Rips wild strawberries were reported Sunday, June 4th.

J. M. Knight of Jamaica Plain was in town for a few days last week.

Miss Martha Maxim of North Cambridge, Mass., has recently visited in town.

H. D. McAllister has sold his house, known as the Bemis place, to Nelson G. Eldred.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tribon of Machias are with their daughter, Mrs. F. C. Tribon, for a few weeks.

Next Sunday evening Rev. H. A. Clifford will preach at Oxford to the senior class of the high school.

F. A. Helder of Springfield, Mass., traveling salesman for the Paris Manufacturing Co., is in town.

Mrs. C. A. Record and son Miles of Assinippi, Mass., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Crockett.

Subject at the Universalist Young People's meeting next Sunday: Loyalty to the friends, Right, Christ, and God.

The place on Hill Street, recently occupied by Mrs. Merinda Cummings, has been sold to Miss Martha Maxim of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. S. L. Chipman and Mrs. Clark Wayland of East Portland, Maine, were guests of E. N. Anderson and family Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Henry Fletcher was elected secretary and treasurer of the Oxford County Sunday School Association which met last week at Rumford Falls.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will meet in the church parlor for the regular social and business meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

During the summer months and September, the street railway will run one car later at night than the regular schedule, leaving Norway at 10:30 and South Paris at 10:45.

This Monday evening at 7:30 will be the opening session of the series of meetings, to be held every Saturday, to be given by Rev. C. A. Hayden of Augusta.

Mrs. G. E. Dooliver came from Baltimore about a week since on business for the United States.

Mr. J. D. Haines has been visiting for a few days by his aunt, Miss Harriet West of Sumner.

S. C. Ordway and family spent a few days the first of last week at his former home at North Woodstock.

Miss Julia P. Morton is at home from Andover, Mass., where she teaches the third grade being called on account of scarlet fever.

Several morning meetings last week. Those who had numbers up shared the fate of the early winter, unless the plans were covered.

The wives and ladies of Odd Fellows are asked to meet with the Rebekahs at Odd Fellows Hall next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and help to make a success of the Odd Fellows memorial service June 11th.

The Grand Trunk started the Berlin excursion on Sunday, and it will continue through the summer. The train now gets here at 10:22, one hour later than the paper train has been, and goes down at 6 P. M. as before.

John E. Stephens of Rumford Falls is in town with a day in the village with an automobile for sale. One branch of Mr. Stephens' business is selling automobiles, and he has disposed of a number of them in the past year or two.

The new automobile law went into effect June 1st. If you see a benzine buggy out without its registration number displayed on the front and back, in Arabic numerals not less than 2 inches in height, hold it up and ask the driver—leg pardon, chauffeur—about it.

W. D. Clark, who recently bought the Jordan House, on the corner of High and Gothic Streets, will build a new addition in place of the one now standing there. The old house has been sold to C. M. Johnson, who will move it to a lot which he has purchased on Myrtle Street. The chimneys are already down, in preparation for the moving.

The June number of The Chronicle, published by the students of Paris High School, was issued Thursday morning. It is a beautiful publication, and is a very attractive looking number, in a white cover printed in garnet ink. It contains the usual variety of literary matter, and is a very interesting and valuable number. It is a fine half-tone portrait of him for the frontispiece.

As announced in our advertising columns, the state assessors will be in session at the court house Thursday of next week, June 15, to "secure information" to enable them to make a just and accurate assessment, etc. At these meetings the assessors of the several towns are expected to be present with their valuation books, subject to examination, and confer with the state assessors. Three such meetings are held in this county, one at Rumford Falls, one at Berlin, and the third at Fryeburg on the 16th.

There was a quiet wedding in Gardner Thursday evening, June 1st, at the home of Frank C. Wise, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wise of this place. The bride, Miss Hattie Maud, the youngest sister of the bride, was united in marriage with William J. Field of Hallowell.

The best man was Ralph W. Crockett, of Lewiston. The bridesmaids were Miss Hattie Maud, the youngest sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. H. Clark of the Baptist Church. Later the happy couple took the train for their future home in Nashua, N. H.

A recent instance of hoodlumism: In order to give immediate access to the engine house without leaving the building open, Chief Engineer Bowker has hung a key in a box with a glass front, beside the door of the building, to break the glass. When the box was put up he left a stone on the top of it. On going later to hang the hammer, he found the glass already broken, and thought there had been no fire alarm and no occasion for disturbing it. Evidently the mischief was done, as we Yankees say, out of "pure spite and malice."

Last Monday a brush fire started by Henry W. Fuller on his place about two miles east of the village got out of bounds and did some damage and threatened considerable more before it was got under control. Workman Bowker and a crew crew at work near by left their work and went to fight fire, and telephone calls brought in neighbors and a few from the village until a force of some twenty-five men was engaged. In the course of the afternoon the fire was checked and reduced to the point where only a few watchmen were required to take care of it. Besides some acres of small growth which were burned, O. K. Clifford lost some home-land which was recently cut and peeled, a quantity of hemlock bark, and fifteen or twenty cords of four-foot wood.

A piano recital was given by Miss Nellie Jackson and Miss Ida Dean, pupils of Mrs. Clara S. Briggs at the local club Saturday afternoon, to which a number of friends were invited. Light refreshments were served by Miss Eva Sweet and Miss Sarah Jones. The program was as follows:

Germany.....Moscow

Song of the Bathers.....Bavaria

In Brilliant Uniform.....Sardinia

Venetian Suite....."A Day in Venice,".....Santo Domingo

Fluttering Lilies.....Kooling

This place was played on the clavichord, and then put on to the first time of the piece.
