a most delightful one. The party will re-main until October.

Bathing in the lake is now one of the pastimes, many taking a daily dip.

Coming in their touring car from Middleboro, Mass., the following party registered here for the week end: Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Schlueter, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. William Ams-bury, Mrs. A. V. Smith and Mrs. E. B. Dennett. They are now enjoying the fly fishing at Kennebago for a week.

Rev. Henry Blanchard and daughter, Miss Alice Blanchard, are here for a two weeks' sojourn. Last Sunday even-ing the guests gathered in the parlor and listened to a most interesting talk from Dr. Blanchard, one of Maine's best known clergymen.

Mr. and Mrs. George N. Magee and sons, Master L. J. and Francis W. Ma-gee of Overlook, Pa., have taken rooms here for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Dike of Newton, Mass., and Mrs. J. B. R. Pettee, of Quincy, Mass., have returned for an-other summer.

Greeted by a host of friends was Mrs. George G. Schaefer and her three charming daughters, Misses Elsa, An-na and Marguerite R. Schaefer of New York, on their arrival this week. They have passed a number of seasons here, adding much to the social life of the young people.

Coming in their auto, Messrs. G. H. Bass, J. R. Bass, L. B. Leivett of Wil-ton and Dr. C. Keyes of Chicago made a short stay here, en route for Kenne-bago.

Messrs. L. M. and W. T. Cousin came up from Portland in their car for over Sunday.

Mrs. Leslie E. Keeley and Miss Eliz-abeth Day of Chicago, who have a cot-tage at Camden, are for a week, guests of their sister, Mrs. E. D. Judd of Bos-on, who is happily located herefor the ummer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Moore of Galves-ton, Texas, who came all the way from their southern home in their au-tomobile, spent Sunday, en route for Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Gundecker, Mrs. Knight and chauffeur of Philadelphia, in their touring car, registered here Friday.

Miss D. Dodd of East Orange, N. J., and friend, Miss C. J. Shaw of Orange, N. J., have taken rooms for July.

Another party from East Orange, who will remain for some time are Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Teandron, Miss Ailean and Miss Genevieve Teandron.

Mr. George B. King, with a party of 14 ladies came from his camp on Cup suptic lake and took dinner here Fri-day.

Mr. Arthur P. Knapp of Lowell re-ports a delightful week at Kennebago.

Mrs. J. D. Morton, Mrs. J. H. Good-speed and Mr. M. Goodspeed of Boston are here for a stay of two weeks.

Mrs. W. M. W. Spring, Miss M. E. Spring and Thomas A. Barnard are among the Bostonians here for July days.

Dr. and Mrs. H. Mohr and Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Williams came over from Bingham in their auto for dinner Sun-day, which seems to be quite the thing for parties to do from different parts of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Skllin of Rye, N. Y. with E. S. Skillin, wife, two children and maid of Glen Ridge, N. J., were another automobile party for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Eisenhower, Miss Ruth V., Miss Mildred Eisenhow-er and Miss Helen Gormley of Phila-delphia have taken rooms at this hotel for an extended stay.

PORTLAND, ME.

THE POOL FULL OF RECORD BREAKERS.

(Special to Maine Woods).
Upper Dam, July 1, 1911.

Not since 1900 have the fly fishermen seen as many big fish in the pool, or recorded as many in one week as from June 21 to June 29, for during that time twenty-three record trout and salmon have been caught in the pool and weighed on the old steelyards and the following gentlemen are the anglers who have distinguished themselves with light rods and small flies skillfully handled.

Mr. Stephen H. Palmer, a new comer from Milford, Penn. has seven of the number to his credit. Five of them were salmon, weighing 3-lbs, 14oz; 5-lbs, 1oz; 4-lbs, 8-oz; 3-lbs, 10-oz; 3-lbs, 15-oz; and two trout weighing 3-lbs, 5oz; 5-lbs, 7-oz.

Kenneth Peck of Cornwall-on-Hudson caught a 4-lb salmon, and his father, Dr. M. R. Peck, one, 3-lbs, 2-oz.

Mr. James C. Dougherty of Syracuse, N. Y. is keeping up his reputation for skill and luck, as six salmon weighing 3-lbs, 3-oz; 3-lbs, 2-oz; 5-lbs, 1-oz; 3-lbs, 11-oz; 3-lbs, 12-oz and 3-lbs, 9-oz are his record, to say nothing about the big fellow that jumped over his flies.

Hon. Arthur B. Calkins of New London, Conn. took one 3-lbs, 7-oz, and Mrs. Calkins is the only lady this week to add her name to the record. She took a 3-lb, 3-oz salmon.

Mr. Tom W. Miner of New York is proud of the 3-lb, 7-oz salmon, and trout weighing 3-lbs, 6-oz; 3-lbs; 3-lbs, 7oz.

Mr. John S. Doane of Boston the morning after his arrival caught a 3-lb, 8-oz salmon.

As this pool at Upper Dam is known to be the greatest in the world for fly fishing, this is most interesting reading as well as exciting fishing for the fly fishermen.

There never has been as large a company of guests at this place the first of July as now, and the camps will soon be filled.

The flags are flying until October days from the two new camps, as Mr. and Mrs. Tom W. Miner, children and maid are at home in one, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Van Dusen of New York have the other. Mr. Miner is one of the best known theatrical men in the country, and his favorite pastime is casting the fly over the water of the pool at Upper Dam. Mr. Van Dusen of the Academy of Music, New York, is also a great fly fisherman and a gentleman whose friends are everywhere.

Hon. Arthur B. Calkins and wife of New London, Conn., who are here for a ten days' trip, are at the camp at Richardson Pond for a few days with John S. Chadwick, guide.

There must have been many June weddings in the city, for at almost every camp and hotel are bridal parties. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith of Lewiston, who are on their wedding trip have Hon. Wallace H. White's cottage.

Another bridal couple here for their honeymoon is Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Adams of Boston.

Bostonians, who have been coming here for over twenty seasons, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Doane whom everyone welcomed on Monday, have the same camp and as usual, Orren Dyke, their old guide.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Verrill of Auburn registered here Tuesday, en route for Beaver Pond, where they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Bearce of Lewiston at their fine new camp built last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pratt of North Middleboro, Mass. are among the annual guests for July days, and Mr. Pratt intends to have his name on the record as he is one of the expert fly fishermen.

Mr. Edwin D. Miner of New York is the guest of his brother, Mr. Tom Miner for this week.

A great boom of logs has been brought as far as the dam and will remain there to keep the saw mill busy for the next few weeks.

Picking wild strawberries is one of the afternoon pleasures of the ladies, as the field in front of the camps is red with them.

ROUND MOUNTAIN SALON.

Trout Fishing Divides Honors With Astronomy.

(Special to Maine Woods).

One of the pleasing improvements noted in connection with this camp is a better buckboard road. Mr. Blackwell has put much labor into this improvement and has got a road over which it is possible to drive an ordinary carriage. The trip on the buckboard is comparatively easy.

Round Mountain Lake Camps are becoming distinguished for the great degree of social life prevailing. Many of the patrons who have been here year after year are so well acquainted with one another that a sort of community interest has grown up. In the evening it is quite common for the guests to assemble in the public room of the main camp and discuss the news of the world and the problems of the State.

Among the interesting guests is Mr. W. P. Gill of Brooklyn, N. Y., a silk manufacturer who is spending his second season here.

Mr. Gill was born across the water, and made his first trip to America in 1855. Since then he has crossed the ocean one hundred and fifty times. He believes the water and air of Round Mountain are of great benefit to him. Mr. Gill has been connected with the Methodist church Sunday School work in Brooklyn for forty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Greenboro of New York are here for the season. Mr. Greenboro is a sportsman and is here for the fishing as well as quietness and rest. Both Mr. and Mrs. Greenboro add to the interest of the social life.

He is something of an astronomer and has constructed a telescope using common spectacle lenses. The tube is about five feet long. It is powerful enough to show Jupiter's moons. His observatory, erected in front of his camp is a nightly attraction. Mr. Greenboro does not believe in getting a reputation for telling fish stories, so he carefully removes the skins of the large trout he catches, preserves and mounts them. By this means he can prove to friends at home the possibilities of fishing in the wilds of Maine.

Mr. B. E. Wells of Worcester Mass. is one of the guests who enjoys rod and fly, and is frequently seen down on Big Alder stream fishing the pool where the shyest of the trout, as well as the finest hide. He is also an interesting and active member of the Round Mountain Salon.

Edward Connolly in attendance upon Mr. Gill is new to this style of life, and has got to catch the spirit of the sport. He says he would rather catch a baseball than fish, yet Tuesday morning he went out all by his lonesome and came back with a string of trout, and strange to say he looked as pleased as any veteran sportsman. Mr. Connolly was not familiar with fog and clouds sometimes seen hanging about the mountain tops and was quite surprised to see the stream coming from the top of Round Mountain. He had visions of possible volcanoes. Mr. Connolly also is one of the interesting members of the evening club. The peculiar part of these gatherings is that fish stories play an important part in them. The Brooklyn Eagle of June 9 had a fish story that was of such a nature that the fame of the greatest disciple of Isaac Walton, in Maine, lost his character in one fell swoop.

The story emanated from Bartlett's New York. It was an account with specifications, of a bass that was a regular tobacco chewer.

There are no bass in the Dead River regions, but they are known to be tough fish. That they are as tough as that story indicates is not believed here however. In fact those who belong to Mr. Liars Club consider that the origination of that story "hit below the belt." Mr. Gill, who swears by the Eagle, could not be induced to defend the story.

Mr. Blackwell who is always in personal charge of affairs is a man whose whole life has been spent in the Wilderness is of great aid to his guests. He says that 4000 trout were caught in Round Mountain lake last season, and as many more in the nearby streams.

