State of Maine.

BY THE GOVERNOR.—A PROCLAMATION.

With the advice and consent of the Executive Council, I hereby designate Thursday, the Twenty-seventh day of April, instant, as Fast Day.

Given at the Executive Chamber at Augusta, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twenty-ninth.

WILLIAM T. COBB.
By the Governor.

Rev. W. W. Hooper.

The many friends of Rev. W. W. Hooper, who were shocked to learn of his death at his home in Utica, N. Y., on Sunday, April 16th, from inflammatory rheumatism. Mr. Hooper was for several years, some twenty years since, pastor of the Universalist church in Norway, also preaching on Paris Hill. He afterwards held other pastorates in Maine, and was later for a number of years state missionary of the denomination in Maine. In this line of work he was particularly successful, doing great service in building up and extending the church. It was during his service and principally by his labors that the church at South Paris was established, and he was given a unanimous call to become its first pastor, but thought best to decline.

After resigning his position as state missionary for Maine, Mr. Hooper held a pastorate in Vermont for a while, and was then chosen state missionary for New York, and was engaged in work up to the time of his death. Mr. Hooper was of a genial, kindly spirit, active in all good works, and his services were always practical and an inspiration for higher living.

Mr. Hooper married Mary D. Shackley of Norway, who survives him, with two children, a son and a daughter.

The remains were brought here Wednesday, arriving on the afternoon train. Interment at Pine Grove cemetery.

A delegation of Norway, led by Mr. F. E. Barton, Rev. S. G. Davis and Rev. J. H. Little participated in a short service which was held at the grave.

Here and There.

It was a circumstantial and highly entertaining story of President Roosevelt killing a bear which came back from the first day of his Colorado hunt. Indeed, it was probably more entertaining than it would have been had it been true inasmuch as being made up of the whole cloth. The story writer who wishes to interest people has a great advantage when he is not confined to the facts.

New Hampshire towns may again become a Green Green. Five Maine couples who wish to avoid the delay and publicity of being "published," as it is still termed, before being married, the New Hampshire legislature has repealed the law enacted some two years ago, requiring five days' notice, so that the ceremony can now be performed on call in that state.

Governor Cobb's Fast Day proclamation is unique. Never before has a governor had the courage to refrain from any words beyond those necessary to specify the day. It's just as well. Recommendations for the people to assemble in their accustomed places of worship, etc., get scant consideration nowadays.

Two Stores Burned at Dixfield.

The stores of M. Holman & Co. and F. H. Keene at Dixfield were entirely destroyed about 1 o'clock Saturday morning by a fire which started about the furnace under the Holman store. The fire spread rapidly and nothing could be done toward saving either building, while nearly all the contents of both were lost. By the good work of the fire department, the people of Dixfield were saved and the post office was only slightly damaged. The store of J. P. Johnston was somewhat damaged.

Mrs. Powers, who lived over the Holman store, and Dr. B. A. Swasey, dentist, who had an office in the same building, lost everything. Mrs. Powers, who lived over Keene's store, lost nearly everything.

The Holman store building was owned by M. McMeekin and a partner, and was made for the sale of it to F. D. Newton, and the transfer was to have been made the morning of the fire.

The Methodist Appointments.

At the recent Methodist Conference, Rev. Charles F. Parsons, who has been pastor at Westbrook for five years, was appointed presiding elder of the Lewiston District in place of Rev. A. S. Ladd. The changes of pastors in the Lewiston District were as follows:

Rev. Parsons, who lived over the Holman store, and Dr. B. A. Swasey, dentist, who had an office in the same building, lost everything. Mrs. Powers, who lived over Keene's store, lost nearly everything.

Charles Howe has leased the blacksmith shop of Leslie E. Newell and will run it. He began business there Monday morning.

One candidate was baptized at the Easter service at the Baptist church.

Universal sorrow is felt at the news that Ex-Governor Perham is seriously ill at his home in Washington. He is reported a little more comfortable for the last two or three days.

Easter was observed at the Universalist church by two services, forenoon and evening. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion with flowers and plants. Special music was very finely rendered by a choir of eight young ladies dressed in white, as follows: Misses Maud Newell, Fannina Hammond, Josie Cole, May Bennett, Wilma Robinson, Susie Chase, Carrie Tuttle and Jessie Chase. Miss Maud Newell was given a solo in a very creditable manner. The sermons by Rev. C. A. Knickerbocker of Arlington, Mass., both morning and evening were unanimously pronounced among the very ablest ever delivered here.