The average size of the trout in the lake has increased within the last few years to a considerable extent. He attributes it to the fact that new stock from the hatcheries has been put in each year, preventing imbreeding to a large per cent.

Mr. Blackwell is sure that the deer are increasing in number and believes 3000 can be taken in the Dead River region if hunters enough will go after them, and still leave a sufficient number for propagation purpose.

The Round Mountain camp life is made doubly agreeable to guests by the presence of Mrs. Blackwell, who now has spent nine summers in the camp but has lived here throughout several winters and knows the life in every detail. She is a woman whose knowledge of life in the woods is not borne out by her personal appearance which is essentially that of a city bred woman.

Others engaged in camp work are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Blackwell. The former assists his father and guides. His wife has charge of the dining room. Amy Wilbur of Rangeley has charge of the cabin work. Miss Verna Danico of Bigelow is private teacher to Mr. Blackwell's young son, and superintends the musical entertainments. And there is William Stubbs, Bill to everyone, who can do anything in camp or out, from telling fish yarns to doing kitchen work. It is a genial company one finds at Round Mountain camps.

GOOD WORK WITH A MARLIN TRAP GUN.

Further evidence of the entire suitability of the Marlin trap gun for trap shooting is found in the score made by W. B. Darton, (with his Marlin trap gun), at Beverly, Mass., May 20th, 163 out of 175, winning the high professional average. In addition Mr. Darton broke 25 straight in the practice event. With the same gun Mr. Darton broke 118 out of 125 at Wellington, Mass. on May 17, and 48 out of 50 at Keene, New Hampshire, May 15th.

The Marlin trap gun is specially built and bored for trap shooting, and is a gun worth knowing. Special descriptive circular with a large illustration of the Marlin trap gun in colors, and giving a thorough description, will be sent upon request by The Marlin Firearms Co., New Haven, Conn.

At the Maine State Tournament, Haines Landing, Me., June 8, 9 and 10, the superb shooting ability of Marlin shotguns was thoroughly demonstrated. Mr. Arthur Waldron of Richmond, Me. won the State of Maine championship by breaking 95 out of 100 and 25 straight in the shoot off with two other contestants. Mr. Waldron used a regular Marlin shotgun—and this is the second time that he won the State Championship with a Marlin gun.

Mr. W. B. Darton was second high professional at the Maine State shoot on June 8 with the excellent score of 184 out of 200, and was second high professional for the three days with the score of 547 out of 600. With the same gun Mr. Darton won second high professional average at the tournament of the New Haven Gun Club on May 30th.

FISHING AT ANASAGUNTICOOK.

Canton, Maine, July 3, 1911.
The fishing has been good for the past week at Lake Anasagunticook. Among the lucky fishermen are C. M. Leighton, Saratoga, N. Y. a 5-lb salmon, 35 perch and 15 bass; B. W. Jackson, one salmon, 4-lbs, 2-oz. This was the largest for the week.

BEAUTIFUL SUNSETS.

Camps Here Filling Rapidly.

(Special to Maine Woods).

Bald Mountain Camp,
July 3, 1911.

For a long time last evening the guests watched the sunset from the camp veranda and all said they had never seen one more beautiful, but the old comers remark, "Why the sunsets are always wonderful from this part of lake".

July finds a good number of guests hereand more are coming daily.

Landlord Ellis has had a busy week with his teams as the weather has been perfect for driving over the hills.

After an absence of four years Miss Harriette Hubbell and Miss Fanny M. Osburn of New York City have returned for a two months' stay. "There is no place half as beautiful", said the ladies, on their return from a canoe ride on the lake. They have camp Manhattan and will soon be joined by friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown of East Wilton are spending ten days here and are taking some fine photographs of the region.

F. N. BEAL, G. P. A., Phillips, Me.

Miss Martha Smith of Cleveland Ohio Miss Eliza Gray of Boston and Miss Helen Garnard of Philadelphia who are touring the country in their automobile came here via Dixville Notch and will spend some time in one of the log camps with which they are greatly pleased.

Mr. Ellis has just completed one of the best water systems in the Rangeley whereby he can throw a large stream of water on all the camps that are supplied with hot and cold water.

For several seasons Mr. E. W. Chandler and Mr. S. G. Barrett of East Sumner and friend Dr. E. H. Andrews of Brunswick have been enjoying an outing here together. Their stay this time was only for a week as they were called home before the Dr. had landed the big salmon he came after, a 3 1-2 pound salmon being his largest, and Mr Chandler reeled in one of 3 1-4 pounds.

OLD TIMERS AT TIM. A TROUT THAT GOT THERE.

(Special to Maine Woods).

Tim Pond Camps, June 26, 1911.

There is something almost sacred about Tim Pond. As one stands upon its shores and thinks of the long and ancient hunter whose simple name it bears, and senses
the loneliness of his life in so vast a wilderness, and yet catches the glory of his kingship, the mind expands in an effort to feel and act as he did—and truth to tell, it is not a difficult task. Then again the knowledge that these were the original of the modern Dead River sporting camps, increases the reverence with which the true sportsman enters the portals of Tim Pond camps.

There are in contemplation several improvements. The management is going to build new, the kitchen and dining room, and install a water system. These improvements are demanded by the times, for even while roughing it the modern man is becoming used to modern conveniences when he gets to headquarters.

The cabins are all equipped with Ostermoore mattresses and spring beds, and no attention is lacking to give the visitor the comforts of home.

One reads in the Tim Pond literature that trout fishing (catching) is guaranteed. In fact the management lay nearly their entire success to the fact that no fisherman ever cast a fly in Tim Pond, and failed to land a goodly number of trout. The pond is said to be—and it must be—a natural trout hatchery, for it has never been stocked. The fish are natural brook trout, and there is not,
and never has been any other kind of fish in these waters. Originally the average size of the trout was one fourth of a pound, but now it is one half pound. Mr. Harold Viles thinks this is owing to the fact that the stock has been kept pure.

Trout weighing three quarters of a pound are frequently taken, often larger. The largest one ever caught weighed three and a half pounds.

New trails have been completed, and the one to Kennbago—taking about three hours to cover—is proving quite popular.

Among the guests now at the camps are Mr. Silas Chapman and Charles Billings of Hartford, Conn.
Mr. Chapman is no stranger here,
this being his sixteenth season at Tim Pond. He is a fisherman of the type that first appreciated the opportunities in these regions. He first came to Maine fishing thirty-five years ago. His first camp was on the site of the Mooselookmeguntic House. He boarded with Mrs.
Soule, mother of the famous "Billy"
Soule, of the Rangeley region. Mr.
Chapman has been into this region every year since. He fishes every day, and while catching many, brings in but few. He however has an indicator and pulls the string and record is made of every fish caught.
He does not propose to be disputed,
when he returns to his desk in the Hartford Fire Insurance Company offices, as to the accuracy of his count. He will have the "chromo-meter" to prove his story. The register showed over 300 the day

the Maine Woods man was in camp.

Mr. Billings, of the Billings-Sharp
Mfg. Co., Hartford, who is of Mr.
Chapman's party is also an expert fisherman, and while being seventy-four years old, follows his guide unwearingly every day, and while he keeps no record, makes good always.
Dexter Bubler is guide for Mr. Chapman, and Albert White for Mr. Billings. Messrs. Chapman and Billings subscribed for the first copy of the old Phonograph and have been on our subscription list ever since.

Mr. A. E. Cross of Brookline is one of the "good cheer" fellows at Tim Pond. He enjoys every minute of life, and while he terms himself a "butter-in" is mighty careful not to over do the act. He imitates old Tim and goes off by his lonesome,
and always returns with the goods,
and wearing the smile that none but the man with a net full of trout can possibly imitate. This is his first season here.

Among those who have recently gone are J. H. Croseley and two sons of Bridgeport, and C. F. Koehler of Worcester.

Among Saturday's arrivals were Phillip E. Angler and his nephews, James and Jesse McFarland of Pittsburg, Penn. They came to fish as the name of the uncle might suggest.
They were assigned to the cottage that has for years borne the name
"Angler's Retreat."

One of the most remarkable things happened Friday night, remarkable even for Tim Pond. Mr. Calwell, the expert buckboard driver, went to the wharf to fish. He cast his fly line, and soon felt the thrill of a bite, and succeeded in landing two trout at one cast. As they landed on the wharf, he heard a splash and turning was the most surprised Isaac of them all to behold a third trout on the wharf. The truth was that the third fish was following the third fly
and actually leaped out of the water, and landed on the wharf. As the trout were secured and there were witnesses this is not subject to dispute.

The flavor of Tim Pond trout is excellent, and while all might not follow the example of one man who had fried trout every meal for the twelve weeks he was in camp, all can do so, for they are served every meal throughout the season.

Mr. Julian H. Viles, who is a woodsman true and good,—he belong-to the George Washington club—is authority for the story that makes woodpeckers (sap-suckers) drunkards.
He says upon one occasion the sap from a yellow birch, in front of the camps, was running freely, and the birds got enough of it, so that several of them were seen almost helpless from intoxication.

Every one about the camps, proprietors, assistants and guests are all amenable to the spirit of fun
that leavens the social and business concerns of camp life, so no one but herself cared because Carrie Libby, the pretty little miss from North New Portland, who is acting as table girl, was set into a fit of giggles when a guest mixed his consonants and called for "fried frou."

The Maine Woods man said to Mrs. Viles, "You do not have many women visitors here do you?" "Oh my," she replied "you should be here in July and August; why you can hardly see the sun for petticoats. We have lots of them here."

WHITE PERCH REGULATIONS.

New Law in Washington County for Shipment of White Perch.

The Department of Inland Fisheries and Game is receiving many inquiries by every mail about the new law relating to the shipment of white perch taken in the inland waters of Washington county without the owner accompanying the fish.

It would appear, judging by the number of requests already received for the official tags which must be attached to each shipment of white perch under the above law,
that Washington county waters
would not need this law for more than one season in order to reduce the supply of white perch in its inland waters, which the people of that county, with the exception of a few localities, much desire to do.
The workings of this new law will be watched with much interest.

Following is the full text of the law:

Chapter 36 Public Laws 1911.

"It shall be unlawful for any one person in any one day to take catch or kill, or have in possession more than twenty pounds of white perch;
it shall also be unlawful for any transportation company to accept for transportation or to transport parties who desire to avail themselves of the provisions of this law.

The wardens at all shipping points
have been instructed to look closely after these white perch shipments.

Shippers are warned not to attempt to send other protected fish with the white perch; this would mean the loss of the fish as the wardens would be obliged to seize all such shipments.

The following letter of instructions is being sent out with the tags:
"Dear Sir: In compliance with your request we are sending herewith special shipping tags which will permit you to ship, without accompanying the same, white perch legally taken in the inland waters of Washington county.

Please bear in mind that every package shipped under the provisions of this law must be tagged with one of these tags.

We wish to inform you, also, that no other protected fish can be shipped with the white perch; if this is done the fish will be liable to seizure by our wardens who are on duty at all shipping points to inspect fish and game shipments.

Yours very truly,
Commissioners of Inland Fisheries and Game."

The official tag is in the following form:

ENJOYING LIFE.

more than twenty pounds of white perch in one day as the property of any one person. This section shall not apply to white perch in tide waters, nor to white perch in inland waters of the county of Washington.
Said white perch, so taken from said waters, may be shipped and sold within and without the state,
under regulations of the commissioners of inland fish and game."

By virtue of this law the late Chairman, Mr. Brackett, had prepared, with the approval of his associates, regulations providing that every package of white perch shipped under the provisions of this law should be tagged with an official tag and that the shipper must personally present his shipment of perch to the transportation agent—such packages cannot be brought to express offices in the absence of the agent and left for shipment—the agent must know who the shipper is.

The Department is sending out these tags free of charge to all

SEBAGO LAKE.

Fishing At Sebago Lake is Good.

(Special to Maine Woods).
Sebago Lake, Me., June 27, 1911.
Sebago Lake will always be enshrined in memory because it furnished the scientific name for the landlocked salmon. But those who only know this beautiful sheet of water by hearsay ought to take a trip to Sebago and become convinced of its unusual attractiveness as a summer resort, and ought to fish in its waters "just after the ice goes out" and obtain a few specimens of the most perfectly formed and delicately flavored salmon that can anywhere be obtained.
Sebago Lake is situated about sixteen miles west of Portland, and is reached via the White Mountain division of the Maine Central railroad. The lake is fourteen miles long, and eleven miles wide, with the longer dimension extending from north to south. The altitude of the lake is about two hundred and sixty feet at the surface of the water.

The water is exceedingly pure and clear and in places is very deep—three hundred feet or more in depth.
The earliest fishing is usually found at the mouth of the Songo River at the extreme northern end of the lake. Here the ice clears away at the earliest date owing to the presence of the river current, and here the salmon swarm in great numbers in pursuit of the smelts that are trying to make their way up the Songo for spawning purposes. The largest reported catch at the mouth of the Songo was two hundred and forty-three pounds of salmon as the total record for two days. No lake in the United States ever produced or could produce such a salmon record.

In spite of the large number of fish captured each spring all along the shores of Sebago, there is probably as good fishing now as there ever was at this date. It is not an uncommon thing for ten salmon to be caught on Songo Bar in a single day.

Thanks to good laws and the faithful service of Wardens Stanley and Cushman to keep the laws enforced, the fishing is being kept good for sportsmen, and so good that no true sportsman need be disappointed in his catch.

For the benefit of the sportsman who is unfamiliar with the Sebago fishing a few hints about where to go, equipment, and probable expenses may be worth while.

In general the west shore seems to be more accessible and better adapted to early fishing than the east shore. Two settlements or villages on the west shore serve as centers for numerous camps and hostleries. These villages are East Sebago and North Sebago. Blake's Hotel at East Sebago and Bachelord's at North Sebago seem to be the most popular places of entertainment, although many others are deserving of patronage, and popular with their own clientele. Entertainment at these comfortable hostleries is very inexpensive and satisfactory. Rates usually range from eight to twelve dollars a week.

The villages of East Sebago and North Sebago are reached by stage from Mattock's station, and the drive through the forests is very beautiful. Sand beaches are very common along the west shore.

For equipment the angler will take his personal effects, including a good heavy sweater, his rod—any good rod,—and a good double multiplying reel holding at least seventy five yards of best enameled silk line. He will use an archer spinner and bait it with smelt in the early season; and if he is a discriminating sportsman he will equip his archer with a single hook, discarding the murderous gangs which destroy so many grilse who strike at the bait. When the fish become a little more particular and eager for novelty, try them with the new red English wagtail phantom, or use the white bait, silversides or quill phantom.

Excellent row-boats of an original skiff pattern, built by Mr. Loring Bachelord of North Sebago, may be hired at a moderate charge per day or week. These row boats cannot be too highly praised. They are unusually deep and roomy and row easily. They are also very steady and safe.

Sebago Lake is the least expensive first class fishing resort that the writer has seen, and no one need feel apprehensive of hold-ups or over charges of any kind.

Sebago is now only in the dawning of its career. When people begin to realize its beauty, accessibility, and healthfulness there will be a stampede in its direction.

The steamboats of the Songo River line afford splendid transportation facilities during the summer months, and they also bring within the reach of the vacationist beautiful Long Lake, reached via the Songo River from Sebago Lake.

The people of the region are very cordial and friendly and seem to vie with one another in extending every possible courtesy to the tourist.

HOTEL SARGENT.

Good Fishing—Camps Full—Many Arrivals the Past Week.

(Special to Maine Woods).
Eustis, Maine, June 25, 1911.

For the past few days a party of Farmington, Maine, gentlemen has been stopping at Hotel Sargent and has fished North Branch, Jim brook, and Alder Stream. The party consisted of S. O. Tarbox, Jr., J. C. Metcalf, and E. Herbert Dingley. Scott Lockyer and Wm. Arnold, guides. Each day they got their full number of fish, besides seeing a lot of game of all kinds, and the best of all a large black bear, who calmy sat in the road while the party passed by.

The Fuller party of Pawtucket, R. I., returned home last week going by the way of Rangeley. They will stop at that place for a short stay.

B. E. Wells returned home after a short stay here fully satisfied with Eustis and the fishing.

Considering the bad weather of the past week the following guests have registered at the Sargent: J. Sherman Douglass, Bangor; Capt. Blaine Owen, Augusta; Warren B. Sanborn, M. D., F. E. TRAP SHOOTER WINS AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP.

(Special to Maine Woods).

The natural pointing features of the Stevens Repeating Shotgun, No. 522, regular "Trapshooter Grade," never appeared to better advantage than at the Grand American Tournament, Columbus, Ohio, June 23, 1911. On that day Mr. Clyde Collins, of Alldine, Ind. with a regular Stevens No. 522 "Trapshooter Grade" stock gun, won the amateur championship—which is the amateur shooting event of the year. The score was 196 x 200 —18yard rise.

This latest Stevens National trap gun victory proves once more that Stevens repeating shotguns are the fastest guns in the world and unique for their natural pointing features.

The J. Stevens Arms and Tool all sides because of this splendid Company is being congratulated from triumph and trapshooters everywhere are realizing that for best results the famous Stevens repeating shotguns are indispensable.

THE OLD TIMERS AS ENTHUSIASTIC AS THE NEW VISITORS.

(Special to Maine Woods).
Middle Dam, Maine, June 28, 1911.
"One always finds new beauty in watching the clouds above the mountains, and looking upon the extended view up the lake, with the miles of wilderuss beyond," said a New York gentleman, who spent hours sitting on the piazza as he exchanged greetings with a party who had just come across from Umbagog Lake.

Those who came weeks ago are as happy and enthusiastic over the place as the latest comers, who, for the first time are enjoying the quiet and wild beauty of the place.

Dr. Frank P. Bennett and wife of Boston, coming via White Mountains spent last week here.

Dr. J. B. Unger of New York, with Fred York for guide, found the fly fishing at B Pond good and a number of 3-pounders came to his net.

For their usual ten day' trip in June, Sheriff William S. Tuttle a most popular gentleman in New Hampshire, and Chas H. Hersey of Keene, with Mr. John H. Kimball of Marlboro, N. H., have been the jolly trio. Pete Brown was the guide, and there was always something doing at Camp Satisfaction. "We only counted twenty-four of our fish, dandy ones, a 4-lb trout, and 5-lb salmon, and the others two and three pounders, good fishing," said the jolly sheriff, and for years to come the trio intend to wet their lines at Middle Dam.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Holmes of Arlington, Mass., have been here for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Garland, of Worcester, Mass., who have been here for the month of June were joined for this week by their friends, Mr. C. H. Spaulding and son, R. L. Spaulding, of the same city. Several 2½-lb salmon and a 4-pounder have come to their net. Mrs. Garland is still high line, and has added to her record fish a 4½-lb salmon, one 4-lb and a 3-lb trout this week. Mr. Garland can tell about the big salmon he did not bring to net, but had good sport with, and how he is helping along the fishing tackle business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Northley of Salem, Mass. came via Dixville Notch for a week's sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Kingsbury of Portland have returned for another month, and Mr. Kingsbury brought in a 5-lb salmon, a 3-lb trout and a number of 2-pounders this week.