Charles L. Case, Esq., of New York, with his youngest son, Lyman, arrived here on Tuesday morning for a visit. Mr. Case is looking after his various properties here and making some improvements in his summer residence.

Gilead.

Mr. A. T. Heath is sawing wood with his engine.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Hiram.

Mrs. Arthur Wadsworth is in very poor health.

Mrs. Charles W. Kennedy of Cambridge, Mass., is stopping in town.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Clemons is sick in bed with rheumatism.

The revival at East Hiram still continues. Some sixteen persons have professed religion.

He had two inches of snow on April 15th. It should be remembered that on April 15th, 1852, it snowed in Hiram eighteen inches.

There is an increasing interest in the poultry business in Hiram.

Brownfield.

The remains of Mr. Hanson of Gorham were brought to Brownfield for funeral Thursday afternoon at the Congregational church, sermon by Rev. Mr. Clough. He leaves a wife, two sons, mother, brother and a sister.

Mr. Hanson has purchased the building recently used by S. G. & F. R. Staples as a coal shop.

Mr. Oscar Poole is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hunt entertained their son's wife, Mrs. George Hunt, of Portland, recently.

Marshall Day and wife have moved into Charles Hill's house.

Wilson's Mills.

Very cold for the season with occasional snow squalls, is the weather record here for the past week.

The York Brothers, who the past week have been sawing wood by steam power for W. H. Hart, Peter Littlehale and Mrs. N. B. Storey, will still follow the sawing wood in town.

Mae Fox is helping Mrs. B. N. Storey.

Mrs. H. J. Fox is working at the mill.

Asel Wilson has bought the Fred Taylor place of M. D. Sturtevant.

Nothing special for news.

Hartford.

John T. Child was at Portland a few days ago.

Miss Winnifred Brownfield is gaining in health.

Mrs. Dorothy Cawell is working for her aunt, Mrs. Angell Higgins.

Backfield.

Sheriff Withington seized a box containing an assortment of food, and dressed a 17-year-old kid, on Tuesday. Why would it not be a good plan for the commission to investigate along the line of the railway?

The school of Norway was over to Summer this week to look after his farm, calling on his Backfield friends in passing.

How aptly the child will adopt the leading educational features of the times. It being decided to send little Harold, now going Wednesday next yet 15 years old, to school, he said to his father, "If I am going to school I must have a ball and mit."

F. P. Withington has returned from Vermont, where he has been for treatment.

Rackley Leavitt of Auburn has recently been to town.

Miss Lizzie Leavitt of North Backfield is boarding with her uncle, Dr. Heald, and attending high school.

A pair of boots was made at West Summit, parents of Mrs. T. H. Hunt, are spending a few days with their daughter and family.

Friday, April 21, Mrs. Heath rounded out her 80 year earthly sojourn. Having been neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Heath about 30 years ago, wife and I enjoyed the gay party given at Alfred M. Newell's, with old friends, especially on this day, as it partook of the nature of a reception, and tribute of respect.

Streaked Mountain.

The remains of Caroline Chesley, who died at Augusta Wednesday last, were brought here Saturday and interred in the family lot on the old farm.

Mrs. Lora Verrill intends moving on to her farm this spring. She is at present visiting friends in Auburn.

Ralph Stone, who took a trip to England last week, returned last night. He spent two days in Liverpool, and reports the city to be a place of drunkenness and poverty. He did not at all like the natives of either set.

George Tubbs is saving out the lumber at Willis' mill. It will take several weeks.

J. Frank Reed is having quite a stiff neck and a touch of rheumatism.

AN OLD MAN'S TRIBUTE.

An Ohio Fruit Raiser, 78 Years Old, Cured of a Terrible Case After Ten Years of Suffering.

When suffering daily torture from backache, rheumatic pain, any ill of kidneys or bladder,
Turn to DeWitt's Kidney Pills.
A cure endorsed by thousands.
Read an old man's tribute.

Sidney Justus, fruit dealer, of Mentor,
Ohio, says: "I was cured by DeWitt's Kidney Pills of a severe case of DeWitt's Kidney Pills."

trouble of eight or ten years' standing. I suffered
the most severe backache and other pains in the region of the kidneys.
These were especially when stooping
to lift anything, and often I could hardly straighten my back. The aching was bad in the daytime, but just as bad at night, and I was always lame in the morning. I was bothered with rheumatic pains and drustical swelling of the feet. The urinary passages were painful, and the secretions were discolored and so free that often I had to rise at night. I felt tired all day. Half a box started to relieve me, and three boxes effected a permanent cure."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Justus will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address: Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

HOMEMAKERS' COLUMN.