Prof. Chas. H. Wiswell of the Noble and Greenough school for boys, Boston is here for the twenty-eighth season.

Messrs. M. R. Richardson and J. H. Easterday are two Brooklyn young men that are spending vacation days in this region and with Jim Jordan, guide, no doubt they will have good sport.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Andrews of Glasstonbury, Conn., are here for their wedding trip and will spend honeymoon days in a log camp.

Every one is glad to welcome Mr. O. H. Dana of Boston for another season.

Judge Robert A. Livingston, the New Yorker is with Pete Brown on a camping trip at Mattalcook pond, where he hopes to get some good photographs of deer.

Mr. Fred B. Dale of Orland, Fla., and Frank Hight, guide, came down from Haines Landing for a three days' trip this week. He took a 3-lb salmon on the fly and several smaller ones.

LOYAL TO HIS "FIRST LOVE."

East Sumner, Maine, June 26, 1911.

To the Editor of Maine Woods:
Well, we have finally made the trip to Sebago lake and Songo river, after two or three failures in our plans to do so. No mistake, it is really a fine, fascinating tour, and we appreciate its unique features.

But still our love for the "Rangeleys" is unabated.

No substitute can fill the bill for us. Their attractions grow brighter with age and the memory of them "leaves a sweet taste in the mouth" and gives lustre to the eye and joy to the heart.

The Rangeleys have "come to stay" in our memory.

"What peaceful hours I once enjoyed,

How sweet their memory still."

Says the part, and so says—Slocum

MINGO SPRINGS.

June A Prosperous and Happy Month For All.

(Special to Maine Woods).

Mingo Springs, June 30, 1911.

June days have passed and for Mingo Springs it has been the best early season since Mr. Perham leased the place, and the camps will soon all be taken.

Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Brickner of New York City, who spent June here, returned via Farmington and passed several days with their son, who is at a boys' camp in Monmouth for the summer. Dr. Brickner was very proud of the trio of salmon he caught just before he went home. They weighed 3½-lbs, 3-lbs and 3¼-lbs.

In one of the new bungalows, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of Brookline who have spent two seasons here, are happily located for the summer. Bernard Hinkley is their guide for the season. Mrs. Brown has already landed a fine pair of record fish, a 3½-lb trout and a salmon of the same weight. Two Boston friends, Messrs. Charles Thompson and George Perkins, the artist, have this week been their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Keene of Dixfield spent the Sabbath here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Marsh of Newtonville, Mass. are greatly enjoying life here.

Mr. Geo. Howe of Lynn, Mass. arrived Monday, coming in his auto, and will for a few days be the guest of his niece, Mrs. Perham.

The Camp-in-the-Woods is taken for this summer by a New York lady, Mrs. John J. Hopper and two charming daughters, Miss Ruth and Miss Dorothy Hopper, who come to the Rangeleys for the first time. They are very much pleased with log cabin life. The ladies have most artistically decorated the cabin, and added a piano. Mr. Hopper will join the family later.

Yesterday a party of guests went down to Middle Dam for dinner.

A big deer swam across the lake the other morning which was a pretty sight for the city folks.

PHILLIPS AND VICINITY.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wood of Lewiston and Mrs. S. W. Lightner of Harper's Ferry, W. Va., were in town to attend the funeral of their nephew, Hon. J. W. Brackett. His mother, Mrs. N. C. Brackett, and brother, Mr. L. J. Brackett, of Jamaica Plain, Mass., were at Ocean
Park and arrived Saturday noon. Mr.
Brackett remained until Tuesday
evening.

J. Scott Brackett assisted in Prelle's drug store the 4th.

It is with deep regret that we learn that Mrs. G. A. French and daughter, Miss Lucille, will take up their residence elsewhere. They have always been identified with the social affairs of Phillips and Miss Lucille will be particularly missed in musical circles as she is a young lady of rare ability. They plan to go to Westville, N. H. next Tuesday for a few weeks' visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. L. M.
Brayman, and will also visit friends
in other parts of Maine and in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Julius Blanchard of Rumford was the guest of Mrs. C. W. Miner for a day last week. Many old friends were also pleased to receive a call from her.

Mrs. Augusta Harnden of South
Strong is with her granddaughter,
Mrs. Elbert Matthews, for a few days.
Mr. Frank Rollins of Wilton is visiting at the home of Mr. L. G.
Voter.

Miss Luette Timberlake and Miss Emma Timberlake of Portland are visiting friends in town.

Miss Willa Swett of Rumford is engaged as compositor in the Maine
Woods office.

Mrs. Mary Kempton, of Salem, N.
H. is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Louisa Butterfield.

Miss Winifred Harnden of Lewiston is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elbert Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitney and daughter, Winifred, of Lowell, Mass.
are visiting Mr. Whitney's brother, Mr. Sherman Whitney.

John Russell and A. A. Jacobs spent a few days in Portland last week.

Mr. Will Murphy of Boothbay
Harbor spent the Fourth in town,
the guest of Miss Celia Whitney.

Mrs. Lionel Allen of Strong is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Master-man.

Mr. Pearl Ramsdell of Weld spent the Fourth in town.

Mrs. Ralph Sawyer of Houlton and little child, and Miss Lettiney of Boston will come next Tuesday for a visit with the former's sister, Mrs.
H. H. Field. Mr. Field will meet them at Waterville, and they will come from there by auto.

HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLDS.

Must be relieved quickly and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do it. E. M. Stewart, 1034 Wolfram Street, Chicago, writes: "I have been greatly troubled during the hot summer months with Hay Fever and find that by using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I get great relief." Many others who suffer similarly will be glad to benefit by Mr. Stewart's experience.

PHILLIPS AND VICINITY.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Moor, son and daughter from Dixfield are visiting Mrs. Moor's brother, Mr. F.
B. DaveReport.

Howard Toothaker went to Bald Mountain Monday and will be employed there during the summer.

Mrs. S. L. Twombly narrowly escaped a very serious accident Sunday morning, June 25. She was resting uncomfortably and thought she would change beds. At about 2 o'clock she started across the hall in the dark, and as there is a step there it is supposed she stumbled, hitting her head against the wall which rendered her unconscious, and by the bruises she received all over her body it is thought she rolled to the foot of the stairs where she was found. Her granddaughter Alice Parker, awoke and heard her groaning and investigated the cause, as her mother, Mrs. Nellie Parker, was away for the night. Dr.
Blanchard and other help was summoned. They found her face badly cut and bruised but fortunately no bones were broken. She is getting along nicely but is still unable to move about much. We are very glad to be able to report no serious injuries.

We are very glad indeed to report
Mr. W. A. D. Cragin to be steadily improving from his recent illness.
He was able to be moved from Dr.
P. O. Hopkin's to his home last evening and is able to walk a little.
With Mrs. Cragin he will go to Redington today for a time. Mr. Cragin has engaged a registered druggist to assist his son, C. E. Cragin, in the store.

Among the out of town friends
who attended the funeral of Hon.
J. W. Brackett not mentioned last week were Messrs. E. H. Grose, Robert Phillips, Dr. Brimigion, Harold Niles of Stratton; Mr. Charles Hill, Belgrade Hotel; Mr. C. W.
Stevens, Rumford Hotel; Messrs.
J. B. and W. S. Marble, Rangeley
Lake House; Dr. Heber Bishop,
Boston; Mr. Harry Brown, Farmington.

Mrs. Phoebe Staples, widow of the late Ephraim Staples, passed away on Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Adelbert Tupper of Woodfords, Me. She had been in poor health for some time but her many friends hoped for her recovery. The remains will be brought to Phillips where funeral services will be held at the Methodist church on Thursday at 1.30 P. M.

Mrs. R. H. Preble was in Augusta last week to attend the meeting of the Maine Medical Association, of which her father, Dr. E. H. Bennett, of Lubec is the president. Dr. Bennett, who has conducted the association through a very successful year, gave a fine president's address
at this meeting.

D. M. Rand, a registered pharmacist, from Portland, Maine, has been engaged to do the prescription work at W. A. D. Cragin's store.

THE FOURTH AT PHILLIPS.

Crowd Not as Large as Usual
Owing to Intense Heat.

About 200 were brought to Phillips by the Sandy River and Rangeley Lakes trains, not as large a crowd as usual, probably on account of the intense heat.

The horrors started out about the usual time headed by the Phillips band and paraded the principal streets. There were three or four teams, horsemen, etc. Clarence Campbell carried off the prize, his team representing tonsorial parlors.
A. D. Graffam had a hay spreader gayly decorated, and George Lakin had a couple of men to represent his boarding house, showing the effect on the men before and after eating.
The orator of the day was Whosoever
T. Whoisit, formerly "Fence View" of Rangeley (George Grover) who has quite a reputation in Mt. Saddle-back lodge I. O. O. F. as an orator.
He was introduced by Marshall H.
S. Bates.

The races and field events were interesting and closely contested
and were as follows:

High jump, won by A. Dustin, M.
Hunton, second. Broad jump won by A. Dustin, J. Dustin, second. Potato race, won by A. D. Whitney, Keith, second. 100 yard dash, won by A.
Dustin, B. Whitney, second. ½ mile run, won by B. Whitney.

Races in the Afternoon.

The races started in with the 2.30 class first, after much scoring the heat started in good shape. Bob Sterling took the lead and was passed by Tenerone in the first half. Bob Sterling by bad breaking lost his place to Rose Boone. The race ended in very close time.

In the second heat Rose Boone took the lead and Victor B. second.
Victor B. took the lead in passing the stand on the first half. Tenerone passed Rose Boone in last quarter.

In the third heat Victor B. took the lead, Mollie passing and taking the lead in the last half, and win-ing the heat. This was a very hard fought battle calling forth cheers
from the crowd.