Correspondence on topics of interest to housewives is solicited. Editor HOMEMAKERS' COLUMN, Oxford Democrat, Paris, Maine.

We have endeavored in these columns to give our readers recipes from very experienced cooks and we shall occasionally favor them with like columns. If our readers have anything to say on the subject in this column it would be gratefully received.

Recipes of a Few Paris and South Paris Cooks.

ANNA ATWOOD'S COLD MEAT DRESSING.

4 tablespoons of vinegar, 1 egg well beaten, 1 tablespoon of sugar, 1 teaspoon of mustard, butter size of walnut; cook over hot water until it thickens, stirring constantly.

ELLEN JACKSON'S PIGS IN BLANKETS.

Season large oysters with salt and pepper, wrap in bacon cut very thin and fasten with small wooden toothpicks; heat a frying pan very hot and put in the "little pigs"; cook enough to crisp the bacon; put on small slices of toast and serve immediately. Do not remove the toothpicks.

EMMA HUBBARD'S CABBAGE SALAD DRESSING.

Beat 2 eggs very light, and stir in 1-2 cup of cream, mix a teaspoon of mustard in 3 tablespoons of vinegar until smooth, add the eggs, pour in a double bottle over the first, add 2 teaspoons of salt and 1 teaspoon of sugar. Stir until smooth and thick as cream. Remove from fire and stir in slowly 2 tablespoons of melted butter. Have vegetable and dressing very cold before mixing and serve at once. This dressing will keep several days if kept in an ice box.

LIZZIE THAYER'S ELMHURST SALAD.

Head of lettuce, stalks of celery cut in dice shape, 2 juicy apples cut in thin slices. Place a few of the lettuce leaves around a salad bowl, tear the others in small bits and mix with the celery and apples. Place on ice and serve. French dressing on the whole just before serving.

EMMA HUBBARD'S SALAD DRESSING WITH OIL.

1 tablespoon of mustard, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1-10 teaspoon red pepper, 1 teaspoon of salt, yolks of 4 eggs, Juice of 2 lemons, 1-2 cup of vinegar, 1 pint of oil, 1 cup of whipped cream. Beat the eggs with salt, pepper, etc., until light, then commence with a few drops of oil at a time, stirring all the time. When quite stiff add a little vinegar and so on alternately with the oil, which can be added in large quantities after it begins to thicken. It should be very thick when the last of the oil has been added;
then add lemon juice. Just before serving add one cup of cream; cream may be omitted. Set in bowl in a pan of ice water.

FANNIE PIERCE'S MARBLE PLECK
PICKLES.

1 gallon of cold vinegar, 3 onions sliced, 1-4 pound of ground mustard, 1-4 pound of salt, 1 ounce of white ginger-root, 2 ounces of mustard seed, 2 ounces pepper-corns, 1 ounce stick cinnamon, 1 ounce whole cloves; the above articles put into the vinegar locus, excepting the ground mustard, which is put in a bag. Wash the cucumbers and put in the above preparation cold. Stir frequently.

ELLEN JACKSON'S CODFISH AND EGGS.

Soak over night the fish. Remove from water, place in fresh water and let boil a few minutes. Pick up fish, and mix 5 eggs boiled hard and chopped; just before serving put 1 tablespoon of butter and 1 of flour in pan on top of stove and melt. When ready to serve add a little hot water to melted butter and flour, mix with codfish and eggs and serve on a hot platter.

EMMA HUBBARD'S VERMICELLI EGGS.

8 hard boiled eggs, cut whites into small pieces, (do not chop), sprinkle with salt; make a rich cream sauce, made with 1 pint of hot milk, 1 tablespoon of flour mixed with 2 tablespoons of butter, then add hot cream and double boiler until thick; add whites of eggs and stir until smooth. Boil ten minutes. Free the yolks of eggs through a strainer over the top. Serve hot.

MRS. JACKSON'S CREAM OF CORN SOUP.