Rose Boone took the lead in the fourth heat after passing the stand, Tenerone losing a little on a break at the gate. They bunched on the last quarter finishing in quick time.

Green Horse Race.

The clouds of dust were rather discouraging to long scoring, but with six starters in the green horse race it was hard to get away. Lillian took the lead closely followed by Sis. Sis made a bad break on last half losing to Cyclone. The other three finished together.

The next heat they started in the first score. Sis taking the lead, being passed by Lillian on the first half, and the others trailing far in the rear, Sis and Lillian finishing almost neck to neck.

The fourth heat started in good shape. Lillian leading the first quarter, but owing to a bad break was passed by Sis. Lillian taking the lead at the half. Lillian lost a tire on the stretch but managed to finish
a little in the lead. Sis trotted very well. The others trailed some distance in the rear.

Following is the summary:

was long, loosely played and uninteresting. Until the third inning, it looked as though it was to be closely contested game but then the Farmington team scored 8 runs.
After that they steadily piled up the tallies until they had a total of nineteen while the home team worked hard to secure five. The feature was the batting of the Farmington team. Totals: Passed by, Moore 2, game, 2 hours, 45 minutes.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS' ANNUAL.

The King's Daughters held their annual party at Wilbur hall Friday evening, June 30. Although the attendance was not as large as in some past years, a pleasant evening was enjoyed by those present. All were glad to greet two former members of the circle, Mrs. Stella Dunham of Rumford and Mrs. Jennie Pratt of Livermore Falls.

A feature of the evening's entertainment was illustrated proverbs. Each member was decorated with articles suggesting some familiar proverb, and sometime was spent in writing guesses of the sayings represented. Much merriment was created by some of the original versions given.

Two members then divided the company by choosing sides and a few exciting moments followed while determining which side could handle five dozen clothes pins with the greatest dexterity.
Refreshments for the evening were served as a tasting party and everyone found just what I like.

After dinner speeches came in the form of bits of advice prepared by the committee and distributed for reading and each could take what most pleased her. Other simple games closed the evening.

FULLER - BRADBURY.

Married June 21, at 4.30 P. M., Claudia Parlin Bradbury, of Winter Hill, to Chester Littlefield Fuller of Roxbury, at the home of the Rev.
Geo. E. King, pastor of the People's Temple of Boston.

The bride's mother was the only attendant.

Mrs. Fuller is the daughter of Mrs. Eva P. Bradbury, formerly of Phillips and has many friends in town. She moved to Massachusetts with her mother when quite a small girl, but has returned occasionally for visits.

Mr. Fuller has a responsible position in the N. E. Tel. and Tel. Co., at 119 Milk street, Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller will reside at 17 Waban street, Roxbury, Mass. The Maine Woods, with other Phillips friends, extends congratulations.

SNARE - WEICK.

Phillips friends of Miss Madge
Weick, who was formerly a teacher of music in our village schools will be interested to hear of her marriage to Mr. Austin W. Snare at her home in Springfield, Maine, recently.

The bride is a charming Springfield young woman, and the groom is of the well-known law firm of Mayor & Snare of Portland, and his home is in Hampden Highlands. He has been associated with U. S.
Marshal Henry W. Mayo in the law business for a number of years and is one of the best known of the younger members of the Penobscot bar.

It was a pretty home wedding and attended by the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom.
Mr. and Mrs. Snare received a great many gifts in token of the high esteem in which they are held.
Immediately after the ceremony they left Springfield in an automobile for an indefinite wedding trip. The best wishes of hosts of friends follow them.

solutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

NEW VINEYARD.

Mr. A. D. Turner has bought an automobile.

Mrs. W. S. Viles was hurt quite badly last Saturday by her horse getting frightened of an automobile. She was thrown out of the wagon and it went over her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Alward and children of Kingfield were in town Sunday, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ella Williams closed a very successful term of school last Friday at Peabody Corner.

Tennie Mitchell of Stratton, formerly of New Vineyard, who was hurt so badly with the automobile, was a brother of Mrs. I. S. Wilcox and Mrs. Frances Holbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bliss of Somerville, Mass., are at home for the summer.

Miss Alice Wilcox is visiting at Stratton and Flagstaff.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Steward of Farmington are visiting her parents, Mr.
and Mrs. E. G. Smith.

Mrs. Eliza McLain of Farmington is at her old home in New Vineyard for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Smith have Miss Ruby Wood and her pupils at their cottage for a week's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tolman, who has been staying at his uncle's, John Pillsbury's have moved to Farmington.

Mrs. Martha Jordan is visiting her daughter in Portland.

Mrs. Helen Handley went to Stratton last Friday for a few days.

F. H. McLain of Stratton and his brother, Walter, of Farmington were at Will Morton's Sunday.

Belcher Morton has gone to Fairbanks to visit his grandparents, Mr.
and Mrs. J. B. Holley.

A SUSTAINING DIET.

These are the enervating days,
when, as somebody has said, men
drop by sunstroke as if the Day of Fire had dawned. They are fraught with danger to people whose systems are poorly sustained; and this leads us to say, in the interest of less robust of our readers, that the full effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla is such as to suggest the propriety of calling this medicine something besides a blood purifier and tonic,— say, a sustaining diet. It makes it much easier to bear the heat, assures refreshing sleep, and will without any doubt avert much sickness at this time of year.

P. H. S. GRADUATION.

Class of 1912 Give Reception to Class of 1911.

On Thursday evening June 22 the graduating exercises of the class of 1911 were held at the Union church, which was packed to the doors by friends of the graduates.

The decorations were of green and gold, the class colors. Potted plants and evergreens were used in abundance. The class motto "Nulla Palma sine Pulvere," was in green letters over the alcove.

Dyer's orchestra played the march and the class was marshaled in by the president, Reno Atwood, the only male member of the class of 1911.

Although the smallest class to graduate for some years, it was an exceptionally fine looking class and each part was rendered in a very pleasing manner.

Following is the program as given:

Music.
Prayer.
Music.

Salutatory, Ambition and success, Algie Pratt
Class Will, Ruth Hillman Austin
Music.
Prophecy, Ina Lillian Badger
History, Charles Reno Atwood
Music.
Presentation of Gifts,
Dallas Amos Voter
Valedictory, Nulla Palma sine Pulvere, Helen May Hilton
Music.

Benediction.
Music.

As we are able to give but a very brief extract from each if published in this issue, we have deemed it advisable to print one article each week and will do so beginning next week, and taking them in order in which they were given. We are sure that our readers will take pleasure in reading them in full, especially the out of town friends.

The diplomas were conferred by Superintendent N. P. Noble, who gave the class helpful suggestions and advice. Superintendent Noble and members of the school board, Hon. H. B. Austin and F. W. Atwood, and the teachers, Principal W. E. Stuart, Miss Lura H. Dennison, Miss Ruth MacGregor and Miss Pearl Johnson, occupied front seats.

The flowers were in charge of Miss Mildred Mahoney with the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ross, as flower girl.

Friday evening the class of 1912 gave them a very pretty reception at the Grange hall, Dyer's orchestra furnishing music for the hop. The hall was decorated, as was the church, in an artistic manner. The booth of green which was used at the King's Daughters fair was utilized at this time, and from it was served delicious punch, throughout the evening, also refreshments of ice cream and cake were also served.

The members of the class of 1912 are Mildred Mahoney, Christie Aldrich, Amanda Bourque, Nellie Reed, Hortense Voter, Lew Noble, Hollis Holt, Agnes Ross, Everett Knapp, Anna Beal; Special students, Laura Libby, Estelle Barker, Henry Scamman.

FREEMAN CENTRE.

July 3, 1911.

Rev. W. W. Laite preached an excellent sermon at the Centre school house last Sunday.

There will be preaching service at Starbird Corner, July 9, and again at the Centre the following Sunday at the usual hour, 3 P. M.

Mrs. Tensie Allen of Livermore Falls, also her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Stevens, of Rockland are visiting relatives and friends in this place.

Mr. Hewey Welch, who has been working at Strong has returned home now.

All are sorry to hear that Mr. T. J. Pennell is in very poor health.

Miss Mary Vining of Weld is visiting her brother, Mr. R. D. Vining and family.

Mr. Alonzo Richards is repairing the house formerly owned by Gilbert Eustis.

KIDNEY DISEASES ARE CURABLE
Under certain conditions. The right medicine must be taken before the disease has progressed too far. Mr. Perry A. Pitman, Dale, Tex., says: "I was down in bed for four months with kidney and bladder trouble and gall stones. One bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy cured me well and sound." Ask for it. Sold by W. A. D. Cragin.

KINGFIELD.

July 3, 1911.

The post office will be closed at 8 o'clock P. M. instead of 8.30 to accommodate the change of train time.

W. C. Hobart of Skowhegan, manager of Farmers' Co-operative Telephone company, was here Thursday on his way home from an inspection of the lines in New Portland and Dead River. Mr. Hobart states that a Farmington connection is demanded and must be had, if possible, at once.

The Ladies' night banquet at the formal opening of the Board of Trade rooms, Wednesday, June 28, was largely attended, over 70 tickets being taken. A five course shore dinner was served in the vestry of the Universalist church, consisting of lobster stew, steamed clams, broiled live lobster, strawberries and cream, ice cream, cake and coffee. The waitresses were Misses Miriam Schafer, Helen Holman, Lena Page, Hilda Huse, Hazel Cushman, Maud Cross, Bertha Hunt, Dorris Wilkins, Mabel Hutchins, Hazel Weymouth, Florence Weymouth and Flora Norton. There was a Reception at the rooms which have been fitted up in an elegant manner, much credit being due to the president of the directors, H. S. Wing, whose liberality and enterprise have made the Board possible. Also Mr. Jenkins of the Jenkins & Bogert Co., has contributed very materially to the enterprise. With these men and Dr. E. L. Pennell, S. J. Wyman and all our leading business men boosting, the Board must be a success and a great help to the town.

Dr. A. W. Newhall of Stoneham, Mass., who has been a missionary to Alaska for nine years, under the auspices of the M. E. Church, will be in Kingfield next Sunday, July 9 and will speak in the Evangelical church both morning and evening. Dr. Newhall has a large collection of curios which he will exhibit, furs, seal, white-fox, walrus-tusks, etc. The Doctor will return again to Alaska this summer. All are invited to come and hear about this wonderful country, its people, their customs, etc.

NEW YORK SENATOR ARRIVES.

The Pollock Party Having Good Catches. Many In Camp.

(Special to Maine Woods).

The Barker, July 1, 1911.

The crowds of guests that are now coming, tell that the July days will find this place packed with a happy, jolly company, as over 60 are now here.

Tonight one of the most distinguished New Yorkers and family arrive, Senator James A. O'Gorman, who in Washington during the past session of congress has often been heard from. The Senator will be accompanied by Mrs. O'Gorman and four daughters, Misses Dolorita, Alice Anna, and Agnes O'Gorman, and James A. O'Gorman, Jr. The party have two of the camps where they plan to pass the season. As this is their first visit to the Rangeleys it is hoped they may land some of the big trout and salmon, and enjoy their stay so much they will come again.

The fish record for the last ten days tells many a good story.

Hon. Fred E. Richards of Portland the day before his return landed a 7-lb salmon. His catch also included a pair of 3-lb salmon, and one of 3½-lbs. Ernest Demeritt, guide. Mr. L. L. Hervison, who accompanied Mr. Richards caught a 3 and 3½-lb trout, and a 3¼-lb salmon. Bob Marston, guide.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Pollock of New York, who have been here for their first visit of two weeks are very enthusiastic over the fishing. Mrs. Pollock had the time of her life with a gamy salmon that kept her busy for nearly an hour before she reeled him in, a handsome 5-pounder. The fish is being mounted by H. L. Welch to decorate the dining room of their city home, and prove any fish stories they may tell their friends about the Rangeley fishing. Robie Toothaker was their guide. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pollock of New York, who remain here for a month, also have been lucky fishermen as well as their brother. Mr. Charles Pollock has taken the largest fish recorded by any of the guests here this season, a 7½-lb trout, also two other record trout, 3½-lbs, and 4½-lbs, each. Robie Toothaker, guide.

Mr. J. S. Bent of Boston, Frank Fall, guide recorded a 3-lb salmon.

Mr. E. B. Wright, Dover, N. H., Herb Lufkin guide, recorded a 4½-lb trout.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Corey of Portland are spending their honeymoon days in Camp Nicolai, one of the attractive log camps here.

Mrs. J. Goodfriend and daughter, Miss Ruth, and son, Henry B. Goodfriend, of New York have returned for their sixth summer.

Mr. J. H. Powers of Rumford, who was in charge of the hotel last year was greeted by many old friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Erstein of New York arrived last evening for a two weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Jacobson and children, Master James and Charles and Miss Theresa and maid are here for the July days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Stern of Atlanta, Ga., are among the new comers.

Mrs. A. R. Dudley went out to Phillips to attend the wedding of her brother, Mr. Don Ross last Wednesday evening.

Mr. M. F. Blanchard and son, Master Thatcher of Portland are here for a two weeks, outing. Mr. Blanchard, with Bob Martin, guide, landed a 3¼-lb salmon. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Blanchard and daughter, Miss Caroline, and Miss Virginia Holway of Portland came up for the week-end to stay with them.

A PLEASANT TRIP DOWN THE KENNEBEC.

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

The use of that much needed public utility in Franklin county, a railroad going easterly and westerly through Maine can easily be dropped out of one's wishes. By this is meant reference to trips from Phillips and vicinity to the Kennebec from which one can go almost anywhere. So a few days ago Master Donald C. Hodges took his grandfather on a trip easterly over some territory where the old man was well acquainted in his boyhood.

We took the train at our station for Leeds Junction, made close connection with the train for Winthrop and there, the trolleys to Augusta, a ride, if the weather is pleasant, which is unparalleled in Maine. Here we met that paragon of Phillips boys—Gen. E. C. Dill; I speak of him thus advisably because everybody in Phillips who knows him will agree with me. We went that night to Gen. Dill's new bungalow home on Summer street which has recently been described in one of the Boston dailies, and perhaps read by many Phillips people. Anybody who lives in "Old Hallowell on the Kennebec" will direct you to this home. Here we found the general's wife and the four young "sojer boys." Mrs. Dill is a beautiful woman, a practical housekeeper and this home is a model in all its appointments. The next day it rained; and we had a dreary time trying to find Portland relatives, whom a day later were discovered. When there are so many G. A. R. boys as were in Augusta that day it is no slight task. However, we improved the time by Donald's seeing Fort Western and getting a brief story of Arnold, and the days of 1775. One can hardly realize that the elegant churches of today now occupy the land, then "burnt land" on the west side of the river, where the Indian girl in company with Aaron Burr shot the bear in the cornfield!

Of course, we saw the Governor of Maine next day when a notable item of our trip took place. Gov. Plaisted happened to open the door into the council room, and seeing the old man we were cordially invited to come right in, despite the large number in the waiting room. Here the notable item mentioned above took place. The Governor said to Donald, "I hope you will grow up to be a good citizen of Maine. Please sit in that chair at the table while we talk over some things for a few minutes that you do not care about, and when you get home tell the folks that you once occupied the Governor's chair by authority!" This was a very pleasant call; but we could see marks of care on our Chief Executive's face that hard work had placed there since we last met.

Friday the 16th we took the steamer Islander from Hallowell for Boothbay Harbor, via Gardiner and Bath, including all the many stopping places between the two cities. At Bath we left for the back passage of the Kennebec through the once famous and dangerous, "Hell's gate" for the end of our trip. The U. S. Government has a few years ago taken out the danger by submarine blasting of ledges and rocks, etc.

Notwithstanding this fact an elderly lady came forward near the purser's office and said, "Why, mister, we are going right into that monstrous rock!" Just at this critical moment the steamer swung to larboard and the nervous old lady's fears were over.

I wish time and space allowed even brief mention of the many beauties of this trip, the imaginary shapes of the great sea worn rocks, surf scenes and all the many beauty spots of nature that type can only poorly portray.

We went to the Boothbay House, where we got a good dinner; the steamer gives the hasty visitor an hour and one half stop.

I have been told that by taking the earliest train from Phillips one can make the trip in one day; but in that case they would be tired enough to stop over night; but the Maine Woods will, I fear, be shouting,—"Space," so I must stop also.

SPORTSMEN'S BIG OUTING.

MAINE HUNTERS AND FISHERMEN ARE AT KINEO.

Several Rifle Matches Among the Features.—Prizes Awarded by Governor's Wife Amid Great Applause.

It wasn't the best sort of weather for an outing at Kineo on Tuesday. But nothing seemed to dampen the ardor of the party and the events of the day went through fully as successfully as though the sun had been burning hot and not a breeze blowing.

The attendance is not as great this year as in the past. This is attributed in no small degree to the sudden and sad death of Chairman Brackett of the fish and game commission. That this deterred many from coming, especially from the Franklin county section, where the association has a large membership is undoubted. However, there is a considerable number here and they have been enjoying themselves to

With all the varied attractions which Kineo has had in the past there are additions this year.

When the guests of the hotel, both those who are here for the season and the excursionists, came down Tuesday morning they found a decidedly interesting exhibit in the office. It was a large table on which was displayed the prizes which were offered for the various sporting events of the outing. These had been arranged by Pres. Sprague and Sec. Smith and made a decidedly attractive spot in the big room.

Mrs. Plaisted Bestowed Prizes.

The sporting events of the day were run off in the regular order and were thoroughly enjoyed, the feature of the morning in the hotel being the awarding of the prizes in the women's rifle shooting match. In this there came a surprise and a very appropriate one, too. When it had been concluded the contestants and spectators marched back to the hotel, escorted by the Pittsfield band.

In the hotel office Pres. Sprague called the assemblage to order and introduced Mrs. Plaisted, as the first lady of the State.

Some thought that she was going to make a speech, but is wasn't anything of the sort. Mr. Sprague had induced her to do another act and in behalf of the Maine Sportsmen's Fish and Game Association, as well as the donors, she very gracefully presented the various winners with the prizes which came to them.

It was difficult to tell, at the conclusion of each presentation, who was the more liberally applauded the recipient of the prize or the lady who made the presentation.

A Word Personal.

There were a lot of new comers on the early boats of Tuesday morning. Commissioner of Fish and Game Viles of Augusta was among these. He had hoped to be here Monday, but the illness of his father, Payson Viles of Sowhegan, prevented.

Another man who came up on the boats was Fred Sanborn of Norway.

The Women's Shoot.

The first of the sporting events was the rifle match for women.

In this contest there were seven entries, the principal prizes for which was a silver cup donated by Col. J. J. Pooler of Portland, which was won by Mrs. C. A. Judkins of Kineo. The number of entries was large, considering that it is the second year such an event has been on the program and that last year there were but two contestants.

This event was under the direction of Col. John J. Dooley of Portland, chief of ordnances of the National Guard of Maine, and one of the recognized authorities on rifle shooting of the United States.

The scores made by the ladies were:

Mrs. C. A. Judkins .....	64

The Guides Win.