Put 1 can of corn and 1 pint of water in a sauce pan, cook slowly 30 minutes then press through a sieve, put 1-2 pints of milk on to boil in a double boiler, rub 2 tablespoons of butter and 1 heaping tablespoon of flour, add to boiling milk and cook until thick and smooth; thicken; add this to corn, salt and pepper to taste; let it come to a boil and serve immediately.

EMMA PARK'S CHOCOLATE CAKE.

3 squares of chocolate melted, 1-2 cup sugar, milk, yolks of 4 eggs, 1 tablespoon of sugar, mix and cook until smooth.
Let cool.

PAINT 2d.

1 egg and white of another, 1 cup of sugar, 1-2 cup sweet milk, 1-2 cup butter, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 even cups flour, flavor with vanilla. Mix parts together.

ANNA MORSE'S FRUIT CAKE.

2 cups brown sugar, 1-2 cup molasses,
1 cup butter, 1-2 cup milk, 4 cups flour,
4 eggs, 2 cups raisins, 1 cup currants, 1 lb.
citron.

ANNA BILLINGS' COOKIES.

1-2 cups sugar, 1 cup butter, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs, 2 teaspoons soda, 4 of cream tartar. Beat the butter and sugar, brush over the top and sprinkle with sugar before putting into the oven.
Mix quite soft, and flavor to taste. Car-rings. Bake a hot oven. Half of the quantity is what I use.

ANNA ATWOOD'S DARK CAKE.

1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup butter, 1-2 cup molasses, 1-2 cup milk, 1-2 cup milk, 2 cups flour, equal amounts of nuts and raisins. If I have thick sour cream I use one cup leaving out the butter and milk.

MRS. JACKSON'S SPONGE CAKE.

5 eggs, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup flour, 1-4 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cream tartar, 1-4 cup of molasses, 1-4 cup of lemon juice and yolks together until it creams, then the whites of eggs beaten to a stiff froth, then flour. Bake one hour in a slow oven.

EMMA PARK'S GINGER SNAPS.

2 cups of molasses brought to a foaming boil, 1 cup sugar, 1-12 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon vinegar, ginger; stir this well, then add two eggs well beaten.
Mix stiff.

ANNA MORSE'S STRAWBERRY PUFF.

1 cup very ripe strawberries, 1 cup of sugar, white of 1 egg. Beat the white of egg stiff and then add the sugar and strawberries. Beat thoroughly 30 minutes. Put between layers of a white cake and on top.

MRS. JACKSON'S STRAWBERRY SHORT-CAKE.

Bake two crisp crusts (prick with a fork before baking so that it will not puff up with air holes) and fill one crust with crushed sweetened berries; fill the upper one with whipped cream and decorate with large berries rolled in sugar.

MRS. BILLINGS' COCONUT PIE.

1 cup of sugar, 1-2 cup of water, yolks of 4 eggs, a piece of butter size of an egg, 1-2 cups of flour, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoonful of cream tartar.
Bake in three or four pie pans as desired.
After beating the whites to a stiff froth, stir in a cupful of sugar and a cupful of desiccated coconut. Put this between the layers. If desired use only 3 of the whites between the layers, reserving one for frosting. Sprinkle some of the dry coconut over the frosting.

FRUIT PUNDRING.

3-4 box of gelatine, 2 oranges, 2 lemons, any kind; soak gelatine in 1-2 pint of cold water one hour, add 1 pint of boiling water, juice of lemons, and 2 cups of sugar; strain, pour into mould and let stand until it begins to harden.
Then add all the fruit and cream or soft custard.

FORGET ABOUT YOUR STOMACH.

If your indigestion is bad the vital organs of your body are not fed and nourished as they should be. They grow weak and invite disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is what you need, cure indigestion and all stomach troubles. You forget you have a stomach until it troubles you to begin taking food. This is because it gets a rest—cures and gradually grows so strong and healthy that it troubles you no more. E. B. Bock, Amherst, Minn., says: "I have taken a great many remedies for indigestion but have found nothing equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a natural digestive, it cures indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn and all stomach troubles.
Its preparation is the result of many years of research. Sold by F. A. Shurt-liff & Co.

Mr. Wise—My brother particularly requested that you should sing at his funeral.

Miss Scroocher—Why did he want me to sing?

Mr. Wise—So everybody would feel sorry he was dead, I guess.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS CURED.

For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper, writes Mr. Joseph Coffman of Montmone, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have been cured of chronic cough, colds, whooping cough, croup and all the ailments of the throat and lungs. I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." F. A. Shurtliff & Co.