The match between the guides and wardens, as well as the free-for-all and the members match were shot off on a new range at Kineo farm, four miles from the hotel, all being taken to the range by special boats. The guides won by a score of 199 to 196. The high man on both teams had 47 points to their credit. These were Frank Durgin of the wardens and Roy Nelson of the guides. On the shot off Nelson scored seven and Durgin five, so that Nelson got the prize for the best individual score in the match. The men shot as follows in the match:

Commissioner Viles Spoke.

At the evening meeting in the ball room the principal speaker was Blaine S. Viles of Augusta, a member of the inland fish and game commission. Mr. Viles read the address which Chairman Brackett had prepared and would have delivered but for his sudden death. In opening Mr. Viles said:

"Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen: Yesterday afternoon in the little town of Phillips took place the funeral of the chairman of the fish and game commission of the State. Gathered there were his neighbors and friends from all over Maine, anxious to pay tribute to his memory. To be taken at this time in the summer of a busy life with a bright future awaiting him is indeed a sad event.

"I shall remember James W. Brackett as a genial, companionable man, thoroughly familiar with the importance of the great natural resources of Maine and jealous of their welfare.

"I shall respect his memory for many things one of which will be his refusal to enter into cheap controversy when attacked, oftentimes unjustly.

"It had been his purpose to be here tonight and to speak to you on the fish and game interests of Maine. It is my privilege and pleasure to read to you his address prepared for this purpose."

He than read the address which

KILL MORE THAN WILD BEASTS.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. follows:

Our great north country brings business to the State that is of immense value. Maine is to be the summer resort playground of the nation, and our business and income in that line are increasing immensely each year.

The value of the forests, lakes and streams of Maine is beyond estimate; therefore, it is of the highest importance that these great natural resources be conserved.

In our haste to get rich, the American people are too much inclined to overlook the results that the future is sure to bring forth and our race for ready cash has the effect of denuding our forests at great expense in wasted lumber, while our streams and in turn our lakes and ponds are lowered for want of the holding basins furnished by well distributed timber growth. We must gradually, and not too gradually, adopt methods similar of those successfully practiced in Germany, Switzerland and England, to conserve our natural resources, and it is pleasant to note that Maine sentiment in that direction is gaining.

The situation with reference to the big game of our forests is encouraging for the future. The moose hunter has been of late inclined to pass us by; in favor of New Brunswick and Quebec, because big heads are not so plentiful in Maine as they have been in the past. There is a steady increase in the number of young moose, and beyond a doubt there will be plenty of big heads for the future moose hunter, provided, of course, that we furnish proper protection. Proper protection would be a close time in all or a part of the State for at least four years' time; our moose are getting better protection every year, due in part to more efficient warden service, and partly to the fact that our citizens appreciate more every year the fact that the moose are a valuable asset, and that every individual can well afford to take a personal interest in their protection. It is true that a few cow mooses have been killed this year, and left in the woods, but there is less of this kind of work every year, and it is easier every year to get evidence and conviction.

There is sufficient evidence to support the more or less prevalent idea that there is a general decrease in the number of deer in Maine. That there are localities where their natural feed has become scarce, causing the deer to move, I firmly believe. But there are reliable reports from some localities that there is a steady increase, and more deer, and more signs of deer are seen today than ever before.

More deer were shipped from the various stations of the Maine Central railroad in 1910, than ever before, and the Bangor and Aroostook figures are practically the same.

The early part of last winter was so mild in northern Maine, and there was so little snow, that the deer did not yard at all until February, and for a short time then. Contrary to the usual rule, they roamed through the woods the same as they do in summer, picking their feed at will and continuing to grow fat. There has been less mortality than usual among the deer for the past two winters, and there are now, no doubt, at least as many deer in the woods as there were a year ago. That there will be a decrease in the deer supply in Maine sooner or later we can confidently expect. "Black Tongue," the much dreaded disease, cold and starvation, or a general exodus for fear of wolves, (if the wolves should ever return to Maine) are among the possibilities of the future, and it is incumbent upon those who are anxious for the deer to remain with us, to be prepared for a sudden change of policy with reference to deer protection, in case of emergency.

In 1910 non-residents paid for licenses to shoot deer, $32,080.75; for bird licenses, $2,774.71. We collect

Knees Became Stiff

Five Years of Severe Rheumatism
The cure of Henry J. Goldstein, 14 Barton Street, Boston, Mass., is another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where others have utterly failed. Mr. Goldstein says: "I suffered from rheumatism five years, it kept me from business and caused excruciating pain. My knees would become as stiff as steel. I tried many medicines without relief, then took Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon felt much better, and now consider myself entirely cured. I recommend Hood's." Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

ed $13,476.44 in addition to this in license fees and fines. Under a new law this money all goes into the general State fund, and the State appropriated $75,000 a year for the fish and game department.

Agitation in the grange resulted in the enactment of a law providing that land owners should be paid for actual damage done to their crops by deer, and the Legislature of 1909 amended that law so that no more than $75 could be paid to any one person in one year for such damage.

This was manifestly an unfair provision. Some men in the past have received several times that amount, who were beyond doubt, entitled to all they got. The Legislature of 1911 re-enacted the original law, so that now the farmer is reimbursed for the actual amount of damage done by deer.

Caribou.

There are probably no caribou in Maine. We have known of but one being seen in the past year. Whether we will ever again see caribou plentiful enough to be of value to the hunter, only time can tell. Caribou are easier to shoot than moose or deer. Their inordinate curiosity too often impels them to make a short circle and return to the point of danger, apparently for no better purpose than to find out what disturbed them, consequently, in the past, whole herds of Maine caribou were shot at one killing. This, coupled with the undoubted scarcity of "caribou moss"—the natural food of the caribou, and their tendency to rove, contributed to their total loss in this State.

Bears.

The black bear of the Maine woods is sought for more each year by sportsmen so that now there are many owners of hunting camps who plan regularly for their patrons to vary their moose and deer hunting by a try for a bear. Bruin is the craftiest game in the Maine woods, not excepting the fox. Although he has come to be recognized as a game animal in some sections, in others, where the farmer raises sheep and there is no demand for the sport of bear hunting, he has become a decided nuisance and is considered a sheep thief and an outlaw by the farmers.

Fish.

A very valuable part of the work of the Maine Fish and Game department in future will be in connection with our fish hatcheries. The enormous business brought to us by the summer visitors is made possible, first, by the purity of our air and water, the beauty of our lakes and mountains, and courtesy of our people; second, is the fact that thousands of our lakes, ponds and streams furnish fishing every day in open season, thus affording a sport that is much desired by almost every visitor.

It is estimated that our summer folks, with the early angler and the fall hunter, left something like $20,000,000 in Maine in 1909. If this estimate is approximately correct, in twenty years from now we ought to realize $100,000,000 a year from the same sources. Our fish hatcheries are needed to keep up the supply of trout and other game fish against the great increase in our summer visitors, nearly all of whom fish more or less. The fish and game department has adopted the plan of feeding trout and salmon until they are at least one year old in hatcheries where the facilities permit. The best examples of what this work has accomplished are at Sebago, where the specialty is landlocked salmon and the Rangeley Lakes, where the great call is for square-tailed trout.

At these two hatcheries two or three hundred thousand trout and salmon were fed through the past winter and summer. When liberated they are nearly the size of the ordinary brook trout. This plan is effectual as far as it goes.

By the time the fish reach the fingerling size the number that can be cared for in these ponds is comparatively small. This must be taken into consideration when hatching (Continued on page 10).

Friday, the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Haines gathered at their home to celebrate the 50th wedding anniversary of their marriage. Their children and grandchildren assisted and gathered around a table, bountifully spread with baked beans, brown bread, white bread, doughnuts, custard pie, coffee, ice-cream, and three kinds of cake.

Mrs. Haines was a charming bride of fifty years, gowned in steel gray silk, trimmed with black. Mr. Haines belongs to the lodge of K. of T. He was born in Avon, Jan. 26, 1831, and Mrs. Haines was born in Belmont, Me., September 16, 1838. They were married in Morrill, Me., June 2, 1861.

Mr. and Mrs. Haines thank the guests for their good wishes and handsome gifts, which were very useful. Following is the list: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Trumbull, Lawrence, Mass., ten dollar gold piece; Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Beedy, cup and saucer for each; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Vining, six tumblers; Rev. M. S. Hutchins, one dollar; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Babb, one dollar; Mrs. Lila Ross, pair of towels; Mrs. Octavia Badger, fifty cents; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morton, a gold brooch; Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Landers, dishpan and stew kettle; the children, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Haines, Freeman, a gold ring for each; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Sanborn, Weld, tea set; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson F. Haines, Farmington, five dollar gold piece; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey N. Haines, Millinocket, silver berry spoon, meat fork, sugar shell; the grandchildren, Mr. Oscar H. Sanborn, his photograph; Miss Jennie Sanborn, Weld, souvenir of Weld; Sarah H. Sanborn, twenty-five cents; Mabel E. Sanborn, six glass tumblers; Florence B. Sanborn, clothes sprinkler.

"SOME" WEATHER.

The past week has certainly been a record breaker for hot weather in Phillips. In fact that is the case in all parts of the country.

The hot wave struck us about Saturday and it grew hotter each day until Monday and Tuesday, when it was almost insufferable. It was reported in some places in town Monday to be 104 and about the coolest spot one could find the thermometer would show 100. The 4th was a scorcher but not quite up to Monday's mark.

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS.

Their action controls your health. Read what Foley Kidney Pills have done for your neighbor, Mrs. H. W. Allen, Quincy, Ill., says: "About a year ago my kidneys began bothering me. I had a swelling in my ankles and limbs, then headaches and nervous dizzy spells and later severe backaches. I was getting worse, when I began taking Foley Kidney Pills. I kept on taking them until I was once more freed of all kidney trouble and suffering. I have a great deal to thank Foley Kidney Pills for and shall always recommend them." Sold by W. A. D. Cragin.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

Union Church, Phillips.

Melvin Sherburne Hutchins, pastor. Calendar for week ending, July 15. Sunday, July 9, 10.45 morning worship, sermon, "A Refreshing Religion." 11.45 Sunday school. 7.30 evening worship. Address, "The Honest Life." Thursday, July 13, 7.30 P. M. mid-week prayer meeting.

The subject of the morning sermon preached at the Union church by Rev. M. S. Hutchins last Sunday was "The Little Sister of Liberty," the text, Matt. 7 : 12. "All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

In these days of the Peace movement ministers are urged many times each year to preach sermons advocating the cause of peace. New Years' Sunday, Patriot's Sunday, Memorial Sunday, the Sunday before the Fourth of July and other days throughout the year are made occasions for such requests.

In the midst of this movement toward the abolishment of war, there are those who doubt the wisdom of attempting to settle all international difficulties without war. They say that if there be no war there will be no patriotism. It is the days when the blast of war's great organ is heard that patriotism is at a premium. We saw it thus in the long sad days at Valley Forge, in the war of 1812 and in the days following 1861 when thousands and thousands of our brave sons marched to their death. When the war is over patriotism with many declines. A brave general of the Rebellion afterward did in Rhode Island political work that was an affront to decency and order, declaring that every man has his price. Often it seems that patriotism waxes and wanes with war. It is right that people should ask for the explanation of this fact, and be given an answer. This sermon today is not a peace sermon, and does not attempt to discuss this matter.

The desire for liberty arouses patriotism. This desire actuated the Greeks at Thermopylae; it actuated our forefathers who braved the hardships of the bleak New England winters and the dangers that followed the declaration of 1776; it actuated the men of 1861 who would save a Union that stood for liberty. Liberty is the hand maiden of patriotism. Yet there is something to be said against liberty. She comes with haughty step, with a braggart's speech, and a self-willed heart, but it is not of liberty I wish to speak, but of her little sister whose name is Justice.

The desire for liberty is too often a selfish seeking for good for one's self. Justice seeks the good of others and desire for it marks a heart with love for humanity, one which would live and let live. Justice desires to speak in a phrase which usage has sanctioned, "A square deal" for everyone. It is actuated by love; it is real patriotism.

To our land have come people from many lands. None of us have been here more than three hundred years. The presence of so many different people with varying ideas has given rise to perplexing problems. For these ills many remedies are proposed. Legislation, an honest vote, the ballot granted to woman, socialism, the initiative and referendum. There is a lack in each of these proposed remedies.

There is a rule given by Jesus,

Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be obtained when on board the cars or steamships. For sale by W. A. D. Cragin, Phillips, Maine.

which were it used by all as a guide for conduct would settle all vexing questions of class, of capital, of labor. It is called the Golden Rule. I read it as my text. Keeping it, liberty would be honored, justice not forgotten, honesty in business and in government would be followed, justice accorded to all.

But justice alone is not enough. Look at the French Revolution. The people of France wanted justice; they did not want God. The Bible teaches two truths. The Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. We have obligations toward God as toward our fellow men.

In the political campaign of 1864 Senator Zachary Chandler of Michigan made stirring appeals for the reelection of Abraham Lincoln, calling upon voters everywhere in the name of the dead soldiers of their country.

The day for that appeal is passed. But today, and in all future years there will still be the same vital necessity to enthrone in our hearts God the Father of whom Jesus taught, and the Golden Rule of conduct which he gave.

Then shall be realized the hopes of the founders of our country. Then shall be realized the best hopes of humanity, and as we do this are we light bearers for the Christ.

HONEST MEDICINE VERSUS FAKE.

President Taft's recent message suggesting an amendment to the Pure Food and Drug law in its relation to Prepared Medicines, does not refer to such standard medicines as Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and Foley Kidney Pills, both of which are true medicines carefully compounded of ingredients whose medicinal qualities are recognized by the medical profession itself as the best known remedial agents for the disease they are intended to counteract. For over three decades Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been a standard remedy for coughs, colds and affections of the throat, chest and lungs for children and for grown persons, and it retains to-day its pre-eminence above all other preparations of its kind. Foley Kidney Pills are equally effective and meritorious. Sold by W. A. D. Cragin, Phillips, Maine.

SPORTSMEN'S BIG OUTING.

fry. By distributing more fish when smaller, at the stage known as "advanced fry" many more eggs can be handled and the number of fry available for stocking Maine waters will be greatly increased.

It sounds very nice to talk about keeping all fish until they have reached the yearling stage. Some authorities question the advisability of it. They say that, cost considered, better results are obtained by distributing them in the spring as fry.

Fish kept until they are a year old before being released, have grown to be dependent on others. They do not know how to hunt food or to protect themselves; they are tame. Fish of this kind expect some one to feed them at regular intervals. This is not an advantage. "Advanced fry" are fish that have learned to eat. Liberated at that age their natural instincts assert themselves and they hunt food as soon as released in the water of the small streams. At the same time these instincts cause them to hide and avoid danger. Your yearling, being used to care and attention, is handicapped in that he has lost the natural food-hunting spirit, and being in a sense tame, he does not avoid danger so readily and falls an easy prey to the larger fish. It is because of this that many authorities say that the best time to release fish is it the "advanced fry" stage instead of as yearlings.

One idea of the commission is to plant more of these "advanced fry" but instead of releasing them in the lakes and ponds proper, put them into the coves and headwaters of the streams which empty into the ponds and rivers. This will eliminate, to a great extent, the danger of fry being eaten by big fish; as the fish at these headwaters will be more nearly like the fry, the newcomers will be in less danger. By scattering the fry well in these small brooks, excellent results can be obtained.

During the past spring the commission has planted about three million trout in the streams of the State, so with our usual fall planting, the waters of the State will receive more than twice as many trout as ever before.

I do not wish to be understood that our plan of keeping fish in feeding ponds is not a success. It is, but I want to emphasize the idea that we must liberate millions more trout in our little streams every year than has been our custom, if we keep the supply good, and it can be done with much less additional expense than might be supposed.

The last Legislature passed a law making 40 fish, or 15 pounds, the legal limit of trout, landlocked salmon, togue and white perch, and restricted the shipping of fish to 10 lbs. once in 30 days.

The limit of 40 will save thousands of small trout at the hands of anglers who are looking for a slaughter without regard to the next man who may want to fish the same brook.

Fifteen pounds in weight is enough fish for any man; the shipping of fish should be discouraged. These new regulations will save many fish and injure nobody.

Under the old law a man could catch hundreds of brook trout in a day and still not reach the limit. It is wasteful for any man to make these catches, yet it was done every season, as item after item in the papers prove. Any man ought to be satisfied with a catch of 40 brook trout in a day.

The limit of 40 in a day will protect the small streams of the State—the trout streams near home.

There are in Maine, at a conservative estimate, 1,000 streams where at times a man can get 200 to 300 fish in a single day, and I have known two men to kill and carry away 700 to 800 in a day. Such drains as that are responsible for the disappearance of trout, from some of the best brooks in Maine.

Now just a word in closing about our inland fish and game laws.

It is hoped that the law limiting the number of brook trout that may be taken by one person in one day to 40 will have the effect to limit the number of special laws. There were so many special laws regulating fishing in this State that the people who wish to take advantage of our fishing are decidedly confused.

It is necessary to distribute from 15,000 to 20,000 copies of the inland fish and game laws, as compiled by the commissioners, every two years, and dozens of letters are written at the department every day answering questions in regard to the general and special laws, and still there is confusion in regard to the matter.

It is hoped that practically all of these private and special laws will be repealed. They are a decided hindrance to the work of the commission, and a damage to the inland fish and game interests of the State.

A LEADING CALIFORNIA DRUGGIST.

Pasadena, Cal., March 9, 1911.
Foley and Co., Gentlemen:—We have sold and recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years. We believe it to be one of the most efficient expectorants on the market. Containing no opiates or narcotics it can be given freely to children. Enough of the remedy can be taken to relieve a cold, as it has no nauseating results, and does not interfere with digestion. Yours very truly, C. H. Ward Drug Co., C. L. Parsons, Sec'y and Treas.' Get the original Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the yellow package. Sold by W. A. D. Cragin, Phillips, Maine.

PHILLIPS AND VICINITY.
Dr. E. A. Sheehy of Rumford came to Phillips by auto Saturday. Mrs. Sheehy and little daughter, Katharine, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hescok for the past three weeks, returned with him Sunday.
Mason Dutton is visiting his cousin, Mason Russell, of Rangeley, for a few weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. David Bean of West Farmington, and their daughter, Mrs. C. O. Hayford of Dover, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bean, coming by auto.
Mrs. Fred Dunham and son, Rand, of Rumford, visited relatives and friends in town last week.
A patrol of boy scouts has been organized in Phillips with Reynold Graffam as patrol leader, Homer Daveport as assistant patrol leader, Albert Scammon as secretary, and Mason Dutton as treasurer. It is hoped that two or more patrols will be organized very soon. Then there can be a local troop. Rev. M. S. Hutchins is the scout master.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chase and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Dixfield spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Butler, making the trip in Mr. Chase's auto.
Dr. B. Sherman Elliott spent the week-end in Auburn.
Mrs. A. D. Hatfield, two children and maid, from Cleveland, Ohio, have arrived in Phillips after staying a time in Old Orchard. Mrs. Hatfield has rented the John Shepard house and will remain a month.
W. B. Hoyt's family was among those who had a display of fireworks at home on the evening of the 4th.
Lew Noble, who is employed as bell boy at the Rangeley Lake House was at home the 4th.
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Austin and Miss Ruth returned home Monday night after a few days in Portland, making the trip in their touring car.
